CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City. Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion. Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., "The Winthrop," 126th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

BEAUTIFUL!

Is the verdict of all who take a look at those elegant silver sets in the show case of J. D. Howell. His line of jeweled gold watches, rings, pins, charms, etc. are all of the latest fashion, finest material and workmanship, and cannot fail to suit any taste, from the great variety in stock. Repairing and manufacturing a specialty, and all work guaranteed. Give Howell a call, T. Graham's drug store building.

EQUALIZATION NOTICE.

Everybody, these days, strives for just and equal taxation. That is just and proper. Among all other schemes D. B. Irvin has just started in on one at the old stand next to Graham's & Wortham's drug store, where he will equalize the tax in boot and shoe bills, by manufacturing the most durable articles at the lowest living prices. He has had 30 years experience at the business, guarantees his work, and if an article makes you, don't suit, you needn't take it. Call and see him when in need of anything in his line.

Messrs Scott and Hulbert purchased last Saturday a sheep of Wiley Holman, a farmer residing in Benton county, across the river from Albany, which establishes the reputation of the Willamette valley to produce more "big things" than red apples. The wether is three years old, is of the Cotswold breed and weighs 240 pounds.—Democrat.

That legislative committee that was to come up and visit the agricultural college last Friday, failed to materialize as a committee, though several members accompanied our representative home, and took a view into the workings of the institution, with a favorable effect. The regular committee, detailed to visit the college is expected up to-day. Another committee is coming to enquire into county division matters, with the calculation of extending their observations to the bay section, and going over to-morrow for that purpose.

CHIEF POLICE NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the sale of real estate advertised to have taken place last Saturday at one o'clock, has been postponed until Saturday, Jan. 28, 1893, at one o'clock p. m. J. R. SCHAFFORD, Chief of Police.

The sermon delivered by Rev. Kantner at the Congregational church Sunday evening is highly spoken of by all who heard it. Taking as his subject "A Young Woman's Choice," he based his remarks on the Biblical history of Ruth, drawing a vivid picture that was rich with sterling truths and worthy of reflection for the valuable lessons to be gleaned therefrom.

Doesn't your head ache as she ought—the weak, nervous and ailing woman. As long as she suffers from the aches, pains, and derangements peculiar to her sex, she can't expect to be well.

With Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, she's a different woman. And it's a change that can be seen as well as felt. The system is invigorated, the blood enriched, digestion improved, melancholy and nervousness dispelled. With the "Favorite Prescription," all the proper functions are restored to healthy action. Periodical pains, weak back, bearing-down sensations, nervous prostration, all "female complaints" are cured by it. It's the only medicine for women's weaknesses and ailments that's guaranteed to do what is claimed for it. If it doesn't give satisfaction, in every case for which it's recommended, the money is returned. Can something else offered by the dealer, though it may pay him better, be "just as good"?

DRAW YOUR OWN CONCLUSION.

Mr. J. O. Davenport, manager of the Fort Bragg Redwood Co., Ft. Bragg, Cal., has this to say of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy: "I used it for a severe cold and cough and obtained immediate relief. In the Fort Bragg Redwood Co's store we have sold large quantities of Chamberlain's medicines." For sale by T. Graham.

DON'T LABEL BAY COUNTY.

Ed. GAZETTE.—Some one to this writer unknown, "in the callow tenderness of his virgin epidermis" has seen proper in the interests of county division presumably, to throw "flyers" all over the Bay country traducing and vilifying B. W. Wilson, county clerk, for the sole offense of being an accommodating officer and showing to the Corvallis Times' man, through his deputy, the various precinct totals as to voters, population and taxable property.

I am emphatically a Bay man and stand in for the Bay county; but in common with all decent people, regard the personal feelings in those unsigned "flyers" as contemptible, low flung and maliciously false. The figures of those "flyers" I believe to be correct, but being mixed up with so much that is known to be false will have the effect to place a deserving movement under questionable clouds. We want no villainous cur to mask behind the new county to empty his spleen on the county clerk. Mr. Wilson is a bona fide citizen of the Bay and has been a voter here for years last past. At least one half of the time he has been one of us, and unlike Cleon he does not dwell in a palace but in very humble quarters. A little decency and a clean deal is all we expect for our new county. We expect to get there without traducing and falsifying the actions of a county official. I have taken the pains to look into this matter and the pamphlet that should have been thrown broadcast to the west has no foundation as regards our county clerk.

It is a known fact that Mr. Wilson attends strictly to his own and the public interests; and the fact that he has been county clerk for 28 years last past shows him to be a gentleman and an accommodating official; and one whom a common every day liar can not injure.

I know nothing about O. P. ear marks—in fact, it is generally understood that the O. P. can neither make ear marks or any other of late. Let us fight out to day light for the Bay county and not empty our bile bags on a decent, self-respecting man; but on the contrary let us tie up that fern fed liar whose nithose "flyers" to the breeze.

