LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Ruthyn Turney is still confined to the house by illness.

Painters are at work on the front of the Burnett brick.

Born, Wednesday morning, to the wife of Jack Hall, a daughter.

Jas. Cooley and Mr. Croft, of Browns-ville, were in the city this week.

Miss Hattie Gaines left yesterday for Portland, where she will visit friends.

Ed Kiger and Abe Clark, both of Alsea, visited the county seat this week.

The rafts this week have been worth thousands of dollars to Benton county.

Baseball Saturday, Corvallis vs. Philomath. Sunday, Corvallis vs. Long Tom.

The Occidental hotel has been improved internally by painters and decorators.

The city road machine is at work for a few days on the back streets leveling up grades.

Orrin Clark and wife were treated to a serenade Monday night by a number of the ladies' band.

Mrs. Chas. Wheeler is very low with consumption and her recovery is considered impossible.

Ed. Burton, of Forest Grove, has purchased an interest in the Central Planing Mill and Box Factory.

Mrs. S. N. Wilkins condition has materially improved and she will probably regain complete health.

John Gouss spent several days in Albany this week. Some of his customers say he was probably hunting a card laundry.

Lloyd Henderson, of McMinnville, is visiting friends in Corvallis. He recently returned from an extended trip to Montana.

H. T. Fischer has returned after a visit of several months to his old home in Germany. He was accompanied by two sisters and a brother.

Senator McBride, by reason of senate committee change, is now chairman of the committee on coast defenses. He succeeds Squire.

Next Sabbath there will be no preaching at the Presbyterian church. The Sabbath school and Christian Endeavor societies will meet as usual.

George King of Yaguna City reports to Fish Commissioner McGuire that the Eastern oysters planted there last fall are in excellent condition.—Oregonian.

The baseball games for Saturday and Sunday have been declared off. Philomath is not ready and the Long Tom boys are loathe to meet Corvallis "rooters."

Dr. Frank Hall who recently graduated from an eastern medical college, has returned and is now visiting his old home. He has not decided where he will locate.

F. L. Miller, the clothier, has prepared for a big business and has laid in a splendid stock. Attention is called to his ads in today's GAZETTE. They are worthy of careful reading.

Rev. Dr. Thompson and children desire to express their deepest gratitude to all who kindly and generously aided and comforted them in the time of their bitter bereavement and severest sorrow.

A lively bike race (novice) occurred on Second street on Wednesday evening. Lyman Kelsay and Eugene Gilbert Alpin were the contestants and a large crowd cheered them on. Gibs won, due, Pat says, to the advantage he had in applying direct pressure to the pedals.

Will Harlan, 12 years old, of Harlan, walked to Corvallis Wednesday, a distance of 40 miles, arriving here at one p. m. He was barefooted. He went to work at the hopyard of Dave Osburn immediately upon his arrival. That boy will succeed.

A handsome crayon portrait is on exhibition at Nolan & Callahan's. It is a picture of Mrs. Rennie and the likeness is perfect. The crayon is a sample of the work of the artists who will furnish the gift portraits Messrs. Nolan & Callahan advertise elsewhere.

The Albany baseball boys believe in patronizing home institutions. They hired an Albany rig to go after the Corvallis baseball players. The double trip was made for $1. less than was charged for a single trip by a Corvallis man. Eminent correct. Corvallis is no "cheap John" town.

Rev. A. A. Englehart, who has been pastor of the Evangelical church in this city during the past year, was assigned by the recent conference to the field at Canby, Oregon, and he left yesterday with his family for that place. His successor is Rev. W. N. O'Kelly, who is expected to arrive here today.

Albany boasts of its three bands. Corvallis has four, which is not to say that she boasts of four. She suffers some of them. The "Heart of the Valley" throbs to the music of the H. & L. band, the O. A. C. Cadet band, the Ladies' band and the Boys' band. She has also a horse-fiddle brigade.

Bert P. VanCleve has been heard from. He is on the stage in Frisco. The Call of last Sunday devotes a column to the theatrical debut of Mrs. Clara Dimond in Morigara, or the Forty Thieves, and says: "Of the speaking parts, the best acting was done by Louis Woods, as Ali Baba, Bert VanCleve, as a comic slave," etc.

The police court has had several victims this week. A Swedish gentleman was fined all he had for peddling "made-to-sell" spectacles without a license. Ed Thayer contributed $10 for an exhibition of fistic skill and a couple of inebriated individuals found that it costs to be funny. Two youthful tramps were sent to jail for begging.

