Praise service with choir and orchestra.

Prof. and Mrs. J. B. Horner gave a reception Wednesday night to the officers, orchestra and members of the Presbyterian Sunday school. It was a brilliant affair in every respect and the host and hostess will ever be remembered by the guests for giving them a most delightful evening. An impromptu program of music and toasts and a delicious lunch were among the features of the reception.

Next Sabbath morning Dr. Thompson will preach his eleventh anniversary sermon at the Presbyterian church. Every member of the church and congregation is requested to be present. Please bring with you a thank offering, small or large, for the Board of Missions, which just now is in great distress. In the evening Dr. Thompson will preach on the following topic: "The Power and Peril of the Ballot." Everybody invited.

Mine Host Schmidt, of the Occidental Hotel, has a grudge against mushrooms. Tuesday he partook heartily of them and a physician worked with him all night to save his life. It was not a case of toadstools—he was not poisoned but simply felled. He is all right again now and will cast a big democratic vote for Wm. McKinley but his friends have an awful way of reminding him constantly of mushrooms.

The Bryan rally last Friday was a success in every particular. The day was fine and all the Bryanites in Benton county, as well as large delegations from Polk, Lane, Linn and Lincoln counties, were in town. The parades were well planned and well managed. There were about 600 people in line in the afternoon procession and probably as large a number in the evening. The night parade with the fireworks, torches and other illumination, was delightful to behold and, reflected credit upon those having charge of it.

Linn county has a populist sheriff. He is a luxury, but Linn county would feel lost without him. The other day Judge Burnett called up the case of state of Oregon vs. Robson charged with larceny. "Where is the prisoner, Mr. Sheriff?" asked the judge. "Don't know," replied the sheriff. "What has become of him?" "Don't know; haven't seen him this morning," and the sheriff settled himself easily in a chair. The judge stared; then he shouted, "Go find him and bring him into court." The lawyers and spectators roared and the judge "smiled a smole" as the sheriff limped slowly out. The judge waited and the sheriff did not return. The judge grew impatient and spoke to the bailiff, "Mr. Tweedle will you please go and find the sheriff and his prisoner?" There was another long wait before the defendant was ushered into court. Such delays are expensive to taxpayers, for witness and jury time goes on just the same, but Linn county went populist last June and can evidently afford luxuries.

FOOTBALL NEWS.

There are but three teams in the Intercollegiate Football Association this year, the Oregon Agricultural College, State University and Willamette University. Chas. Small represents the O. A. C. and is treasurer of the association.

The 1896 schedule was definitely arranged Wednesday. O. A. C. will play a practice at Eugene Nov. 7th. The regular games are as follows: Eugene vs. O. A. C. at Corvallis, Nov. 14th; winner vs. Willamette at Salem, Nov. 21st; Willamette vs. O. A. C. at Corvallis, Thanksgiving day.

The O. A. C. will have no coach during the balance of the season, but the team will be strengthened. Bodine and Kelsey will be playing next week and the Phillips boys, who are attending college, may consent to play.

The boys do not expect to make much of a showing at Eugene in the practice game, as the new players will hardly be in condition.

ROBT. JOHNSON, P. M.

Don't think because you are sick and nothing seems to give relief that you can't be cured. There must be a cure for you somewhere. If your doctor can't cure you, perhaps he has mistaken the cause. Anybody is liable to make a mistake sometimes. One in three of us suffer from indigestion, and one out of three dyspeptics doesn't know it. That is, he may know he is sick, but he blames it to something else. Indigestion is the cause of half of our dangerous diseases. Shaker Digestive Cordial, made from tonic medicinal roots and herbs, is the most natural cure for indigestion. It relieves the symptoms and cures the disease gently, naturally, efficiently, giving fresh life, strength and health to sick dyspeptics.

MCKINLEY OR BRYAN.

Final Rally Tomorrow—A Week of Hard Work Getting Ready for Action Next Tuesday.

