The celebrated Garland stoves at Woodcock & Baldwin's.

Send all orders for music, organs and pianos to Will Bro's.

Garland stoves, all sizes and prices, at Woodcock & Baldwin's.

Fine line mens staple and fancy furnishing goods at Nolan's Cash Store.

Remember that Will Bros., moved one block south of their old place.

Infants robes and dresses. New line open this week at Nolan's Cash Store.

The Yaquina Post comes this week enlarged to double its former size.

Repairing of sewing machines, musical, instruments, etc., a speciality by Will Bros. Try them; they are reliable.

Wool sacks, fleece twine and sheep shears offered at lowest rates by S. L. Kline, who pays the highest price for wool.

Mr. Frank Hooper, an old-time friend, of Independence, has been in our city this week in the interests of L. W. Robertson's music store.

Hon. E. G. Hursh has so far recovered from the accident in our street as to be able to resume control of the editorial duties of the Plaindealer.

Leading mechanics and seamstresses pronounce the Eldridge, New Home and Royal St. John the best sewing machine in the market. Get your choice at the sewing machine depot, at Will Bro's.

There are very few males sent to the insane asylum now-a-days. The reason for this is that Nolan furnishes the male population with such light and comfortable hats there is no pressure on the brain.

Rev. Prichard, of Salem, held services at the Presbyterian church in this city last Sunday. Services will be held at the same church again next Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

"Have you heard of the valley of Babyland?" asks Ella Wheeler. Yes, we have, Ella; but what we are particularly anxious to know is whether there is a path that goes around it anywhere.—Burlington Free Press.

Mr. I. Vanduyn and wife, of Independedce, passed through our city the last of last week on their way home from Eugene City, where they had been visiting. Mr. Vanduyn is a merchant at Independence, where he has been for many years.

Creighton & Quivey are preparing for the coming harvest. They are agents for the famous Deering harvesting machinery; and also keep wagons, hacks, and other farm machinery. Farmers give them a call before purchasing elsewhere and you will find them pleasant men to deal with and their machinery as represented.

Many of the citizens of Corvallis who attended the firemans' picnic at Albany last Friday report a very pleasant time. A match game of base ball was played between the Salem and Albany clubs, and was won by the latter by a score of 12 to 8. Some of the Corvallis nine took part in the game on the Albany side, which probably accounts for the defeat of the Salem club. The Albany Engine Co. No. 1, won the hose race, and the Lebanon boys won the first prize on fartherest water from the engine.

The traveling public will be pleased to learn that Brink & Wright, proprietors of the Corvallis livery and feed stable on Third Street, have lately put on a daily stage line between this place and Elk City, connecting with steamers for all points on the bay. Stages leave Corvallis and Elk City every morning at 6 o'clock. For freight or passage enquire at the store of Jacobs & Neugass.

The Nickel-plated circus, with its attendant side-shows and penny-catching devices, has come and gone. Whether Benton county has been benefited by their visit or not is a question to be answered by the citizens themselves who contributed to the support of this expensive luxury, and who should know whether they have received an equivalent for their money or not. The human leech who practiced his thieving game of chance on our streets was not as successful as he might have been, but much more so than he deserved. Such business as this fellow follows should be prohibited by the laws of the state, for so long as it is not prohibited there are unsuspecting persons who are induced by the oily tongue of these leeches to squander their honestly earned means for the support of men who probably never earned a dollar legitimately in the whole course of their existence. It is a disgrace to any community, and reflects no credit on anyone trying to "beat" such a game.

B. W. Wilson, county clerk, is expected to arrive home from Washington to-morrow.

C. H. Whitney is rusticating on the Bay this week, and looking after property interests.

Fresh fish received every day at the New Fish Market, one door south of Will Bro.'s gun store.

M. S. Woodcock, mother and sister returned to Salem last Friday. M. S. is expected home to-day.

The city marshal and night-watch are becoming terrors to law-breaking individuals who visit our city.

Rev. P. S. Knight, of Salem, will hold divine service at the Congregational church in this city next Sunday, at the usual hours.