J. B. Irvine has just discovered that two horses which he supposed to be in the pasture where he placed them, were impounded and sold by the chief of police a few weeks ago. He had received no notice of their being taken up nor seen any description published. The law, if it does not require publication of description of animals impounded, as in estray notice, should do so.

Many Corvallis citizens who attended the Mrs. Thompson memorial services, have commented upon the beautiful address of Rev. W. A. Smick upon that occasion. In simple, but powerful language he expressed the noble thoughts of a sincere man and true Christian. Mr. Smick is the Sunday school missionary of the Presbyterian church for the Presbytery of Willamette and resides at Albany.

Miss Gertrude Holmes, of the Holmes business college, Portland, was in attendance at the convention of the Y. W. C. A. While here, she visited the Agricultural College and expressed astonishment at the magnitude of the institution. She was particularly impressed with the boarding clubs, and was delighted in her visit to the Cauthorn Hall kitchen, which the boys keep scrupulously clean and bright.

A "nickel" social will be given at Farrar's hall, Saturday evening, May 8, by the working club of the W. R. C. The program will consist of recitations, music, quilt drawing, grab bag, experiences of the members of the club, explaining how they earned 25 cents. Refreshments, consisting of cake and lemonade, both for 5 cents, will be served during the entire evening. Everybody is cordially invited.

Jas. Taylor has in his shop the handsome fleece ever seen in this part of the country. It weighed 22 pounds and the wool was 16 inches long. He got it from Robt. White, who is on the "Nigger Ruble" place. Ed Kiger told Judge Burnett that it was a sample of McKinley prosperity. The Judge replied that he would like to invest in a few dozen prosperities like the sample.

Mrs. Mary Ann Dunn, a pioneer and a most estimable woman, died Saturday morning at her home six miles southwest of Corvallis, aged 72 years. She crossed the plains in 1851 and for 45 years has resided on the place that was her home when she died. She leaves seven children, among them being James Henry and Richard Dunn and Miss A. E. Dunn of this county. Her husband died six or seven years ago.

Mr. Strong, of Forsyth & Strong, proprietors of the sawmill at Mission Landing, was in town this week, contracting for hard wood logs. He found he could secure all the ash wood he wanted. He pays 50 cents a log more for ash here than for logs from further down the river, as the timber is of better quality. Mr. Strong says that he notices a decided improvement in business and has more orders than the mill can fill, "due to the confidence people have in the present administration."

The city election occurs on the 17th of this month. E. Woodward, who is filling out Judge Kelsay's unexpired term, will probably be elected mayor, and A. Cauthorn will be re-elected treasurer. The principal contest this election seems to be for the office of police judge. The withdrawal of Frank Lilly leaves the race between Johnson Porter, the present officer, and E. P. Greffoz. There are many guesses as to the outcome of the chief of police fight. As usual, candidates for councilmen are conspicuous by their absence.

The North Pacific Association Young Women's Christian Association held its fifth annual convention in this city, commencing Friday and ending Sunday evening. About 50 delegates were present, including Mrs. Cyrus Dolph and Miss Gertrude Holmes, of Portland, and Miss Simms, of Chicago, international secretary. The Oregon Agricultural College, Albany College, Pacific College, McMinnville College, State University, Pacific University, Willamette University and Portland University had representatives. The sessions were very interesting and the convention was in every way successful.

The principal action of the county court at its session this week was to reduce the assessment of M. S. Woodcock on 415 shares of National Bank stock. The county board of equalization raised the assessment from $50 to $70 per share, and Mr. Woodcock presented a petition at the April term asking for a reduction of his assessment but it was rejected. He however argued his claims more effectively this week and the required reduction was made. Judge Hufford, having acted once on the question, and having also been a member of the equalization board which raised the assessment, refused to act further in the matter and the action above referred to was taken by Commissioners Buchanan and Chambers. Why national bank stock, paying eight and ten per cent dividends, should only be assessed at 50 cents on the dollar, while money, notes and accounts are assessed at 100 cents on the dollar, is not made plain by the court's order. The contract for building a bridge across the Luckiamute was awarded to Tillitson & Burgett for $470 and W. S. Hufford was instructed to employ counsel to petition the U. S. court to require the receiver of the O. D. Co. to make payment of all taxes due Benton county.

As it is a well-established fact that catarrh is a blood disease, medical men are quite generally prescribing Ayer's Sarsaparilla for this most dangerous and loathsome complaint. Where this treatment is perseveringly followed, a thorough cure is invariably the result.