Benton county will shine tomorrow. Benton county will be here tomorrow. Benton county will show what she thinks of Bill McKinley tomorrow. There will be two speeches, and speeches that will be worth hearing—speeches by men who have demonstrated in their lives that their judgment is sound. Geo. H. Williams will speak in the afternoon and Henry St. Rayner at night. It is a waste of words to use up adjectives describing them. You know them. Hear them.

The first parade will be at 11 o'clock—a parade of horsemen from every precinct in the county—an exhibition of intelligent voters and splendid horses. In the afternoon there will be a procession that will include nearly everything capable of being paraded. Dusk-precinct will have her full quota in line, Alsea will send over her stalwart McKinley men, Philomath is aroused and will move bodily into Corvallis. King's Valley is organizing for the big day. Blodgett and Wren will not be outdone. Monroe and Willamette are full of McKinleyites, who will come out of the woods tomorrow. Even Soap Creek and Fairmount, where two populists are born every time one dies, will indulge in a spree of enthusiasm. Summit and Lobster will be here and of course all Corvallis will march and shout. There will be floats, and marching men, and men on horseback and men in wagons. There will be voters in line until you get tired of counting them.

At night an illuminated parade will form and march through the streets. Flambeau clubs, bicycle clubs, old soldiers, young soldiers, floats, precinct clubs, torch bearers and all that inventive men and women could imagine will make up the parade. The 2nd Regiment band, of Salem, will be the chief musical feature. The Kings Valley drum corps will be on hand and a Corvallis drum corps. Everybody will sing, no matter whether they can sing or not. A demonstration! Well, come see.

All citizens and especially sound money citizens are requested to illuminate their houses Saturday night—at least those on the line of march—and hang out flags during the day. Show your colors.

Carl Schurz can say things. Here is one thing he said at Pennington, Ill., Oct. 21: He spoke under the auspices of the Sound-Money Democratic Club of Peoria. The feature of his speech was a bitter denunciation of Bryan and Altheimer. He said in part: "Abraham Lincoln and Bryan; Abraham Lincoln and Altgeld; to associate these names together as allies in a common cause—aye, to pronounce them together in the same breath is not only a fraud; it is sacrilege. As an old friend of Abraham Lincoln, who sat at his feet, receiving his teachings of justice, freedom and humanity, and who was with him many a day in his struggles for the rights of man, for national government, and for the brotherhood of all the American people, I solemnly protest against this outrage. I call upon the people of Illinois to resent and repel it. They are the custodians of Abraham Lincoln's grave. Let them prove themselves the worthy custodians of his historic character and fame by burying the repudiators and utterers of class hatred who dare to claim him as their own under a crushing vote of condemnation."

Allan R. Joy is doing effective campaigning in Benton county this week. He talks no nonsense and makes brains operate. He is dissipating populism. Joy and populism never did mix.

Is there a friend of labor in Benton county that will vote for E. Hofer, candidate for presidential elector in Oregon? Do you know that Hofer has been denounced by labor as a foe of labor? The Salem Typographical Union, No. 210, denounces the festive colonel, and among other things, says:

The union charges that about one week ago, Candidate Hofer discharged a typesetter, a man of family, whom he had been paying $6 per week, and hired two in his stead, paying one $3.50 and the other $1.50; that three other typesetters who have worked years at the business get only $4 per week each, another $1 per week and a pressman $2 per week, making a total of $21 per week for seven people, or an average of $3 per week. It is charged that for foreman, a "rat" is employed at $10 per week.

Referring to Hofer's treatment of employees, the resolutions adopted and the concluding words of the preamble are as follows: "The sweatshops of New York cannot be worse. His employees are all poor people and depend upon their wages for their bread. One young woman keeps herself and aged mother upon $4 per week, and a man and his wife subsist upon $3.50 per week.

