

OREGON PACIFIC MATTERS.

Mr. E. W. Hadley Resigns and C. C. Clark is Appointed Receiver.

On Tuesday last E. W. Hadley forwarded to Judge Fullerton, at that time holding court in Lincoln county, his unconditional resignation. This was somewhat of a surprise as the court refused to accept his resignation last week. It was currently reported that the appointment of Miller would be urged upon the court, but it is understood some interested parties were opposed to him. The judge took the matter under consideration until Thursday when the appointment was made and occasioned no surprise in the selection of C. C. Clark, who filed his bond and entered upon the discharge of his duties. He has been connected with the company for several years last past in the capacity of train dispatcher and has also acted as superintendent during the absence of that official. The appointment came to him entirely unsolicited; in fact, it was urged upon him, he being the only person whom it is thought would give entire satisfaction to all of the varied interests involved. He is a thorough and practical railroad man and his appointment will meet with the hearty approval of everyone having business relations with the road in whatever capacity. There will probably not be any radical changes made in the personnel of the force employed under the former management. The steamer is still tied up in San Francisco, and the prospects for her release are decidedly unfavorable. The outlook for Mr. Clark under the present condition of affairs, is not in any sense a flattering one.

It was a rumor of the street that Hon. W. S. McFadden had been appointed attorney for the receiver, but inquiry on the subject resulted in a denial by Mr. McFadden.

OFFICERS FOR 1894.

At the annual business meeting of the Congregational church held last Thursday evening the following officers were elected: Deacon, Mr. Thos. Bell; treasurer, Prof. H. T. French; clerk, Miss Nellie Davidson; musical director, Prof. F. Berchtold; ushers, Messrs. McCrone, Chandler and Riggs; superintendent of Sunday school, Prof. H. T. French; assistant superintendent, Mrs. M. Berchtold; secretary, Miss Louise Fischer; chorister, Mr. Thomas Bell; organist, Miss Fannie Taft.

CLEARANCE SALE.

For the next thirty days we will have a clearance sale on all holiday goods and rugs. L. WELKER & Co.

If the courts decide that monies deposited in Hamilton, Job & Co's bank by the state and county are trust funds, and such funds are entitled to priority, the cases now pending against the Jobs on the charge of larceny of public funds will be dismissed. Pending such decision their cases were continued until the May term of the Lincoln county circuit court. "Stump puller" Hill felt like a mountain had fallen on him when he came in contact with the pugilistic fists of "It" Sanders at Monroe the other evening. The mill was brief but interesting and at the ending of the 6th round "It" had climbed all over Hill. "And the green grass grew all around, all around, and the green grass grew all around."

An evil tree can bring forth good fruit. The dirty work of a band of hoodlums New Year's eve, in scrawling vulgar words on the shop windows, caused the merchants to expend some of their surplus energy in a wholesome application of Sapolio, enabling them to present to the new year a bright shining front.

Thos. Cooper was in town Tuesday, the first time in several weeks. He now perambulates on crutches, the result of a high jump made from a wagon seat while the team attached to the vehicle was traveling at a pace considerably faster than a walk.

Mr. George Nokes, one of the efficient carpenters and builders of the city was a welcome caller at our office last evening, when he deposited some of the shining silver into our vaults in payment for the weekly visits of the leading paper. Come again.

The time honored custom of ringing bells and firing guns on the advent of a new year was observed here Saturday night. If any one in town slept it was surely no fault of those participating in the ceremonies.

We extend the hand of fraternal welcome to Thad. H. Dupuy, who begins the newspaper life as editor of the Lafayette Ledger. He at one time lived in Corvallis, where he was well known and very popular.

The wintry winds have blown wildly for a few days in the early week and in consequence Leo Gerhard's whizkers are missing. The bereaved gentleman has been in "mourning" ever since.

Mrs. M. M. Armstrong entertained a company of friends at her home on last Saturday evening at cards, the usual pleasures of such occasions having been enjoyed.

Brady Burnett and Will H. Bloss, two Corvallis foot ball enthusiasts, took in the game played in Portland between the Multnomahs and Stanfords last Monday.

Ed. Warren, formerly deputy sheriff at McMinnville, is still in the city prolonging holiday festivities, the guest of Leo Gerhard.

L. Y. Wilson returned from Chitwood last Monday, having spent the holidays with his family at Maple Brook ranch.

At L. Welker & Co.'s is the place to buy coffins and caskets.

PHILOMATH.

