Conductors Relieved.

Messrs. G. M. Stroud and A. K. Colburn, conductors on the West Side train between this place and Portland, and D. C. Bogart, conductor on the McMinnville express, were this week relieved and their places filled by Chas. H. Carter and Chas. W. Kline as conductors between this place and Portland, and Morris C. Webster, who was transferred from the East Side, as conductor on the express.

Messrs. Carter and Kline were formerly baggage masters on this road. No reason has been assigned for the dismissal. "Pap Stroud" and "Bob," as they were familiarly called, have many friends in this place who were greatly surprised and grieved at the change.

The newly appointed also have many friends here who will be pleased to see them become as popular with the traveling public as were their predecessors.

Baird's Mammoth Minstrels.

This company will appear at Hamilton's Hall in this city to-night, (Friday) May 8th. The press of the state where they have performed represent this to be the best minstrel troupe that has ever visited our state.

Price of admission $1.00. Reserved seats at E. Rosenthal's. The Boston Daily Globe says: "A performance of more even excellence than that given at the Windsor Theatre last night by I. W. Baird's Mammoth Minstrels, was seldom or never seen here, and it was applauded from beginning to end by one of the most satisfied audiences of the season.

This company will safely endure comparison with any of their much vaunted rivals.

Repair Your Sidewalks.

A. R. Pygall, the long tried and newly elected city marshal, gives notice to all those who supported him at the recent election that it will now be in order for those same parties to repair their sidewalks where such repairs are needed.

Since A. R. received such a majority of all the votes cast, if all who supported him will see that their walks are in good repair, Corvallis can certainly boast of the best walks of any city her size in the valley.

Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted at the last regular meeting of the Corvallis Coffee Club:

Resolved, That we, ladies of the Corvallis Coffee Club, do hereby tender our most hearty thanks to the hose companies of the Corvallis Fire Department for their very acceptable and useful gift of twenty dollars presented by them to us.

Resolved, That while we fully appreciate their substantial aid, we take this opportunity to assure them that we shall endeavor to be always at our post to render aid in return as we, members of the Coffee Club, can give.

Social Breakers.

Arrangements have been made for a lecture entitled "Social Breakers," by Mrs. Mattie A. Bridge, to be given at the city hall in this city on the 11th inst.

Mrs. Bridge comes cordially recommended by the press, both as a temperance lecturer and also upon other topics. She is the widow of Samuel Bridge, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., of Wisconsin, and is heartily recommended by members of that order as a woman of refinement culture and grace.

Music for Social Dances.

Mr. W. G. Bennett, of this city, is well prepared to furnish violin music for evening entertainments or dances, having lately received a large number of the latest pieces of music direct from Boston. For further information enquire at the Vincent House.

Wanted. A Missionary.

The church going people of Philomath have been disappointed for three Sabbaths in succession. A good lively energetic preacher would be well received here, and find steady employment until after strawberry time.

A young man who desires to learn the printing business can find an opportunity at this office by applying soon. W. J. Clark, of the City Transfer Co., is this week about on crutches, having sent his foot to San Francisco for repairs.

W. L. Jester, of Grants Pass, has taken charge of the business at the West Side depot caused by the resignation of B. F. Irvine. There will be a social for the benefit of the Evangelical church at the residence of R. M. Thompson, this evening, May 8th. All are invited to be present.

N. R. Barber, the obliging post master at this place, has made some substantial improvements in the general delivery office, by putting in more boxes, reprinting, etc. Ripe cherries on the first day of May is somewhat remarkable, but is nevertheless a fact as such were seen on our streets on that day. Score one for Benton county.

Jessie Wilkins returned this week from Eastern Oregon over the old Military Road, which he reports in good condition for travel. The snow is all gone much earlier than usual. The Willamette Conference of Congregational churches convened at Pitman's hall in this city Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week. A large number of delegates were present.

