

The Corvallis Gazette.

VOL. XXVII.

CORVALLIS, BENTON COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, MARCH 14, 1890.

NO. 7.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." E. A. ARCHER, M. D., 211 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 Murray Street, N. Y.

A. T. HERSHNER,

The

LEADING GROCER

Carries a full and complete stock of

Staple and Fancy Groceries,

Crockery, Glassware,

China and Semi-Porcelain,

Toilet Sets, Lamps, Vases,

Decorated Tea and Dinner Sets,

Wood and Willow Ware,

Candies and Nuts, Tobacco,

Cigars, Grass and Garden Seeds,

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

Everything guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Customers well treated. Goods best quality. Prices the lowest. Volume of trade doubled the past two years, and constantly increasing. Goods delivered on board cars and boats free of charge.

Store—Northwest corner of Monroe and Second streets, Corvallis, Oregon.

CITY LAUNDRY!

Jm Sing and Doc You, Proprietors.

Having lately made an entire change in the management of the wash-house, just south of the Hemphill house, we are prepared to give satisfaction in our line. We also conduct an intelligence office. apt13

WESTWOOD POULTRY YARD!

J. W. Huffman, Prop.

Breeder and shipper of thoroughbred Partridge, White and Buff Cochins, Light and Dark Brahma Langshans, rose and single comb Browns, Leghorns, Laced Wyandots, Plymouth Rocks and Silver Spangled Hamburgs. Send for circulars. PHILMATH, - OREGON.

F. M. JOHNSON,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,
CORVALLIS, OR.

Does a general practice in all the courts. Also agent for all the first-class insurance companies. 2-24

FREE 19 SILK AND SATIN NECKTIES Agents' Soap box and Outfit, 13 cts. THE NECKTIE CO., Augusta, Me. Please state what periodical you saw our advertisement in.

THIRTY DAYS IN THE C. J.—

The examination of Geo. Hadlock, accused of appropriating some money to his own use from the boarding house of Mrs. Powers a few weeks ago, occurred yesterday afternoon. He pleaded guilty to petty larceny and was given thirty days in the county jail. The grand jury will investigate further charges against him, probably, as they meet before his term of confinement expires.

The Seattle Press says that there are fully 800 vagrants in that city. There are 300 prostitutes, 75 professional gamblers, and 400 people besides having "no visible calling or business to maintain themselves."

See Hartless & Davison's advertisement on the second page. Their office is opposite the brick livery stable on Main street.

Moore & Hitchens for shaving, hair cutting and shampooing. Shaving 15 cents.

The O. D. steamers have not yet sailed from Yaquina having been there since Saturday last. Rough seas have sanded the bar badly again.

Evangelical Church.—Preaching on Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Subject for the evening discourse, "A Good net With Bad Fish In It." J. M. Dick.

"What is mist?" asks an exchange. Judging from our experience with humanity it is the subscription money due an editor.

Great inducements in stoves and tinware, at Geo. E. Fish's.

Remember the superior stoves and ranges, at Fish's.

Grandest of the grand is the Pacific Argand, at Fish's.

Especially for coast trade—the Argand range, at Fish's.

Irvine & Helm wishes to inform the public that they have made a change in their firm and would most respectfully ask those who owe them to call and settle immediately, at the old stand.

BORN.

On Sunday, March 9th, 1890, at the farm home south of Corvallis, to the wife of Wm. Couch, a son.

In Yaquina City, on March 9th, 1890, to the wife of Edward Ford, a son. The "dad" is the genial fellow who keeps his left hand on the throttle lever of engine No. 13, which pulls the Oregon Pacific passenger and mail train over and back every day between Yaquina and Corvallis. Ed. cau at ford to tout an extra whistle now.

MARRIED.

In Corvallis, in the county judge's office, on March 7th, 1890, Thos. Savage and Miss Dora Miller, all of Summit, this county; E. Holgate officiated.

DIED.

