Prof. J. B. Horner, principal of the Roseburg public school, and wife are visiting in Benton county, their former home. The professor speaks very favorably of the prospects of the Roseburg and Coos Bay railroad.

A HAUNTED HOUSE.

This body of ours has been likened unto a tenement. It often has a haunted apartment—the stomach. Scared by the eldritch sprite, dyspepsia, digestion flies and refuses to return. What can break the spell, what can raise the ban laid upon the unhappy organ? We answer unhesitatingly, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and we are warranted in the response by the recorded testimony of myriads, covering a period of over a third of a century. A course of the Bitters begun at any stage of the affliction, and persistently followed, will terminate in cures positive, not partial. The Bitters restores tone to the epigastric nerve, renews and purifies the juices exuding from the cellular tissue that act upon the food digestively, expels bile from the stomach and the blood, and promotes a regular habit of body. Malaria, kidney complaint, nervousness, rheumatism and neuralgia, give way to this medicine.

F. S. CRAIG,
FRANK CONOVER.
Corvallis, April 15, 1890.

MISS MANNICE, sister of Mrs. Herbert Nash, who has been living in Oregon for the past three years, returned this week to her home in England.

EXCURSION TO-MORROW.—Every effort has been made to make the excursion of the Congregational Sunday school to-morrow a pleasant affair.

The train, which consists of four cars, will leave Corvallis at 7 o'clock in the morning, going as far east as Bridenbush, the extreme end of the track, and will leave Bridenbush at 4 o'clock arriving in Corvallis at 8 o'clock in the evening. This will give the excursionists about five hours to enjoy the fresh mountain air. A baggage car will be attached to the train in which Cameron & Co. will serve refreshments of all kinds including lemonade and ice cream sodas. From present indications about 200 of our citizens will go on the excursion.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.—The following is the general programme of the commencement exercises of the State Agricultural College to be held in the assembly hall June 22 to the 25, 1890: Sunday the 22, at 11 a. m., baccalaureate sermon by Rev. E. J. Thompson, D. D.; Monday, the 23rd, at 8 p. m., annual celebration of the Dialectic Literary Society; Tuesday, the 24th, annual meeting of Board of Regents, 2 p. m., class-day exercises, 6 p. m., planting of ivy and military drill, music on the lawn; Wednesday, the 25th at 1:30 p. m., commencement day, delivery of class orations and essays, conferring of diplomas, address to graduates, Rev. T. L. Elliott, D. D.

WENT INSANE.—Rev. Price, pastor of the M. E. church, South, at Spier, has recently been holding revival meetings at the Crabtree school house in the Forks. During the course of the meetings, whether from the excitement or otherwise, we were not informed, he became demented and is now pronounced hopelessly insane. Dr. Hill has been attending him and sees little hopes for the restoration of his mind. He was brought to Albany Monday, examined before a commission, declared insane and taken to Salem on the noon train.—Albany Democrat.

GET YOUR CARD.—S. L. Kline has adopted a new feature in connection with his general merchandise business, as will be seen by his advertisement in another column. To customers who will purchase $50 worth of goods of him during the next three months he makes them a present of a Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, leather bound. A card will be furnished to any one who will call at his store, on which will be recorded the amount of your purchase. This is a very valuable present for any one.

FEAGLES' EXAMINATION.—The preliminary examination of R. L. Feagles for the killing of Morgan Lillard at Big Elk, was held in Justice Carlile's court last Saturday. A number of witnesses were examined and the evidence went to show that the killing was done in self defense, thus exonerating him from the responsibility of Lillard's death. Feagles was not placed under arrest but had the investigation brought about by his own request.

THE STREET RAILWAY.—The remaining rails for the road arrived last Tuesday and all material is here except about 2 carloads of lumber which will arrive to-morrow. The track is laid from the postoffice to 13th and South streets in Job's addition. Contractor McCoy expects to be able to turn the road over to the company early next week. It is probable the trial trip over the road will be made on Wednesday or Thursday next.

LOST.—On Friday, May, 30th a child's gold neck chain, valued as a keepsake. Finder will be rewarded by returning to RALSTON COX.

MISS MAY MEAGHER, stenographer in the engineer office of the Oregon Pacific left yesterday for San Francisco where she will remain for two or three weeks visiting friends and relatives.

MISS MANNICE, sister of Mrs. Herbert Nash, who has been living in Oregon for the past three years, returned this week to her home in England.

A SUCCESSFUL PICNIC.—In response to a previous invitation we went on Saturday, the 7th, to a Sunday school picnic held unitedly by three schools in Mr. Walker's grove about 11 miles southwest of Corvallis. When we arrived on the ground the exercises had already begun. A good programme had been prepared for the occasion. We had the privilege of hearing a number of recitations spoken by Sunday school scholars, all of which were a credit to the schools represented. Addresses were also delivered by men of experience with good effect. The exercises were interspersed with excellent music, vocal and instrumental. The instrumental music was rendered by Mr. Williamson, on the violin, Miss Williamson, on the guitar, and a young man, whose name I have forgotten, on the organ. The music was enchanting as it floated out among the stately firs, and fell upon the ear of the listener with its thrilling power. At noon came a part of the programme in which all participated with evident relish. Feelings of sociability found friendly expression in the intercourse of those present. After dinner the programme was resumed and the people were again entertained with recitations, speeches and music, after which we left the grove feeling that our first picnic in Oregon was both pleasant and profitable.

SUNNYSIDE FRUIT FARMS.—Salem continues to grow and the building industry never was so actively pursued in that city before. This activity extends to the section adjoining the city, and each contributes to the other's prosperity. This condition of things gives added value to those ten acre fruit farms at Sunnyside, four miles south of Salem, for sale by The Oregon Land Co., and renders them increasingly desirable to those who wish to engage in any farm specialty.

YOU CAN MAKE MONEY.—It is beyond reasonable doubt that there will be a genuine "boom" in Job's addition in the near future. The completion of the street railway giving residents speedy connection with the business centre, schools, churches, etc., opening of streets, and buildings assured, cannot fail to result in a rapid increase in values. This property offers inducements to investors possessed by no other, and lots will show a marked advance before snow flies again.

BROKE HIS ARM.—Last Saturday evening Philip Weber, Jr., while scuffling with his brother George, fell in such a manner as to break his left arm just below the elbow. Dr. Applewhite was called and set the broken limb and Philip is getting along as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

STANLEY'S WORKS.—Look carefully over the title page before subscribing for any book purporting to be written by Henry M. Stanley. James S. Felton is the only authorized agent for the genuine work in Benton county. The new work will soon be published in two volumes, by Scribner's Sons and Mr. Felton is now busy taking orders for books.

LOST.—On Monday, June 2, between Wrenn station and King's Valley, a Smith & Wesson five-shot revolver 38 cal., center fire. The finder will leave same at Wrenn or Kings Valley [postoffice] and oblige L. R. PRICE.

SASH, DOORS, ETC.—Having made extensive arrangements for machinery and material, I will be prepared on April 1, 1890, to do all kinds of work in doors, mouldings, sashes, etc., etc. W. P. MARTYN, Corvallis, Or.

BRICK, BRICK.

I still have a good supply of brick on hand, and will take in exchange for same, lath, lumber, wood and hay. Yard South East of Corvallis.

L. A. DENNICK.