Our clerk having interests here as well as in the valley, and being the clerk of Benton county has wisely not been in the fight, and whatever the result may be will be satisfactory to him. We want no side issues and pray to be delivered from some of our friends. The county records are public property and the clerk by his deputy as in duty bound, will exhibit the records just as gladly to a Bay man as the Times' man. We are equal to the emergency of self government, and with a militia and a half of taxable property, and from 600 to 1000 voters to begin with, we are ready to be chartered "Bay county" if that fern fed flyerman will cork up his gall bag.

Yours for the right, YAQUINA.

GRAND ARMY INSTALLATIONS.

Ellsworth Post, No. 19, and the Ladies' Relief corps of this city had a joint installation of officers last Friday evening. Post Commander elect W. E. Paul being absent in New Hampshire, he and the appointed officers could not be installed. Adj. F. M. Johnson, representing the department of Oregon, G. A. R., installed the following: S. T. Kerr, S. V. C.; Harvey Sargent, J. V. C.; W. T. Small, chap; John Young, O. D.; Wm. Morgan, quartermaster; E. A. Chapman, O. G. Mrs. F. M. Johnson, post department installation officer, then installed the corps of officers as follows: Mrs. B. W. Wilson, president; Mrs. Rob't Irwin, S. V. P.; Mrs. H. VanHoesen, J. V. P.; Mrs. J. B. Horner, treasurer; Mrs. J. A. Knight, chap; Mrs. J. C. Young, con; Mrs. S. T. Kerr, G; Miss Hattie Horner, ass't con; Volla Chapman, ass't G; Mrs. F. M. Johnson, sec. The ladies had a surprise in store for the boys in the way of an elegant lunch, which they served immediately after the installation, and was thoroughly appreciated.

AN ENEMY BAFFLED.

There is an enemy with whom thousands are familiar all their lives, because they are born with a tendency to biliousness. With this enemy they are constantly battling with ineffectual weapons. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will baffle it. Mere purgatives will not reform a disordered condition of the liver indicated, not by constipation alone, but by sick headaches, yellowness of the skin and eye balls, nausea, furred tongue and uneasiness, more particularly upon pressure on the right, upon the short ribs. Avoid drastic purgatives which gripe and weaken the intestines, and take this world-famous anti-bilious cordial, which likewise removes malarial, stomachic and kidney complaints, rheumatism and nervousness. As a laxative of the bowels, painless but effectual, it improves appetite, sleep and the ability to digest, and possesses the additional advantage of a standard tonic.

Taxpayers in this section, believing that the state board of equalization, in raising the assessment of Benton county has done gross injustice, are moving to contest the case in the courts. A subscription fund is being raised to bear expenses of the litigation.

PICTORIAL ADDRESS.

Chalk in hand, Mrs. E. A. D. Blair makes her addresses which are bright and interesting. At the same time she does artistic and telling work in the way of illustrations. This talented lady is to be in Corvallis Monday the 30th. The ladies who invite her admit the boys between the ages of 6 and 18 free.

MOTHER'S MEETING.

On Monday, Jan. 23rd, some thirty five mothers met at the residence of Mrs. James Cauthorn, at a "mothers meeting," addressed by Mrs. Harford, state secretary of the W. C. T. U. The influence of each parent upon the child, was touched upon. The main topic of the hour was "childhood—its care and culture." A few thoughts may well be culled from Mrs. Harford's talk to the following effect:

"The need of bringing up children alike—that is, to make no difference in the manner of training between boys and girls up to the age of ten or eleven. The necessity of guarding the child from outside influences. The American mothers give the girls too much latitude; they go out into society too young." Illustration was drawn from life to depict the ills of this custom. "Great harm inevitably follows letting children have parties continually, during their school years; gain the confidence of our girls—yea, and the boys also. Do not let them grow up in ignorance."

At the close of the talk, five new members were received by the union; and on Saturday, January 28th, there is to be a supper and reception to new members to be held at Mrs. Addison's. This will be an auspicious union, there being twelve new active members and two honorary. Supper is to be served at 6 p. m., and an interesting programme is arranged for the evening.

THE FATAL CANCER.

Harry Wilkinson, an employee at the carriage factory, was advised by wire last Sunday of the death of his mother, Mrs. E. W. Wilkinson, at Dufur, Wasco county, this state. The deceased lady, with her husband was a resident of this city some months, the latter a telegraph operator for the Oregon Pacific company. During that time Mrs. Wilkinson became afflicted with a cancer in the breast, for the treatment of which she went last fall with her husband to a cancer specialist, Dr. Vanderpool at Dufur. The sorrowful sequence tells the ineffectual struggle against the destroyer. Three children are left motherless with the stricken father and many friends in Corvallis sympathize with them in their bereavement.

