EXCURSION FROM SAN FRANCISCO.

The Oregon Pacific Railroad Company have arranged to run a wholesale merchants' excursion from San Francisco to this valley the last of the month. About fifty of the wholesale dealers of the Golden Gate city will take passage on the steamer "Williamette Valley," on July 27th, and arrive at Newport and Yaquina on the 30th, where they will remain that day. They will arrive in Corvallis on the morning of the 31st, and spend the day and business the night in this city. The Business Men's Association of Corvallis will have charge of the entertainment of the visitors, and it is the intention to give them a suitable reception. The excursionists will visit Albany, Salem, Eugene and perhaps other cities of the valley. When they arrive and see for themselves the wealth of resources enjoyed by this valley, they must be impressed with the desirability of our trade and will spare no inducement to obtain it. As a result of their visit, therefore, we may expect tangible benefits to all classes.

CELEBRATION AT THE ALSA.

It may be true that when St. Patrick killed all the snakes in "Owld Ireland," that he did not overlook Alsea valley, for there is not a venomous serpent to be found; but instead there are fish, game, delightful scenery, and as pure air as ever the God of nature breathed upon a people. Your correspondent with his family boarded a prairie schooner at Corvallis last Monday afternoon and within four hours was camped on one of the prongs of the great "Y" that makes the Alsea valley. The next morning the firing of anvils proclaimed to the masses that the Fourth was on hand, ready for business. At ten o'clock six hundred people were assembled in the beautiful grove near the post office store. After prayer and reading the declaration of independence, Rev. Mr. Matlock, of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of Corvallis, delivered an eloquent oration. The people, who are good livers, served them a free lunch for everybody. Chairman Howell announced that prizes had been offered for the best cooking to be exhibited on this occasion, and J. B.
Hornen, Jasper Hayden, M. Goodwin, David Shipley and Amos Kior were epicureans to decide by the eating, not by the looks, which of the ladies they thought the best cooks.

Squire Vilito said it was the proper thing to go outside of the valley to get judges on cooking; but if it were judges on something to drink that they were after, he believed they could do fully as well at home, and would not mind to serve on such a committee himself. The work of the committee was so thorough that it was at times almost painful to see them linger on a favorite piece of pie, cake, or chicken; but like Peter Stuy-vessant in the "Dutch Nickerbockers," they always came to a conclusion. The president of the day then announced that the prizes were to be awarded as follows:

Miss Bessie Warfield, a picture frame for best biscuits; Mrs. Rachel Rycraft, quitting frames for best cooked chicken; Miss Josie Spencer, flower knife and hoe for second best cooked chicken; Mrs. Rachel Rycraft, clock shelf for best pie; Miss Bessie Warfield, ironing board for second best pie; Miss Mollie Clark, esquire for best cake. Special mention should be made of the design and execution of the presents which were all manufactured of native woods in the valley by Messrs. David Tom, A. J. Ruble, M. M. Ruble and H. L.
Martin. After a very interesting program of recitations and music the exercises of the day closed with the falling of the band stand, hand, music, Fourth of July and all.

SUMMER WEARINESS. That tired feeling, loss of appetite and nervous prostration are driven away by Hood's Sarsaparilla, like mist before the morning sun. To realize the benefit of this great medicine, give it a trial.

G. Davis, a daughter.

G. Berry, a daughter.

MARRIED.

COVELL—SPENCER.—Wednesday, July 5th, at the residence of Prof. C. E. Blanche-ard in this city, by Rev. E. J. Thompson D. D., Prof. G. A. Covell, of the Agricultural college, and Miss Mary A. Spencer, for the past two years a teacher in our public schools.

A few neighbors and intimate friends were present to witness the pleasing ceremony.
Standing under a bell of beautiful roses in the parlor richly festooned with flowers, the happy couple were pronounced man and wife in the impressive marriage service of the Presbyterian church. After hearty congratulations and a delicious lunch, Mr. and Mrs. Covell, amid a shower of rice and many jokes, took the Albany train for Portland, thence over the Northern to the world's fair and to their parents homes in Pennsylvania and Ohio. They expect to return about the first of September and make Corvallis their home.

LEMASTER—RHYNE.—In the court house, Corvallis, Oregon, July 3, 1893, by J. Applewhite, J. P., T. A. Lemaster and Vina Rhyne, both of Benton county.

E. C. Barnhardt, who had been employed in the carriage factory for some months, having been thrown out of work by the cessation of active operations in that institution, went to Portland to obtain employment.
Not succeeding in his endeavors and being without means, in a fit of despondency he made an attempt upon his own life with a razor Friday night, cutting an ugly gash in his throat; but this not proving fatal, he had time to reconsider his determination and decided to return to Corvallis. Accordingly he started out on foot Saturday morning, arriving in Corvallis Tuesday afternoon. He claims to have walked the entire distance, but it seems incredible that he could do so in his condition. Barnhardt is an industrious and quite respectable young man, and his friends are at a loss to account for his rash inclinations.

DOWN GO THE RATES!

The Union Pacific now leads with reduced rates to eastern points, and their through car arrangements, magnificently equipped Pullman and Tourist sleepers, free reclining chair car and fast time, make it the best line to travel. Two trains leave from Portland daily at 8:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
The rates are now within the reach of all, and everybody should take advantage of them to visit the world's fair and their friends in the East. Send for rates and schedules of trains, and do not purchase tickets until after consulting Gen. F. Eglin, agent, Corvallis, Oregon, or W. H. Har-bert, ass't gen'l passenger agent, U. P.
Portland, Oregon.

Congressman Herrmann stopped a few hours in Corvallis Friday evening on his return from the bay, whether he had been to take observations of the government work going on there and to make an examination of the condition of the bar and channel, H. will visit Sinalaw, and proceed down the coast to Port Orford, after which he will go to Washington in obedience to the call for an extra session.

SEWING CLASS.

Ladies of Corvallis! Miss Lottie Ross will be pleased to meet your daughters class. For further information inquire at
