LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Ben Jones, clerk of Lincoln county, was in town Tuesday. The Ramsey, the jolly Haskins merchant, was in town last week.

Sunday Dinner—20 cents, at Commercial Restaurant. Will L. Elger, Prop. Mrs. Chas. Kohn and daughter, of Portland, are visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Norris Humphrey, formerly Miss Grace Hanna, is visiting friends in Corvallis. Mrs. Geo. Maddox and son Estel, returned Wednesday from a visit to eastern Oregon.

A letter from Sprague, Wash., states that many farmers have not threshed their wheat. Eugene Allphix and Byron Nixon are seriously talking Klondike and Pat Kelly will soon go north.

John Rickard is somewhat recovered from his recent serious illness, but he is still in the physician's care. Henry Gerhard has been in Roseburg settling up some business connected with the estate of his brother, Leo.

Lost, on January 2nd, near the Episcopal church, a brown feather bow. Finder kindly leave same at this office. Do you use a good-looking letter head? Do you want it? The GAZETTE job office turns out elegant business stationery.

Dr. Chas. Reutter, of Jacksonville visited the office of E. Holgate this week, on his way to California, where he expects to locate. The subject at the Congregational church next Sunday morning will be "Life a Struggle." Evening: "The Untroubled Life."

An important meeting of the Odd Fellows' cemetery association will be held in Odd Fellows hall Tuesday the 18th. It is earnestly requested that there be a full attendance. W. A. Cornea, secretary and superintendent of the board of Christian missions of California, will preach at the Christian church next Sunday, morning and evening.

John J. Lindsay, captain of the Washington university football team and manager of the Pacific Wave, the students' paper, has left the university to seek his fortune in Alaska. The members of the Farmer's company of Linn county passed resolutions recently showing their appreciation of the high character and ability of the late Dr. G. F. Crawford.

L. L. Chipman will sell his personal property at public auction Jan. 8th, 1898, and shortly thereafter will remove with his family to Corvallis, Oregon, where his father resides.—Tillamook Headlight. Subject at Methodist Episcopal church Lord's day, morning: "How to become a soul winner." Evening: "Some facts apart from the Bible in support of the immortality of the jewel within man."

A meeting of the McKinley club will probably be called for the 22nd, to elect delegates to the state convention of republican clubs which meets in Portland February 1st. A program of music and short talks may be arranged for that evening. The Oregon Agricultural College was well represented at the convention of the Pacific Northwest Young Men's Christian Association recently held in Portland, J. H. Gallagher, W. L. Patterson, E. K. Stites and A. J. Stimpson being the delegates from Corvallis.

Dilley the fixer is the busiest man in Corvallis. He is a genius in the repairing line and if your machine, your clock, your lock or any mechanical contrivance is out of repair, he will cure the annoyance in a jiffy. He works fast and his charges are reasonable. The Rambler football team defeated the Willamettes, both of Portland, at Portland, Sunday, by a score of 12 to 0. Lyman Kelsey played center for the winners and "Pat" evidently was all right. The Tribune says it was a snappy, rapid game, and played with great vigor.

Dick Smith, the U. of O. football player, has been elected captain of the '98 team. The O. A. C. team has not elected officers yet, but doubtless soon will. It is said that "Gyp" Thurston, the merry tackle, will be asked to captain the team and that Prof. Edwards, who was so successful as manager last season, will be invited to continue in that capacity. On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, the 8th, at the home of the bride's parents, in this city, Miss Myrtle Felton and G. F. Brown were united in marriage, Rev. B. J. Kelly officiating. The wedding was private, the members of the family only being present. Mr. Brown is a farmer's son and hails from Blodgett valley.

Tuesday night the revival services at Evangelical church, south of the court house, were commenced. The meetings have been successful far beyond the expectation of Pastor O'Kelly, and great interest has been aroused. Rev. Fisher, of Portland, preached a magnificent sermon Tuesday night, and the services all the week have been attractive and powerful for good. All are heartily invited to these meetings.

Prof. D. W. Trine, formerly connected with the O. A. C., is now on the Michigan state board of agriculture, being office inspector of nurseries and orchards—an important position. His office is in Lansing. Prof. Trine's many friends in Corvallis congratulate him on his appointment and the state of Michigan upon securing such a competent official. Services of much interest at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath. At the close of the short sermon in the morning there will be the quarterly communion service, and an opportunity given for any who may wish to unite with the church. A most cordial invitation extended to all. In the evening the theme will be one of the living questions of the hour. Sabbath school at 10 a. m.; endeavor societies at 4 and 6:30 p. m.

