THAT railroad from Brownsville here may be built.

THE railroad companies just now are troubled by too many banks—snow banks.

THERE is one thing very evident just at present—this is not the June-bug season in Oregon.

SHOULD the Brownville road be built to Corvallis the Willamette will be spanned by another bridge.

THERE is one thing Corvallis doesn't want and that is the 1892 world's fair—but she does need an annual county fair.

THERE are six bridges across this Willamette river at different points and only two of them are free structures.

If you know anything about building street car lines, just send in your bid to the Corvallis street railway. See their advertisement elsewhere.

A DISPATCH announces that Cleopatra's tomb has been discovered. This is tough on the young medical students who will tackle the old chron in some dissecting room.

In the article "to kill the grain weevil," in the GAZETTE, of the 10th, in speaking of remedies the word "avoid" was omitted, in the seventh clause; it should read: and avoid a high temperature by every possible means.

JEFFERSON DAVIS never came north after the war. In 1867 he was invited to deliver an address at a fair in Rockford, Ill., by Charles Kimball, secretary of the agricultural society, but the proposition was so unpopular that the invitation was cancelled.

In these days of puffing and blowing about the products of the farm, orchard and herds, the miner who is delving in the out of the way creeks, in deep canyons surrounded by dense forests, with only a trail leading to his place of business, is not often seen in print, yet nevertheless he keeps at work and is unearthing thousands of dollars every week.—Exchange.

In a little town near Chicago there is a schoolhouse close to the tracks of a trunk-line railroad. The consequence of this juxtaposition of the two things is one that never would occur to any but the boyish mind. The boys got up a game which consisted in their seeing which one should be the last to jump across the track in front of the express train that passes there at fifty miles an hour just after school lets out. This game has already cost at least three lives.

The other day a railroad employee went to the mother of one of the boys to tell her what her son was doing. She told him she could take care of her own children and wanted no interference by tattletales. She gave him a scolding he will never forget. One reason why he will never forget it is that the boy was killed by the express train one week afterward. The engineer said he saw the boy standing by the track, but never dreamed he meant to try to cross it ahead of the train.

PROTECT THEM.

Perhaps there is no industry in the United States whose importance is greater and which is more worthy of the fostering care of the protective system than is that of wool-growing. That the country is especially adapted in many portions to this industry has never been denied, and is especially demonstrated by the fact of its great and rapid growth under a system of partial protection.

The Boston Commercial Bulletin's annual telegraphic canvass of the wool supply of the country shows a heavy increase over that of last year, and with further protective legislation the future of the wool industry in the United States should be a bright one, in view of the additional fact that more careful business methods are being pursued by the great dealers, resulting in a large diminution of the failures reported during the year.

REDUCING THE DEBT.

The debt of the United States is being rapidly reduced. Twenty-two years ago it was over $2,700,000,000—next to that of England, at that time the greatest national debt in the world. December 31, 1889, it had been reduced to nearly $1,610,000,000, with about $527,021,000 in the national treasury available for the reduction, leaving the net public debt at $1,083,548,053. Of the total debt only $829,897,462 bears interest. The interest bearing debts are $121,367,700, paying 4 1/2 per cent. interest and due in 1891; $629,795,700, paying 4 per cent. interest, and due in 1907; $64,723,515 Pacific railroad debt, paying 6 per cent. interest, and redeemable at various periods within the next ten or eleven years; $14,000,000 of the navy pension fund, and a few thousand dollars of outstanding refunding certificates, issued by Mr. Windom when he was previously secretary of the treasury under the Garfield-Arthur administration. The debt bearing no interest amounts to $768,580,522, consisting mostly of greenbacks and gold silver certificates. The cash in the treasury consists principally of $100,000,000 held as reserve for the redemption of greenbacks; gold held for notes actually outstanding, $122,985,889; silver held for silver certificates actually outstanding, $283,949,076, and two or three smaller items. During the entire time this great reduction was being made and the surplus accumulated, the country has enjoyed the greatest prosperity. There is at this time no cloud on the future, and continued prosperity will result in a continued decrease of the public debt.

Kate Field is getting in her work. Here is a sample: We ought to establish in the United States a school department for public men. And the first motto I should hang up over the door would be: "Don't sit on your spine!" I couldn't help thinking of that as I sat in the gallery of the house of representatives the day the chief justice delivered his oration. In marched the president and Mr. Blaine, followed by the other secretaries, and sat down in the first row of the amphitheatre. Sat? Yes, sitting is what it is called. Within five minutes every mother's son of them, with perhaps one exception, had slid down so that his body was supported by his shoulder-blades and the small of his back. The justices of the supreme court followed, and down they went in the same way. So did the rest of the dignitaries, as bevy after bevy filed in. In contrast with them, there sat the foreign ministers and the delegates to the two international conferences, as upright as ramrods.

DANGEROUS PURGATIVES.

A City Policeman's Experience. Mineral pills and drastic purgatives so irritate the mucous coatings of the stomach and bowels, that they often leave the system in worse condition than before. In fact their cathartic action is due to their irritation. The danger attending their steady use is apparent. The new laxative principle in Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla gets its cathartic action by increasing the mucous secretions and gently stimulating the stomach. It is purely vegetable, does not lose its effect, is effective and absolutely safe to be taken occasionally or continuously by the most delicate persons.

Gus Videau, the well known police officer of No. 1236 Howard St., San Francisco, writes: "After my own experience I firmly believe that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla will cure the most obstinate cases of constipation. Although cured I am still taking it, and never had my system so thoroughly regulated. By increasing or diminishing the dose one has absolute command over himself with this valuable remedy."

It is stated that seven great flour mills at Milwaukee have formed a combination involving $5,000,000 capital and an annual output of 1,500,000 barrels of flour to fight the English syndicate mills.

The annual report of the National W. C. T. U. shows a total membership for 1889 of 142,348, a gain of 3821 over the paid membership of 1888.

Pitcher's Castoria.

A civil engineer surveying in the mountains seventy-five miles west of Durango city, Mexico, recently discovered the site of an ancient mining district. Above 100 arastras were found grouped about patios of immense size, overgrown with forest trees four feet in diameter. At the mouth of the shafts and tunnels are immense piles of ore which show a value of from $75 to $100 per ton. A company has been formed to follow up the discovery.

MOTHERS!

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhoea and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. 35 doses, 35 cents. 3:16-2y.

The grand total of money embezzled in this country last year by officials and from corporations, individuals and trust funds, was $8,562,753. Embezzling paid better than some legitimate lines of business.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria,

Baby One Solid Rash

Ugly, painful, blotched, malicious. No rest by day, no peace by night. Doctors and all remedies failed. Tried Cuticura. Effect marvellous. Saved his life.

Cured by Cuticura

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when an infant six months old was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it, but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and today he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred. GEO. B. SMITH, Atty at law and Ex-Prov. Atty, Ashland, O.

Boy Covered with Scabs

My boy, aged nine years, has been teething all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, I determined to try the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The CUTICURA REMEDIES are all you claim for them. GEO. F. LEAVITT, No. Andover, Mass.