In Philomath, on March 9th, 1890, Mary, wife of Richard Wyatt, aged 19 years.

PHYSICIANS.

J. M. APPLEWHITE, M. D.,
PHYSICIAN and SURGEON,
Corvallis, Oregon.

Office at R. Graham's drug store, on Main street, opposite reading room.

G. R. FARRA, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON

Special attention given to Obstetrics and diseases of Women and Children. Office up stairs in Crawford & Farra's brick. Office hours, 8 to 9 a. m., and 1 to 2 and 7 p. m. 1:13-71.

PORTLAND LINSEED-OIL CO.

Manufacturers of

Raw and Boiled Linseed Oil,

Oil Cake Meal and Ground Flaxseed.

PORTLAND, OREGON.

The highest price paid for flaxseed. Seed furnished to farmers who will contract to put in a crop. 2:21m.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

LAND OFFICE AT OREGON CITY, OR.,
February 27th, 1890.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the county clerk of Benton county, at Corvallis, Oregon, on Tuesday, April 22nd, 1890, viz: W. Gifford Nash, Pre-emption D. S. No. 5822 for the W. 1/4 of N. E. 1/4 and N. 1/4 of S. E. 1/4 of Sec. 20 Tp. 10, S. R. 8 W. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: R. Skaggs, of Elk City, Benton county, Or., C. Kohrer, of Summit, Benton county, Or., E. Brooker, of Corvallis, Benton county, Or., and W. J. Poole, of Summit, Benton county, Or.

J. T. APPERSON,
Register.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Wayman St. Clair went to Port Townsend, Washington, on Friday last, on a business trip.

The Presbytery of Oregon holds its annual meeting in Portland April 8th and 10th.

The mission band of the Presbyterian church meets at the parsonage on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Nellie Keesee arrived home yesterday from Albany, where she has been visiting for the past ten days.

W. C. Peterson, a real estate agent of Lebanon, was in Corvallis yesterday. He reports his town as lively.

Pete Callahan has shown excellent taste in the manner in which he has "dressed" the snow windows in Nolan's store here.

Mrs. L. L. Hurd, who has been on a visit to her parents in Roseburg, returned home on Saturday. Her husband is now all smiles.

Rev. E. R. Prichard, of Albany, paid Corvallis a flying visit last Monday. Mrs. E. J. Thompson accompanied him on his return to visit his children in our neighboring city.

Prof. Loissette's memory system is creating greater interest than ever in all parts of the country, and persons wishing to improve their memory should send for his prospectus free as advertised in another column.

E. Skipton, assessor of Benton county, was in Salem this week attending a county assessors' convention which convened there on Tuesday. There were only three of their officers present, therefore but little business was transacted.

The board of trade held a meeting last evening, and, among other things, appointed a committee of three to interview the city council at its next meeting in regard to doing something about perfecting a better system of sewerage and drainage in Corvallis. Zephin Job, Wm. Hartless, and Wallis Nash are the committee.

Mrs. H. V. Gates, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, is visiting former friends in Corvallis, and expects to remain a few days. She is staying with Mrs. C. C. Hogue. Mr. Gates is inspecting the line of the O. R. & N. Co. for the Union Pacific company, of which he is a division engineer. Both Mr. and Mrs. Gates have many warm friends in Corvallis.

Services at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath morning and evening at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Preaching by Dr. Thompson. Service of song at 7:15 p. m. The morning theme will be "The Sins of Good Men." In the evening the first of two sermons entitled "The Future," will be given and a slight reference will be made to the much talked of doctrine of "Predestination." An effort will be made to make these sermons interesting and profitable to all.

STATE CONVENTION.

