GRAND REPUBLICAN

Rally at Corvallis

WEDNESDAY P. M. MAY 16TH

HONORABLE

Late Congressman from Michigan, and at present assistant editor of the New York Tribune, will speak at the Opera House at 1:30 o'clock. Round trip tickets from Yaquina and all intermediate points, good from the 16th to the 18th inclusive, can be had for one fare. By order of

STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Tired and Run Down.

O. W. R. Mfg. Co., 315 Front street, Portland, Oregon. Dear Sirs: I was completely worn out from overwork;
could not sleep at night, and felt that I was approaching a serious condition;
but, thanks to Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root, I am almost an entire new person, as I never felt so well in my life, and it was the cheapest doctor's bill I ever had, as I only took five bottles. I cheerfully recommend it to all afflicted.

Yours respectfully,
MISS EMMA LEE,
1115 Eleventh street, Portland, Oregon.

Dropsy and Heart Disease.

Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with Dropsy and Heart Disease, and my sufferings were terrible. I commenced taking Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root, and by degrees my pain seemed to leave me. After taking nine bottles I was restored to my former health, and now feel as though I never had been ill.

Yours truly,
JOHN CURRIN,
Spokane, Washington.

ONE DAY CURE. HATTEES CONGO OIL

WATER-PROOF PORTLAND CEMENT.
Minister of the Gospel.
SEVENTY-THREE YEARS OLD.

COUNCIL VALLEY, IDAHO,
December 1, 1893.

O. W. R. Mfg. Co., 315 Front street,
cor. Clay, Portland, Oregon. Dear Sirs:
About two months ago your salesman,
while traveling through this valley, found me, an old man seventy-three years of age, almost dead with bruises caused from a fall; and I feel that I am in duty bound to testify that the half bottle of "Hattees Congo Oil" given to me by your agent and two others that I afterwards bought, have helped me to such an extent that I am almost able to walk, and I must say it is a great remedy. Being very thankful for the relief it has given me and hoping for your success,
I remain yours,
REV. A. MORRISON.

Corvallis has been honored by the selection of Wm. H. Bloss by the state encampment now in session at Roseburg, as colonel of the division of Oregon, Sons of Veterans. Mr. Bloss is captain of Benj. Harrison camp of this city, and is in every way qualified to perform the onerous duties of the high office to which he has been elected. The people of Corvallis fully appreciate the honor conferred upon them by the Sons of Veterans of this state, and congratulate the order upon the selection of a person so worthy and one so thoroughly in sympathy with the work.

The Oregon Pacific pay cars go over the road next week to glad the hearts of the employees by paying them the services rendered during the month of April. Receiver Clark increased the net balance this month two dollars over that for April and has $137 in cash left over to apply on next month's pay roll.

For striking Ira T. Lingo, Ed Zeis, of Albany, was fined $3 and costs in Justice Holgate's court last Monday. The necessary funds were paid by the boy's father and the prisoner was released.

A Little Daughter

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BIRKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill st., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have used Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many

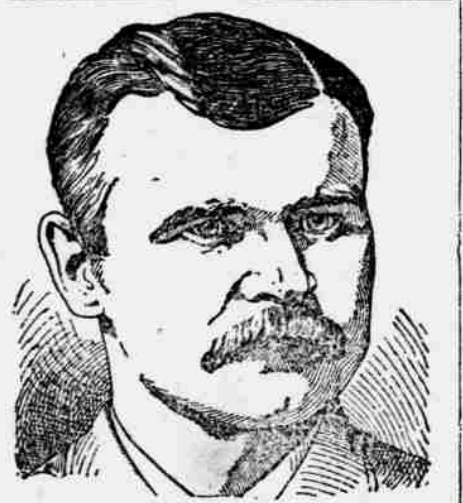

Wonderful Cures

performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and, at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of Diabetes Cured!

Wonderful Work.

A New Being Created!

