ARBOR DAY.

The arbor day law provides that the second Friday, in the afternoon, in April of each year shall hereafter be known throughout this state as Arbor Day. In order that the children in our public schools shall assist in the work of adorning the school grounds with trees, and to stimulate the minds of the children towards the benefits of the preservation and perpetuation of our forests and the growing of timber, it shall be the duty of the authorities in every public school district in this state to assemble the pupils in their charge on the above day in the school building or elsewhere, as they may deem proper, and to provide for and conduct such exercises as shall tend to encourage the planting, protection and preservation of trees and shrubs and acquaintance with the best methods to be adopted to accomplish such results.

Superintendent McElroy calls the attention of county superintendents to the law in a circular issued by the state board of education, in which he urges the teachers not to make the programme too long; to arrange it to suit the age and ability of the pupils; to give such variety as will most interest the children and parents.

If climatic conditions are such that it may be thought best to plant trees prior to the second Friday in April, the trees to be dedicated may be selected and planted at any time during the month of March that may be thought most suitable and beneficial for the life and growth of the same. The formal dedicatory exercises relative to the trees thus planted can be given on Arbor day.

Where impracticable to plant trees, shrubs, vines or flowers may be substituted. A flower bed may be laid out, and vines set in or seeds planted. If briar thickets, chaparral, or underbrush surround and disfigure the school house or school ground, such unsightly objects may be cleared away. The barren and bleak walls of many school houses may be decorated and made more cheerful. In brief, the exercises on Arbor day should not be confined to tree planting alone, but may well include any material improvement that will tend to make the school surroundings more attractive and healthful and impress upon the minds of the children the idea of the beautiful as well as the useful.

Many teachers and others in charge of exercises may choose to invite letters appropriate to the occasion from prominent persons in the different localities who are unable to be present.

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with Neuralgia and Rheumatism, his Stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well.

John Speake, Catawba, O., had five large Fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by Thos. Graham, Druggist.

Among the prisoners at the Oregon penitentiary was found a few days ago a negro who is afflicted with what is thought to be leprosy, but upon further investigation it may prove to be syphilitic paralysis. The flesh is said to be rotted three inches deep to the bone in some places. He is now quarantined in a heavy tent within the prison walls awaiting a determination of the nature of his disease, and a possible order for his release.

A LOST ADDRESS.

A Trinidad Lady Writes to San Francisco for It.

Mrs. Harriet McNamara of 319 State Street, Trinidad, Colorado, while visiting in St. Louis last summer, did not suffer with her usual sick headaches and indigestion. But upon her return to Trinidad her old troubles came upon her. It was not the St. Louis climate that did so much for her sick headaches. The secret is told in the following letter, received by Thomas Price & Son, the well-known assayers of 624 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. Mrs. McNamara writes:

"Three months since I was visiting in St. Louis and obtained two bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It was of great relief to me in my headaches and indigestion. Since my return to my home in Trinidad I feel the need of it, and as I have lost the address I write to you to ask if you will not kindly forward this letter to the proper number in San Francisco, and have me sent a few more bottles of this valuable vegetable compound."

Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is an almost certain cure for sick headaches and constipation. People who have used it once will send hundreds of miles to get it, as in the above instance.

Free-hand drawing is taught for the purpose of familiarizing the student with the fundamental principles underlying that art, and to so develop his eye and hand that he can represent what he sees on paper.

To practitioners of well nigh every art, profession or trade, drawing is an almost indispensable adjunct. Aside from its practical value, drawing tends to refine the taste and polish the mind. It is looked upon by many as being a special gift to a few. To some extent this is true, just as there are those who are unable to write so well as others, but Mr. Hunter in his "Talks on Art" declares that "anyone who can make the letter D can learn to draw. Learning to draw is learning the grammar of a language."

There is no reason why farmers' homes should not be adorned with pictures as well as the houses of any one else. His house must not look like a barn, it must be comfortable and attractive and pictures are one of the things to produce that result.

Instruction in vocal music is given free of charge. The class meets twice a week to practice songs for chapel exercises.

The college now owns a piano and facilities for practice are offered to those who wish.

