Our city is very exacting regarding high license and questions of this nature. "Hoodlums" who happen in the city and become too overjoyful are taken up and calabossed; but the drink shops who run their dives all day on Sunday with a full crowd on the inside are permitted to sail along in defiance of the laws or more properly putting it they are permitted to sail along as happy as clams because of a failure to enforce the laws.

ing with it to purchase an electoral vote in order to secure the count in his favor? If Mr. Tilden was so pure why was part of his barrel rolled down into the southern states in order to secure and elector there? It seems natural for democracy to claim to be all pure. But they were never known to denounce or even mention corruption in their leaders.

Dispatches from New York of June 25th in regard to pauper immigrants state that "the emigration commissioners held a special meeting to consider measures to prevent pauper immigration from Great Britain. This action is called for in view of the large arrivals of pauper immigrants. Commissioner Stevenson said he had procured affidavits from several immigrants, showing them to have been inmates of several poor houses in Ireland, and induced to come to this country by the work house masters, from whom they had received passage tickets and small sums of money.