CALLED HOME.

Life Work of Mrs. E. J. Thompson Finished.

Sabbath evening, May 2nd, 1897, Mrs. E. J. Thompson, a good woman and a true Christian, lay down the burdens of life. The world is better that she has lived in and many hearts have learned priceless lessons from her daily life. All the good her hands found to do, she did cheerfully and thoroughly. Her gentle, quiet influence pervaded home, society and church. Of her it might well be said, "None knew her, but to love her; none named her, but to praise."

Mrs. Thompson was the wife of the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Corvallis. His pastorate has extended over twenty years and each year the people of the community grew more to know and love the noble woman whom God has called home. He who gave has taken away and those bereft are taught to say submissively, "Blessed be the name of the Lord."

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev. W. A. Smick and Kenneth Brown, of Albany, assisted by the pastors of the various churches of this city. The church was beautified with floral decorations—tributes from loving friends. A large congregation listened to the impressive services. Interment was made in the Masonic cemetery at Albany.

Eleanor Phelps Armstrong was born in Shoreham, Vermont, Dec. 25th, 1840, and resided there for 18 years. She came from Puritan revolutionary stock and both of her great-grandfathers were officers in the service of the struggling American colonies.

She received at Shoreham a thorough academic education and later was graduated from the Woodstock (Vt.) Female Seminary. She was united in marriage with Rev. E. J. Thompson, December 30th, 1857, and with him, began a long and useful career of teaching and missionary work. They remained in Vermont three years and then moved to Minnesota, where they lived twenty years. Dr. Thompson, for the greater part of this time, was professor of mathematics and astronomy in the State University at Minneapolis. Much of Mrs. Thompson's time, during these years, was occupied in teaching and in home missionary service. Three years Dr. and Mrs. Thompson spent in North Dakota, as home missionaries, and in 1884 they came to Oregon, locating at Salem, where, for two years, Dr. Thompson was pastor of the Presbyterian church. Since 1885, with the exception of a few months spent at Albany, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have resided in Corvallis, during which time Dr. Thompson has occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church. In his earnest ministry, he has enjoyed the earnest, thoughtful and wise co-operation and counsel of his wife and helpmate.

It was on the first Sunday of May, 1884, that Dr. Thompson preached his first sermon in Oregon and on the first Sunday in May, 1897, Mrs. Thompson went home to God.

AT REST.

Died, at Corvallis, May 1st, 1897, Mrs. Phoebe Lamberson, aged 75 years, 2 months and 17 days, after a long and painful sickness.

Mrs. Lamberson came here about twelve years ago from Pennsylvania and leaves three sons and one daughter to mourn her loss. In early life she united with the "Bible Christians." The funeral services were conducted by Rev. M. Noble, at the residence of her son, Sunday at 2 o'clock. Many friends attended the funeral and by their tears attested to the worth of the departed.

When wear begins to exceed repair in your body, you are going to fall sick. The signs of it are loss of flesh, paleness, weakness, nervousness, etc. The repair needed is food. You think that you eat enough, and yet you feel that you wear out more tissue, energy, nerve-force, than your food makes for you. The difficulty is that you don't digest enough. And this is so serious, it is worth sitting down seriously to think about. If you can't digest what you eat, take a few doses of Shaker Digestive Cordial. The effect of it will be to increase your strength and make you feel stronger. You won't fall sick. Proof that it is in control of your repair apparatus. It's easy enough to test this for yourself. Take a few bottles of Shaker Digestive Cordial.

Sold by druggists at 10 cents to $1.00 per bottle.

On July 7th, the Christian Endeavorers of the United States convene in San Francisco. Thousands of delegates from all parts of the Union will be present and notable leaders in church work will gather at the big city of the coast. There are, no doubt, many young people in Benton county, who greatly desire to attend, but whose means will not permit them to take the trip. They will be delighted to learn that a splendid opportunity has been opened for some one to attend the convention without cost.

Mr. S. L. Kline, of the big white store in this city, has expressed his intention of paying the entire expenses of one person to the convention. He does not wish to exhibit any partiality in this matter and, in order to allow everyone an equal chance to secure this magnificent present, he has decided to present a round-trip ticket to San Francisco to the person, either lady or gentleman, receiving the highest number of votes that will be cast between this date and June 26th.

