HAY'S PROBABLE RETIREMENT. WASHINGTON, June 19. - [Special.]-The visit of Dallas Sanders of Philadelphia to this city again revives the report of the probable retirement of First Assistant Postmaster-General Hays. The work of the first assistant of the department has increased over a hundred fold since the advent of the new administration and it is next to impossible for a man in Hay's delicate state of health to manage it successfully or as promptly as is expected. He is compelled to leave his office frequently after working two or three hours and seek the rest his health requires. His retirment will neces sitate a complete reorganization of the first assistan'ts department and the following changes, it is reported at the department will transpire on the 1st of July. Nicholas Bell of Missouri, at present chief of the foreign mail division, who was mentioned once for appointment as first assistant postmaster-general, will succeed Hay and Dallas Sanders will be appointed as Bell's successor; James H. Marr, the present chief clerk for the first assistant postmaster-general, will be replaced by Fowler, who acted in Hays place during his absence in the south this spring.

WASHINGTON, Juge 19. - In pursuance of the policy adopted by Secretary Manuing en ting down the expenses of various buresus in the treasury department, wherever positive without detriment to public business, three hundred persons employed as st rekeepers, gaugers, etc., in the internal revinue service have been removed since Narch 20th. The postmaster general has decided that the offer will be refused, as the government would rather have Hibbs than the money. Extradition proceedings will begin in a few days.
