LOCAL NOTES.

First class clocks just received by P. P. Greflow. For the best pocket knives go to Will Bros. The McCulla passed here yesterday morning on her way up the river.

Town property and farm land for sale or trade. Inquire at the GAZETTE office. An unusual amount of business has been brought the grand jury this term of court.

Legal blanks furnished at this office on short notice at less than San Francisco prices. Go to August Knight's one of the best workmen in the State and buy your furniture and bedding.

At Will Bros. you can get most any kind of fish hooks, lines, or rods you want; go and see for yourself. Your place to buy the cheapest and best harness and saddles in the valley is at S. A. Hemphill's well known stand.

The O. & C. R. Co., are advertising for men and teams to work on the southern extension and are offering good wages. It is expected that not less than $5,000, 000 will be expended in new buildings in Portland and Albina the coming summer.

Our city is unusually well filled this week occasioned by the session of the circuit court and our hotels are filled to overflowing. The dance loving portion of Philomath are going to indulge in mirth and music on the 6th of the coming month in Kisor's new hall.

E. C. Vaughan has a nicely assorted stock of groceries, crockery, and glassware for sale on the best and most reasonable terms. The water at Spokane Falls descends, in about half a mile 137 feet, in three jumps, 57 for the upper, 70 for the lower and 10 for the rapids below.

Our farmers who have cattle for sale will find a ready market these days as the country is being secured with purchasers offering fair prices. On and after April 2 the west side division will put on another passenger train, to be run between McMinnville and Portland, and will make the round trip daily.

A Mr. Wickelsham has taken the position of conductor between here and Portland in the place of Mr. Conner who leaves in a few days to take a like position up on the Northern Pacific. The show windows in C. H. Whitney's new store have been tastefully arranged with a fine display of goods which gives that end of the city a business appearance.

The O. R. & N. Co. will put on another steamer to ply between San Francisco and Portland about the first of the month, as the three now in use are not equal to the demand. Travel to the bay is quite brisk and the mail carrier has to do some fine figuring to get them all over there without using extra teams as the roads are very bad since our recent rains.

Laban Sanders who was indicted by the grand jury was found guilty of the larceny of a steer as charged in the indictment and today (Friday) at 10 o'clock the judge will pass sentence. We keep constantly on hand at this office a large lot and variety of stationery letter heads, bill heads, envelopes, and papers of different kinds which we furnish at the lowest possible prices.

Next Saturday the Monmouth boys are expected up here to contest in a game of baseball with the college nine of this place. If the weather will permit the game will be quite interesting and hotly contested. The Brush electric light is an assured fact so far as Portland is concerned. Nearly 100 lights have been contracted for in the business portion of the city. The lights will be brightly shining here before long.

Merry Mason the fine Clatsop Station will stand the season of 1883 at Sol King's stable in Corvallis, Benton county Oregon, 3 days out of each week commencing April 5th 1883. D. GREGG, Owner. Max Friendly shipped to Portland yesterday two car loads of ash lumber, this being the first shipment of the season. Mr. Friendly intends being an extensive business in this line this season both in the shipment of ash and maple.

Since our issue of last week, under the head of Newport Items, wherein was stated that a slight fire in the Irvin house was evidently the work of an incendiary we have since learned that such was not correct but it was the result of accident. In the report of the condition of grain published in the Commercial Herald a farmer of 37 years experience writes from Benton county that he is of the opinion that with the land in good condition crops will be very good and the yield larger than last year.

Ben Johnson, the Indian who has grazed the inner walls of the county calaboose for the past eight or ten months awaiting trial both for larceny and murder, was cleared of the former charge during the week, but will continue to be a guest of the county until the charge of murder has been disposed of. The initial number of the Commercial Herald, published at Portland, has been received this week, and if the first issue may be considered a criterion of its future endeavors we bespeak for the newspaper unbounded success. It is an eight page, five column weekly, filled with commercial facts and figures.