Dear Sirs: If you could see the writer of this letter and note the wonderful change that has been effected in his case by taking Dr. Grant's Kidney and Liver Cure, you would certainly be astonished. I was a most wretched sufferer for three years, trying all kinds of medicine and getting no relief. The flow of urine was very excessive. I was very constipated and also covered with carbuncles, and felt at war with myself and the world at large; but, thanks to your wonderful medicine, I felt as though I was a new being, and I consider a wonderful cure has been effected in my case.

With my best wishes for your further success, I remain

Has Grover Cleveland Hypnotized Governor Penneyer?

Many visitors in the executive office of the government at Salem have noticed the pen and ink, or photographed sketch of President Cleveland, nailed to the edge of the window frame close to the governor's chair. Whenever the governor raised his head in meditation on the coming campaign speech, those features of that serene and well-fledged physiognomy, met his eye. Fancy the effect on that studious and meditative man! The friend who bestowed that New Year's gift on the governor did him an ill turn. Constant contemplation of the president, morning, noon, and night, would surely involve one of two opposite results on so sensitive a mind: Either he would become the idol of the governor's worship; his firmness; his honesty of purpose; his courage of his opinions, and his other attributes forming a halo of glory round that massive brow, or else, repulsion instead of attraction would result. Envy, hatred, malice, and all uncharitableness, would gradually inspire the governor's thoughts. It seems from his campaign speech that this last is the condition of affairs. Let the governor's populist best friend burglariously enter his room, and remove that offending picture ere it is too late—and the neighboring asylum all too soon claim another distinguished inmate.

Hard Times Prices.

Joseph Caskey and John Ottersteadt wish to announce that they are doing all kinds of blacksmithing at reduced prices to meet the scarcity of money. In connection with their business an agricultural implement depot has been opened where all kinds of farming tools may be purchased at prices that are absolutely astonishing for their cheapness. These gentlemen are both experienced mechanics, and are prepared to do all kinds of repairing in either wood or iron. They are prompt and painstaking with their work and deserve to be liberally patronized.

J. M. Nolan is busily engaged this week in mailing several thousand copies of the Clothing Journal to his patrons.

Why is it that Ed. Bryan is just now visiting all the schools in the county? It is strange, indeed, that this matter given so little attention during the past two years is taken up so actively just preceding election.

"Judge Your Honor" H. L. Holgate and Freddy Oberer have been visiting at the farm of "Doc" Allen near Philomath this week. Doc succeeded in converting the judge to his political belief and was given his regular rations of food until yesterday morning when he came in on the train. Not so with Freddy; on refusing to espouse the cause of republicanism he was put on a diet of bread and water for two days. At the end of this time he showed no signs of weakness in the democratic faith and Doc could stand it no longer and Wednesday requested him to leave. Arriving here about supper time that evening afoot he looked like a straggler from Coxe's army.

WITH THE PHILOMATHITES.

Corvallis Republicans Visit Philomath and are Well Received.

Monday evening, in conjunction with the Ladies' Auxiliary, the Benton county republican club, headed by their drum corps, left republican headquarters at 7:15 on their march to the depot where the Oregon Pacific train was awaiting them en route especially for the event. They arrived at 7:45 the train pulled out with 150 passengers on board. The GAZETTE man counted all but one and he kept displaying so much enthusiasm that he could not be reached. He was a democrat, so it didn't make any difference.

As the atmosphere in a great thunder storm imbued with electricity was the atmosphere of the republican-laden train charged with enthusiasm and before we reached Philomath it had gained almost a white heat, and as the bell of the engine rang out "Protection," "McKinley," "Harrison" and other republican synonyms, we pulled into the music of the Philomath McKinley club, 100 in line with torches. Grand Marshal Hart was soon at the head in line ready for the march to the college. Every one of 200 was taken and a large number to be led without them. Hailed by the drum corps and Musical Band, the two clubs marched to the college and a more beautiful torchlight procession or more enthusiastic demonstration we never saw. At the college camp door we stopped in an instant and will tell our readers what we saw before entering. First, four of Philomath's beautiful little girls stood dealing out bouquets to the veterans as they came in. On their lovely white costumes were written "Protection" on two of them and "McKinley" on the other two. Their names were Jessie Bony, Grace Boies, Lydia Kisor and Lucy Wyatt. The walls were covered with national colors in neatly arranged groups. Enthusiastic patriotism had not been other than that greatly enhanced by the presence of Lincoln, Grant, McKinley, Garfield and Harrison by large portraits. Written over the speaker's stand were the words, "Protection to American homes and American Industries."