Bishop Dillon and family returned to Salem on Monday. The services at Keazel chapel, conducted by Rev. V. B. Williams, will continue throughout this week. The night-watch service at Keazel chapel was a decided success. The audience listened to an appropriate sermon by Bishop Dillon, after which followed a testimony and prayer service, which continued until the tolling of the bells announced the death of the old year.

W. B. Haines, formerly a student at Philomath, spent his holiday vacation among us, visiting friends and relatives; more particularly his friend.

Newt Allen and his young bride have returned from the capital and have settled down to the stern realities of life on South street.

Since Frank deserted the ranks two weeks ago he has made himself conspicuous by remaining at home; reason unknown.

The students of the college gave Prof. Baldwin and wife a reception at the home of Mrs. S. J. Keazel on Monday afternoon. Refreshments were served at 5:30. All enjoyed the occasion. Prof. Baldwin and wife will attend college this term at least. They add two more to our list of matrimonial students. Go thou and do likewise.

The I. O. O. F. of this place will install its newly elected officers next Saturday evening, which are: G. M. McDonald, N. G.; R. O. Logan, V. G.; J. W. Ingall, secretary; N. P. Newton, treasurer. In spite of the anti-secret element here new members are being received frequently. A Rebekah lodge is to be organized in the near future.

The Gellaly sisters who were home for vacation were given a pleasant surprise by a host of their friends on Friday evening last.

Cupid has reigned supreme here during the holidays. Four young people have been ensnared in the net.

Mr. James Fisk, who has been very sick, is slowly convalescing. CALEBS.

Go to Spencer's and get shaved. The condition of Mrs. D. C. Rose is not improved.

Vogel has a fine line of gold pens, warranted.

Vogel has a fine line of jewelry for the December trade.

Miss Helen Holgate spent Sunday with friends in Albany.

Former price gents' cork sole calf shoes $3.75, now $3.00 at J. H. HARRIS.

We have reduced the price on dress goods. Call and see us. J. H. HARRIS.

C. H. Fargo & Co. box tip school shoes are the best on earth for the money. Try them. J. H. HARRIS.

Live turkeys at the people's grocery store to cents per pound. Dressed turkeys accordingly.

Wm. Paul is one of Uncle Sam's jurymen and returned to Portland Tuesday to resume his duties.

Rev. S. A. Bennett has been very sick for several weeks and it is thought he will not survive much longer.

Business of considerable importance was transacted by the county court which is in session this week.

Vogel can fit your eyes with a beautiful pair of lenses and choice of frames from 25 cents to $7.50. Try them.

Do you know the cheapest place to buy stoves, tinware, bedding, etc., both second hand and new, is at the Second Hand store?

Henry Jacobs, a representative of a large San Francisco house was in Corvallis Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Attorneys J. R. Bryson, W. S. McFadden, W. S. Hufford and Col. John Kelsey attended circuit court in Toledo this week.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running nose or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

NOTICE. The public is cordially invited to attend the public exercises of Friendship Lodge, No. 14, A. O. U. W., at opera house Jan. 11th, 1894, at 8 o'clock p. m.; exercises to consist of addresses by the Grand M. W., Grand Lecturer, music, etc. No charge for admittance.

F. BERCHTOLD, E. HOLGATE, V. E. WATERS, Com.

A Roseburg dispatch states that Dee McClahan, the popular night clerk of the McClahan house, and Miss Nellie L. Wilkins, the charming 14-year-old daughter of Matt Wilkins, one of the proprietors of the house, were married on Monday night. The young lady is well known in Corvallis, and her many friends will wish her a life of happiness and success.

The time-honored custom of watching the old year out and the new year in was observed at several places in Corvallis. Parties gathered at the residences of Frank Lilly, Miss Hortense Greffox and Mabel Johnson. Services were held in the Methodist church and the familiar tones of this pioneer bell were the first to tell the sleeping populace that a new year was born.

BRIEF LOCALS.

THE GAZETTE acknowledges a brief call from Sid Moore, jr.

We understand Lake Dorris is married. No cards! No cake! No congratulations!

HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation. Appropriate services were held at the various churches on Sunday the last day of 1893.

John Ray has charge of the Hersher stock recently sold to the First National bank.

S. H. Green, a prominent Portland attorney, was in the city this week on legal business.

Mr. Clarence Lavake, after an absence of a year in Wisconsin, has again returned to Corvallis.

Misses Delia, Jennie and Nettie Gellately spent the holidays with their parents out on the farm.

