Pianoforte Recital.

The pianoforte recital of W. Gifford Nash in the A. O. U. W. hall last Friday evening delighted an invited number of nearly 200, including most of the musicians of our city. Mr. Nash has but recently returned from Germany where he spent four years perfecting his musical education, receiving instructions from the best pianists of the Fatherland. The expectations of his auditors were more than realized for his interpretation of the classical selections were masterful. The beauties of some of the numbers could hardly be appreciated fully by most of the audience, perhaps, but the principal part of the program delighted the ear of all. The dreamy, plaintive nocturne by Chopin captured the fancy of musicians and laymen and was repeated. Corvallis is to be congratulated upon the acquisition of a musician of such high order.

Two vocal quartettes by Messrs. Fulton, Berchtold, Bloss and Clark, accompanied by Miss Ora Spanger, added to the enjoyment of the evening. Mrs. Wallace Nash received the guests and after the recital light refreshments were served. Following is the program rendered:

- 1. Handel, Variations E maj.
2. Beethoven, Sonata C maj, op 2 No. 3. Allegro con brio-Adagio. Scherzo-Allegro Assia.
3. Schumann, a. Des Abends. b. Novellet F maj.
4. F. Abt, Quartet, Wanderer's return.
5. Chopin, a. Polonaise. b. Waltz. c. Nocturne. d. Etude.
6. Boieldieu, Quartet-Praise to the Soldier.
7. a. Litz, Finales, E maj. b. Bach, Saint-Saens-Gavotte B min. c. Moszkowski, Melody. d. Mendelssohn, Andante and Ron-do Capriccioso.

Hard Times Prices.

Joseph Caskey and John Ottersteadt wish to announce that they are doing all kinds of blacksmithing at reduced prices to meet the scarcity of money. In connection with their business an agricultural implement depot has been opened where all kinds of farming tools may be purchased at prices that are absolutely astonishing for their cheapness. These gentlemen are both experienced mechanics, and are prepared to do all kinds of repairing in either wood or iron. They are prompt and painstaking with their work and deserve to be liberally patronized.

Not Entitled to Credence.

For several days certain persons have been trying to create the impression that combinations had been formed in Corvallis for the nomination of Korthauer and Waggoner and that the primaries were put up for that purpose. It is impossible to conceive anything further from the truth than these statements. The primaries were conducted in the usual quiet manner without any unusual attempt to persuade or influence voters and the delegates elected are men who will fairly represent the wishes of the republicans and not one word of complaint is heard, except from men who failed to accomplish their ends and secure a delegation favorable to some pet scheme. We do not know whether the delegates elected are favorable to Waggoner or Henkle, to Korthauer or Pearce, or to any other candidates spoken of, but we must all deprecate an attempt to prejudice the interest of able and honorable republicans by unfounded and unjust charges.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Comrades.

The play to be produced by the Corvallis Amateurs, assisted by that versatile young actor, Bert P. Van Cleve, at the opera house on Friday, April 13th, is, without a doubt, one of the best amateur plays ever written. The title, Comrades, signifies much, as will be seen by those who attend. The fact that the leading parts are in the hands of Miss Ora Spangler and Geo. Paul is enough to let our people know that the play will be produced in first-class style. Miss Mildred Linville, Henry Pape and John Allen will also be seen in good parts, while the comedy is in the hands of Miss Lillian Hamilton and Mr. Van Cleve. In Simon Stone, the jack of all trades, Bert Van Cleve will be at his best. In addition to the regular play there will be introduced in the last act the Marine quartette, Don Ray in late songs, and Bert Van Cleve in the latest up to date. An excellent musical programme has been arranged especially for this occasion by Prof. Rosebrook. Don't forget the date, and be sure to attend. The box office will be opened next Monday.

Open-air Concert.