The fifth annual convention of the Sunday school workers of Oregon will be held in the Christian church, McMinnville, commencing Tuesday, April 15th, and closing Thursday April 17th, 1890. While this is a mass convention, and all interested in Sunday school work are most cordially and earnestly invited to be present, yet, to insure representation, each Sunday school in the state is requested to select two or more persons pledged to attend. The friends of the work at McMinnville will open their homes and hearts and take care of all who may attend the convention. That they may know who are to be entertained, all those expecting to be present will confer a favor by sending their names to Rev. J. Hoberg, McMinnville, that places may be assigned them. Friends of the work will notice the change in time of holding the convention from June to April. This is done that Oregon may fall into line with our sister states in a chain of conventions arranged by the international executive committee. Wm. Reynolds, president of the late international convention will be present at the convention, and take a prominent and active part. Arrangements have been made with the S. P. R. R. in Oregon and the O. P. R. R. for the usual reduced rates. That we may know the number of schools and pupils, and the work being done by the Sunday schools of Oregon, the superintendent or secretary of each school is requested to send Prof. Henry Sheak, Philomath, Or., statistical secretary, a full report. E. W. ALLEN, President. W. N. HULL, Secretary, Corvallis.

The conductor of a train that runs between Philadelphia and Morristown was recently converted and now holds daily meetings in the baggage car, which are attended by the trainmen. Very beautiful, of course; but suppose an accident should take place, owing to the failure of some of the trainmen to attend to their business?

Extra great is the grate of the great Argand's, at Fish's.

Fine arrangement makes the Argand quick to work, at Fish's.

Improvements of latest dates on the superiors, at Fish's.

Substantiability is our motto. Geo. E. Fish.

Hell has no heat compared to the Argand. See it at Geo. E. Fish's.

Hon. John Burnett was over to Albany on Tuesday attending circuit court.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE CALL.

There will be a meeting of the Benton County Republican Central Committee on Wednesday, March 19th, 1890, at 1 o'clock p. m., sharp, at the court house in the city of Corvallis, for the purpose of fixing the time of holding primaries and county convention, also fixing the rate of representation for Delegates.

NAMES OF COMMITTEE.

Fairmount,
Soap Creek, R. N. Williamson.
South Corvallis, J. A. Henkle.
Willamette, John Whitaker.
North Corvallis, C. E. Moor.
Monroe, M. T. Starr.
Philomath, Wm. Jolly.
King's Valley, J. M. Watson.
Summit, Horace Underhill.
Tide Water, J. R. Galt.
Wrenn, Geo. Bayne.
Lobster, L. A. Peak.
Alsea, J. Polly.
Newport, R. A. Bensall.
Yaquina, T. J. Buford.
Tam Tum, Alfred Flickinger.
Lower Alsea, E. H. Baldwin.
Little Elk, T. Shaw.
Elk City, C. C. Mays.
Toledo, W. H. Alexander.
Big Elk, ———

SOL KING.

Ch'm County Central Com.

March, 10th, 1890.

TOLEDO NOTES.

J. D. Graham is having his stores raised to a level with the railroad, which is a great improvement to the town.

A tax has been raised by the district board to build a new school house this summer, which will be much appreciated by the pupils.

Mr. Colemore's new cottage is just nearing completion. It is quite an addition to our part of the town.

A. Porter, county surveyor, is doing a great deal of surveying in and around Toledo. This means business next summer.

A slide, from one of the hills on D. P. Blue's farm, uncovered a fine vein of coal about 25 feet wide.

MARCH, 10, 1890. T.

DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between J. P. Irvine and F. A. Helm under the firm name of Irvine & Helm and doing business at Corvallis, Oregon, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. J. P. Irvine retiring from said firm. All liabilities of the late firm of Irvine & Helm are assumed and will be paid by the new firm of Holgate & Helm. All outstanding accounts will be collected immediately by J. P. Irvine and F. A. Helm. IRVINE & HELM.
Corvallis, March 12, 1890.

In reference to the above we wish to inform the public that we will carry a full line of boots and shoes of the finest grade and makes, together with everything else to be found in a first-class boot and shoe establishment. We will be prepared to do all kinds of repairing in our line. Hoping to merit a continuance of the patronage so liberally bestowed on the former firm, we remain, respectfully,
ARTHUR HOLGATE,
F. A. HELM.