Hamilton Boyd of Portland died last Saturday. He was at one time Mayor of Portland. John W. Moore Jr., is announced as a candidate for the office of city marshal, at the coming election. A banquet was recently given at Portland in honor of the expected departure of J. W. Whaley to Europe. We regret to chronicle the illness of Mr. Neugass who has been confined to his bed for the past few days. I have used Oregon Blood Purifier for neuralgia, it cooled my blood and nerves at once. Mrs. ANNA SMITH. The Occident took on 500 sacks of wheat and a like amount of oats at Cauthorn's wharf on last Tuesday. Smallpox is prevailing in many cities up on the sound and the people of Walla Walla have quarantined themselves against many of the infected places. The weekly Northwest News since being enlarged to twelve pages is much improved and bears the appearance of that energy which leads to success. Wells, Fargo & Co. won their suit against the O. R. & N. Co. This will prevent the Northern Pacific Express Company from monopolizing the business. Mr. Simon A. Kline, of this city, having returned from San Francisco recently where he purchased a large and well selected stock of general merchandise for the firm of L. C. Kline & Co., of this place, which has been arriving for several days. Their spring stock will be complete in about one week; hence and they invite all their old friends and patrons as well as many new ones to call and partake thereof on the most reasonable terms.

From Scotland. Mr. George Rate, wife, two sons and a daughter, arrived on the last steamer. They left Scotland on the 24 of March, arriving in Portland on the 29th inst. Mr. Rate will take charge of the famous Armstrong farm in Yamhill county, and the Coon farm in Marion county, eight miles south of Salem. Mr. R. is a man of large experience in farming in Scotland, and will doubtless prove to be a useful citizen to Oregon.

The Salem Statesman has the following to say regarding one of Benton's old and respected citizens: Judge C. E. Moore and wife, of Benton county, moved to our city on yesterday. They have taken charge of the Snowden house just east of the University campus, and will on the 16th of April open the Blind school. The Judge and his family will make valuable additions to Salem society, and will make very efficient managers of the school for the unfortunate blind.

Limbs of the Law. Attorneys in attendance upon this present term of Circuit Court at this place are the presiding Judge R. S. Bean of Eugene City, Prosecuting Attorney, E. G. Hurst of Roseburg, Judges R. S. Straan, L. Finin, W. R. Blyen, L. H. Montaney and J. J. Whitney of Albany, W. S. Hufford of Newport, and resident attorneys Judges John Burnett, John Kealey, W. S. McFadden, J. E. Bryson, E. Holgate and H. W. Keesee, J. W. Rayburn, F. M. Johnson and M. S. Woodcock. We regret to state that the health of Judge F. A. Cheworth who has been in attendance for so many years is so poor that he is unable to be in attendance upon the active work of the court, although he is in town.

Hops. During the last week says the Salem Statesman, the firm of Williams & England, of this city, have sold two farms, one of over 700 acres, belonging to Mr. David Delaney, to Mr. J. R. Dickenson; the other was the farm of F. E. Payne, to Mr. J. W. Hodson. The price paid in both cases was $40 per acre cash. Mr. Dickenson is from the hop yards of Payallup Valley, W. T., and it is his intention to plant 100 acres to hops. Being a practical hop-grower he knows whereof he speaks, and he says that the lands he has bought are equal to the best for hop culture, and he is of the opinion that no better country can be found, and that the development of this resource is yet in its infancy. Mr. Hodson will also plant a large acreage in hops. It would therefore appear that the hop "boom" has struck Marion county as well as Lane.

Another Town on the River. The Standard says: W. O. Allen, E. S. Comas and G. W. Sayers have purchased a tract of over 400 acres of land, situated on the Oregon side of the Columbia, about three-quarters of a mile above Kalama, extending along the river from the foot of Deer Island to Title creek, on which they propose locating a city, to be called Lemore. They expect that the landing of the monster ferry of the N. P. R. R. will be at that place, and that when the road from this city is completed to that point, many deep water ships will be loaded there. There is plenty of water in front of their town site, the main ship channel being only about sixty feet from the shore there.

Vomited up a Live Lizard. For some time past James Kelly, a brakeman on the East-side train, says the Sunday Welcome, has been suffering with internal pains that almost distracted him and have defied the best doctors and all the drug stores in town to cure. On Tuesday he was taken with a violent fit of vomiting, and after a very severe effort threw into the vessel in front of him a live lizard, fully two inches long. How the reptile found its way down Mr. Kelly's throat is a mystery, but it is supposed to have come from drinking the stale water kept in the alleged "coolers" on the train, Kelly swallowing the unwelcome tenant in embryotic shape.

