CORVALLIS, OREGON, MAY 23, 1895.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAID.

"Veni Vidi"—but here the Gazette stops; the other fellows conquered and the roster of the Gazette has the pip.

This paper made a fight against the present city administration, believing that the present city officers were altogether too familiar and too lenient with the lower and lawless classes.

The chief and police judge will now have an opportunity to confound the Gazette by enforcing the laws. The Gazette hopes it will be confounded and it will aid these gentlemen all along the way by calling attention to any abuses or evils that these officers can correct.

The taxes that the people pay are nothing more than the burden of government. Government is nothing more than the making and enforcing of laws.

Mr. Taylor and Mr. Porter, you were elected to serve the people. You are as much under official obligations to the people who voted against you as to those who voted for you.

MEADE AND THE ADMINISTRATION.

Admiral Meade has resigned command of his squadron. He has made public his reasons for so doing, and "speaks right out in meetin'."

Admiral Meade's attitude will be applauded by every loyal, true and patriotic American citizen. No intensely patriotic American, as he is, can feel contented under such an un-American administration as the present one.

What a contrast he is to Blaine. It is almost a sin to even contrast this weak, apologetic politician, with the bold, the manly, the American Blaine.

The first great need of this county is Americans who are Americans; Americans who believe in America for Americans and America against the world.

THE New York Mail remarks that one-eighth of the population of Great Britain is in London, and one eighth of the population of Chicago is in the minds of its editors.

OVERSHOT THE MARK.

A Philomath correspondent writes concerning the deputy question. He mistakes the issue. The Gazette does not pretend to say that the county officers are illy paid, and believes that in some instances the salaries are too high.

There is no law compelling the county officers to pay out of their salary for deputy hire. The county must pay the salaries of deputies or dispense with them.

The Gazette contends that deputies are required for the efficient management of the offices and believes that the county court should pay fair salaries.

The officers will not pay for help out of their salaries—at least most of them will not—and they cannot be made to do so.

Judge Hufford is the best paid officer of the county, according to the service performed. If Mr. McDonald desires to serve the county, why not commence action to compel the county judge to return to the treasurer, several sums of money he has drawn as "extras," and to which he is not entitled?

SUPP. HOLM is constantly demonstrating to the people of Benton county that he is the right man in the right place. He is throwing all the activity he possesses into the building up of the schools of this county.

THERE ought to be a more general interest taken by orchardists in the Central Willamette Fruit Union, which was organized recently in this city.

THE importations during the first six months of the Wilson tariff law were $57,000,000 in value against $305,000,000 in the corresponding six months of the last year under the McKinley tariff law.

UNDER the democratic tariff the importations of wool increased 400 per cent practically coming in free of duty and depriving our farmers of a home market for their product.

THE talk about nominating ex Speaker Crisp, of Georgia, for President, is a waste of words. He was born in England, and the constitution renders him ineligible.

HORTICULTURAL QUARANTINE REGULATIONS.

At a special meeting of the Oregon State Board of Horticulture, held in Portland, April 2, 1895, all members present, the following regulations were adopted, in accordance with the laws regulating such matters.

Rule 1—All consignees, agents or other persons, shall, within 24 hours, notify the quarantine officer of the State Board of Horticulture, or a duly commissioned quarantine guardian, of the arrival of any trees, plants, buds or cions at the quarantine station, in the district of final destination.

Rule 2—All trees, plants, cuttings, grafts, buds or cions, imported or brought into the state from any foreign country, or from any of the United States or territories, are hereby required to be inspected upon arrival at the quarantine station in the district of final destination, and if any such nursery stock, trees, plants, cuttings, grafts, buds or cions are found to be free of insect pests and fungous diseases, the said quarantine officer or duly commissioned quarantine guardian shall issue a certificate to that effect.

Rule 3—All peach, nectarine, apricot, plum or almond trees, and all other trees budded or grafted upon peach stock or roots, all peach or other pits, and all peach, nectarine, apricot, plum or almond cuttings, buds or cions, raised or grown in a district where the "peach yellows" or the "peach rosette" are known to exist, are hereby prohibited from being imported into or planted or offered for sale, gift or distribution within the state of Oregon.

Rule 4—All trees, plants, cuttings, grafts, buds, cions, seeds or pits arriving from any foreign country found infested with insect pests or their eggs, larvae or pupae, or with fungi, or other disease or diseases hitherto unknown in this state, are hereby prohibited from landing.

Rule 5—Fruit of any kind grown in any foreign country, or in any of the United States or territories, found infested with any insect or insects, or with any fungi, blight or other disease or diseases injurious to fruit trees, or other trees or plants, is hereby prohibited from being offered for sale, gift or distribution within the state.

Rule 6—Any boxes, packages, packing material and the like infested by any insect or insects, or their eggs, larvae or pupae, or by any fungi, blight, or other disease or diseases known to be injurious to fruit or to fruit trees, or to other trees or plants, and liable to spread contagion, are hereby prohibited from being offered for sale, gift, distribution, or transportation until said material has been disinfected by dipping in boiling water and allowing it to remain in said boiling water not less than two minutes; such boiling water used as such disinfectant to contain in solution one pound of concentrated potash to each and every ten gallons of water.

Rule 7—Animals known as flying fox, Australian or English wild rabbit, or other animals or birds detrimental to fruit or fruit trees, plants, etc., are prohibited from being brought or landed in this state, and if landed shall be destroyed.

Rule 8—Quarantine stations: For the Second district, comprising the counties of Marion, Polk, Benton, Linn, Lincoln and Lane, shall be Salem.

