would circulate just such information as the B. F. Burch on being questioned got up in his christian like spirit before the Board of Regents of Corvallis college à few days ago and told them that his South Methodist conference did not rescind its acts of the year before; but he told them what was false and so he would cause to be communicated to the Governor false information if he thought it would answer his Christian (?) like manipulations. If the Governor has been deceived in this matter the people of Benton county will be pleased for him to correct it at an early moment. If he does not correct it our people will calculate that Burch has a valuable assistant in the enleavor to force the church on the college and n the event that it can not be done to force the Agricultural College away from Cor-

"Prof. T. F. Campbell of Eugene has been elected to the chair of mathematics in the Agricultural College at Corvallis, with a salary of $1600 per annum. The Prof. is a man of great ability and will no doubt file the position with credit to himself and ben-efit to the institution. Farmers desiring their sons to become prosperous and leading agricultural men, should avail themselves of course of instruction in the Agricultural College. Farmers need agricultural educa-

"The Boar ! of Regents of the Agricultural College, held a meeting on the 28th ult., to elect a successor to Prof. Jos. Emery, who recently resigned the chair of mathematics to take charge of the Klamath Agency. The Board elected Prof. T. F. Campbell, A. M., of Engene City. Prof. Campbell has been eminent in the educational field for many years not only in the Eastern and Southern states, but more especially in Oregon. We consider this a most excellent appointment as Prof. Campbell is a man of great ability and sterling worth."

He Left Unpaid Bills.

There came to Corvallis several months ago a gay young tailor, who worked for Wm. Morris until the time of the latter's decease, when he opened a shop of his own on Main street, where for a time he did a seemingly thriving business and won the financial confidence of many of our citizens. About two weeks ago he left, ostensibly for the purpose of making a short visit in some other section of the state, but up to the present he has not returned, and it is not likely that he will, and an ontraged public mourns sundry unpaid bills, 'Vats his name? It is Fred Lauchle, and any information concernng his whereabouts will be gladly received st this office.

Cruelty to Animals.

Some of our Beeton county farmers seem to be wonderfully lacking in guarding their own interests. During the late heavy rains this has been particularly noticable in the fact that many who come to town from the country will leave their horses standing in the dreaching rain all day long without anything to eat or a blanket to protect them from the inclement weather. This is not is also a financial loss to the owner of the animal, since it would cost no more than 25 or 50 cents to feed and protect him from the storm. This is not paid for or suggested by man is merciful to his servants," etc.
