

BRIEF LOCALS.

Candies fresh every day at Small & Son's. Do not fail to attend the lecture Monday evening. J. Wm. Will is closing out stationery and bird cages. Visit him. Fresh fruit can now be had in any variety, quality or quantity at Small & Son's.

COLLEGE COLUMN.

The opening term of the State Agricultural College was attended by a large list of new students, who represented the various sections of this state. It was the good pleasure of a GAZETTE representative to be present Monday, and when chapel exercises were called, the spacious room was filled nearly to its utmost capacity, with bright-looking young people, who apparently realized the importance of the year before them.

THE SILETZ RESERVATION.

The Siletz reservation, containing in the neighborhood of 225,000 acres of land, is being properly allotted, and each Indian on the reservation will be deeded 80 acres of land for his own individual use. There are 560 Indians enrolled on the register at the reservation.

NOTICE OF THE PROPOSED ASSESSMENT

For the Sewer extending in a continuous line through the alleys and streets, commencing at the south end of alley in block 9, in the original town of Marysville (now the city of Corvallis) and extending north to sewer in Madison street; also commencing at the north end of alley in block 11 and extending south to the sewer in said Madison street in said city.

CASTORIA for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Every student, mechanic and business man should attend Prof. Riddle's lecture Monday evening. "Blunders of life and the mistakes of the age" at the opera house, Monday evening, admission free.

Small & Son are just in receipt of a fresh arrival of California and Oregon fruits, such as oranges, bananas, peaches, etc. Leo Stock has gone to Chicago. He stopped over in this city the first of the week and visited relatives before taking his leave.

John E. Chandler, son of ex-Senator Chandler, of Baker county, arrived in the city Wednesday, and will resume his studies at the State Agricultural college. We understand that the connection of the O. P. R. Co. with Mr. J. M. Stewart as divisional and office engineer has been terminated.

Richard Graham, who was attacked with typhoid fever last week, and was quite ill for a few days, is greatly improved, and it is hoped he will be able to be around soon. Miss Bryson is also rapidly recovering.

New students have arrived for attendance at the State Agricultural College every day this week. If the present rate of increase continues there will be a larger attendance in the near future than ever went to this school at any one time before.

We would call the attention of our readers to the new advertisements on the various lines of business this week. It is not only the local columns that may prove of interest to you, but the advertising as well. Read them over and you may find something you need.

Mr. A. Sherill who has been visiting here the greater part of the summer for the benefit of his wife's health, returned to his home at Canyonville, Tuesday, on a temporary trip of business, leaving Mrs. Sherill here till his return in the course of another month. They intend to spend the winter in Corvallis. Mrs. Sherill has been greatly benefited by the change of climate.

Mrs. Gerard, whose husband died recently in this city, was making preparations to return, in company with her daughter to her Michigan home, and had almost completed arrangements for the journey, when she was happily surprised by the announcement in a letter from home, that her son, with his family would soon be on his way to join her at Corvallis, and intend to make Oregon their future home.

Prof. John D. Letcher was busy Monday receiving measurements of students for military suits. Considerable cash will be expended in securing these ornamental costumes, but the boys who get them will find them to be a valuable necessity for the wear and tear incident to school-day chivalry.

Miss Snell will have to deal with a larger class of ladies this year than formerly. If we are to judge from present indications, many are disposed to regard cooking as an unprofitable and useless course at college, but the days are drawing near when good cooks will be in as much demand for the common comfort as any other department in life.

The experiment station now under course of erection will greatly add to the improvements around the college. It will be neat, commodious and attractive. The college is well equipped with a printing office, in which all the work for the college is done.

The Corvallis public schools opened Monday, under the supervision of Prof. E. Elton Blanchard. There was an enrollment of 350 pupils the first day, and the recitation rooms were extremely crowded.