Watson-Kinney. The Statesman of the 22nd says: United States District Attorney J. F. Watson was married yesterday to Mrs. A. Kinney, of Salem, in Portland. Both parties are well known and have a great many warm personal friends throughout the State and are very popular. The wedding was private and unostentatious.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions reported by the committee and adopted by the Corvallis Lodge No. 14 A. F. and A. M., at a stated communication held on the 21st day of March 1883. WHEREAS, It has pleased God in his all wise Providence to remove from our midst by death our W. M. and brother, John Keese and feeling it to be our duty that we owe to our departed brother to give this last tribute of respect to his memory. Therefore be it

Resolved, That in the death of our brother John Keese this lodge has lost its head; and this lodge and the masonic fraternity universally an active, zealous and energetic member, his family a kind and affectionate husband and father and the community a generous, upright and useful citizen.

Resolved, That while we fully realize that no words of sympathy or condolence which we can express will compensate for or replace the great loss his family has sustained by the death of our brother yet we can assure them that his memory will be fondly cherished in the breasts of his brethren.

Resolved, That those resolutions be copied in the minutes of the lodge, a duly authenticated copy thereof be furnished to the family of our deceased brother and a copy to each of the newspapers in the town with a request to publish. (Signed) E. HOLGATE, THOS. E. CAUTHORN, J. SANDERS, J. SANDERS, Chairman.

Fishing Wheel. The fish-wheel, we learn from an exchange, for scooping up salmon during the high water of spring, which was so successful last year as a fish destroyer, is to be again used this season on the Columbia, only on a larger scale. Last year, in one day and night, 4,000 fish of salmon were scooped up and thrown upon the shore. The wheels are built with plank paddles, on projecting rock, so that the water running down and striking them sets the wheel revolving. Within the wheels are placed two large net scoops which catch the salmon when coming up stream, whirl them around and then dump them into chute boxes arranged for their reception on the shore. The wholesale destruction by this method will soon deplete this stream of the noble salmon and to prevent this possibility there should be some law passed to restrict or do away with the wheel.

A Morrible Death. Just as the Steamer, State of California, was leaving the wharf at Astoria, yesterday morning, a deck-hand named Youman, of the tug Gen. Miles, stood on the tug as the State of California was backing to get out. The steamer was moving stern on toward the tug and came near a collision with it. Youman sprang on the rail of the tug with a fender to prevent damage. The collision, which was sudden, but not violent, jarred him off, and he fell into the water right where the great propeller of the steamer was churning the water at a fearful rate, and the man disappeared. Drowning was commenced immediately. Two hours after the grapple hooked on to the body. It had evidently been sucked under by and gone through the State's propeller. There were several gasps in the head, the neck was broken, one arm and one leg were broken. The other arm was torn from its socket. He was a steady, industrious man and worked a long time for Brown & McCabe, stevedores in Portland and Astoria.

Extensive Hop Interests. An exchange says: A short time ago we stated that an expert searcher had been looking up the title to the property in the forks of the Santiam and the Willamette, that 1000 acres were purchased and set out for a hop yard. Since then deeds from different owners of property in that place have been made out to Robert Bell, of Portland and the purchase price handed over. The price per acre ranges from ten to forty dollars. Instead of 1000 acres, 2100 acres will be purchased, making this one of the largest hop yards in the northwest. Already some of the hops have been set. It is said that this tract of land is peculiarly fitted for hop raising on account of its moist condition. The overflow of the rivers putting it in splendid condition for hops.

Coos Bay Improvements. Col. Thomas Beale came up this week from the Coquille county to attend to business here in Roseburg, says the Plaindealer. He reports times lively in Coos. He says that great preparations are being made for extensive logging this season, and that there will be no less than three railroads built this summer in Coos, one by Mr. Flanagan from Coak Bank south to Isthmus slough, one by H. H. Lane & Co. from Summer to Coquille City and the third by the Durgen Bros. from Isthmus slough into the timber for a distance of about one and a quarter mile. They propose to use steel rails in the construction of these roads and make permanent things out of them.

