ONE DAY CURE HATTEES CONGO OIL

Q. W. R. Mrs. Co., 315 Front street, Portland, Oregon. Dear Sirs: I was completely worn out from overwork; could not sleep at night, and felt that I was approaching a serious condition; but, thanks to Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root, I am almost an entire new person, as I never felt so well in my life; and it was the cheapest doctor's bill I ever had, as I only took five bottles. I cheerfully recommend it to all afflicted.

Yours respectfully,
MISS EMMA LEE,
227 Eleventh street, Portland, Oregon.

Dropsy and Heart Disease.

Gentlemen: For two years I was afflicted with Dropsy and Heart Disease, and my sufferings were terrible. I commenced taking Dr. Grant's Sarsaparilla and Grape Root, and by degrees my pain seemed to leave me. After taking nine bottles I was restored to my former health, and now feel as though I never had been ill.
Yours truly,
JOHN CURRIN,
Spokane, Washington.

Price 50c. and $1 per bottle.

NOTICE

In the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Benton County. In the matter of the estate of Carl Strage, deceased.
To H. G. Davis, administrator of said estate: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby notified, cited and required to be and appear in the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Benton County, at the County Court room, in the court house in Corvallis, Benton County, Oregon, Saturday, the 7th day of July, 1894, at the hour of ten o'clock, a. m., of said day, to show cause, if any, why you should not be removed as administrator of said estate, and your letters revoked; and you are hereby notified that if you fail to appear, or to show sufficient cause and answer the petition of Augusta Strage, now on file in this Court, an order will be made removing you as such administrator and revoking your letters thereof.

By order of Hon. W. S. Huffard, Judge of said Court. Made on the 8th day of June, 1894.

Diabetes Cured!

Wonderful Work.
A New Being Created!

Dear Sirs: If you could see the writer of this letter and note the wonderful change that has been effected in his case by taking Dr. Grant's Kidney and Liver Care, you would certainly be astonished.
I was a most wretched sufferer for three years, trying all kinds of medicine and getting no relief. The flow of urine was very excessive. I was very constipated and also covered with carbuncles, and felt at war with myself and the world at large; but, thanks to your wonderful medicine, I felt as though I was a new being, and I consider a wonderful cure has been effected in my case.
With my best wishes for your further success, I remain
Yours respectfully,
A. McDONALD,

Arrested Without Cause.

It often happens that an innocent person is arrested for an imaginary offense, that upon investigation is proven to be the result of carelessness on the part of prosecutor. By this haste in trivial matters, the State, altogether, too frequently is put to unnecessary expense, and innocent parties caused much unnecessary cost and inconvenience. One day this week, a party by the name of Thomas Martin arrived here from Lane county, with a band of horses, which he placed in a pasture near town. On his trip down a cayuse pony, worth, probably, $30, followed his band of horses along the road.
It was separated from the others several times and driven into adjoining pastures, but to no purpose. The pony was bound to come to Corvallis, notwithstanding Mr.
Martin's efforts to deter it in its purpose.
On placing the horses in the pasture here the pony was left out in the county road.
Several persons were informed by Mr.
Martin that the pony did not belong to him. Notwithstanding all these circumstances, Martin was arrested on a warrant from Lane county, issued on the complaint of the owner of the pony, and taken to Junction yesterday morning for a preliminary examination, where he will no doubt explain the matter to the entire satisfaction of the court, and be discharged. In such an event, it is to be hoped that the costs will be taxed to the private prosecutor for owning a horse that would run away, and for causing the arrest of a man, who, upon investigation, he would have found innocent of the charge.

A Terrible Accident.

The infant son of Wm. Long, of Tub Run, met with a terrible accident Thursday afternoon. Our informant states that Mr.
Long left his son upon the bed, and his eldest son, aged 7 years, discovering the same, climbed up to it, and just as that moment the little baby crawled in at the door, when the gun was discharged, two shot striking the child on the head. This morning the little fellow was paralyzed and it is thought that it is impossible for him to recover.—Brownsville Times.

The Maccabees' Picnic.

The 13th anniversary of the Knights of the Maccabees was duly observed by Albany Tent, No. 5, Corvallis Tent, No. 11 and Albany Hive, No. 2, L. O. T. M., joining in a basket picnic, at Albany Hall, Albany. Posters had been circulated that the exercises would be held in Hackle-man's grove, Brownsville, Lebanon and Jefferson Tents also taking part, but owing to rain, the last named Tents were not represented. An excursion train left Corvallis at 9 a. m., and returned at 6 p. m. Lively talks were made by Dr. Hill, of Albany Tent, Chas. W. Hodes, of Corvallis Tent, and Nellie Lambson, L. C., of Albany Hive, read an able address, before dinner.

AFTER DINNER.

Dancing and indoor games were inaugurated in. The following prizes were given:
For the handsomest bouquet—A lady's hat, to Mrs. B. J. Barker, Albany.
For the nicest men—A necktie, to C.
W. Thrasher, of Corvallis.
Nicest old maid—A fine etching, Maggie Barker, Albany.
Tallest lady—A pair of milk mitts, Mrs.
W. R. Bilyeu, Albany.
Shortest lady—Photo album, Mrs. E.
Howard, Albany.
Leanest man—A bottle of sarsaparilla,
E. H. Morgan, Albany.
Most portly lady—Covered soup tureen, Mrs. A. D. Barker, Albany.
Tallest man—Waste basket, J. S. Van Winkle, Albany.
Potatoe race—Box of cigars, Warren Turner, Albany.
Jig dance—Ocarina, Joe Bethune, Albany.
Tug-of-War—Case of soda water, Corvallis Tent.