J. M. Marks and Miss Ellen Miller were married at the Summit by Squire Warren on Christmas day.

Nelson Brothers, of the Occidental shaving parlors, are doing first-class work and their trade is thereby increasing every day. Baths in connection with the shop.

THE EARLIER symptoms of dyspepsia, such as distress after eating, heartburn, and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured.

Alex. Barclay and wife, nee Nida Ferguson, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Wilkins over New Year. Mr. Barclay is the U. S. Topographical surveyor for Oregon, being located at Portland.

Kansas complains of an influx of tramps since Lewelling made the declaration that they would be well fed. Corvallis has a few of the species whom she wishes would take their departure for that vag haven.

A surprise party was tendered to Bruce Burnett last Friday night, at the residence of his parents. Some twenty-five of his young friends arrived at 8 o'clock and from that time on till midnight, games of various kinds served to pass away the time.

Athenian hair tonic will cure that itching and keep the scalp clear of dandruff. Try a bottle and if not perfectly satisfactory, money cheerfully refunded. 50c., 75c. and $1.00 bottles. Nelson Bros. sole agents, Occidental shaving parlors.

On Saturday last Misses Ethel, Bessie and Jay, daughters and son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Langley, departed for their former home in Iowa. They will be followed in a few weeks by their parents, who intend making that state their permanent residence.

Miss Anna Bradley, of Yreka, Cal., is visiting in this city, the guest of Miss Olive Thompson. Miss Bradley has been in Idaho visiting with her brother for some time past, and is now on her way home. She expects to attend the midwinter fair while there.

"The best in the world." This is what W. D. Woodring, of Bordley, Ky., says of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He speaks from personal experience in the use of it, himself and family having just been cured of bad coughs and colds by it. For sale by Graham & Wells, druggists.

A. M. Maxfield, until recently a citizen of St. Paul, Minn., is in Corvallis looking for a location. He appears to be pleased with section and is not surprised at the present financial condition of this portion of the United States. Where he hails from the situation is no better.

Hon. J. K. Weatherford, W. C. Tweedale, W. E. Gillett, ex-Sheriff Scott and twelve other old looking individuals arrived from Albany on to-day's train. The purpose of their visit is to take charge of the I. O. O. F. installation exercises at the opera house this evening.

Mr. C. F. Davis, editor of the Bloomfield, Iowa, Farmer, says: "I can recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all sufferers with colds and croup. I have used it in my family for the past two years and have found it the best I ever used for the purpose for which it is intended. 50 cent bottles for sale by Graham & Wells.

Qui Vive Encampment, No. 26, I. O. O. F., extends an invitation to Alpha Rebekah Lodge, No. 54, I. O. O. F., to attend a public installation of their officers, to be held Friday evening, Jan. 5th, 1894, at the opera house, Corvallis, Oregon. The Rebekahs will meet at Odd Fellows' hall at 7 o'clock.

MRS. THOS. SAMUELS, Sec.

Joseph V. Dory, of Warsaw, Ill., was troubled with rheumatism and tried a number of different remedies, but says none of them seemed to do him any good, but finally he got hold of one that speedily cured him. He was well pleased with it, and felt sure that others similarly afflicted would like to know what the remedy was that cured him. He states for the benefit of the public that it is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Graham & Wells.

From the Shelbyville (Ind.) Republican we learn of the death of Mrs. Margaret Thompson Manning, which occurred in that city on Saturday, Dec. 16, 1893. She was born in Chillicothe, Ohio, in the year 1809, and at death was aged 84 years. Five children survive her, one of whom is a well-known resident of Corvallis—Mrs. W. T. Hoffman, the mother of Miss Mand Hoffman, the popular young actress now in the east. Mrs. Manning has ever lived a religious life, having been a member of the Christian church since 1849, with which she united in Petersburg, Kentucky. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

At their regular communication on last Wednesday evening Corvallis lodge No. 14, A. F. and A. M. conferred the third or Master Mason degree upon one candidate, the newly elected officers having charge of the ceremonies. The work was very creditably performed, and gave evidence that the progress of Masonry in Corvallis during the year to come was in the keeping of safe and trustworthy hands. In fact, since the merging of the two Masonic bodies—Rocky and Corvallis—into one, we now have a organization second to none on the Pacific coast, from which good reports may be expected.