Some substantial improvements have been made this week in the way of new sidewalks on main street. Let the good work go on.

Bishop R. Dubs, of Cleveland, Ohio, will preach in the Evangelical church at Kings valley, on Tuesday evening, May 27th at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Fred Zieber, formerly of Portland but lately from the east, arrived in Corvallis this week, and is now employed by the O. P. R. R. Co.

The newly elected Recorder, E. H. Taylor, tried his first case last Tuesday, and from the way he administers justice, we predict a successful term of office for him.

Independence, one of the oldest towns in the state, is to have her first bank. J. S. Cooper of that place has purchased from Hall's Safe and Lock company a complete banking outfit for $8500.

Mr. A. Andrews, route agent for Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express, was in our city this week investigating the workings of the company. It is needless to say that he found everything in "ship-shape" in the Corvallis office.

The Sunday school in Kings valley was reorganized last Sunday, with the following result: Supt., L. G. Price; Ass't. Supt., Mrs. Barbara Chambers; Sec., W. C. Riggs; Treasurer, Miss Sarah A. Wood; Organist, Miss Bessie Boles, Chor., M. J. Connor.

On Sunday next, May 25th, Bishop Morris will hold service, preach and administer the holy communion at the Episcopal church in this city. Services commencing at 11 o'clock, A. M. There will also be a confirmation, and baptismal service.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock a childrens meeting will be held at the Evangelical church in this city. Addresses will be delivered by ministers, interspersed with singing. Mr. and Mrs. DeYeo will also sing a duett. All children and their friends are invited to attend.

O. P. R. R. pay-master, C. C. Hogue, accompanied by C. S. Jenks, were at the front this week, making glad the hearts of the laborers. From them we learn that the extension to the warf at Yaquina City will be finished this week, and that Jacobs & Neugass' large merchandise building is nearing completion.

Geo. Thompson, son of R. M. Thompson, is lying dangerously ill at the residence of his parents in this city. George had not been feeling well for some time, and at the fire last Monday he overexerted himself and was seized with a violent hemorhage of the lungs, and at this writing, it is thought to be impossible for him to recover.

At 10 o'clock yesterday, and since the above was in type, young Thompson died. His remains will be buried to-day in the Masonic cemetery by the I. O. G. T. Lodge, of which order he was an honored member.

Mr. Kinman Vanderpool, of this county, was in Corvallis last Monday, having just returned from Eastern Oregon. He informs us that he has located a claim on the Deschutes river, where he expects to go with stock next fall. Mr. Vanderpool speaks in glowing terms of the famous bunch-grass in that section.

It pays to raise good horses. Last fall a gentleman near this city, says the Albany Democrat, sold three for $820 getting $400 for one, $200 for another and $220 for the other. As he expressed it, "It costs no more to raise a good horse than a poor one." There is no reason why Oregon should not be able to breed a 2:15 horse as well as New York or Illinois.

Will M. Kirk, who has for so long a time filled the position of foreman of the GAZETTE office with credit to himself and entire satisfaction to his employers, took his departure for an Eastern trip last Wednesday morning. He goes to Corydon, Iowa, for a visit to home folks, where he will remain for an indefinite time, however we will expect to see him on our streets again ere many months. The best wishes of the entire GAZETTE force, together with many friends, will accompany you, "Will," in your ramblings.

The M. E. church recently erected near Oakville in Linn county about five miles east of Corvallis, is completed, and it will be dedicated on the first Sunday of June, at eleven o'clock. Rev. I. D. Driver will preach the dedicatory sermon. There will also be services at three o'clock. There will be a basket dinner on the ground that all may remain to the afternoon services. The neighboring clergy of other denominations are invited to attend.

