GENERAL NEWS.

The large amount of wheat posted on the produce exchange at New York on the 16th inst., that was out of condition broke the market, and the bears jumped in and pushed it downward. Then the west aided by Wall Street, rushed in and bought to the extent of 3,000,000 or 4,000,000 bushels, forcing the price up again.

An analysis has been made of a Chinese tippie which they have been selling among themselves in New York free of excise. It is found to contain 38 per cent of alcohol, and henceforth Chinese will be required to have a license to sell their native drink.

Business failures the last seven days were 166, as compared with 207 last week. Failures are below the average in all sections of the country, and fewer are reported from the south than any previous week this year.

About 117,000 bushels of No. 2 winter red wheat were posted on the New York produce exchange on the 16th, as out of condition. This had a very depressing effect on the market.

Governor Eaton has issued a proclamation raising the quarantine against cattle from Missouri, Indiana and Ohio.

Frederick Greiner, murderer of Margaret Seling, was hanged in the Franklin county, Ohio, jail last Saturday.

The New York World's Washington special says: Secretary Bayard declares the mails are being outrageously delayed, and more than intimates that the postmaster-general will have to back down. Undoubtedly some friction between the two ministers impends. The same correspondent, speaking of the rival local tickets in New York city, says: "The president never changes his mind, at least so say his intimate friends. It is therefore hardly probable that as Gov. Hill himself has been refused assistance any special pleading for him upon the part of his agents will have any effect."

The New York World says: "Quite a sensation was caused in the consolidated stock and petroleum exchange, by a report that the Prince of Wales had actually entered into American speculation, and purchased half a million barrels of oil. The order came by cable on Thursday, so it was said, and was executed by the principal broker for the Standard Oil company. If the report be true, his royal highness has evidently been given a large "point," for there was a marked advance of 4 1/2 cents per barrel, from 102 1/2 to 107.

The will of the late Cardinal McCloskey was filed for probate on the 17th inst. The document is brief. He directs his executors to pay all just debts and funeral and testamentary expenses immediately after his decease, and then bequeaths to Archbishop Corrigan, Bishop McLaughlin of Brooklyn and Bishop McHenry of Albany the remainder of his estate, appointing them at the same time executors of his will.

The new railroad bridge across the Colorado river at Yuma, Arizona, was totally destroyed by fire last Saturday morning, which began on the California side of the river. The loss is over $200,000. The cause is unknown.

The New York Commercial Bulletin, to ascertain public opinion on the silver question and on the expediency of stopping the coinage of the standard dollar, addressed inquiries to a large number of persons supposed to have well considered views on the question, and other prominent bankers and financiers of Ohio, Pennsylvania and other middle and eastern states. The points on which the answers, with but few exceptions agree, are: First, the coinage of silver should be definitely postponed. Next, measures should be taken for protecting the future use of silver, under an agreement with the leading commercial nations. The opinions vary as to what should be the form of such agreement, but the impossibility of any effective settlement of the general questions being accomplished, except through international co-operation, is generally admitted.

Millions of squirrels are emigrating from the Mississippi side over to the Arkansas shore, at a point commencing about five miles below Memphis and extending down for twenty miles. They are swimming the Mississippi river and evidently making for more elevated ground in Arkansas. Thousands are being killed by farmers, who, by reason of their great numbers, use sticks instead of guns. A similar migration of squirrels occurred in 1872.

A snow storm occurred at Ishpeming, Mich., on the 20th, eight inches falling, and the storm continues. The mail train of the Marquette, Houghton & Ontonagon railway is blockaded at the Summit.

Orders were promulgated by the treasury department on the 20th, prohibiting the shipment of wheat from Duluth in Canadian bottoms.

W. A. Rowe, of Lynn, lowered the world's twenty mile bicycle record at Hamden park Springfield, Mass., on the 16th. His time was 38 minutes and 20 seconds. The best previous time was 38 minutes and 56 seconds made by M. K. M. Webber there last September.

It is announced that Bartholdi, the French artist, leaves France on the 24th to superintend the erection of the great statue of Liberty in New York harbor. About the time of his arrival the pedestal will be ready for the statue.

The New York Times thinks the prospects of a railroad from Winnipeg to Hudson bay, for the shipment of Manitoba wheat to England are somewhat indefinitely postponed, owing to a report brought back by the steamer Alert of the difficulties of navigation of Hudson strait, which was not clear of ice this year until August 22.

The Massachusetts commissioners of disease in animals visited C. G. Parsons' diseased herd of cows at Greenfield on the 20, and pronounced the disease "blackleg" or "anthrax" fever, similar to Texas cattle fever. They ordered the cattle isolated and the premises disinfected.

COMMENT ON THE OHIO ELECTION.

Chicago Tribune: And democrats have begun to vote the prohibition ticket a little! Here's a state of things!

New York Times: The democrats lost the state through the efforts of John R. McLean and his unscrupulous gang.

New York Sun: The result is a check for the democracy, and no explanation can change the fact or render it any the less disagreeable.