All this and more, for the sweet odor of the perfume of lilacs and other beautiful flowers placed in every available place induced enthusiasm through all five senses, seeing, smelling, hearing, feeling and even tasting. Before the GAZETTE man had been enabled to take these laudatory stenographic notes he was jostled from side to side and found himself luckily in a chair near the speaker's stand, and wherever there was room for a man to stand or sit, on the floor or otherwise, one if not more was trying to make himself comfortable and besides, as many men were turned away from the door.

With a great effort the chairman, Mr. R. A. Logan, quelled the enthusiasm to permit the orchestra to begin the entertainment, which was followed by a quartette by the Band, already very favorably known to our friends.

Tulbert Carter was introduced and told the audience how he had changed his mind: "I want to be elected and have a chance to do good work in a good cause and serve the good people of the state of Oregon whom I love." He belittled in "Lincoln republicanism, Grant republicanism, Garfield republicanism and McKinley republicanism." (Great applause.) At the close of his remarks Bill Hartless could keep still no longer and proposed three cheers for the speaker, and we could hear victory for Mr. Carter echoed thereby.

Miss Anna Samuels, of the Auxiliary club, sang a solo in her usual sweet way and added a new laurel by answering an encore.

The introduction of Mr. J. Fred Yates brought forth the second outburst of enthralling shouts and he delivered a twenty minute address, every word of which proclaimed liberty and patriotism, adding fuel to the burning enthusiasm.

Mr. Hartless, with his corset was called to repeat his solo and afterwards showered with bouquets in profusion, and the orchestra played another selection, which it is not necessary to say was excellent. Miss Jessie Gelatly, always at home as a soloist, sang and resung a lovely selection.

Hon. George Waggoner hurled torpedoes right and left into the democratic ranks for a half hour. Lack of organization, he said, has been the cause of republican defeat, depending entirely upon the good judgment of citizens in voting its principles, whilst democracy has won only by concerted and systematic organization. He likened the democratic party to a blind Sampson, who was afraid to take out the pillars of iron which American prosperity is built on, concluding that "Sampson" would soon be sent forth to a better, but more humble life.

The blonde girl it was again called, which was intended to close the program, but an enthralling audience would not have it. It was then upon R. F. Holm, nominee for school superintendent, Harv. Kohler, nominee for clerk, Judge Hufford, Mr. Clark, Geo. Smith, Mr. Cooper, and Mr. Bristol, all of whom replied briefly, promising to run as if elected, yes, yes, it is now over thirty years since I began addressing you upon the principles of the republican party, and like old wisdom it gets better with age. The whist solo speaker, but the lateness of the hour, he said, made it necessary for him to cut it very short.

The orchestra played a selection especially dedicated to democratic candidates, closing the program with, "He got it where the chicken got the ax."

Cheer after cheer went up; enthusiasm para reigning supreme from that time until midnight, when all went to the arms of Morpheus wiser and better prepared to cast a vote than ever.

NOTES.—
We wish to make especial note of the appreciation of the hospitable treatment we received at the hands of the McKinley club and the Philomath people in general. They know how to treat their visiting republicans. We thank you, Philomath, and before the campaign is over will invite you en masse to our board.

Democrats H. L. Holgate and M. O. Wilkin made themselves very conspicuous and we think they would make good republicans. William Hartless deserves special credit for his successful efforts in securing the drum corps.

Thanks to the ladies for the flowers. They deserve the most credit of all, and we assure them of the appreciation with which they were received.
Some one, evidently a democrat, wanted to know "What's the matter with Sol Stock?" "Oh, he's rotten," cried a voice. The person who made the reply was duly sober.

