THE CORVALLIS GAZETTE.

Vol. XXVIII.

CORVALLIS, BENTON COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1891.

[No. 22.

SETTLE UP.

Mr. E. B. Farmers, of this city, has been called away for a brief respite from the cares of his official position. The department is, no doubt, experiencing a period of temporary inactivity under the management of Mr. W. J. Johnson.

LOCAL NOTES.

THE PACIFIC.

The Pacific will meet nothing without something to be met, and we are assured that the Pacific will not fail to meet the demand of the local trade. The Pacific is said to have participated in the merger of the local trade, and we are assured that the Pacific will not fail to meet the
demand of the local trade. The Pacific is said to have participated in the
merger of the local trade, and we are assured that the Pacific will not
fail to meet the
demand of the local trade. The Pacific is said to have participated in the
merger of the local trade, and we are assured that the Pacific will not
fail to meet the
demand of the local trade. The Pacific is said to have participated in the
merger of the local trade, and we are assured that the Pacific will not
fail to meet the
demand of the local trade. The Pacific is said to have participated in the
merger of the local trade, and we are assured that the Pacific will not
fail to meet the
demand of the local trade. The Pacific is said to have participated in the
merger of the local trade, and we are assured that the Pacific will not
fail to meet the
demand of the local trade. The Pacific is
said to have participated in the
merger of the local trade, and we are assured that the Pacific will not
fail to meet the
demand of the local trade. The Pacific is depository.

THE OREGON PACIFIC R. R.

A Little Light on the Affairs of the Company.

The following note is published in Thursday's Oregonian, which shows some interest in the affairs of the Company.

The New York Herald says that the

The Oregon Pacific railroad company

The Oregon Pacific railroad company

The Oregon Pacific railroad company

The Oregon Pacific railroad company

The Oregon Pacific railroad company

The Oregon Pacific railroad company

The Oregon Pacific railroad company

The Oregon Pacific railroad company

The Oregon Pacific railroad company