The man who deserted his better-half and then fled to Albany with the children where he expected to further his escape, was probably something more than disappointed when, upon his arrival, he was met and taken into custody by the proper authorities, and conveyed back to his old haunts. It won't do for a man nowadays to tanper with the law.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.—Messrs. Z. Job, Ralston Cox and J. H. Wilson have sold the entire amount of their stock and holdings in the Corvallis Street Railway to M. W. Wilkins of this city. The sale was consummated during this week, when Mr. Wilkins transferred real estate, lots in Wilkin's addition and acreage property near Corvallis to the amount of $5000 to these gentlemen for a controlling interest in the line. Messrs. W. C. Crawford and E. E. Cooper have sold their residence property in this city to incoming residents, preparatory to moving to Portland and Sheridan as is announced in another item, to engage in milling. Mrs. M. B. Davisson has transferred to M. W. Wilkins property in Wilkin's Addition amounting to about $4000.

IN FOR BUSINESS.—W. C. Crawford and E. E. Cooper, of this city, recently purchased the Sheridan flouring mills and warehouse. Mr. Cooper will remove to Sheridan, where he will have immediate charge of the institution, while Mr. Crawford will establish himself in a wholesale office at Portland, and will take up his abode down there in the course of three weeks. The Sheridan mill has a capacity of one hundred barrels. This firm, as our readers well know, consists of two very well-to-do men, and there is every reason to believe that they will meet with success in their new undertaking. We hope so.

FACTORY ACCIDENT.—Joseph Emerick received painful injuries Tuesday while at work on the wagon and carriage factory building. A falling piece of heavy timber which was being hoisted, by some mishap got loose, and came down with all its weight upon Joseph, crushing him to the ground. He suffered intense pain and was unconscious for quite awhile, and it was feared for a time that he could not survive the effects of the shock, but investigation revealed the fact that Joseph had no bones broken nor received any internal injuries. The next day he was able to be up and limp about the house, but he experienced very unpleasant sensations throughout his entire anatomy in consequence of the accident. Joseph will recover.

DEATH OF AN INVALID.—David Garver died last Sunday night at the Vincent hotel in this city, at the hour of 10 o'clock. He was stricken with paralysis some two years ago, from the effects of which he never recovered, and was compelled to adopt the use of a wheeled chair for conveyance. He is in company with his daughter came out from Illinois to this coast not long since, with the hope that a change of climate would prove beneficial, but in vain. He was 82 years of age. His daughter, Miss Anna, started for their old home at Decatur, Illinois, with the remains last Tuesday, and there they will be buried in the family cemetery.

SECULAR CONGRESS.—The third annual session will be held in Portland at Arion hall on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, the 3d, 4th and 5th of October. Aseath Cochran will deliver the opening address. Dr. Boynton will deliver a poem. An orchestra of children will make music. Dr. York, Reinsburgh Putman, Mr. Krekel, Katie Kehm, Smith Jameson Watts, Eider W. W. Sharp, Dr. Ravlin, and a host of other speakers have been invited. The taxation of church property and a free Sunday will receive the especial attention of the congress. It comes a week before the close of the great exposition. Reduced fare can be secured.

A FREE TICKET TO THE WORLD'S FAIR—and return, is the heading of the advertisement of the well-known and enterprising publishers, the Pacific Publishing Co., San Francisco and Portland. They offer a free ticket to the World's Fair and return to any one who will represent them as agent for a certain length of time. The work will be pleasant and profitable, and each agent will be given a free ticket to the Worlds Fair and return. Each ticket will be guaranteed bonafide by the World's Fair Co. Terms and full particulars will be given on application. Read their advertisement.

The hop yield of Oregon this year will be about 10,000 bales short in consequence of the ravages of the hop louse. There is not much prospect for a better price just now.

The Secret of Fine Pastry.

Is wholly in using Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. The only pure Cream Tarter Powder sold on the market. Other brands contain either ammonia, alum or some other adulterant. Ammonia or alum powders dry out, make the dough too porous, leaving a bitter taste, etc. No agency has assisted so much toward perfection in cookery as Price's Cream Baking Powder. Its ingredients are simple and so blended as to exist in exact chemical proportions, so after use there is never any excess of either left in the food. Hence there can be no impurities whatever left in the finished food. No bitter taste, no taint of ammonia, but food raised with Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder partakes of the natural sweet flavor of the flour and keeps moist and fresh for days. This powder possesses qualities peculiar to it alone. No other makes such delicious pastry. No other contains the white of eggs.