Special praise should be given the L. O. T. M., as to their efforts is due to a great extent, the success of the entertain-ment and dance.

Thanks are also extended to Mr. Chas.
Clark of the O. P. R. R. for favors shown, and to Conductor John Campbell, who we found to be a true Knight of the Maccabees.

False Charges Retuted.

To one unfamiliar with the history of the editor of the Lincoln Leader it would seem that he had at sometime in his life been gilded. At any rate something has happened that causes him to be the most disagreeable and ill natured person that ever edited a paper in this section of the state. He also seems terribly deficient in veracity. An opportunity is never lost to cast some slurring insinuation at his neighbors whose ideas are not in harmony with his own narrow views.
An instance of his false insinuating style is shown in the last issue when he accuses Mr. Wallace Nash of having voted illegally at the last election and suggested that the next grand jury of Lincoln county will have no more important business than looking into the affair. Had the Leader investigated the matter as it should have done before making such sweeping assertions, it might have learned that it has been the custom of Mr. Nash, during the past several years, to vote at the Summit, which precinct, prior to the division, included Mr. Nash's home on Rock creek and which is now within the boundaries of Nashville precinct and at which polling place Mr. Nash voted at the recent election in conformity with his custom of several years.

OUR WESTERN NEIGHBORS.

An Interesting Epistle From Farmer-School Lands, Pol- itics and Crops Discussed.

The political atmosphere is about cleared up, down here, and except a few sore spots, things have resumed their old condition of faith and hope. The coming generation on the Bay will have these two bumps remarkably developed, as I know of no one here who is living in the present, but all are hopeful and joyous about the future.

The election was, in many respects, a remarkable one. The Populists were confident up to the morning of the election that they would carry the county for their whole ticket by a good plurality, and the result shows their entire voting strength to be about 250 votes in a total of about 900. It is true they elected their Sheriff, but he was elected by votes outside of his party. As aside from his crazy political theories, Geo. Landis is recognized by all parties to be an honest, upright, capable man.

I want you to distinctly understand that this 250 Populistic vote is not a growth. It is an importation from Kansas, Nebraska and Dakota, who have settled here lately on the unoccupied government lands. The older residents, who belong to it, are, with few exceptions, place-hunters, men with a grievance.
The Republican party did grand work, and too much credit cannot be given to Hon. C. B. Cronin, Hon. R. A. Bensell and W. H. Alexander, the chairman of the county committee, with many others of course.

The Republican plurality in this county is about 100 votes. Daly's plurality over Stakely, Populist, is 104, and over Brunk, Democrat, 127, which is about a fair average of the parties. Brunk, however, is the most popular Democrat in the county, and undoubtedly polled some Republican votes, while Daly, no doubt, received some Democratic votes; but Stakely received the full strength of the Populist vote, which is 250.

The Commissioners, County Judge and Treasurer are Republican.
The Assessor and Clerk are Democratic, but politics did not cut any figure in their election, and the Sheriff is, as I have stated, a Populist, and was not elected by his party, and so ends the election chapter for the next two years.

The weather is abominable, and the present summer promises to be as wet and gloomy as the last.

The fruit crop will be good. The failure of the railroad sale at the time specified is a sad blow to us, as there are many thousands of dollars due from it to employees and others here, and we on the bay suffer more from that cause than all the rest of the country through which it passes. And then we had strong hopes that it would be purchased and completed to an eastern terminus, which would put us in the front rank among the counties of the state, but it will come yet; there is no doubt of that. Under the splendid management of Mr. Clark, the receiver, his traffic is increasing beyond the capacity of one ship to take it away, even in the midst of the dull season that the country ever saw, and the hands are paid promptly. And here let me say a good word for the train men—they are the hardest worked men in the state of Oregon; they work from four o'clock in the morning until eight at night uncomplainingly, and are always cheerful and obliging.

Our stone quarry industry promises a big development in the future. New quarries are being discovered, and as we have already shipped hundreds of tons to San Francisco in a dull season, it is ample assurance that when times brighten, and building resumes its normal condition we will find sale for all the rock we can supply. With our splendid republican majority in the state and the near prospect of a republican majority in the nation, we look for brighter times everywhere, and we will get our share.

Word has just reached us here that the lieu school land funds are trying to locate the unoccupied lands on the Siletz Indian reservation with their script.
They must not succeed, for if by any chance they should, the land would be held by non-residents for speculative purposes, and our condition would be worse than when it was held as reservation.
There must be some way to stop this abominable proceeding, by which everybody would be injured and nobody benefited but the aforesaid funds. We will see if we cannot block their little game.
The county seat business turned out as was expected, and it will remain at Toledo for two years, when it will be definitely settled.

Rev. E. S. Bollinger, superintendent of the Oregon Institute for the Blind, will preach in the Congregational church next Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m., as Rev.
W. C. Kaestner goes to Monmouth to preach the Baccalaureate sermon at the State Normal School. Mr. Bollinger is an able preacher and should have a good hearing. Sunday School at 10 a. m. Junior Endeavor cordial welcome to all.
