

THE LEGISLATURE.

Before another issue of this paper appears the Oregon Legislature of 1882 will have convened and questions momentous to us all, and some of interest to the United States at large will arise for determination and settlement.

While the tendency of the GAZETTE, for many years has been republican in politics, yet we want it distinctly understood that its columns are open to any reasonable extent, for a fair discussion of all political views no matter whether Independent Greenback, Republican, Democratic, as well as any other question of public importance.

The course of the Oregonian towards John H. Mitchell and especially in garbling and attempting to mislead as to the conduct of that gentleman while in the United States Senate, is certainly and most assuredly calculated to be of benefit to his reelection rather than harm.

other against Mr. Fredrick Billings and his associates of the same company. These suits were brought to prevent the issue of eighteen million of alleged fraudulent stock and the doing of a large number of other alleged fraudulent acts.

Washington, Sept. 2.—Secretary Lincoln is more amused than annoyed at the frantic endeavor of certain persons to break up the President's cabinet and furnish the executive a new set of officers.

Alexandria, Sept. 4.—The uneasiness among the Europeans is unabated, and sensational rumors of every kind are circulated to-night. A report that the French consul general had asked for transports to remove the French troops has proved to be untrue.

they will work for the state ticket, but are making a fight particularly for congressmen and will use money in the close districts.

London, Sept. 4.—The times says though General Walseley does not require a third division the government is determined to strengthen his hands by sending three battalions of infantry to Gen. Wood.