W. D. NICHOLS, Pastor.

Last Friday evening Woodcock & Baldwin received a car load of Garland stoves, direct, from the Detroit, Michigan stove company. This is the first through car from the N. P. loaded with freight for our merchants that has arrived in our city, having made the trip from Detroit in 18 days. On the outside of the car was painted on canvass in large letters covering the entire side of the car "Through car from Michigan Stove Company, to Woodcock & Baldwin. To care of E. G. Pierce, T. & F. Co., Portland, Oregon. Loaded with Garland stoves and ranges."

FIRE IN CORVALLIS.—Last Monday a few minutes before 1 o'clock just as the circus band had begun their parade the fire bell pealed forth the dreaded intelligence that the fire fiend was again in our midst. This time it was the house of Mr. John Sylvester, occupied by a German family named Schimmel, who recently came to Corvallis, and had only been occupying the house for two weeks previous. The fire companies responded very promptly and by their combined and well directed efforts did very efficient work in quenching the flames. Most all of the household goods were saved with more or less damage, and $500 will probably cover the entire loss. We understand the building was insured for the full amount. The enterprising ladies were prepared to receive the "fire-boys" on housing their engine and carts, with the much needed refreshments, which we scruple not to say were highly appreciated by the boys.

A THRASHER THRASHED.—Frank Thrasher, a saloon keeper at Summit, was "doing" the city last Tuesday, and imbibing frequently became noisy and troublesome, and when remonstrated with by the marshal and night-watch, he informed those gentlemen that he was a bad man from ——, and threatened them with violence should they attempt to arrest him. This braggardism, it seems, did not have the desired effect on the officers, as they immediately proceeded to take him to the "cooler," and in the struggle that ensued, night-watch McLagan sustained a slight but very painful knife cut, the point of a long, sharp pointed bowie knife, which the would-be Jessie James, had and was endeavoring to use on the person of the officers, entered the fleshy part of the left hand between the thumb and index finger. The wound, although slight and not of a serious nature, is painful and bled profusely, and is a deep cut. After that he was conducted to the city's free lodging rooms, and next morning in Recorder Taylor's court was fined $40.00, which he paid and peacably departed from our city, no doubt a wiser man.

ACCIDENTLY SHOT.—From Mr. J. D. Graham, who arrived in Corvallis last Monday, we learn that a son of Mr. F. M. Wadsworth, agent at the Siletz agency, was accidently shot by his brother one day last week. From all that could be learned of the unfortunate affair, it appears that two brothers were in the house playing with a loaded pistol, when it was discharged, the ball entering the shoulder of one of the boys. The wound, although a dangerous one, is not considered necessary fatal.

DROWNED.—Last Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Edward Murray, proprietor of the Exchange hotel at Albany was drowned while fishing in the Calipooia river, near the Magnolia flouring mills. A plank upon which he was standing broke, letting him fall into the river. He struck upon his head, and was probably stunned, as help was at hand, but when brought to land it was impossible to save his life. Mr. Murray is the third of the family who has been drowned in the same place.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE.—On Friday Morning, May 23, the annual conference of the Evangelical Association in Oregon will convene in the church of that denomination in this city, Bishop R. Dubs, D. D. of Cleveland, Ohio, will preside. There will be preaching on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings by different ministers. The bishop will preach two sermons on Sunday, at 10:30 A. M., and 7:30 P. M. All are invited to attend. On Monday evening, May 26, Bishop Dubs will preach at the Independent school house.

THE PRACTICAL EDUCATOR.—Prof. W. S. James, of Portland has issued the first number of a monthly journal of the above name, which has reached our table. We are pleased to note its clean appearance, and the reading matter on the various educational subjects are well written. Mr. C. H. James, formerly of this county, and brother of Prof. James, is employed in the office of the Educator, as a compositor. Prof. James will no doubt make this a desirable factor in the journalism of this state, Subscription price $1.00 per year.

LIST OF LETTERS.

Remaining unclaimed in the Postoffice at Corvallis, Benton County, Oregon, Friday May 23rd 1884. Persons calling for same will please say "advertised," giving date of list.

Harrow, Isaac.	Lout, Jas. B.,
Matney, Julia A.,	Jackson. Geo. L.,
Morrow, Mills.	Ordemam, Conrad.