Jessie Sharp, the youth who was ill at the college dormitory during a number of weeks in January and February, and who was removed to his home in Alsea while in a critical state of health, is improving slowly. At one time his friends had almost despaired of his recovery.

Deafness Can't be Cured by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless this inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we cannot cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c.

STATE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

ENGLISH.

In this department the English language is the principal subject taught and is continued from the first to the fourth year of the course. It includes a study of the grammar, English literature, old and modern English, English composition, rhetoric. The text-book in grammar, Whitney's Essentials of English Grammar, is made constant use of during the entire course as a book of reference.

Weekly exercises are given in composition so that the student will be able to write a plain, properly spelled and punctuated composition in which the thoughts are arranged in logical order and clothed in elegant language. It is the intention to give the student a correct understanding of the English language and to familiarize him with its history and characteristics so that he may have a firm basis for all subsequent investigations in the literature. Undoubtedly it is a duty to become acquainted first of all with our mother tongue. The necessity of more drill in the elements of the language is plainly seen in common conversation where we find the language often horribly butchered. It is not enough to be able simply to convey ideas; our degree of civilization demands that they be expressed correctly in beautiful language.

The course in political economy is so arranged that the student may become acquainted with the principles and philosophy of the science. So much time as is available is devoted to the consideration of the social and political problems of the day.

The subjects of ethics and mental philosophy are taken up in the fourth year.

President Arnold is director of the Experiment Station and his time is about equally divided between teaching, station work and such work as naturally falls on the president of such an institution.

HISTORY, DRAWING AND LANGUAGES.

Although the study of language is optional, yet the classes in German and French are well filled.

Recognition is taken of the fact that the most certain way to use a language effectually is to make practical use of it in conversation, hence this forms an essential part of each recitation. Every effort is made to enable the student to read fluently and translate correctly.

The increase of the German population makes it a matter of business, as well as an elegant accomplishment, to understand their language. Germany and France are not silent by any means in scientific researches. We wish to take advantage of their discoveries, but the results appear published in their own languages; if we are not to depend on the probability of a translation we must be able to read ourselves.

Familiarity with any foreign language makes a man more proficient in his own. All literature loses its beauty when translated. The power of Goethe or Hugo cannot be felt without reading the original.

Prof. Berchtold also has a first year's class in Latin. On account of lack of time in this department President Arnold has charge of the second year class in Latin for the present.

The study of history includes ancient, medieval and modern history. United States history is treated as a separate branch.

Attention is given to the development of the civilization and political systems of our own country.

The class in general history, which is the same as the class in drawing, is the largest in the college, containing about fifty members.

History is valuable not only for the purpose of knowing how people have lived in times past but also as an instrument in the hands of the statesman to be used in directing the affairs of the government. "To judge the future by the past." Cicero, one of the most celebrated of Roman authors, says: "Ignorance of the events and transactions of former time condemns us to perpetual darkness; from this condition of mental darkness we are rescued by history, which supplies us with its friendly light to view the instructive events of past ages and to collect wisdom from the conduct of others, and as there are particular countries from which we have derived the most important information in religion, arts, science and literature, we ought carefully to inspect the pages of their interesting records."

A valuable addition to this study, soon to be made, is a collection of several hundred photographs, representing views of different battle fields, mountains, cities, monuments, renowned structures and other items of interest in the world. There are already ordered five large wall maps, illustrating the different periods of history. The aim is to give the student a knowledge, first of his own country and then of as much of the rest of the world as possible.

Free-hand drawing is taught for the purpose of familiarizing the student with the fundamental principles underlying that art, and to so develop his eye and hand that he can represent what he sees on paper.

To practitioners of well nigh every art, profession or trade, drawing is an almost indispensable adjunct. Aside from its practical value, drawing tends to refine the taste and

To some extent this is true, just as there are those who are unable to write so well as others, but Mr. Hunter in his "Talks on Art" declares that "anyone who can make the letter D can learn to draw. Learning to draw is learning the grammar of a language."

MARRIED.