The following program will be rendered by the Marine band at the court house square next Sunday afternoon: March-Beau Ideal.....Souza Overture-Silver Bell.....Schlegel Medley-The Black Brigade.....Beyer Overture-Fantastique.....Dalby Schot-Frotte of the Sylphs.....Voelker March-The Crusader.....Souza For sale cheap, one large work horse. This and That.

J. L. Johnson, of Independence, is in town. The "Unwashed" can get a bath at Spencer & Case's. Born, to the wife of E. P. Greffox, this morning, a daughter. Total amount of taxes collected up to April 1st was about $15,000. Dr. Thompson preached at Oak Ridge and conducted communion service for that church. Today the attorneys concluded taking evidence in the case of Hylanska. Wilkins, before Referee E. E. Wilson.

The GAZETTE is under obligations to J. Fred Yates for reporting the address of C. E. Wolverton which appeared in last week's issue. Prof. E. E. Condit, president of Albany college, delivered a very able address on "Christian education" at the Presbyterian church last Sabbath morning.

The democrats before proceeding to an election of delegates to the county convention passed a resolution instructing all their delegates to get shaved and shampooed at Spencer & Case's barber shop.

At the republican primary in Alesca a resolution was adopted condemning the action of certain parties now endeavoring to have created from portions of Benton and Lane counties, the new county of Blaine. Cal Hutton is again open for business at the old Horning shop located at the upper end of Second street. This will be cheering news to Cal's old patrons who recognize him as one of the best blacksmiths in the state.

Last Monday in Justice E E Wilson's court, A. L. Cooper was found guilty of trespassing upon the premises of Abbie M. Moore and fined $25 and costs. The state was represented by J. Fred Yates and S. T. Jeffreys and the defendant by J. R. Wyatt, of Albany.

The young democracy have prepared a very interesting program to be rendered this evening. The young republicans delighted the Corvallis public last Saturday night in such a manner that if the boys tonight do as well they will have reason to congratulate themselves.

Services at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath as follows: Sabbath school at 10 a. m.; public worship at 11 a. m. including reception of members and communion; junior endeavor at 4:30 p. m.; senior endeavor at 6:30; evening service at 7:30. Dr. Thompson will preach at the Witham school house at 3 o'clock. A kind welcome to all.

Yesterday the Democrat mentioned the occupancy of the office of C. H. Dalrymple by unknown parties. Last night a watch was kept and a young man was seen to go toward it. He was followed into the office, where another young man was found in company with Jessie Young, a girl with a bad local reputation, and for whom all efforts made heretofore have failed. The girl was placed in the calaboose over night, and the young man required to furnish money to get her out of town. The whole business is an unsavory one.-Albany Democrat.

Last Monday the register's department of the Roseburg land office was formally turned over to Hon. R. M. Veatch, the newly appointed register. If the new incumbent proves as competent and accommodating as his predecessor, Mr. John H. Shupe has been the administration has made no mistake in its selection. During the incumbency of Mr. Shupe, the GAZETTE has been the recipient of many favors, and in turning over the office to his successor it can be truly said of him "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

HERMANN ALL RIGHT.

Eight Thousand for Improvements at Corvallis. A New Project.

Last Saturday Representative Hermann telegraphed F. M. Johnson that he had succeeded in getting three thousand dollars more for improvement of the Willamette at this place, making eight thousand in all allowed for this purpose. This is certainly encouraging news. Five thousand was the full estimate of the United States engineers for this work but upon receiving the petitions from Corvallis and copies of the GAZETTE showing the exact condition of affairs Mr. Hermann succeeded in securing an increase on the general appropriation bill of three thousand. This is most encouraging when it is known that this congress is cutting down the appropriations at every point and our rivers and harbors will receive much less than one half what they received a year ago. Mr. Hermann has also a provision in the bill requiring a new project to be prepared for an enlarged plan for the improvement of the entire Willamette river from Portland to Eugene. It is estimated that the survey will cost $12,000. Under this plan a revetment of exposed banks will be considered, which will be a great improvement to the commerce of the Willamette valley. This will cost a deal of money, but it will keep the river in place and form a permanent channel. In fact it seems that he is doing everything possible to secure favorable legislation for improvements throughout the state. But he is handicapped by the party in power which economizes at the expense of the development and advancement of the country. In spite of all he has had to contend with, Mr. Hermann has succeeded remarkably well. When it comes to securing appropriations for water-ways Oregon is effectually "w. i. t." With Mr. Hermann on the house committee of rivers and harbors and Mr. Dolph serving on the commerce committee of the senate, we have nothing to fear. In this respect no state is more favorably represented in congress than Oregon. We don't want a change.