These are truths of record; therefore be it "Resolved, That we denounce such damnable oppression of the poor laborers and refuse to support any man that is responsible for it. We, therefore, ask the laboring classes and unions to join with us in the defeat of Mr. Hofer for presidential elector." Tell your neighbor about Hofer.

Mr. Spauz, populist candidate for elector, is honest. He insists that he is nothing but a populist. Now democrats, are you democrats or populists?

Here is a prediction. Make yours. Benton county will give McKinley 40 majority; Oregon will give him 7,500 majority. McKinley will receive 310 electoral votes, Bryan 114 and Palmer 23.

The Ladies' McKinley Club of Corvallis, organized Monday night. Much of the success of tomorrow's demonstration will be due to the active and intelligent work of the ladies.

Here are some choruses of the songs that will be sung tomorrow by different sections of folks. Cut this out and join in with the boys. You will recognize the tunes from the words:

Over on the bright golden shore, Over on the bright golden shore, We'll put Bryan in his nest, With Fennoyer and the rest, Over on the bright golden shore!

Bye, Bryan, bye, O', What makes you sigh so? Bye, Bryan, bye, O', Good-bye, Bill Bryan, Good-bye!

Protection forever, hurrah, boys, hurrah! We'll keep gold the standard—our silver coins at par. Then three cheers for McKinley and three for Hofer, too, Shouting the people's cry, "Protection!"

Hurrah, hurrah, Protection wins the day; Hurrah, hurrah, we'll bring it back to stay. Nations all will follow us along the golden way, Under the flag of Protection!

Mrs. Jas. Flett has written a rousing campaign song to the air, "Rally 'Round the Flag." It will be sung tomorrow. Everybody can sing the chorus. Several hundred copies of the song have been printed.

A joint debate entertained the people of Willamette at the Grange Hall last Wednesday. Mr. W. S. Dunnaway spoke for republicanism and made a logical, forcible and straight-away plea for soundness in governmental affairs. M. A. Miller defended Bryanism. Whether it was due to his cause or to himself, he was no match for his opponent. A large number of people heard the discussion.

McKinley stands for sound governmental principles. Sound means solid. Bryan stands for sound governmental principles. Sound means noise.

Mr. Jesse Irvine and Mr. J. Fred Yates spoke at Dusty Thursday night to a large crowd. They gave sound reasons for sound principles and their addresses were well received. Dusty promises a big, prosperous majority for the advance agent of prosperity, Wm. McKinley. At the close of the meeting, those who intended supporting the republican ticket were asked to stand up and, with one exception, every voter present arose to his feet. He was a populist, but his wife arose to signify her belief in sound principles. One democrat signed the McKinley roll.

The national democracy may not be the regular democracy, but it is the only democracy represented on the ballot in Oregon.

The Voice, prohibitionist paper, recently made an utterly inexcusable attack upon Major McKinley. The Voice supports Mr. Levering for the presidency, but its ideas of the government's duty and power are quite consistent with those of Mr. Bryan. The Voice believes that the government can create virtue, while Bryan believes the government can create vice.

Ours is not a nation of gods, but of men. We must proceed in legislative matters upon the principle that the power of man is limited.

Before we vote for Bryan, let us remember the experience of the men of Babel. The tower he would build is as impossible as theirs, and the confusion resulting from the attempt would be as great.

You cannot be a friend to labor and vote for Hofer. Remember that when you go to the polls.

If you wish to vote the republican ticket, make a cross on your ballot before the names of John F. Caples, T. T. Geer, E. L. Smith and S. M. Yoran. If you desire to vote the national democratic ticket, mark the names of Lewis B. Cox, Alexander M. Holmes, Frank A. Seufert, and Curtis J. Trenchard. To vote the populist ticket cross in front of the names, N. L. Butler, E. Hofer, W. H. Spauz and Harry Watkins. Prohibitionist electors are D. Bowerman, C. J. Bright, Leslie Butler, and C. E. Heskins. Voters in Oregon will have no opportunity for voting the Chicago democratic ticket.