His Body Stashed. A convict in the state prison lately sent up, died suddenly in that institution last week and was buried the following day. The circumstances of his death, it seems, caused some suspicion of curiosity, and an examination was determined upon by the medical attendants of the penitentiary. But on opening the grave it was found to be empty. The presumption is that the student of the medical department of the city availed themselves of this opportunity to secure a desirable subject.

Seal Fishing. Seal fishing bids fair to be a paying business off Cape Flattery this year, says the Port Townsend Argus, as the run is large and the number of schooners in that trade is limited. The largest catch so far this winter for a single trip was made by the schooner Mist, Capt. Wm. Bogart—twenty-nine seals in a day and a half, with but two canoes.

MARRIED. KRAPE-HORNING—At the Evangelical parsonage, on Wednesday, March 28, 1883, by the Rev. A. Kreeker, Mr. Samuel Krape of Portland, Or. and Miss Cynthia A. Horning of Corvallis, Or.

"White Elephant" Potato.

CORVALLIS, Or., March 26, 1883. Mr. Editor:—Please allow me to invite the attention of farmers to a new variety of potatoes. The Agricultural College has carefully tested the "White Elephant." About two years ago, J. M. Thorburn, a seedman of New York, sent one potato to the college, to be tested. The yield was large. Seeds have been distributed among farmers, and the yield and quantity have been quite satisfactory. The potato is long, large, smooth, and white. Flavor excellent. A limited quantity for seed can be obtained from Mr. Wm. Creech, a farmer living near Corvallis. From all accounts, this is one of the very best varieties in cultivation; and I should like for it to be more extensively tested in different parts of the county and state.

Very respectfully, R. J. HAWTHORN.

Temperance Meeting.

Pursuant to a call issued by Corvallis Lodge I. O. G. T. and the W. C. T. U. of Corvallis, the public assembled at the City hall on last Friday evening, the 23rd inst, for the purpose of taking into consideration the organization of a County Temperance Alliance.

The meeting was called to order by Dr. T. V. B. Embree who also acted as chairman of the meeting. C. H. Whitney was appointed secretary.

After singing by the choir the meeting was opened with a prayer by Rev. H. P. Dunning.

Dr. J. R. Bayley being called for responded in a short address stating the object of the meeting as being in compliance with the resolutions passed at the late session of the Oregon State Temperance Alliance urging upon temperance people the importance of thorough organization and recommending the organization of County Alliances to be subordinate to the State Temperance Alliance. On motion of Mr. J. W. Will a committee on the organization was ordered appointed; this committee to have full power to organize an Alliance, appoint a committee to issue a call for a general session, and to make such other arrangements as the committee might deem necessary.

In compliance with the requirement of the above motion the chairman appointed the following named persons to serve on said committee: Presbyterian church, Dr. J. R. Bayley. S. S. Mr. E. C. Vaughan. M. E. church, south, Mrs. J. A. Cauthorn. S. S. Mr. Andrew Buchanan. Evangelical church, Mr. A. F. Heschner. S. S. Mr. Emory Allen. Episcopal church, Mr. Wallis Nash. S. S. Mr. Wallis Nash. Christian church, Miss McFadden. M. E. church, north, Mr. Starr. S. S. Mr. J. W. Williams. Baptist church, Miss Emma Allphin. W. C. T. U. Mrs. Lewis Wilson. I. O. G. T., Dr. T. V. B. Embree.

On motion of Dr. Bayley it was voted that the chairman of this meeting be authorized to issue the call for the meeting of the committee.

The meeting was then favored with select readings by Mrs. Terwilliger, Miss Willard and Miss Emma Allphin.

Misses Lulu Miller, Nellie Simmons and Georgia Vincent entertained the meeting by singing some temperance songs which were highly applauded.

The call for ten minutes speeches was responded to by Rev. H. P. Dunning, Wolverson and Bell, who expressed themselves as gratified to note the interest manifested in the meeting and predicted good results as a reward to the efforts of the people in the work of reform.

Mrs. Dennick being present was invited to address the meeting but declined upon the ground that she was not present representing any church or temperance society. At this juncture and as though it were necessary that no break should occur in the proceedings, little Edie Belknap came forward and favored the meeting with a recitation which was delivered in splendid style and was loudly applauded.

The thanks of the meeting are due to Misses Hays, Gingles, Willard, Parsons, Thompson and McFarland and to Messrs Will, Brock, Bell and Hershner, for music furnished for the occasion.