College Notes.

The spring term opened Monday with a large enrollment. Military drill begins every morning at 7:45, and continues until 8:30. School is not dismissed now until ten minutes past twelve, and takes up again at 1:20. Pres. Condit, of the Albany college, addressed the students for a few minutes on Monday morning of this week.

The Cauthorn hall reading room presents a very inviting appearance. Quite a number of donations have been made. Heretofore the students have been graded upon attendance and trial in literary work, but hereafter they will be graded upon the work actually done. Mr. Perry Baisley, of Baker City, well known as an O. A. C. student, is at present in Alaska, where he expects to remain until late in the summer. The mechanical students have challenged the agriculturals to play a game of baseball next Saturday. It is not known whether a game will be played or not.

The two lower rooms of the mechanical hall are being fitted up as armories for the companies. Company "A" occupies the north room and company "B" the south.

Lieut. C. E. Dentler is very comfortably located at Cauthorn hall. He says he never saw a better set of young men than attend the Oregon agricultural college.

Mr. H. R. Clark is at present busy preparing bulletin number 30, which is issued by the agricultural department. This bulletin treats specially of potatoes and roots. Bulletin number 31, from the entomological department, is also being prepared.

The installation of officers of the literary societies took place Monday. Messrs. Doughty and Caples were installing officers for the Ciceroians, filling the office very admirably, making the officers take some very queer affirmations. Mr. J. R. Smith, an O. A. C. student, who has been sick for some time, has been compelled to return to his home in eastern Oregon. Mr. Smith has made many friends while at Corvallis and they all hope that he will speedily recover.

A baseball team went to Philomath to play with the "kid" team at that place. It was understood that their boys were not to be over sixteen years of age, but some of them were old enough to vote at the last election. The boys played however, the game resulting in a score of 24 to 40, in favor of the Philomath "men." Only six innings were played.

By order of Lieut. C. E. Dentler the cadets of the college have been organized into a battalion, consisting of two companies. Company "A" includes the students living at Cauthorn hall, and company "B" those living in town. The officers are as follows: First lieutenant, A. C. Lewis; sergeant major, W. C. Williams.

COMPANY "B." W. F. Holman Captain J. H. Gibson H. M. Desborough 1st Lieut. C. G. Emmett D. P. Adamson 2nd " Ross Finley W. W. Smith 3rd " A. T. Buxton Chas. Andrews 1st Sergeant Mark Bump L. B. Andrews 2nd " John Allen E. R. Doughty 3rd " Fred Caples L. M. Leland 4th " F. E. Edwards A. D. Zimmerman 5th " L. W. Green Wm. Abernethy 1st Corporal W. F. Keedy C. L. Ousley 2nd " M. Wyatt Thos. Beal 3rd " W. B. Lacy M. Stember 4th " F. A. Buchanan A. B. Kidder 5th " M. R. Johnson

Gone Up in Smoke. Last Monday afternoon the two-story residence of Charles Blakeslee, located in Hoffman's addition, together with most of its contents, was burned to the ground. The alarm was given, but owing to the distance the firemen were unable to reach the scene with their apparatus until the building was nearly consumed. By the almost superhuman effort of the hook and ladder company a barn only a few feet adjacent, was saved. The fire is supposed to have originated in the upper story from a defective flue, and all told caused a loss of about $700. Mr. Blakeslee is an industrious man of moderate means and the loss falls heavily upon him.