RIGHT KIND OF TALK.

EDS. GAZETTE:—

The passing of the equinoctial storm brings us to a realization that spring is again upon us. Now let us, citizens of Corvallis and vicinity, ask ourselves if we intend to allow the spring of 1890 to come and go and still leave upon the people of this state the impression that Corvallis is a "dead town." Such an impression has long fettered the movements of this city towards progress and has caused us to be left alone; severely alone, by outside capital. But recent immigration and awakening activity throughout the state and particularly the Willamette valley has given an impulse to the progress of our city of late and, while the local zeal is at high tide, our prospects are blooming. But the reaction is too prone to bring with it long faces, bitter sarcasm, and their twin sister inaction.

Now, do we propose to allow this reaction to strike us and undo the work already initiated? If we do, all that is necessary is to continue to drift. We have been drifting too long already and it is high time we made some efforts to help ourselves. If we do not start the wheels of improvement agoing ourselves, can we consistently ask or expect anyone who has no interests involved to do so for us? And, if we should summons the necessary amount of check to make such requests, does any person imagine they would be granted? No; emphatically, NO!

The very first requisite towards inducing co-operation between interested and disinterested people in any enterprise, business, or pursuit, is for the interested persons to show their confidence in the enterprise. How do they manifest that confidence? Is it by loud talking or smooth talking or "booming" things which means air-castle building, no! The people who have been industrious or keen enough to command capital are not to be caught by such chaff. They require something more substantial. They want to see a little more local capital thrown into sight.

Let us apply this to our own selves a little. Last season a strong effort was made to induce the citizens of this community to take stock in a creamery. The name alone is enough to suggest the value to any farming community of such an enterprise. A market would be afforded for our produce, employment would be given to a number of persons and we would have a commodity manufactured at home to export in exchange for, What; for gold. And it is this process which leads to wealth. And how did it fare with the creamery project? Couldn't be done; the community did not believe that it could be made to succeed and it was not established. An artificial ice project was likewise frozen up before it could hardly have an opportunity to explain what it proposed to do. While about this time a building and loan association came along and was covered like flies on syrup in summer time, and with the same result. And our more recent efforts. How have they been seconded by our progressive people? Our canal project? Our bridge idea? Our Brownsville railroad extension? Our street railway? How have these projects been received? With a most sublime apathy! with a most unprogressive interest!

Now, let us state facts. We have been liberal to advertise—abroad. We have spent, how much for Oregonian and West Shore advertisements? More than a thousand dollars. How does the practical manufacturer or business man look at this sort of investment? They call it "booming" movement. Has a "Mississippi bubble" ring to it. Gives a chemical tinge and ranciance to our borders but no internal warmth or development. What we must do if we expect to maintain our proper place is to invest in our own town. Not in buying up large tracts of farming land and selling it off as city property (in the country), but to build substantial business and dwelling houses, take stock liberally in these public enterprises according to our means and be united in all this. It is of no avail to the rapid advancement of our community for us to lean back on our dignity, or our posteriors, and leave these things to the board of trade. Who is the board of trade anyway and what is its mission? It is composed of ourselves; and of its mission, hereafter. It will not do to leave these things to this factor because without our individual activity the board of trade is an empty sound. Be ready to support your council when it tries to improve our sanitary condition by constructing sewers and cleaning streets, and remember that to do this takes money and the council will have to raise this money and, very likely, in the form of a tax; so don't oppose it under penalty of remaining filthy. Be ready to extend fire limits and to build substantial buildings therein. Subscribe to the street railway, and let us all get off of our boxes and put up our knives and be ready to do our part in the development of our city and the name of CORVALLIS will be the synonym of prosperity, of power.

CITIZEN.

Corvallis, March 10.

Carlile & Jeffreys negotiate loans and do a general real estate and insurance business. Rooms over Benton county bank. tf.

Go to C. B. Wells, Philomath, Or., for your fine eggs to set.