MORTAR-SPOTTED SKIN
Covered with Scabs. Awful Spectacle. Cured in Five Weeks by the Cuticura Remedies.

About the 1st of April last I noticed some red pimples like coming out all over my body, but thought nothing of it until some time later, when I began to look like spots of mortar spotted on, and which came off in layers, accompanied by a burning and itching which would scratch every night until I was raw, then the next night the itching became more intense, and I was obliged to get up and scratch again. In vain did I consult all the doctors in the county, but without avail. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper advertising the Cuticura Remedies, and purchased them from my druggist, and obtained almost immediate relief. I began to notice that the scaly eruptions gradually dropped off and disappeared one by one, until I had been fully cured. I had the disease thirteen months before I began taking the Cuticura Remedies, and in four or five weeks was entirely cured. My disease was eczema and psoriasis. I know of a great many who have taken the Cuticura Remedies, and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babies with scaly eruptions on their heads and bodies. I cannot express my thanks to you. My body was covered with scabs, and I was an awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as clear as a baby's.
GEO. COTNEY, Merrill, Wis.

Hon. J. C. Fullerton, of Roseburg, republican candidate for judge of this district, was in the city this week. Mr. Fullerton is a pleasant, genial gentleman, and a man who makes friends wherever he goes, and if elected judge he will balance the scales of justice in all cases without prejudice.

A Close Call.
Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in this city, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the north part of the state during the recent blizzard. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was unable to get warm, and he had an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia, or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and that in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful and says he will never travel again without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.—(The Des Moines Iowa.) Saturday Review. 50 cent bottles for sale by T. Graham, druggist.

SAUNDERS INTERVIEWED.—It is generally understood that convicts are never allowed to talk with each other. The following from the Statesman is interesting: W. W. Saunders, a life timer, told a reporter that the admiration of the institution and the wonderment of the visitors was the "Con Gazette." He says news travels from cell to cell and throughout the institution with the rapidity of lightning, and yet no one knows on what wings it is carried. He said he would venture the assertion that before the reporters had been within the enclosure ten minutes every man "on the inside" would know that a couple of Statesman reporters were making a tour of the institution. And all of this month he has been in touch with such rapidity as to astonish even the prisoners themselves.

Not So Bad After All.
E. V. Wood, of McKee's Rocks, Allegany county, Pa., in speaking to a traveling man of Chamberlain's medicine said: I recommend them above all others. I have used them myself and know them to be reliable. I always guarantee them to my customers and have never had a bottle returned. Mr. Wood had hardly finished speaking, when a little girl came into the store with an empty bottle. It was labeled "Chamberlain's Pain Balm." The traveler was interested, as there was certainly a bottle coming back, but wanted to hear what the little girl said. It was as follows: "Mamma wants another bottle of that medicine; she says it is the best medicine for rheumatism she ever used." 50 cent bottles for sale by T. Graham, druggist.

FAILED TO SHOW UP.—Some time ago N. P. Newton of Philomath and Wm. Ryals who lives a few miles north of Corvallis, both leading horse men of this county, got into a warm discussion over the merits of their favorite breeds of draft horses. Mr. Newton is the owner of a fine Clydesdale stallion, and Ryals owns a fine English shire. It was agreed to hold a horse show of their own last Saturday at Johnson's Livery Stable. Mr. Newton appeared with his own horse, Munk Barn, four suckling colts and two yearling Clydesdales, which were all fine representatives of their stock, and it is doubtful if better draft colts could be shown anywhere. For some unaccountable reason Ryals did not keep his appointment and his English shire was not represented at all.

Rev. G. W. Hill of the Albany Baptist church, will preach at the Evangelical church in this city next Sunday at 11 a. m. All are invited.