One vote will be given with each dollar's worth of goods purchased at the store. The voting will commence May 5th. There will be no drawing or guessing in connection with this gift, but work and wide awakeness will be necessary to secure it. This very liberal offer has already caused much comment and Mr. Kline has received many congratulations on this account.

When the scalp is atrophied, or shynald, no preparation will restore the hair; in all other cases, Hall's Hair Renewer will start a growth.

Letter List.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the Corvallis postoffice, unclaimed May 7, 1897:

C. W. Barrington, Antonio Corrales, (foreign) Joseph Garland, H. B. Taylor, Geo. C. Ross, August Roberstein.

ROBT. JOHNSON, P. M.

It should be made a matter of public knowledge that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will speedily cure piles of the longest standing. It is the household favorite for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sores of all kinds. Allen & Woodward.

Lost.

A red pocket book, between Poney & Lock's farm and Corvallis, containing notes and other valuable papers. By leaving same at this office, the finder will be suitably rewarded.

Thirty years is a long time to fight so painful a trouble as piles, but Jacob Mitchell, of Unionville, Pa., struggled that long before he tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which quickly and permanently cured him. It is equally effective in eczema and all skin affections. Allen & Woodward.

TO THE PUBLIC.

This town certainly needs a first-class bootblack. Now that we have one, let us keep him by patronizing him. He will brush your clothes neatly, remove all stains and dirt, as well as polish your boot in the most artistic style. He will also clean windows and do any kind of chores. You will find him at the Occidental barber shop. Try me and be convinced.

A. FOUNTAIN.

For Police Judge.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of police judge, subject to the decision of the voters of Corvallis, at the coming election.

E. P. GREFFOZ.

For Police Judge.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for re-election to the office of police judge. If elected, I will try to give satisfaction to the taxpayers and law-abiding citizens, as I have in the past.

JOHNSON M. PORTER.

For Chief of Police.

To the voters of Corvallis: I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of chief of police, and if elected, I promise to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability.

C. B. WELLS.

Notice.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of chief of police, subject to the decision of the voters of Corvallis at the next city election. If elected, I will discharge the duties of the office to the very best of my ability.

W. J. MOORE.

For Chief of Police.

I take this method of publicly announcing my candidacy for the office of chief of police at the approaching city election.

JESSE SPENCER.

Notice.

I have purchased of Sam Sun, Lee Chory, Leo Copy, Big Jane and Ah Wah their entire interest in the lease from Messrs. W. A. LOCAL AMATEUR SPORTS.

A Baseball Revival. College Athletes.

Last Saturday afternoon, at Albany, the Albany College baseball team defeated the O. A. C. nine, the score standing 20 to 18. In the first inning Albany made 11 runs and the Farmers, 7. Then the teams settled down to business; Albany only landed 9 additional runs, while 17 stalwart Farmers cantered safely over the home plate. Protests against the Albany pitcher were filed prior to the game, and until this has been decided, it will not be known which team will compete in the other college games. Considering their lack of practice, the boys played a fair game.

Corvallis has a very good baseball team that includes some of the college players, and some exciting games may be expected this summer. Grounds have been prepared on the flat near Mary's river bridge. They ought to be fenced in, for it is only right that spectators should help pay the teams' expenses. Probably $500 worth of lumber and nails would be sufficient for the purpose and the boys would do the work. It is suggested that a subscription paper be circulated to raise funds.

The team has not been named. Coming from Corvallis, it might be called the "Hearties." The boys play their first match game Sunday afternoon with Long Tom. The latter team is said to be a strong one, and a good game is anticipated.

John Warner is the Corvallis captain, Ed. Irvine, Frank Crawford and "Paddy" Smith are among the candidates for pitcher. Smith and Clark are behind the bat. Warner, Hall and Hout are basemen, while Wiley Young plays short; in the field, Terrell, Clark, Crawford and others will play the positions. Asa Tunicliff, Corvallis' old-time crack catcher, may join the team.

Tomorrow afternoon Corvallis plays Philomath a practice game, here. The Philomath team has some good players, but they have had but little practice this year.

One week from tomorrow the O. A. C. local field day occurs. The result will practically decide the make-up of the team that will go to Salem in June, and with the hard practice the boys are indulging in, there will, no doubt, be some great races. Trainer Cameron attends strictly to business and is getting his men in fine condition.

The Eugene Guard regrets that the State University track team has been weakened by some faculty rulings and adds that "no formidable opposition was expected" if the Eugene team could put forth its best efforts. The Guard has evidently but little knowledge of the opposition. That paper reports that the O. A. C. has lost its hammer thrower, Bo. diue, however, is far from being lost.