Thursday morning while Bert Appar, C. M. Young's cutter, was driving to town with a load of meat, the pin holding the double trees broke, the wagon stopped and the driver and team went on. Bert stopped when he hit the ground, but the team didn't. They made a hard run and one of the horses went to the barn. About 10 o'clock Mr. Young found the other horse in the south part of town. No particular damage was done.—Eugene Guard.

The GAZETTE of Dec 24th, spoke of Prof. S. I. Pratt as having practiced bowling with a view of beating his father at Portland during the holidays, and stated that when S. L. read in the Oregonian that his father had a record of 83, he concluded he would not introduce the subject of cricket hat on his visit. But the subject was introduced and the game played, the successful principal of Corvallis' public schools winning with the score of 73; thus adding to our town's athletic glory.

After examining the monthly reports from the schools of Benton county, in attendance and tardiness, the banner of the district No. 8-5 (joint). Miss Teresa Wilson has been teaching in this district for a number of terms. The per cent of attendance was 100. The next five schools with the highest attendance were: District No. 12 with 97 per cent; No. 48 with 95 per cent; No. 6 with 93 per cent; No. 64 with 88 per cent, and No. 42 with 77 per cent.

The Albany Democrat has received a copy of the Spokane Chronicle, containing a decision of Justice Wirt W. Saunders in the case of a man arrested for assaulting a man who had insulted the defendant's wife. Justice Saunders fined him $1, the lowest possible fine, and regretted that he had to make it even that much, as a man had a right to defend his wife's honor. The woman had been accused of shoplifting in the Whitehouse store, without any cause, and the case attracted a good deal of attention in Spokane.

The Alaska exodus of Corvallisites has fairly begun. Will Schmidt led the procession and now one of the solid business men of Skagway. Brady Burnett is to sail on the Oregon, Wednesday. He will probably practice law in Skagway or Dyea, but intends taking with him a complete outfit so that if he concludes to join the gold hunters he will be all ready. The Northwest champion mile runner ought not run short of wind in the long and hard march over the pass. Brady is a runner and his many friends who wish him success will hardly be disappointed.

W. H. Hartless has a scheme or rather business proposition that cannot fail to be profitable. He is agent for an accident insurance company and has for a year been trying to get his company to insure the Alaska gold hunters, but it was only this week that he was notified of the company's action, deciding to insure this class. "Bill" was given all the western territory he wants, and he expects to go up to Skagway in a few days and make that his headquarters. Thousands of miners will want policies written and the agent will coin money.

Grover Hedrick may accompany Mr. Hartless, at least he is going. John Visevard is now in Portland preparing to go north, and Billy Hanson is settling up some business at The Dalles, which accomplished, he will immediately set out for Dawson. Dick Kiger has his eyes turned northward, but has come to no definite decision. Lee Wells and W. F. Hamlin have a very strong desire to go north. Lee has all but concluded to take his chances with the others, and will probably say "good bye" in a few weeks.

And these are only the advance guard of Bentonites who will visit the land of gold and cold this year. What Dr. A. E. Salter Says. Buffalo, N. Y.—Gents:—From my personal knowledge, gained in observing the effect of your Shiloh's Cure in cases of advanced consumption, I am prepared to say it is the most remarkable remedy that has ever been brought to my attention. It has certainly saved many from consumption. Sold by Graham & Wells.

HE SHAVES. Do you believe in tussion. Or are you on the fence, sir? Well, this is my conclusion: We can fuse on Jesse Spencer. Shiloh's Consumption Cure cures where others fail. It is the leading Cough Cure, and no house should be without it. Pleasant to take and goes right to the spot. Sold by Graham & Wells.

French candies at Hodes & Hall's. It is easy to catch a cold and just as easy to get rid of it if you commence early to use One Minute Cough Cure. It cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia and all throat and lung troubles. It is pleasant to take, safe to use and sure to cure. Allen & Woodward.

Letter List. Following is the list of letters remaining in the Corvallis postoffice, unclaimed January 14, 1898: Mrs. E. K. Rinkers, E. Hall, Mrs. Lena Graves, P. K. Fritz, Tillie Findlay, Mrs. Allen Boyles, S. H. Adams. B. W. JOHNSON, P. M.

For constipation take Karl's Clover Root Tea, the Great Blood Purifier Cures Headache, Nervousness, Eruptions on the face, and makes the head clear as a bell. Sold by Graham & Wells.

SEA OF POLITICS.

The Various Party Ships Seem to be Rudderless. The republicans of Benton county, with very few exceptions, express themselves strongly in favor of the Portland factions dropping their differences and agreeing upon some plan of unification. A well known republican voiced the general sentiment when he said, "I am tired of that Portland fuss. If those people cannot agree, I am in favor of holding the state convention without a delegation from Multnomah county. The outside republicans should not undertake to choose Portland's representation, and the best way to force the factions together is to keep them both out."

