Oregon Cadetship.

Milton F. Davis, of McCov, Polk county, has received the appointment to West Point through Congressman Binger Hermann, of this state, says a Portland exchange. There has been quite a contest over the cadetship, a number of applicants having applied for the appointment. Mr. Davis, who received the appointment, is about 20 years of age, and was appointed on his true merits-having undergone a thorough examination, and found thoroughly competent and fit for the position. Regarding the appointment Congressman Hermann has written the following letter to a member of the board here:

After much reflection I have settled the matter of the cadetship by appointing Milton F. Davis. I have found my principal reliance on the result of your examination. Physically he was as good as any. Had the variance not been so great I might have listened to the great influence brought to bear for others, but I think in this republic a boy noon. should stand on his own merits, and having great confidence in the finding of the board, I could not do otherwise than nominate the one shown by it to be far ahead of all other competitors. I again thank you most kindly for your aid. Yours truly.

BINGER HERMANN. This settles the case for the present. Mr. Davis will have to undergo a very critical physical and mental examination before his admittance to the school at West Point. Readers will remember the board examined all the candidates in this city and of these reported favorably on three. Of these three Congressman Herman has selected Mr. Davis principally because of his superior standing mentally, as evinced in his examination.

White Bronze Monuments.

Mr. J. A. Cardwell the general agent for lis Monday, enronte for Salem, and the the State of Oregon for the White Bronze fair grounds. Monuments writes us saying that "he heard some reports while at Independence that the White Bronze Monuments at our cemetery had become both rusty and black." In reply to this infamous falsehood no doubt gotten up by some person who sella the worthless murble, granite and stone monuments of the present day, which cracks, crumbles, and decomposes within twenty or thirty years, so that it is almost worthless, we desire to save that the "White Brouze Monuments" in our cemetery here, have not changed their color or appearance a par- fair a good surplus. ticle since the day they were put up, over one year ago, also another of like material which we put up in Lee Mission Cemetery one mile east of Salem is in a like beautiful condition. These Monuments being made of pure zinc they will last as long as time and as long as the native zinc will in the mines from where it is dug. It is not a composition, but is made of pure zinc, hence these common liars who go around the country saying it will rest or change its color should post themselves in order that they may not appear as ignorant asses making assertions contrary to the laws of nature. It shows to be erroneous many of the common ideas talked about as to the rights of settlers acquiring violinists Such as Sivori, Lauterbach, Waltitles in this way. This valuable book, on the subject of residence and cultivation, contains the following words to-wit: "A party eler. who enters a homestead and attempts to aconire title thereto by going upon the land and remaining over night once or twice in six months, fails to establish a legal residence; and where it is shown that such failure to comply with the provisions of the law was not the result of ignorance or of uncontrolable circumstances, the entry should be canceled." "Parties living and doing business in cities and towns can not secure titles to public lands by occasional visits to their claims."

FOR SALE.

On Saturday, October 3rd, 1885, at the

SOL KING. Corvallis, Or., Sept. 24th 1885. A Linn County Postmaster In Trouble.

Deputy United States Marshal Burkhardt went to Portland last week having in charge Mr. C. M. Talbott, of Sodaville, Linn county, Oegon, who was accused of intercepting a letter. Mr. Talbott was examined and held to answer before the United States grand jury in bonds of $250, which'he will have no difficulty in securing. The histery of the case was in short as follows: Mr. A. T. Workman, now of Portland, formerly resided in Sodaville, where he had business interests. He has a lady correspondent in Ohio, who sent him a letter addressed to Sodaville, which he received in Portland July 8th, and was dated in Ohio, June 22d. The letter when received there was in an envelope addressed by the accused. Mr. Talbott explains the case by saying that some weeks ago he was requested by Mr. Workman's father to address a letter to his son in East Portland, and is positive he has not opened any letter belonging to Mr. Workman. In justice to Mr. Talbott it may be said he has never before been in trouble, has an untarnished reputation and the record of a good, square man in the section where he lives. The case was reported to the postoffice inspector sometime ago and has been made puplic for the first time to-day.

Caught and Jailed.

The man who took Thos. Eglin's horse and cart, whom Mr. Eglin supposed had gone over the mountains and would come out through by Prineville, turned his direction and was arrested down in Polk county and taken first to Salem and then brought to this place last Monday where he was tried for stealing the borse and cart and bound over under $500 bonds to await the action of the next grand jury; in default of bonds he was committed to jail. It is claimed that he has heretofore served a term in the penitentiary for stealing a horse.