The pulpit of the Presbyterian church will be occupied next Sabbath by delegates of the Christian Endeavor convention.

Mrs. F. A. Helm and Mrs. Lewis F. Wilson were in Albany Wednesday on business connected with the order of the Eastern Star.

The hearts of the school ma'ams were gladdened last Wednesday when Clerk Underwood paid them their salaries up to date.

Four loads of hop poles came in from Detroit last Saturday for D. A. Osburn, to be used in his yard across the river in Linn county.

The baseball game between the O. A. C. and the state university teams will be played on the college campus tomorrow. Tickets heretofore purchased will be good for admission at that time.

The mint ratio between hen and cow fruit has changed so much during the last month that a memorial is being drafted asking congress to alter the same to accommodate the hard times.

A very interesting program has been arranged for the teachers' institute which convenes in this city next Wednesday evening. Had a programme of the exercises been furnished the GAZETTE for publication we would gladly have printed it.

Fitzpatrick and Holgate received an invoice of coffins Wednesday in which defeated democratic nominees are to be buried June 5th. Bill Hartless and his drum "corpse" will assist in the obsequies. Don't forget the date June 5th.

Delegates from Corvallis to the G. A. R. encampment which has been in session at Roseburg this week will return today. During this session the new soldiers' home at that place was dedicated. Ellsworth Post was represented by S. Chipman, Ellsworth W. R. C. by Mrs. J. B. Horner, and Benj. Harrison Camp Sons of Veterans by Wm H. Bloss.

The Bugle Call is the name of a four page daily, printed on white paper and in red and blue ink, that is being published at Roseburg during the grand army encampment in session this week in that city. The paper gives each day a full account of the proceedings and reflects credit upon its editor, Mr. Roach, for the energy and enterprise displayed in the work.

"Gosh! but it is wonderful what rapid advances are being made in the study of the sciences," observed a visitor to the agricultural college last week. "Yes, that is true" replied his companion, "but the most wonderful thing of all is how quickly you can get shaved at Spencer and Case's, and then too it is such a quite place that it is a positive pleasure to sit in their new chair."

The steamer Homer arrived at Yaquina Wednesday afternoon several days late, due to a broken screw. The Homer is a twin screw propeller and after the accident, which happened the first day out, but one screw could be used thus making the trip a very slow one. Residents of this city had friends on board and to such particularly the steamer's delay caused considerable anxiety.

The Presbytery of Willamette held a special meeting at Albany on Tuesday. A large number of delegates were present. President Bloss and Dr. Thompson were the delegates from this city. Much business of importance was transacted. Dr. Thompson was elected to preach the installation sermon of Rev. A. L. Hutchinson of Salem and to officiate at the dedication of the new church building in that city.

It is seldom that the public refuse an invitation to a free dancing party, but the Hook & Ladder company had such an experience Wednesday evening. Arrangements had been made by the company to entertain their friends and had published invitations in each of the city papers requesting the active and exempt firemen, together with their wives and sweethearts, to come to the firemen's hall and there partake of the H. & L. boys' hospitality. Yet but ten couples responded. As the company has always enjoyed an enviable reputation for their social affairs it is strange that so few accepted.

DOINGS IN LINCOLN COUNTY

Farmer Discusses Crops, Mines, Clams, Politics, Etc.

Cold winds, rain and a backward spring are among the causes of discontent with us just now, but the hills are green and the fruit trees in blossom, and they promise an abundant crop of grass and fruit. While the fish in our waters are always an abundant crop, and clams ripen every month in the year, so that we have good cause to rejoice that gaunt hunger can never cross the dividing line between us and less favored places.

As a general thing, we are a happy and contented people, perhaps not quite so progressive as some others, but still happy, and there are heroes among us, too, men and women of no note, who do great deeds, speak great words, and suffer noble sorrows, and who will never be known till that hour when men that are great shall become small and many that are small shall become great.