The populist and the democratic papers are at war. The shrewder democrats know that their followers will not swallow all the populist platform and will propose the new party to avoid such issues as the initiative and referendum. The populists, on the other hand, are independent and declare that their creed must be incorporated in the unimpaired platform or they will act alone.

A Benton county populist, who has the confidence of his party, re-remarked this week: "The republican have, nominally, 15,000 votes, the populist 15,000 votes and the democrat 15,000. The populists who have built up so strong a party in so short a time would be foolish to sacrifice one principle or the slightest part of its organization at the bidding of the democrats whom we have whipped almost out of existence and who wish to renege themselves by our aid. The populists can stand being defeated. That's an old thing, but we cannot afford to win a partial temporary victory by means that will ultimately condemn us. We have a good name and fine organization. If the democrats honestly believe as we do, there is not the slightest reason why they should not list under the banner we will gladly welcome them. But there is absolutely no need for a new party or a new organization. We will not let the old democratic bosses boss us under the guise of union."

The name of A. L. Clark, the Alaskan, who is perhaps better known as "John Henry," has been freely mentioned as a prominent candidate of the unionist for sheriff. He would be a formidable candidate, and under the preferential primary system could probably secure the nomination.

A. L. McFadden was interviewed regarding the populist primaries. He said his party in this county has already fired up its machinery and the voters have been notified that names for the various offices on the primary tickets must be sent in before February 15th. The preferential plan has been adopted. Tickets with the names of candidates for nominations will be sent to each precinct. It will require the endorsement of five populists for a candidate to get his name on the ticket. Then the voter, at the primary election makes his selection from these names, giving 1st, 2nd, 3rd, etc. choice. Thus a general balance of all the votes is struck, and the candidate having the least opposition is the nominee of the party. Mr. McFadden did not know what the final action of the union movement would be, but said it would be definite and satisfactory organization if effected in proper time, his party would proceed to nominate a full party ticket.

Editor Stewart, of the Lincoln Leader, was in Corvallis this week and stated that the fusion sentiment in his county was very strong. He said that it was the belief among democrats that Joe Simons would seek to dictate the nominations of the republican state convention but that he would fail, and he would call another convention and nominate a bolting republican ticket which would have the support of the Oregonian.

Food, undigested, is poison. Dige-ted, it is life and strength. Millions of us suffer from indigestion, but we often don't know it. We think it is something else. Even doctors often mistake the symptoms. Pale, thin people, who are overworked, who need strength, who seem in want of proper food, should take Shaker's Digestive Cordial. It is astonishing what food will do, when properly digested. It will make you strong, revive you, refresh you, sustain you, make you fat, restore your color, make muscle, brain fibre, courage, endurance, energy, increase your power to throw off disease and keep you healthy and happy. Indigestion does just the opposite, but indigestion can be cured and prevented with Shaker's Digestive Cordial. Sold by druggists. Trial bottle 10 cents.

Talks by Business Men.

The Cash Store is a bureau of holiday goods. Pretty articles, useful articles, articles to look at and articles to wear. Toys for the children. S. L. Kline has exhibited in his north window one of the largest gaudies ever shown in Corvallis. He offers a cash prize of $10 to the person that will guess how long the candle will burn. Call at the store for particulars. Special attention will be given to holiday goods during this month. Graham & Wells have a fine line of stationery and in school books and school supplies they carry a full line. Pure drugs and medicines. Miss Fernot carries a complete line of ladies' furnishing goods and fancy articles. Quality excellent and prices very reasonable.

If you have used your eyes 30 years, they are no doubt beginning to show signs of wear. Consult U. B. Vogel and see if his spectacles will not make reading more pleasant. Small's candies are superb. Best cigars and tobacco. Fine billiard and pool tables. J. H. Harris has the most satisfactory line of dress goods ever brought to Corvallis and the demand for them is great. Stock all up to date.

E. P. Grefox's jewelry store carries useful articles and novelties in silver and other ware. Rings for all occasions and all people. Watch cleaning and repairing a specialty. The latest magazines at Gearhart's. Stationery and school books a specialty. The leading dailies and other periodicals. Hodes & Hall feast the hungry. Their coffee has a mighty reputation, and their dining halls are crowded daily.

Will L. Edger, proprietor of the Commercial Restaurant, one door north of Smith's store, announces that the dining room is open day and night. Special attention to families from the country. Meals 20 cents. The Art of Dressing is an every day thing. Castoria is an every day thing.