Hon. M. J. Connor, Perry Eddy and J. E. Frantz, of Kings Valley were in the city the first of the week. They report crops badly in need of rain, especially late sown spring grain and hay. Through unavoidable circumstances Prof. J. W. Rowland was not able to meet his writing classes here last Wednesday evening as was expected. However he will be here Saturday evening.

The best family remedy is undoubtedly Flanders' Oregon Blood Purifier. Harmless it accomplishes relief where many other medicines failed to do so. It may be safely given to the infant as well as the adult. The elocutionary reading by Miss Binnie DeForest at the Presbyterian church in this city last week was well attended and highly appreciated by those in attendance. The vocal music by Rev. Pritchard was very good.

A few of the many friends of Miss Carrie Cressey spent a very pleasant evening at her residence Thursday evening of last week. Saturday morning the family left for Independence, where they will reside in the future. Attention farmers; all who will need Binding Wire for the McCormack or Marsh wire binders for season of 1885, are requested to give us their order by May 1st, as no more wire is bought than is actually ordered. Woodcock & Baldwin's.

At a recent game of base ball between the Eclipse and Star clubs of this city the former were defeated by a score of 16 to 18. Also on Monday a match game was played by a nine from Philomath and the Stars of this place, in which the score stood 42 to 21 in favor of Philomath. J. P. Irvine has bought an interest in the business firm of Thompson & Sons at Corvallis, and will make that city his future home. His family left for that place on Thursday. They leave many warm friends in this city who wish them success in the business and social relations in their new home.—West Side.

In another column will be found the announcement of a Calico Social, to be given by the Fireman's Coffee Club on the second anniversary. The committee of arrangements is a good one, and will without doubt make a success of their social. However we question the propriety of their selection of floor managers, since they themselves were so successful in that respect at their last anniversary.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE.—For sale at Look's Residence. We are offering everything cheap. We offer a $58 bed room set for $20; a $25 mirror for $10; a $22 stove for $7; a $70 stove for $12, and other things in proportion.

Philomath.

[A lengthy communication from the Philomath community, discussing local matters and the Philomath Association.]

The Philomath college is in a very prosperous financial condition. The city of Philomath has some of the needful in her treasury, which she is using in making good substantial public improvements, under the supervision of Mr. O. M. Frink, street commissioner.

A goodly number of farmers in this vicinity are having their land cleared of grubs, Chinese labor being employed. They pay from $25 to $42 per acre. The sound of the saw and the hammer is heard on every side, and we learn from Mr. Joseph Hawkins that he is unable to fill all orders for lumber at the Philomath saw mill.

The proprietors of the Oregon Oracle have a larger subscription and advertising patronage than they anticipated. MONDAY, May 4th, 1885.

News articles are the daily-articles in this market. Wild strawberries and May picnics are flourishing.

The reporter like others of a like kind takes to a full in business in his line with some slight feelings of joy hidden behind a vale of sorrow for the editor.

We are now enjoying the full measure of summer heat, the mercury stood Sunday in the shade at 84 deg. at 1 o'clock P. M. The caterpillar is making havoc with the tender foliage along the streams and some are even prospecting around orchards but in this we have not noticed any damage yet.

We notice several fish wagons on our streets from Yaquina Bay, flounders and salmon for sale. Where is our Corvallis butcher and beef wagon? We furnish that market with the finest of beef, mutton and pork and yet we have none in market here.

We notice a brightening prospect for business and are right glad to welcome its early return. DATA.

May-Day was kept according to old world custom in Corvallis. The children met in the Court House grounds for a May-Day frolic. There was the May pole with a dozen gay streamers floating from his garlanded head, and these were wreathed about by the children dancing around. Then came the choosing of the little May Queen, to be crowned with flowers and carried about in her little floral chair. Next the chimney sweeps, making holiday round their "Jack in the green." The "and of Hope" children had their May songs practiced which they sang as well as they could in the midst of their play. A picnic supper ended a pleasant afternoon.
