

ed to extend their pastures. But little grain is produced as yet except for home use. Beef and mutton have been to considerable extent furnished of late much wood has been disposed of. The capabilities of the precinct especially for stock raising is fully equal to any other portion of the moun tain country.

Work done to order on short notice and a reasonable rates. Corvallis, July 1, 1881.

their flocks to stock their ranches lies east of the Cascades. Last year which is naturally slow at the start. Astegon had about 800,000 acres in Many small fields of the tame grasses wheat which produced nearly 13,are seen; from these the seed is procur- 000,000 bushels, or fully 16 bushels to the acre. The average amount of wheat produced per acre in the whole United States during the last ten years was to the Corvallis and other markets and 13 bushels per acre. In 1881 which was considerably below average as regards yield there were 37,709,020 acres sown in wheat in the United States which produced only 380,280.-

000 bus, or an average of a little over The population is about 250, The 10 bushels to the acre. The average opportunity for taking farmes are fully amount of wheat produced in Ore-

anything I ask him. He had a sore ly thus killing him, and hurling his throat and wanted something for it, soul into the regions of the drunkand the boss drugger told me to put ards hell. This boy dies a drunksome tannin and chlorate of potash ard-he has been mardered-he is in a mortar and grind, and I let pa buried as an outcast. All alone for pound it with the mortar, and while father and mother are gone. Now he was pounding I dropped in a contrast the case of these two sons, couple of drops of sulphuric acid, the man that killed the first did it all and it exploded and blowed pa's hat alone, he held no license in his hand clear across the store, and pa was signed by honorable men to justify whiter than a sheet. He said he him in hts work, the victim had noth guessed his throat was all right, and ing to do with his death, there is but he wouldn't come near me again that one guilty character in the whole day. The next day pa came in and tranaction and that is the assassin. I was laying for him. I took a white Not so with the other case, the boys seidletz powder and a blue one and death was brought about for his mon dissolved them in separate glasses, ey. That is just what the highwayas good as any other portions of the gon in 1882 was 64 bus, per head of and when pa came in I asked him it men kill men for it is for their money. country. The people are greatly in population and in the United States he didn't want some lemonade, and The vendor of ardent spirits as a by moonlight which he has successneed of a postoffice, as there is not one but 25 bushels. Oregon produces he drank it. He said it was too sour beverage is a curse to his race and fully tried. A picture exhibited in the precinct, most of the people re- more wheat per head than any other and I gave him the other glass, his death would be a blessing to his shows a house and trees very dis ecciving their mail at Philomath 20 to State in the Union. There are mil- that looked like water, to take the generations, yea and to unborn gen- tinctly, while the differences in level 30 miles distance by the route travel. lions of acres in Oregon not yet in taste out of his mouth, and he drank erations. He will have a fearful ac- on a grassy lawn may be dearly 19:27y1. There three school houses I back cultivation which will produce large it. Well sir, when those two pow- count to give, let hold on to his li- seen.

jected by the people. Thomas Jefferson never made a speech. Ile couldn't do it. Napoleon, whose excutive ability is almost without parallel, said that his greatest difficulty was finding men of deeds rather than words. When asked how he maintained his influence over his superiors in age and experience when commander-in-chief of an army in Italy, he said by reserve. The greatest of man is not measured by length of his speeches and their number.

Mr. Frank Moffat has described to the Edinburgh Photographic Society a process for obtaining photographs