Alex Rennie, Nolan & Callahan's general salesman, performed the impossible as umpire in the Albany—O. A. C. game. His decisions were pronounced correct and fair by all sides.

The Corvallis pitcher did cast a shadow, notwithstanding contrary reports.—Albany Democrat.

The praiseworthy efforts of Mr. Rube Kiger to arouse interest in horse speed, is meeting with deserved success. The initial meet took place on the track above town last Saturday afternoon and was well attended. A number of promising horses entered the various races and there were several interesting events. A grand stand and stalls have been built at the track at Mr. Kiger's expense and the track itself has been put in good condition. There will be another gathering of the clans tomorrow afternoon and arrangements are being made for a regular season of racing.

Why suffer with Coughs, Colds and La Grippe when Laxated Bromo Quinine will cure you in one day. Does not produce the ringing in the head like Sulphate of Quinine. Put up in tablets convenient for taking guaranteed to cure, or money refunded. Price 25 cents.

Teachers Examination.

Notice is hereby given that for the purpose of making an examination of all persons who may offer themselves as candidates for teachers of the schools of this county, the county school superintendent thereof will hold a public examination at the county courthouse, Corvallis, Oregon, beginning at one o'clock, Wednesday, May 12th, 1897. Teachers eligible to take certificates, state diplomas, must present recommendations and make applications at the same time. Applicants not present at the opening will not be permitted to take the examination.

Election Notice.

The general election for city officers of the city of Corvallis, Oregon, will be held on the third Monday, the 17th day of May, 1897, at the following places, to wit: At Oreginton & Quiverty's old office on the east side of 2nd street, between Washington and Adams streets in first ward; at the council chamber in second ward; and at the old Cauthorn office near the ferry landing in third ward; at which time there is to be elected a mayor, police judge, chief of police and treasurer to serve for two years; and one councilman from each of the three wards to serve for three years; also one councilman each from first and third wards to serve for two years.

The polls will be opened at 9 o'clock a. m., and continue to be open until 6 o'clock p. m., without closing.

The following judges and clerks of election have been appointed: First ward, G. W. Bigham, O. Rose and E. Allen, judges; and T. Barnhart and T. J. Crighton, clerks; second ward, John Bier, Ed Felton and George Wenzel, judges; and T. Shaw and M. B. Kiebel, clerks; third ward, F. G. Clark, S. Chipman and M. Jacobs, judges; and Ed Clark and James Gibson, clerks.

J. M. PORTER, Police Judge.

Referee's Notice.

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Benton.

The Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, as trustee, plaintiff, vs. the Oregon Pacific Railroad Company and the Willamette Valley & Coast Railroad Company, defendants.

Notice is hereby given to whom it may concern that the undersigned has been appointed by the above court as a referee to inquire and report to said court:

1st. On the proceedings in the courts of California and in the U. S. court for the district of California in and leading up to and consequent to the sale of the vessel, "Willamette Valley," whereby the purchase money of $42,050.00 received for the said vessel was reduced to the sum of $19,200.00 or thereabouts.

2nd. On the claims of certificate holders issued under the order of this court, made on the 12th day of February, 1891, to the said vessel and to the proceeds of sale thereof as first lien holders thereon, and amended by the order of February 28th, 1891, and to the foreclosure of their alleged liens thereon.

3rd. On the claims of laborers and other creditors of the said receivership to priority of payment of their claims to the said balance.

4th. On the claims of the purchasers of the property and franchises of the defendant corporations or of their assignees or transferees to the aforesaid balance in priority to other claims and generally to marshal and declare the priorities of all claims heretofore presented to and passed upon by the referee, this exception not to extend to the claims of the said certificate holders under the said orders of February 12th and February 28th, 1891, on the aforesaid balance, when ascertained, and to report to this court on the proper distribution of the said balance and on what, if any, deductions should be made therefrom for costs and expenses.

All persons interested are requested and required to appear before the undersigned on Monday, the 24th day of May, 1897, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day in the circuit court room in the county court house, in the city of Corvallis, Benton county, Oregon, and then and there to present their respective claims against said fund and to file the same with me. At said time and place, the undersigned will proceed to examine said claims in accordance with the terms of the order of appointment above set forth, and to hear testimony relative to the same and argument of claimants.

Said trial will proceed from day to day until its final adjournment.

Dated at Eugene, Oregon, this 5th day May, 1897.