Rule 9—Importers or owners of nursery stock, trees, or cuttings, grafts, buds or cions, desiring to have such nursery stock, trees, or cuttings, grafts, buds or cions inspected at points other than regular quarantine stations may have such inspection done where required, provided, however, that such importers shall pay all charges of inspection. Such charges and expenses to be paid before a certificate is granted.

Transportation companies, or persons and consignees or agents shall deliver and cause to be detained all nursery stock, trees, plants, and fruit at one or other of the quarantine stations, for inspection, as provided by the rules and regulations of the board.

Details as to quarantine stations, officers' fees of inspection, receipts for disinfection may be obtained on application to the secretary or any member of the board or by reference to the pamphlets circulated.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

ED. GAZETTE:—Many of your readers will learn from a Corvallis dispatch in Tuesday's Oregonian that the issue in the city election recently held was whether or not the laws of this city should be enforced.

The first positive move in the game was made by the mayor, when he inflicted his "message" upon the unsuspecting and confounding citizens of Corvallis.

The moral status of the city in the darkest dyes of the devil, and everybody knows he could do it to perfection. His work was unquestionably well done, considering the kind of job he undertook. It is observed, however, that the brush came in contact with his reputation and left a mark which will outlast the stains he placed upon the fair name of the city of Corvallis.

This "message" was then heralded to the world, with editorial comment in line, by the local papers, and the sound of Tammany's first gun resounded to the remotest parts of the state; and even now, since the smoke of battle has cleared away, and the slain are laid peacefully to rest in the little graves which their small ambition dug for them, the reverberations of that first gun, augmented by later volleys from the light artillery, are echoing through the hills and vales of our beloved Oregon.

Let me hope, Mr. Editor, to be pardoned for intimating to our friends abroad that Corvallis, as a city, is not conspicuously displeased; allow me to even assure them that Corvallis is as clean, morally, as any other city in—say the Willamette valley. My individual opinion prompts me to include a wider scope for comparison, but I do not wish to presume too much on the indulgence of the GAZETTE and Times, which, I am so very certain, are such staunch guardians of the best interests of our beautiful city.

How easy it would have been, had the "moral wavers" been successful, to have assured the outside world that the city's morals had suddenly become immaculate. Persons in this city would have known better, but where there are no other sources of information, the newspapers are sometimes believed. But since those who temporarily assumed a virtue to enable them to push the cause of reform, did not succeed in grasping the reins of city government, it seems to me that it is now the duty of the local papers to make a clean breast of the facts, to the end that Corvallis may be reinstated in the sisterhood of Oregon cities.

In this connection I feel constrained to pay my respects to that powerful body of reformers known as the A. P. A. I understand that its first duty is to persecute a worthy religious sect, and that its next duty is to labor for "good government."

The broad cast upon the waters of Corvallis some time since, by an alleged expert, seems not to have brought forth a bountiful crop of A. P. A. voters in time for election. I should not be surprised if the cold stamp of public opinion had frozen the tender shoots as they emerged into the sunlight of observation.

In conclusion, I wish to say that our institutions are in more danger from prejudice and ignorance and those who patronize these twin evils than they are from the pope of Rome. We are in no fear of either. Whenever a faction or organization or community becomes arrogant, the American people just simply sit down on it.

PHILOMATH ITEMS.

Mr. W. H. Buoy has gone into the Western Union office at Corvallis to practice telegraphy.

Miss Elizabeth Michael, from Iowa, is visiting in Philomath, the guest of Mrs. J. E. Henkle.

Saturday the town was almost depopulated, everyone who could have gone to the picnic at Plymouth.

County School Superintendent R. F. Ho'm is "working" the roads between Corvallis and Philomath. He uses a Waverly.

Monday evening your correspondent attended a social at Plymouth—ice cream and all the cake you could eat, with chicken, ham, pie, etc., all for ten cents.

The game of base ball played by the Corvallis and Plymouth clubs at the picnic grounds Saturday is said to have been the "sickest" game on record, owing a great deal to the weather. There were some fine "dishes" made, but Plymouth slid in at the home plate a few the most.

H. B. Scery, postal telegraph operator at Albany, passed through here Friday on his way to Alesia, making the trip from Albany to the foot of the Alesia mountains on a bicycle and the rest of the distance by team.

The Athenian Literary Society gave an entertainment Thursday evening, consisting of music, recitations, society paper, and concluded with a short drama entitled, "Our Boys of '76." There were quite a number of people from Corvallis, and the chapel was full to overflowing, and every one seemed well pleased.

HE SEEMS MUDDLED.

ED. GAZETTE:—Sir, in your paper, dated May 16th, an article appeared, entitled, "A Cheap John County." Now, sir, how can you apply the term honestly to a mystery to a large number of the voters of old Benton. I claim W. S. Hufford, J. Chambers and Peter Rickard are the employees of this county, and as such have a right to obey the demands of the voters of this county so far as their requests are in keeping with the law.

Now, sir, in regard to clerk hire, the law does not say the county court shall provide clerks for the several officers, but that they may. To this end a large number of the responsible and respectable citizens of this county not to provide extra pay for clerk hire in the different offices I will agree with the GAZETTE when it says if the petitioners are right then the clerk hire should have been dispensed with altogether.

I for one believe the petitioners were right, and that the salaries paid to the different servants of this county is ample to perform all the labor, and more, if the servants of the county cannot labor for the amounts prescribed, which are ample for all purposes, they had better resign, as there are plenty of competent citizens in the county who would be glad to have a chance to show to the GAZETTE that the salaries paid are far in excess of equally arduous labor performed.

I do not want to be personal in this matter, but I could name those who have admitted when asked if they were overworked in their office, said no, that some days they had little if anything to do.

Hoping I have not asked for too much space in your valuable paper, I remain, Respectfully yours, G. M. McDONALD, Philomath, Ore., May 20, '95.