W. R. Calloway, the progressive farmer of Soap creek district, has just returned from a six week's visit with former friends in the Sacramento valley, Cal. He remarked but little change in the scenes of his old home during the years of his absence; though some friends have passed from earth and others have departed to other fields—the majority of the latter having come north to Oregon, and Washington. He emphasized the fact that, notwithstanding all the vaunted boasting of Californians over their climate, he saw during his six week's sojourn there, only one day of sunshine.

INTERESTING LECTURE.

An interesting lecture was delivered by Mrs. H. Harford, secretary of the Oregon State W. C. T. U. at the Methodist south chapel on Monday. Mrs. Harford is an earnest, pleasing speaker and held her audience closely throughout. The music, although almost impromptu, was good, and seemingly appreciated—especially a bass solo, "One more river to cross and that is prohibition."

There was a fairly good audience, but not as large as there should have been.

A REUNION.

All members of the W. C. T. U., both active and honorary, are earnestly requested to be present at the supper and reception on Saturday, at Mrs. Addison's. Supper served at 6 p. m. Anyone desiring to become a member, either active or honorary, is respectfully invited to come to this meeting, designed as it is especially to receive new members.

The big Corvallis Oregon grape proves all right. It was thought, at the time of the snow storm a month or so ago, that it had been split and injured so badly that it would be unfit to take back to the world's fair, but the wound it suffered proves later to have been of slight consequence and has about healed up so that the plant will be as good as ever.

CAMPERS OF THE CROOKS.

Last Friday a Mr. Swartz with his wife and four children arrived in Corvallis from Iowa, at once rented a house and settled down for a residence. He sold his farm in Iowa for a good round sum and placed the money in the bank, all but a liberal allowance for the expense of getting the family to Oregon. The story they recite of their experience with sharks and cut-throats on the journey is one mixed of ludicrous and indignation. The worst gang they met seemed to be at Portland where they worked many ingenious schemes to fleece the stranger at every turn and robbed him outrageously, he being aware of their tricks all the time, but being a total stranger without an advisor, was powerless to evade their traps or shake the vampires off. One of them stuck to the family clear through to Corvallis, claiming to be a locator, poking his nose into the stranger's affairs and buzzing about with the tenacity of a gadfly, never forgetting to niggle out all the money he could get from either Swartz or his wife or one of the young boys on some pretext or other of expense, all of which he adroitly managed to saddle onto the strangers. He knew Swartz had money in the bank and used every persuasion to get him to draw on it. Finally the stranger's patience gave out and he quickly handed the case over to the authorities.—This brought the maneuvers of the crook to a speedy termination. Officer Irvine went to him and told him to go away and stay away from those people or he would throw him into the cooler in a jiffy. That was the last seen of him and the Swartz family were released from their persecution. There will be a large immigration to this coast this spring, and the systematic schemes of swindling through which travelers will have to run the gauntlet will be something disgraceful and disparaging to the name of the country. It's a great pity the whole army of the dastardly dogs could not be gathered together and blown to the other side of Jordan.

LITTLE MORE CARE, PLEASE.

When the hook and ladder company went to get their apparatus the other day it was found that a couple of ladders were out of place and some of the buckets had been taken from their hooks. Somebody it seems had been borrowing said articles for the use of them and no thanks, "by your leave" or anything of the sort to anybody—returning them, it is true, but leaving them off the truck. It is said the wheels of the carts were all there, also that there was nothing to indicate that any of these had been used anywhere to wash off sidewalks and the like. That's right. By keeping everything in the right place, at some critical moment in the incident of fire fighting a whole lot of property may be saved. Everybody knows that; but everybody is not always properly thoughtful. Let's not act that way any more.

MRS. JACKSON'S DEATH.

The death of Mrs. Rebecca Jackson occurred at the family residence Saturday, January 21st. She suffered several months from the effects of an attack of grippe. Funeral services were conducted where she died by Rev. Weaver on Sunday last, burial taking place in Crystal Lake cemetery, witnessed by a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends who deeply feel the loss of an estimable member of their circle. Born in Missouri December, 21st, 1828, her age had reached the span of 64 years and 1 month to a day. She has been a resident of Benton county since 1852.

THE BELL LECTURE.

Rev. J. R. N. Bell's lecture on Mormonism drew a good audience at the opera house Saturday evening and proved very acceptable. The lecture was a vivid description richly worded, and not a moral treatise on the time worn subject its title suggests. There were those among its hearers who are familiar with the scenes described, and to them the lecture was of especial interest. Mr. Bell is a great big hearted embodiment of good nature and rollicking good humor and is in that light a magnet that draws humanity to that side of life which is softened by its pleasantries as well as polished by its abilities.