Yaquina Bay Items. (Pickings from the Post.) The citizens expect to have an excellent school under way before many weeks. Vast flocks of brants have filled the air in and about the Bay with their melodious cries during the week. Flounders are very plentiful and large this season. Oyster shells to be the favorite grounds for this excellent fish, and many ponds are caught there every day. The Bay is full of herring. Mr. Bryant caught a long string of them on Tuesday with no other aid than his bare hands. A man with a scoop net can catch barrels of them in a short time. This is the best place for fish.

We are informed that new and convicting evidence has been obtained, within the past few days, in the Hutchinson-McKee murder case, and the fact was telegraphed to the district attorney.

Thanks. We take this opportunity of extending our thanks to the friends who so kindly assisted in the last sickness of our mother, Rachael Pitman late deceased. ETNA WILLIAM, OLIVER WITHEAL.

First class clocks just received by P. P. Greflow.

The School for the Blind.

The school for the education of the blind will be opened in the city of Salem, on Monday, April 16th, 1883, and continue in session eight weeks, at the expiration of which time it will be closed for the summer vacation.

The school will be re-opened, for the first term of the regular school year, on Monday, September 3, 1883.

Mrs. E. J. Dawne, former principal of the school, has been employed as principal teacher for the first term. In securing the services of Mrs. Dawne, the success of the educational department is assured. The necessity for a practical, energetic, experienced and earnest teacher to occupy the responsible and perplexing position of principal teacher in the school for the blind is apparent.

The loss of vision renders the task of instructing, disciplining and governing a most laborious work. Should the number of pupils, during the first term, be so large as to require an additional teacher, an efficient one will be provided.

A competent music teacher will be employed. Pupils will be received at the boarding hall as early as April 12th. It is earnestly requested that all who can make it convenient to attend during the opening term will be present at the above time.

The school will be held in the Snowden building, a large and commodious house, located at the corner of State and 12th streets, in this city. Pupils who expect to attend the school are requested to provide themselves with articles for the toilet.

The superintendents, matron, and the teachers of the school, will endeavor to exercise a constant and kindly care over all pupils committed to their charge.

All persons, in the State, desiring further information in regard to the school will apply in person or by letter to the superintendent. All communications will be promptly answered. Southern and Eastern Oregon papers please copy.

C. E. MOORE, Superintendent. SALEM, Or., March 16, 1883.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE. In the matter of the estate of Stephen King deceased. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of Sale duly made by the County Court, of the State of Oregon, for Benton County, on Tuesday the 6th day of February, 1883, the real and personal property of said estate, and duly entered in the Journal of said court, directing and commanding me, Pernelle King, administratrix of said estate, to sell at public auction all the right, title and estate, that the said Stephen King had at the time of his death, in and to the following described premises to-wit:

The undivided sixth part of and to 120 acres Real Property heretofore set off as the dower of Almela J. King and more particularly described as follows: Beginning at the Northwest corner of claim No. 22, T. 10, S. 1, W. 2, Thence south 25.00 chains, East 29.48 chains, North 14.00 chains, West 14.28 chains, North 21.92 chains, West 36.30 chains, to place of beginning containing 150 Acres in Benton County, Oregon.

Also as follows: Commencing at the Southwest corner of claim No. 20, T. 10, S. 1, W. 2, N. 60, 51.42, Thence running East to the Kings Valley road, thence following said road to the North line of South half of said claim, thence South on the west line of said claim to the place beginning containing about 65 acres more or less in Benton County, State of Oregon.

Therefore in accordance with and in pursuance of said order of sale, I, Pernelle King, administratrix of said estate of Stephen King deceased will on SATURDAY THE 7th DAY OF APRIL A. D. 1883, at the hour of one o'clock P. M. of said day, in front of the court house door in the City of Corvallis, in Benton County, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and estate which the said Stephen King deceased had at the time of his death, in and to the above described premises, together with the appertaining thereto belonging to, to-wit: a mortgage loan in favor of L. Vanhook on the above described premises and other debts against said estate together with costs and expenses of administering said estate.

PERNELLE KING, Administratrix of the estate of Stephen King deceased. By CRAWFORD & JONSON, Her Attorneys. 20-115w