"Little hatchet" Paul is to be commended for the assiduity with which he applies himself to the prosecution of his studies in voice culture. His name appears on the pay roll of this office and he reports with great regularity—on pay day. We too "dearly love a lord" to venture reprimanding the future tragedian. We fear, however, he is in danger of wandering off into comic opera.

If Bill Hartless don't keep away from this office he is going to get hurt. He came in here the other night with his big feet and stepped on "Gazette," our pet dog. She already had her tail cut half off and now her hind leg is crushed, which caused her going into hospital for repairs. An editor can stand a good deal, but when a fellow comes in and walks on our dog, we draw the line.

A young Corvallis business man had occasion the other day to visit our neighbor city Eugene. Arriving at Albany on his return trip, he stepped off the train to change cars, but didn't change, and not until Jefferson was reached did his mistake become apparent. He should have a guardian appointed to serve in the capacity of railroad guide, when he has occasion to travel in the future.

The claim of Annie Long against the Friendly estate was garnished this week on an execution from Lane county. The execution was issued on a judgment obtained by E. P. Coleman against John Long for the sum of $173 and costs and interest from June, 1891, which now amounts to about $300. It is understood that an attempt will be made to set aside the interest of Mrs. Long in the claim attached, on the ground that it rightfully belongs to her husband and that the assignment made by Long to her was fraudulent.

"God bless the man who first invented sleep," so Don Sancho Panza said and so says Albany. They had quite a fire down there the other night, but seemed unaware of its existence. Officer McLagan, as usual at his post of duty, noticed the light and suggested to Carl Hodes, at the telephone exchange, that a fire was raging in Albany, who in turn notified them that the town was burning. Had an Oregon Pacific train been handy, the Corvallis fire department would have taken their apparatus down and put it out and thus avoided awakening the tired people of that sleepy town.

The editor of the Echo-Leader has received a charming Christmas present—supper in artistic value. It is a painting of "Mary's Peak," situated in the Coast Range, about fifteen miles from Corvallis, and the work was done by Mrs. Wallis Nash for the Episcopal church at Corvallis. We learn that Mrs. Nash is doing a noble work in this line to elevate the popular taste. The painting is a rare gem in its conception, delicate and artistic in taste. The work suggests culture and refinement that should be highly appreciated and generously rewarded.—Echo-Leader.

Mr. J. R. Beagle, foreman and associate editor of the Hillsboro Independent, was married to one of the fairer sex in that city last Sunday, we are informed. J. R. had an experience while enroute to the last meeting of the national editorial association in Chicago which Col. Johnson and other comrades of that trip delight to relate, and if it is true that he has taken this important matrimonial step it will not be fair to presume that another occasion for a "josh" of the kind will be presented. We wish Mr. Beagle and his fortunate bride all happiness and prosperity due to faithful members of the profession.

SUGGESTION TO THE COUNCIL.

It is strange that a cross-walk, which would be one of the most traveled in the city if it were laid, has been allowed to exist in contemplation of mind and in the desire of the traveling public only. The postoffice is the most frequented building in town, and to reach the same it is decidedly inconvenient to walk around the block or take to the mud. The council should order a walk put in here at once, or else scrape off the mud, or else lay a six-inch plank, or else provide stepping stones, or else have a small boy with a sled, or else pass an ordinance that mud be fashionable and agreeable, or else have the office moved over to the west side of the street. The pursuance of any of these suggestions will meet with our approbation. W.

A PIANO TUNING MACARONI.

Mr. Schmidt of the Occidental, is on to himself. He used to run the Louvre in San Francisco; has seen the world in all its varied phases and prides himself upon being sophisticated. He can't be taken in, oh no! Hence we are perfectly satisfied that the current report to the effect that a certain dapper macaroni of a piano tuner had imposed upon him to the extent of $12 for a jumped board bill, is a mistake. It is probably true that he has not received the same, but he knows it is simply casting bread upon the waters. He will mark this $12 in his little book as "coming." F. J. Hoff Elliott, dined on the fat of the hotel and doubtless feels very kindly toward Mr. Schmidt.

THE MIDWINTER FAIR.

The midwinter fair has been formally opened to the public and the people are all agog with excitement in preparation for a visit to this great display of Pacific coast resources. Those who visit San Francisco from this locality should give the matter of their personal appearance some consideration: Go to Spencer's tonsorial art emporium for the latest style hair-cuts, etc. Satisfaction guaranteed.

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle.

MILK! MILK! MILK!

We are prepared, as ever, to compete with any other dairy in the county in pure, rich and CLEAN milk and guarantee satisfaction at all times. CORVALLIS DAIRY.