Wednesday Morning's Fire. The large barn owned by Dr. J. M. Applewhite at the western terminus of Harrison street was burned to the ground about 3 o'clock Wednesday morning. The first alarm was given by the whistle at the electric light plant, and the department quickly responded, arriving at the scene, the fire had gained such headway that it was impossible to remove to a place of safety, any of the contents. Grain, hay, two sets of harness, a buggy and other articles valued at about $350, together with the building valued at $500, was a total loss, but it was covered by a Phenix policy for $500. There is but little doubt but that the fire was the work of incendiaries.

The thirty-fifth quarterly meeting of the Oregon state horticultural society will be held at The Dalles Tuesday and Wednesday, April 10th and 11th.

MARRIAGE A FAILURE.

Positive Evidence From Six Young Hearts That it is

Three divorce suits were filed this week to come up for hearing at the next term of the circuit court which convenes Monday the 9th, inst. Lilly L. Sargent is the plaintiff in one and alleges that the defendant, George Sargent, and she were married in Polk county November 9th, 1890. That the defendant without cause contracted the habit of gross and habitual drunkenness and that his habits as a drunkard has become so confirmed that plaintiff can no longer live with him in comfort or safety, and since last June she has been compelled to support herself by her own labor as a housekeeper in a private family. Since the separation she has received no support from the defendant and asks for a decree of divorce and also that her name be changed to Lilly L. Tharp, her maiden name.

In May, 1891, in Polk county, Oregon, Miss Lulu Miller and W. H. Whitaker were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The wife is now the plaintiff to a suit for divorce and alleges that soon after their marriage the defendant commenced a course of cruel and inhuman treatment toward her so as to render her life burdensome. The defendant was lazy and shiftless and did nothing for the support of plaintiff. That he took the money earned by the plaintiff and used it for purposes unknown and at different times visited Portland and while there attended various places of amusement, and took with him, women to the plaintiff unknown. She has been in delicate health most of the time since their marriage and unable to do the work she was compelled to do. That often their table was not supplied with the wholesome necessities of life and during the last year most of the provisions were supplied by herself. She further alleges that defendant accused her with having committed adultery with one Hart, which defendant knew was false. That at one time the defendant admitted having been intimate before his marriage with one Emma Colett. That she frequented the defendant's home and plaintiff objected to her visits and requested defendant to desist associating with her but the angrily stated to plaintiff that he would do as he wished, and if plaintiff was not satisfied with it she could pack up her things and go home to her people, which she did and has since lived separate and apart from the defendant. Wherefore she asks that the bonds of matrimony be dissolved, and that her name be changed to Lulu M. Miller.

E. D. Horner, has begun suit against his wife for divorce, and alleges that they were married in Umattila county during the month of April, 1888; that he has treated the defendant with kindness and affection but soon after their marriage without any cause ceased to love him and treated him cruelly and inhumanly; she was sullen and morose, frequently refusing to speak or talk with plaintiff except in fits of anger, when she would curse him and call him many offensive, vile and abusive names. She would speak to him when out in company in a very insulting and humiliating manner, and would frequently slap him in the face. During the month of March 1892, she was in the habit of going out boating with a young man named W. E. Abbit, and would stay out late and when plaintiff would remonstrate with her she would tell him that it was none of his dam business; that she would stay out as long as she pleased. She was also in the habit of going out at night and meeting divers young men, whose names are not unknown, and would stay out until eleven or twelve o'clock.

She had struck plaintiff with knives, inflicting painful wounds and her constant, cruel and inhuman treatment has rendered his life unbearable, and it is impossible for them to live together longer as man and wife. The defendant sets up a general denial to plaintiff's allegations and asks for a decree against plaintiff and that she be permitted to resume her maiden name, Hattie A. Stansbury.