At the residence of S. N. Wilkins, in this city, on Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, April 8th, 1891, the ceremony uniting in marriage Mr. R. B. Criswell and Miss Nida Ferguson was performed by Dr. J. R. N. Bell in the presence of relatives and a few invited friends. The bride and groom received the congratulations of those present and during an hour succeeding the ceremony the company indulged in lively conversation pertinent to the occasion. At 10:40 the O. P. train for Albany stopped near the Wilkins residence, the bridal party stepped aboard and started for Portland by way of the East Side. The happy couple will visit the Sound, thence will proceed to Boise City, Idaho, in which location they will spend the summer, then return to Portland, their future home. Mr. Criswell is the adjusting agent of the State Insurance Co., of Salem. He has excellent business qualifications and is a worthy gentleman in every way. The bride is the grand-daughter of H. L. Wilkins and was raised and educated in Corvallis, where she possesses the high regard of all.

A NOVEL EXHIBITION.—A sparring exhibition for points will be given at Job's Theatre this evening. The leading attraction will be a six-round contest between Fred Tebo, the champion heavy weight boxer of Canada, and Amos Smith, quite well known in this vicinity, a scientific boxer and ready to meet any light weight in Oregon. Asa Tunnicliffe and Lyman Kelsay, rivals in the local ring, will have a four round set-to which promises to be very interesting. Other local sports who are handy with their fore paws will also appear. A full house is anticipated. Admission 50 cents.

The B. F. G. & R. E. & P. P. D. A.—The company organized through the efforts of Hon. Geo. Waggoner has been incorporated under the name of the Bellfountain Fruit Growers' and Real Estate and Property Dealers' Association, of Corvallis. The capital stock is $15,000. J. B. Lee, has been chosen president; Geo. Waggoner, vice-president; E. Holgate, secretary; F. M. Johnson, treasurer; W. W. Bristol, manager. The directors are J. B. Lee, Geo. Waggoner, F. M. Johnson, E. Holgate, B. F. Hyland. There are 560 acres in the farm which the company purchased. The contract has been let for plowing and preparing one hundred acres of the ground which will be planted to prune trees this fall, and additional acres will be planted to prunes or other fruit from time to time as the company may decide.

The Plupit and the Stage. Rev. F. M. Shroat, pastor United Brethren church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining twenty six pounds in weight."

Arthur Love, manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness to urge them to try it." Free trial bottle at Thos. Graham's drugstore. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.

Miss Fannie Odemeal and Mr. C. H. Gest were married April 1st. The bride is well known in this city where she has friends and relatives. Mr. Gest is an attorney of Fairhaven.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve. The best salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Thos. Graham.

W. W. Saunders writes rather an interesting article, in the Compendium, relative to convict life in the penitentiary, and undertakes to inform the youth of the land how not to get there.

WHY ARE WE SICK?—Because we allow the Liver, the bowels, and the Kidneys, these great organs, to become clogged or torpid, and poisonous humors are forced into the blood. Expel them by using Plunder's Oregon Blood Purifier.

John Lenger sometimes puts off until to-morrow what he could do out Saturday night. That is why he was cutting wood last Sunday, and how he came to chop his hand so severely that he was physically incapacitated for several days the first of the week.

Dr. J. R. N. Bell, of Independence, was in Corvallis Wednesday. He came up to officiate at the nuptial ceremony of Mr. R. B. Criswell and Miss Nida Ferguson. The doctor started the couple out upon the sea of matrimony in his usual happy manner.

The Corvallis, Willamette Valley and State Land and Loan Company are having issued at the GAZETTE job office a large edition of an elegant 12-page folder in colors. This work is an excellent specimen of the printer's art, and reflects credit upon the enterprise of the land company.

MISS GRIFFIN.—Miss Lucia B. Griffin is a young lady who has become widely known to the public both east and west as an eloquent of rare talent. From the flattering mention made of her by the papers of Portland and the press generally, it would seem that Miss Griffin is in herself a magnificent traveling "aggregation." Her entertainments consist of charming sentimental and comic recitations; faithful impersonations in costume and wonderful vocal imitations. With all her beauty and charming manner are not less attractive than her other accomplishments. She will appear at Job's Theatre to-morrow evening, April 11.