Every day brings us some new settler on the newly-surveyed lands in this county, and when the Siletz Indian reservation is thrown open for settlement we expect quite a rush of settlers and a large addition to our population. The new arrivals are generally thrifty people who will make good citizens, and they all speak highly of the place, and are well liked.

Politics are the main subject of interest here just now, and as the election approaches the interest increases. A great deal depends on the result and every one seems fully alive to that fact. The feeling is intense, and yet I never saw a more sane election campaign. Much good feeling and manliness prevailed. There is absolutely no ill feeling. The republicans are warning up for the race in a spirited manner. The clubs at Toledo, Waldport and Ona hold weekly meetings with a large attendance. At Toledo on Monday last W. T. Radin addressed a crowded house and made many friends and no enemies for the cause; he astonished every one with his manly and successful speech.

At Waldport on Saturday last there was a large meeting of the club there. Speeches were made by R. A. Bessell, John D. Daley, Judge Bart, John Buckley, J. M. Stanton and Judge Stearns. They had good music by an excellent choir, and a crowded house; everything passed off in splendid style and the republicans are all happy and confident. Arrangements are being made to visit the club at Ona, on Beaver creek, shortly.

The steamer Lillian is expected to arrive here shortly from Siuslaw, and will run between Toledo and Newport in charge of Capt John Blake.

The railroad commissioners passed over the road today on a special train with Receiver Clark.

Black sand mining is creating much interest here now and claims are being located everywhere that water can be found. The reason for this is that Messrs. Wink & Buttz claim to have discovered a simple process of saving the gold by chemicals and they are proving their claims to be well grounded.

I have just heard that a canvass of this county is to be made by the candidates of the several political parties, and if it is done I will try to keep you posted as to their doings.

Lincoln County, May 8th, 1894.

Presented With a Cane.

In appreciation of his long and untiring service in the work of the Presbyterian church, a number of the congregation met at the residence of Calhoun Baylis last Monday evening and there presented him with a gold-headed cane. A few appropriate remarks were made by W. E. Yates on behalf of the friends and members of the congregation. Following him Dr. Thompson, in a few well chosen words presented the cane to Mr. Davis, as a slight token of the high esteem in which he was held by the members of the Presbyterian church, of Corvallis, for his active and painstaking service covering a period of nearly two score years. The following day Mr. Davis left for Saratoga, New York, as a commissioner from the Presbytery of the Willamette to the general assembly that convenes next week.

Sunday Excursion.

The Marine band of this city have chartered the steamer Elwood for an excursion to Salem and return next Sunday. Being the first excursion of the season, and probably the only one so far as Salem is concerned, it is expected that the river during the summer, it is no doubt that they will have a crowd. The fare has been placed at the reasonable rate of $5.00 for round trip. Boat will leave Caution's wharf at 6:30, arriving in Salem at 11 a. m. and leaving Salem on return trip at 4 p. m., making a stay of four hours in the capital city. The band will furnish plenty of music, and business men and others will have an opportunity to enjoy a pleasant river excursion. Tickets on sale at the Gazette office and by members of the band.

Two hundred and eight delegates to the seventh annual convention of the Oregon Christian Endeavor Union, arriving yesterday by train and the steamer Elwood. They were met by the local reception committee, and escorted to the Christian church where they were turned over to the entertainment committee and escorted in ones and twos to various parts of the city where quarters had been secured for the visitors during their stay. At 2 o'clock simultaneous denominational consecration services were had in the various churches. The college faculty had kindly set apart the chapel for the use of the convention which holds three sessions daily, beginning today and ending Sunday. Last evening an interesting lecture was delivered by the united society secretary, John Willis Bair, of Boston, Mass.

A Joint Canvass.

The several candidates of the republican, populist and democratic tickets have concluded to make a joint canvass of the county and have fixed the dates as follows: Summit, May 21; Blodgett's May 22; Wren, May 23; Kings Valley, May 24; Wells, May 25; Fairmount, May 26; Philomath, May 28; Alesia, May 30; Monroe, May 31; Willamette Grange Hall, June 1; Corvallis Court House, June 2.
