On last Tuesday evening Whitney's hall was crowded with theatrical goers and dramatic critics to have the rendition of the ever popular drama entitle l "l'en Nights in a Bar Room," by home talsat, under the auspices of the Good Templars of our sister city. Corvallis was represented by nearly fifty of our young people who feel well paid for the trip. The play was well rendered considering the disadvantage of a smallstage and might have done credit to a city of even greater protensions. Dr. Whitney, as the traveler sustained his part well, while Joseph Bryan in the character of Joe Morgan made a good d unkard. Ed Bryan, as the Yankee, was well made up and brought the house down several times with his funsayings. Ed. Bers, A. B. N. wt. u. Walter Newton and Irunk Liggett, all did well and added much to the even ng's entert inment, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Slade, Mrs. Cartby the young people of Corvallis. Nearly a right and Mary Morgan were well sustained dozen rigs ware used to convey the pleasure by Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Harris, Miss Liggett and Ella Whitney. All in a " en Nights in a Bar Room," was well received and replenished the exchequer of the laige with cessful than ever before. Under her manseveral dollars. This play was produced in Corvallis about ten years ago, and no doubt for city boarders. would draw a good audience again. To Messra. Bryan an I Jackson we are indebted

House Burnad.

The dwelling house lately purchased by Meesrs, T. J. and P. G. Buford on the Bay was sometime -ago totally destroyed by fire. The house was occupied by Mrs. John Jersup, who also lost all of her household goods. We are informed that the good people of the Bay country made up by subscriptions enough to fully reimburse the unfortunate lady's loss. The house was valued at $500 and there being no insurance on the buileing is quite a loss to Buford B os. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Better Still.

Our article in the issue of two weeks ago in reference to the through train on the O. P. making such remarkable time over a new road, was copied by many of our valley exchanges, none of which gave us credit for the same. It now appears that the actual time of travel was much less than that. Mr. W. S. Carter, the gentlemanly conductor on said train, informs us that the running time was only 3 hours and 40 minutes, a distance of 72 miles.

Contract Let.

Postmaster N. R. Barber one day this week let the contract for carrying the mail three times per week between Corvallis and Yaquina City. Peter Mead is the contractor, and will begin carrying the mail on the lat of April. Peter's friends doubt his ability to make the trip three times per week if the present good weather continues, but are confident he will make the trips on time when it begins to rain and renders the roads almost impassible.

Closing out Sale.

The closing out sale at C. H. Whitney's is attracting many buyers who are attracted by the very low prices-actual cost for goods. This is a genuine closing out sale and as the stock is a well selected one and first-class, the people should not fail to improve the opportunity.

Mr. Wilson, of Portland, gave one of the best temperance lectures in o r city at Pitman's hall las: Monday evening. These weekly meetings are growing vory popular and are well attended. J. W. Webb will address the audience next Monday evening. Books at the Free Library are to be oaued at 10 cents a week. A few taken by "French leave" ought to be brought back, viz: "Egypt and Iceland," "Tale of a tub," "Anderson's F iry Tales," "Alfred the Great," and some children's looks.

The minstrel entertainment which was to have been given for the benefit of the Corvallis Cornet Band has been indefinitely postponed, and in lieu thereof preparations are being made for the reproduction of the sero-comic drama entilled "Among the Breakers," by the Thespian Club.

A contemporary notes the fact that a bare-footed boy was seen on the street yesterday, also a lot of wild geese flying northward. Now if a wild boy had been flying northward and a lot of bare-footed geese seen on the street it would have been more singular.

About ten o'clock last Monday evening the cry of fire was heard near t e north end of Main street and in less time than it takes to tell it the fire bell was ringing and our citizens were running in every direction in search of the conflagration. Fortunately it proved to be a false alarm, and fortunately for the fellow that gave it he was not found out.

In compliance with an act passed by the late ligislative . szembly. on last Saturday, Gov. Moody appointed the Oregon State Board of Immigration. Following are the names of the members of the board: Hon. H. W. Corbett, C. H. Dodd and W. W. Baker, of Multuomah county, W. N Ladue, of Marion, H. B. Miller, of Josephine and L. B. Cox, of Umatilla.

Riley Baldwin came up from 8 lem last Monday, where he has been since the convening of the legislatuce. He is greatly mproved in health since he left here some months ago. Whether or not it is attrioutable to the climate of the capital city or not we are unable to say, but i is a fact nevertheless, much to the gra ification of himself and many friends.

Mr. J. H. Goodm n, and old timeresident of Benton county but now of Spring field, Lane Co., passel through Corvallis last week for Independence. He was accompanied by his daughter-in-law, wife of the late Elbert Goodman, who died recently in Portlan I. She will remain in Independence where she has busines, interests, her husband h ving been connected with the firm of Goodm n Bros., in the livery business in that place at the time of his death.

On last Wednesday Johnny Clancy and a young man by the name of John Jackson got into a controversy on our streets, and in the midst of the discussion Johnny called young Jackson a liar. The accused didn't agree with Johnny in this particular and took exceptions to his statement, but remembering that our city recorder would charge him $13. to make Johnny take it back, he invited him to step outside the corporations. Johnny agreed and the two started across Mary's river bridge followed pleased to meet the citizens of Corvallin

While in Albany this week we visited the new steam yacht, which has recently been built by several of Albany's enterprising young men. We were informed that as soon as a few inprovements are made on the little stanner she will probably make a trip to our city, probably next Sunday. It is expected that she will be able to make two trips p r day between this place and

Albany which if possible will prove a great convenience to the traveling public. Prof. C. J. Merrill, a teacher of both vocal and instrumental music of much experience, was in the city this week. Some evening the first of next week he will be
