and Many Remedies No Benefit. Entirely Cured and Hair Restored by Cutleura.

My wife has been troubled for years with dry crusts and scales on her hend and eyebrows. After seeming to lie dormant for years in her system, it broke out over a year ago in all its fury. Her hair came out in big patches, her eyebrows all fell off, and she presented a pittable condition. We tried almost everything, but she continued to get worse. Then we tried one of our best physicians, but all to no purpose. Finally my wife believed that the CUTICURA REMEDIES would cure her. After

Soap, and four bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and about a dozen cakes of Cuticura, and about a dozen cakes of Cuticura, and about a dozen cakes of Cuticura Resolvent, she was cured entirely. Her hair came on again, and to-day she has as fine a head of black curly hair and as smooth skin as any lady in Allentown. Her eyebrows are heavier than they ever were, her scalp is free from dandruff, and her health is excellent. Now for the benefit of those suffering with same disease, or to those who may doubt the truthfulness of this statement, write me, inclosing a stamp, and I will cheerfully answer. I am sure that the Cuticura Remedias cured my wife, for she used nothing else during the four or five months she used them.

The third annual convention of the Ben ton county Women's Christian Temperand Union, was held at Philomath on Thursday and Friday, October 6th and 7th. 1892. In the absence of the county president Mrs. Jennie Leet, Mrs. Helen B. Harford of Newberg, state evaugelist superintendent, was called to the chair. She called upon Mrs. Shipley, of Corvallis, state super-intendent fairs and public gatherings, to take charge of the opening devotional exer-Roll call of officers, and the appointment of committee on credentials followed.

A report of the Y work was read by Mrs.

Mrs. M.; Bryan, of Philomath, tendered a hearty welcome to the workers assembled in a charming little speech, which was well received, as was evinced by the applause. After singing. Miss Ora Henkle recited, "Corn in the Bushel, or in the Jug," show ing careful training. The fresponsition the address of welcome, was then given by Mrs. L. A. A report of mothers' meetings was given by Mrs. L. A. Wash. Quite a lively discussion followed the reading of many of the reports, and this last was no exception. Among the arguments showing the need of mothers' meetings this point was made. Minors or not below the second which Dr. Thompson is moderator, met at Albany yesterday, and he will attend that meeting also.

Was made: Minors are not by law permitted to enter saloons. To obviate this, and still accommodate the boys—who may wish to be ruined -a "boy trap" has been set over "The Leo" saloon, in Corvallis, and ag the church and council (city fathers), are afraid to spring it, mothers are to meet and see if they can't touch the deadly spring ere of the program ou music. After a fine recitation by Miss Amy Vaughn, Mrs. Shipley introduced the speaker of the evening, Mrs. Helen B. Harford, recently from Kansas, who held the large audience with rapt attention for more than an hour. Among the strong points she made was this: "If there is as much light and in the strong points with the strong points are much light as the strong points are strong points are strong points and strong points are strong points are strong points and strong points are strong points are strong points are strong points and strong points are strong points are strong points and strong points are s is as much liquor sold in Kansas, Maine, Iowa and other states having prohibitory enactments, how is it that the wholesale liquor house no longer send out solicitors into their states as they do in others; and why do these wholesale houses use so much money fighting every prohibitory movement set on foot?"

TRAIN WRECKERS AGAIN. Last week two more attempts were made to wreck passenger trains on the Southern Pacific road. The first one was made near Wolf creek, in the northern part of Jose-phine county, where rocks were laid in piles on the track. The obstructions were discovered and removed in time to prevent an accident, but the miscreants who placed the rocks there are still at large.

The other attempt was made on the overland near Drain, Douglas county, on Friday and the two men who did it were caught. The two men in question had been acting. in a suspicious manner, and were closely watched. Shortly before the arrival of the south bound overland train C. F. Cothard, south bound overland train C. F. Cothard, agent at Drain, with others, watched these two men, who scemed to be tramps. They began piling a lot of ties upon the track at the divide, and were allowed to complete their nefarious job, when they were captured in the very act.

They gave the names of Wright and McCord and said they were trying to wreck the train because they had not been allowed to ride. They will no doubt be dealt with severely and certainly deserve to be given the fullest extent of the law's punishment.