Morrow, Ed., 2.

N. R. BARBER, P. M.

Our Half Sheet.

We are again under the necessity of giving our readers this week the GAZETTE with only one-half the usual amount of reading matter; however it will be found that it contains the usual amount of home news. The cause of this is that our "patent" came to us this week containing an illegal and fraudulent advertisement, which we will not impose upon our readers. Trusting that our patrons will bear with us in our disappointment, and believing they will appreciate our efforts to expunge from the columns of the GAZETTE all classes of such advertisements, we hope soon to be able to furnish the usual amount of reading matter.

DIED.

JAMES.—In Dallas, Polk county, May 19th, 1884, Rev. John James, aged 70 years and 26 days.

Rev. James formerly resided in Corvallis as pastor of the M. E. Church, and has many friends in this place.

THOMPSON.—In this city, May 22, 1884, George W. Thompson, of heart disease. Aged 18 years.

Corvallis Will Celebrate.

That Corvallis will celebrate the coming fourth of July is an established fact. The committee on permanent arrangements have decided to invite the pioneers of Benton, Polk, Linn and Lane counties to join in the demonstrations on that day, and the pioneers' camp fire and barbecued ox will be an attractive feature of the day. The committee on transportation are negotiating for an excursion train from Portland, and it is expected to make this the gala day, and one to be remembered in the history of Benton county for many years to come. The committee on arrangements have appointed the following committees: Finance; M. S. Neugass, T. J. Buford and Roy Raber. Music; Ike Harris, Joshua Mason and Earnest Korthauer. Invitation and Transportation; C. H. Whitney and B. F. Irvine. Grounds; Geo. Gerhard, D. M. Lord and N. H. Wheeler. Liberty car; W. Wright, W. H. Mansfield, Grace Hanna, Bertha Neugass and Mrs. J. B. Lee. Printing; W. H. Mansfield and A. P. Churchill. A grand ball will be given in the evening by the Corvallis fire companies.

Closing Exercises.

The closing exercises of the North Public School in this city last Friday afternoon was well attended. The exercises began with a concert declamation by 20 pupils. "Old Iron Sides," and others, wherein gestures and modulations were combined, were exceedingly well given together. The class showed careful training. The slurred passages, the most difficult to impress on the minds of young elocutionists, were well delivered. The following pupils competed for prizes in declamation: Misses. Mollie Fisher, Eva Whiteaker, N. Brown, Ethel Lewis, Cora Fisher, Annie Lewis, Ida Ray; Masters. Eugene Allphin, Will Davidson, Chas. Pratt, Frank Grubbs, and Jay Buford. The judges of the contest were Supt. E. A. Milner, Miss Hattie Wright, of South School, and Mrs. Atwood. The first prize was won by Eugene Allphin, and the second by Jay Buford. The pupils all did well, reflecting much credit on the principal, Prof. E. H. Bennett. It is to be regretted that this county is to lose the services of Prof. Bennett, who has accepted a chair in the State Normal School, at Monmouth. During his term as principal of this school, he has made many warm friends, and established for himself an enviable reputation as a teacher. We wish him abundant success in his new field of labor.

Fire at Philomath.

Our town was thrown into a state of excitement last Monday morning about 10 o'clock, when it was discovered that the house occupied by Mr. T. Little, and belonging to Mr. F. M. Carter of the Siletz Agency, was on fire. It was discovered by Mrs. Little, and the alarm given, when almost the entire town responded to the alarm, but owing to the fact that a strong wind was blowing from the north-west, and the insufficient means at hand with which to fight the fire, it was evident that it would be impossible to save the house, and everyone went bravely to work and succeeded in saving nearly all of the household effects in good condition. It was thought that other houses in the vicinity would be burned also, but fortunately they did not. The fire originated from a defective flue. The loss will probably amount to about $500. This is the first fire that has occurred in our place for three years. I hope that the city council will now see the necessity of having some regulations in cases of fire, as a well organized company could have easily subdued this fire with but little loss.
