WHAT THE PRESS SAYS.—If there is any truth in the old adage of, "What everybody says must be so," then we are to have a great show in our city on the 28th. "A bigger and better show than Barnum's," is what the Portsmouth, O., Blade says. "Far less pretensions, yet far more meritorious, than the Barnum show," is the way the Evansville Journal expresses its views of the Robinson show. "Both of the big shows have been witnessed by our citizens, and of the two shows, we sincerely believe that Robinson's show is the best, and gave better satisfaction than Barnum's," is the way the Peoria, Ill., Democrat puts it. It is comments like those above that meet our view in all the leading journals. All say that Robinson's show has no equal. Remember that this big show will exhibit at Corvallis July 28.

CORVALLIS, July 15, 1890.
To the Farmers of Benton County: Gentlemen:—Would you like to be represented in the Industrial Fair at Portland September 25 to October 25, 1890? If so, do not fail to save samples of your products; bring them to our office in the Occidental block, Corvallis, and we will do the rest. It is our intention to have an exhibit at the fair from Benton county, but we must have the help of the farmers. If you will do your part, we promise that Benton county's exhibit at the North Pacific Industrial Exposition in the fall of 1890 will compare with any in the state. Respectfully,
HARTLESS & DAVISSON.

W. F. M. S.—The Corvallis auxiliary to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society will hold a public meeting at the M. E. church Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m., July 20, 1890. Following is the programme: Organ Voluntary. Prayer. Scripture Reading. Hymn. Singapore, Our Work for the Year. Hymn. Recitation. Reading, "Ten Reasons." Song by Primary Class. Recitation, "The Penny He Meant to Give." Collection. Song, "Hindoo Child Widow." Treasurer's Report. Hymn, Benediction.

LETTERS.—Advised July 18, 1890. E. Frank Brown 2, Anna Barclay, Jasper Crabtree, Lillie Newgard, Adam Obrest, J. T. Smith, Dock Smith, Van Tibbitts, F. A. HELM, P. M.

SASH, DOORS, ETC.—Having made extensive arrangements for machinery and material, I will be prepared on April 1, 1890, to do all kinds of work in doors, mouldings, sashes, etc., etc. W. P. MARTY, Corvallis, Or.

STANLEY'S WORKS.—Look carefully over the title page before subscribing for any book purporting to be written by Henry M. Stanley. James S. Felton is the only authorized agent for the genuine work in Benton county. The new work will soon be published in two volumes, by Scribner's Sons and Mr. Felton is now busy taking orders for books.

BRICK, BRICK.

I still have a good supply of brick on hand, and will take in exchange for same, lath, lumber, wood and hay. Yard South East of Corvallis.

L. A. DENNICK.

The census enumerator is not satisfied with knowing your age, but seems to have an interest in your mortgage.

The Binghamton Republican says it is a mean man who will hire a friend to act as bogus census taker in order to find out his best girl's age.

A company to place advertisements on the ceilings of barber shops for the perusal of men getting shaved has been formed in New York.

The size of the farmers' alliance of North Carolina is scaring the politicians. They want a railroad commission and no free passes for legislators.

The last stone of Ulm Cathedral was put in place on May 31, and that cathedral now reaches higher than any other in the world, or 530 feet.

Henry M. Stanley has at last reached the climax of earthly glory. A London firm has notified him that it has named a brand of sausages in his honor.

New York Sun: Census enumerator to young lady in the door:—"Did you say the world is your home?" "Yes, sir; I am the daughter of a Methodist minister."

The Cincinnati Times-Star wants something done to perpetuate the memory of Capt. John Smith. John's memory is perpetuated in all the directories of the world.

The queen of England has the largest bound book ever made. It is eighteen inches thick and weighs sixty-three pounds. It contains the jubilee addresses of congratulation.

When President and Mrs. Cleveland were accustomed to attend the First Presbyterian Church, of Washington, the edifice used to be crowded and the society flourished. Now the attendance is so small that the trustees are unable to pay expenses.

Sweden, Maine is an agricultural town and a prosperous one says the Lynn Items. The town's finances have been so well handled that the state and county taxes for the present year have been paid from the town treasury and no town tax is assessed. So there is one place where farming pays.