Cleveland Plaindealer (dem.): It is a victory for John Sherman. His hold on the Germans stood him in good stead, and he will grab the senatorship for his pay.

New York Tribune: It is clear that President Cleveland and Governor Hoadly did not get the splendid vindication for which their friends worked so long and so confidently. If verdicts of the people mean anything, this verdict cannot be over-estimated insignificant.

Boston Herald (Mug): The republican triumph in Ohio is significant of two things: The failure of the democratic party to improve the advantage which it gained in the election of President Cleveland, and the unimpaired cohesive power of the republican organization.

Philadelphia Times, (Dem.): The republicans of Ohio have won a staving victory for an off year against a hopeful party in power both at Washington and Columbus. It will be so felt in Pennsylvania and in New York, where the political pulse is more sensitive to October signals of political cheer or distress.

New York World: The result of the Ohio election is to be regretted, because it is an expression of hostility to the democratic administration and will be paraded by the republicans as an indication that a reaction has already set in against the democracy and in favor of the restoration of the republicans to power.

St. Paul Pioneer-Press: Republican success in Ohio is immensely significant. It proves that the people, having shown the party errors and having seen it profit by chastisement, are ready to stand by it in opposition to an organization upon whom the highest honor confers no degree of the intelligence above that needed to gable about the omnipotence of the spoils.

Philadelphia Press: This result shows that the republican column, instead of being shattered by the natural defeat of last year, stands undismayed and unbroken. Democratic power at Washington and democratic efforts in the states have not shaken republican faith or allegiance. The party comes out from its temporary reverse with fresh courage and renewed determination.

Boston Transcript, (Mug): The Ohio-Hoadley-John McClean democracy went down with a dull thud yesterday. John Sherman's personal strength in Ohio, arising from his successful career as a senator and cabinet officer, is indisputable. Should the next legislature re-elect him United States senator he will become more powerful than ever in national republican politics. It will give him an immense start toward the next republican presidential nomination.

No sensible man should get mad because a newspaper duns him for money, says an exchange. A dun is not an impeachment of a subscriber's integrity, but is simply an out-cropping of a publisher's necessities. For instance, several hundred men owe us from $2.50 to $5.00 each; we have to dun them all in order to get enough to pay expenses. Instead of getting angry and stopping the paper because the publisher asks him for what is honestly due, the subscriber should thank him for waiting so patiently, and pay up promptly like a man, and in addition pay a year in advance.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The issue of standard dollars from the mints during the week ending October 17, was $1,028,750; during the corresponding period of last year, $594,997. Shipments of fractional silver coin from October 1st to October 17, amounted to $567,559.

Shipments of coin from the overcrowded vaults of the different sub-treasuries to the treasury at Washington, since the general transfer began, September 3, amount to about $26,000,000 in silver and $5,000,000 in gold. The $10,400,000 in silver brought from New Orleans in naval vessels, is in the above statement. All the gold came from San Francisco, from which place about $13,000,000 in gold had previously been sent to New York by registered mail. It is estimated it will take about a month and a half to count coin already received at the treasury. A new and improved weighing machine was received at the department from the Philadelphia mint, and will be used in weighing the coin.

A Washington correspondent, who appears to speak with some authority, says the president is working a great many hours every day, many more than under officials who complain of the hardships of their position. He allows himself absolutely no more license than is actually necessary to preserve his health. He recognizes that he has made a mistake in some appointments, also that they have generally been the result of overconfidence in representatives and senators, and sometimes in cabinet officers, but always in persons whom he ought to be able to trust.

The agent at the Fort Belknap Indian reservation in northern Montana, has informed the interior department that a number of Cree Indians, refugees from the British possessions, have crossed the line into the reservation, having in their possession silverware and articles of ladies' apparel, supposed to have been captured during the Big Bear outbreak. The agent requested that these intruders be escorted across the line and forbidden to enter the United States.

The matter was referred to the secretary of state, who has replied that these Indians cannot be arrested, except upon extradition by the British authorities, and that this government should not countenance any kidnapping of Indians. The interior department is at a loss to know how the dangerous refugees can be removed, under the circumstances.

The secretary of war has issued the following general order, which will henceforth be an additional army regulation: "In time of peace, details of not less than one officer and three enlisted men will be kept constantly under instruction and practice in military signaling at each post in the United States, until the officers and all the men who have sufficient intelligence are proficient in the code of signaling by flag, torch and heliography and homeographic code with discs. The post commander will detail an acting signal officer at each post, to give necessary instructions and supervise field practice. Monthly reports of instructions and practice will be rendered to the chief signal officer through the department commanders."

The civil service commission has addressed a letter to President Cleveland, calling his attention to an attempt by the Pennsylvania republican committee to collect political assessments in the departments, and suggesting the propriety of making an investigation of the matter, with a view of punishing all parties connected with it who can be reached by law. They say it is their belief Chairman Cooper, who is responsible for the begging circular, is not an employe of the government, and therefore cannot be reached. The letter suggested that congress be asked to extend the law so as to cover such cases.