THE CHURCHES.

Services at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath at the usual hours. Communion and reception of members in the morning and in the evening. Dr. Thompson will speak on "Young Manhood, its Powers and Possibilities." Sabbath school at 10, and Endeavor societies at 4 and 6:30. A kind welcome to all.

The Second Quarterly meeting of the M. E. church will be held next Saturday and Sunday. Rev. John P. son, P. T. T. is already preaching each night in the church.

The meeting of the M. E. church will continue through next week. Rev. S. A. Starr, of Dallas, is expected to be in attendance.

Services at the Congregational church on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The morning service will be a communion service with a short sermon on "Pentecostal Power," and the public reception of members. The evening service will be an Evangelistic service. Services every evening next week. Sunday school at 10 a. m.; Y. P. S. O. E. at 6:30 p. m. A warm welcome to all.

J. Bowersox will preach next Sunday in the chapel of the M. E. church, south, at 3 o'clock p. m.

A PINE ENTERTAINMENT.

On next Saturday evening at 7:45 o'clock an entertainment will be given at the Christian church. The best talent in the city will take part in the rendition of the excellent program. All should attend, as the price of admission has been placed at only 25 cents to suit the "hard times." The following is the program: Quartette, Miss Adda Davenport; Vocal Solo, W. T. Lee; Recitation, Frank Abram Powell; Solo, H. R. Clark; Vocal Selection, Glee Club; Vocal Solo, Miss Olive Thompson; Violins obligato, Messrs. Rosebrook and Pearce; Short Lecture, Frank Abram Powell; Violin Duets, Messrs. Rosebrook and Pearce; Duet, Misses Ida Martin and Adda Davenport; Solo, W. H. Bloss; Ladies' Trio, Misses Thompson and Sjaugter.

BAD INVESTMENTS THE CAUSE.

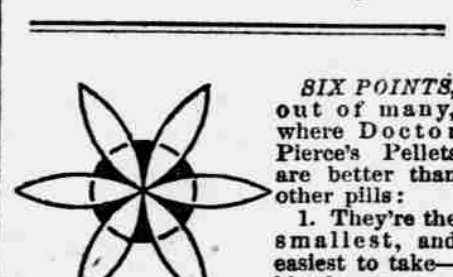

The history of business enterprises in Corvallis for 1893, can be summed up in the word, failure. The final chapter was the closing of A. F. Hershner's store, or what is practically the same thing, its delivery to the First National bank to secure it for money advanced. Such things are becoming so common that the people are growing apathetic and this failure hardly caused a ripple of excitement on the sea of hard times and business depression. Mr. Hershner has been engaged in the grocery business at the Ray corner for the past several years, and until recently was considered to be doing well and in good financial circumstances. Investing in outside enterprises appears to be the direct cause of his collapse.

ONE LAWYER LESS.

J. H. Wilson will leave soon for San Francisco, where he intends engaging in the practice of law. During the past seven years he has been the efficient deputy clerk of Benton county, which position has enabled him to gain a thorough practical knowledge of court proceedings. He is energetic, studious and clear-headed and will no doubt climb to the top. It requires no small amount of courage and self-confidence for a young man to leave his home and former associations and attempt to build himself up in a hustling, bustling city, and those who have these qualifications and make such a step as Mr. Wilson is doing, usually achieve success and we trust he will prove no exception.

ONE BY ONE THE ROSES FALL.

Dr. E. J. Thompson went to McMinnville Tuesday to perform the marriage ceremony of M. L. Dorris and Miss Ethel Ballanger. Lake was a resident of this city for a number of years when he became one of the leading young men both socially and in business circles. About a year ago he became manager of Wade & Co.'s general implement depot at Independence, where he and his wife will reside in the future. Lake can love long and hard and his wife need have no fears on that score. The his ship of married blessedness will meet with no accidents on the sea of matrimonial uncertainty in the wish of his many friends in this city.

SIX POINTS, out of many, where Doctor Pierce's Pellets are better than other pills: 1. They're the smallest, and easiest to take—little, sugar-coated granules that every child takes readily. 2. They're perfectly easy in their action—no griping, no disturbance. 3. Their effects last. There's no reaction afterwards. They regulate or cleanse the system, according to size of dose. 4. They're the cheapest, for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. You pay only for the good you get. 5. Put up in glass—are always fresh. 6. They cure Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, Sick or Bilious Headaches, and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels.
