Miss Hattie Hanna, who has for some time been in the employ of the Oregon Pacific as stenographer, started Tuesday for Eugene City where she will remain for a short time before starting to her future home in Kansas City.

The supper given by the ladies of the M. E. Church, South, at Corvallis College was very liberally patronized by the good people of Corvallis. All who attended were pleased with the elegant supper prepared by the ladies. The Corvallis band was on hand and added much to the interest of the occasion. The young people lingered in the parlors and on the lawn. The proceeds amounted to $60 and the expenses were only 5. It was a success in every sense.

The grange had a picnic at Grange hall, about 10 miles southwest of Corvallis, yesterday. A number of people from town were in attendance.

M. E. Church South.—There will be preaching in the Corvallis College chapel next Sunday morning and evening by Rev. J. L. Ruser, of Walla Walla, Wash. Rev. D. Atkins, the pastor, will be absent attending camp-meeting in Polk county.

WEDNESDAY 9 A. M.—BUSINESS MEETING

Treasurers' report.

Reports of special committees.

Appointment of committees on: Orchard fruits, small fruits, vegetables, flowers, ornamentals, botany, entomology, exhibits, nomenclature, new fruits, legislation.

New business.

Papers for this session have been requested but as the parties have not responded we cannot give subjects.

Railroads and hotels will give reduced rates. A goodly number have already signified their intention of attending. This promises to be one of our best meetings and you are earnestly requested to be present, also to bring your friends, The State Horticultural board will also hold its regular quarterly meeting at this place at the time.

The horticultural interests of Oregon and how best to give them a prominence at Chicago—the world's fair—is a question that we can discuss none too soon.

Come prepared to add some new or useful matter to Oregon's horticultural interests. Join the Society by paying to the secretary $1 and help by your presence and knowledge of one of our foremost state interests.

Respectfully,
E. R. LAKE,
Secretary.

A TOUGH CITIZEN.—On Friday last a person whose history and character are now better known hereabout than they were a week ago, hired a horse and buggy from Mr. Eglin, stating that he intended to go to Philomath and return the same day. The rig not having been returned at the time agreed upon, Mr. Eglin started out on Saturday to discover the reason and found the track of a turnout that answered the description of his in the neighborhood of Smithfield. Finally on Tuesday he found his horse and buggy about thirty miles east of Eugene on the military road. The thief had formerly been in the employ of the Singer S. M. Co., and in the neighborhood where the rig was found he had undertaken to collect a bill due the company, whereupon the party approached showed him a letter stating that no bills should be paid to him and that the company intended to prosecute him as soon as found. He had abandoned the horse and buggy presumably in order to better make his escape. His name is Frank J. Peck, but has a number of aliases; is an ex-convict and is a pretty good all-round scoundrel. The Singer Co., as well as Mr. Eglin, is looking for him and, there is little doubt that he will again serve the state in the capacity for which he became fitted while at Salem a few years ago.

The publisher of the GAZETTE was very agreeably surprised last Wednesday by receiving a call from J. C. Cook, an old chum and school mate of ye editor, it being the first meeting in fifteen years. Many fond recollections of school days, and of school mates who are scattered to all parts of the world and some who have passed to another world, were brought back fresh to our memory in the conversation that followed. Mr. Cook is traveling for D. M. Osborne & Co., of Portland and San Francisco. This firm is among the most extensive dealers in agricultural implements on this coast.

CIRCUIT JUDGE APPOINTED.

M. L. Pipes, was appointed by Governor Penoyer on Tuesday last, to the circuit judgeship of the second judicial district of Oregon to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. S. Bean, who has just been elected judge of the supreme court. The appointment was a surprise to many in this county as there were several democratic aspirants in the district for the place, the most prominent of whom were supposed to be Hon. John Burnett, of this city, J. W. Hamilton, of Douglas. But it seems as if the governor has been a little ungrateful in this appointment, especially towards Mr. Burnett, who has on all occasions during the recent campaign been a great champion of Penoyer, so much so as to compare him with General Jackson, the hero of New Orleans, in some of his political speeches in this city. Perhaps if the judge had occasion to repeat the ratification speech made by him on the evening after election he would not be quite so ardent over the Penoyer election. At the same time the GAZETTE has nothing to say against the appointment of Judge Pipes, who will no doubt fill the position in an acceptable manner.

COACHING PARTY.—Last Saturday evening a number of young ladies of this city gave a moonlight coaching party. They secured conveyances at their own expense and invited their gentleman friends to manipulate the lines for them. They drove several miles in the country and stopped at the home of Miss Lizzie Keesee, where they were highly entertained for a few hours and at 12 o'clock returned to their homes, having spent a delightful evening. The names of the party are Maud Hoffman, Jessie Waggoner, Lulu Smith, Miss Sharples of Eugene, Leone Louis, Eda and Sarah Jacobs, Mrs. Clark, Robert and J. O. Wilson, Ed Wilson, Robert Johnson, L. Helm Arthur Holgate.

AMPUTATED.—Last Monday morning, Wm. Gunton, the head sawyer at Frantz's sawmill, in Kings Valley met with an accident in which he had his left hand badly lacerated. The mill had just started up for the day's run, and while examining the machinery his hand came in contact with the saw. He was brought to his home in this city and Drs. Applewhite & Pernot dressed the wounded hand and amputated the index and third fingers. Moral—"Don't monkey with the buzz saw."

FOILED.—The amateur dramatic company of this city gave an entertainment at Job's Theatre last Tuesday evening, reproducing the drama "Foiled." The performers carried out their parts in a very creditable manner, but the company were "foiled" in their attempt to replenish their treasury with the cash. The entertainment was given for the purpose of raising funds for a literary and dramatic club that has recently organized and furnished a hall in this city. They were surely deserving of a better house.

FINE RESIDENCE.—Dr. Bailey, of Newport, has commenced the erection of an elegant residence on his property near Olsson's addition to that place. It will be an eight foot stone basement, two story and an attic house with all the latest improvements in the way of hot and cold water etc., and when completed will be the finest residence in Benton county without exception. The cost of building will be between $8,000 and $10,000. Mr. A. C. Ewart, of this city, is the architect.

MARRIED.

LITTLE-NOISE.—At the residence of the bride's parents near Blodgett's, on Sunday, June 26, 1890, W. W. Little, of this city and Lidia Noise, Rev. A. J. Jarnegan officiating.

DIED.

SEIFERT.—In Kings Valley, on Friday, June 27, Richard Seifert, aged 26 years.

The remains were interred in the Kings Valley cemetery at 11 a. m. Sunday. The death of the deceased resulted from injuries received by falling beneath a log at Frantz's saw mill.