The appointment of C. W. Roby to be postmaster at Portland, Or., settles a question which has vexed the postoffice department for some time. The principal candidates for this office have already been given along with an outline of what was represented to be the feelings of the people in regard to them. It is stated by persons from the state that Roby's appointment will cause dissatisfaction among the old democracy of the state. A protest has also been filed against Mr. Daniel Stewart, recently appointed postmaster at Walla Walla in Wash. Ty., on the ground that he is too old and that he is in the hands of certain republicans, who will practically run the office. Mr. Vilas stated that the protest would receive consideration.

Closing out Sale.

The closing out sale at C. H. Whitney's is attracting many buyers who are attracted by the very low prices—actual cost for goods. This is a genuine closing out sale and as the stock is a well selected one and first-class, the people should not fail to improve the opportunity.

PACIFIC COAST.

Mrs. Leland Stanford has had constructed at her individual expense a mortuary chapel which forms part of Trinity church, on Powell and Post streets S. F. The room is 40 by 20 feet in size and has been appropriately fitted up for the purpose for which it is designed. It will be used as a temporary deposit for remains brought to that city en route to final place of burial.

The steamship Oceanic, which sailed from San Francisco for China last Saturday took away nearly 1100 Chinamen, and there were over 300 who wished to go but could not be carried by the ship. There were also 100 coolies who were from Portland, who expected to take passage on the vessel, and will be compelled to wait until the next steamer sails.

A close estimate of the total losses by the recent Crocker fire place them at $775,000, the most costly fire San Francisco has experienced for twenty years.

A Little, a northern Pacific tie contractor of North Yakima made an assignment last week and on the 19th with friends, he had a knock-down fight with his employes who claim fraud. Little then had the assignment dissolved and turned his property over to the bank for the benefit of his creditors. But Marshal George seized fifteen thousand ties and four thousand cords of wood in the name of the government, charging Little with despoiling the government lands.

The thirty-first annual session of the grand encampment of the I. O. O. F. assembled in San Francisco on the 20th. The grand secretary's report showed that nearly $2,000,000 had been disbursed by different Odd Fellows lodges of the world during the last year for relief purposes.

Professor Edward S. Holden, of the University of Wisconsin, was elected on the 20th, president of the University of California. He is about 37 years old, and is a nephew of the late Wm. Holden, who was at one time lieutenant governor of California.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Standard says: "Russia and Austria are unable to come to an agreement in regard to the Balkan difficulty. Prince Bismarck is determined to prevent war. The three powers have agreed to restore outwardly, status quo, and Bulgaria, Servia and Greece will probably be choked off."

The Berlin correspondent of The Daily News says that nearly all the powers have agreed to a conference on the Balkan question, and that hope that peace will be maintained increases.

Every available armed man has been summoned for service. The Burmese ministers have decided to stop the British envoy with the Indian government's ultimatum at the frontier.

It is stated that as a result of the Pacific attitude of Bulgaria, Servia is disbanding a portion of her reserves.

A Times London dispatch says: "Probably the world has never before witnessed such a strangely perplexing situation as that which this week was seen in the Balkan peninsula, with hundreds of men being dragged into the field, with forced levies, half a dozen different states on the very threshold of hostilities, and with nobody able to guess how the various combatants will range themselves, once the die is cast. Austria and Russia are preparing for war. The suppression of news has become one of the fine arts in both countries, but enough leaks out to render this certain, that Austria is now mobilizing 60,000 men, who are being quietly got ready in Bosnia.

A cablegram says it is reported from Sofia that there is a notable decrease in the warlike fever which has prevailed since the Roumelian revolt. The disposition of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria, owing to his hasty action in that affair, is not among the possibilities. Russia is fomenting trouble, notwithstanding the czar's display of displeasure at the exploits of Prince Alexander. The war preparations of Turkey and Greece are unabated. Roumania is quiet but watchful.

A Times Ottawa special says: As the Canadian Pacific railway will be running in a few weeks from the Atlantic to the Pacific it is understood restrictions placed upon the construction of lines from points in the Northwest and Manitoba to the international boundary, to connect with American railway systems, will be withdrawn. In anticipation of such withdrawal, Sir A. T. Galt will give the necessary notice in the Official Gazette that he will apply to parliament next session for a charter to construct a railway from the coal fields in Manitoba to the international boundary line, in the direction of Fort Benton, M. T.

The London Times has advices to the effect that complete anarchy prevails in Burmah. It is expected that certain tribes will storm Mandalay. A very hostile feeling is shown in Burmah toward all foreigners, and a general massacre is feared. The Italian consul at Mandalay has been threatened with imprisonment.

For the week ending Friday night there were reported by the authorities of the Roman Catholic cemetery, 293 deaths from smallpox in Montreal, 59 at St. Conogonde, 16 at St. Henri, 7 at St. Gabriel, 25 at St. Jean Baptiste, and 23 at St. Louis.
