OUR CHURCH SINGERS.

Choirs of Corvallis—Good Music From Volunteers.

Corvallis has ten church organizations owning edifices of worship and holding regular services, not including the Salvation Army, which conducts meetings nightly in its barracks.

The town is not large enough for the churches to engage in their musical services the support of any but volunteer singers. In one of the churches they are entirely congregational.

The Baptist church has no organized choir at present and the organist, Miss Ella Castro, leads the congregational singing.

The Catholic church music is furnished by a chorus choir, which is under the direction of Miss Grefroz, who is also organist.

Miss Ora Read is the leader of the Christian church, which consists of a double quartette. The sopranos are Miss Read and Mrs. Fleming; alto, Miss Bertha Linville and Miss E. I. Grefroz; Messrs. Parker and Hill, tenors and Messrs. Edwards and Elgin, bass. Miss Mildred Linville in organist.

The Congregational church has for its director Mrs. A. B. Cordley and Mrs. L. Y. Wilson is organist. The sopranos are Mrs. H. S. Stone and Miss Louise Fischer; alto, Mrs. Cordley and Miss Helen Holgate; tenors, Messrs. Bell and Frazer; bass, H. L. Holgate.

A boy choir directed by Mr. Marion Johnson and assisted by mature voices furnishes the vocal music at the Episcopal church. In the senior choir, Mrs. Pernot and Misses Weeks and Hamilton sing soprano; Miss Holland, alto; Marion Johnson and Jas. Johnson, tenors, and Messrs. Rusk and Cootie bass; Miss Plummer is organist.

The Evangelical Association church, south of the court house, depends upon congregational singing. The United Evangelical church, in the northwest part of town, has a good choir, with Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Woodward and Miss Jennie Force, soprano; Mrs. Hotchkiss and Miss Emma Thompson, alto; Mr. Lee Henkle, tenor and Messrs. Stevens and Hotchkiss, bass. The organist is Mrs. Henkle.

The Methodist church, North, has a chorus choir, with Mr. Underwood as director. Mrs. Schmidt is organist and Miss Settlemier assistant. The sopranos are Misses Rusk, Hilman, Whittaker, Hedrick, Mrs. Peart and Mrs. Underwood; alto, Misses Herbert, Whittaker, Holcomb and Burlingame; tenors, Messrs. Tully, Schmidt and Gallagher; bass, Messrs. Howell, Campbell and Powers.

The Methodist church, South, has no choir at present, but one is organizing to take charge of the music when the new church building is completed. Mr. Victor Moses now leads the singing with Miss Ida R. J. as organist.

Prof. John Fulton is director of the Presbyterian choir, which consists of a male quartette with Prof. Fulton 1st tenor, Prof. Crawford 2nd tenor, Prof. Pritchard 1st bass and B. W. Johnson 2nd bass, assisted by Miss Lulu Spangler and Miss Mabel Johnson, sopranos and Misses Mildred Johnson and Russell, altos. Miss Smith is organist.

Free lectures. Commencing Friday night, May 6th, Dr. Del-MacClair, the eminent lecturer and examiner-in-chief for the Oriental Medical Syndicate of San Francisco and Portland, will give a series of illustrated lectures in costume on the laws of life and health, the origin, prevention and cure of disease, and give demonstrations of human occult forces.

Dr. Del-MacClair is a scholarly gentleman in appearance and address, and succeeds in making plain to the common understanding many obscure points in regard to human developments, and the prevention of the inroads of man's greatest enemy—disease in various forms.

His credentials from physicians in good standing and eminent and influential citizens in various cities where he has appeared, are unimpeachable evidence of his integrity as a gentleman as well as flattering assurance of his very pronounced success in his field of work.

DR. DARRIN COMING.

Will be in Corvallis, Oregon-- Parlors at Occidental Hotel From May 11th to June 1st.

MYSTERIOUS POWER.

Electricity and Vital Magnetism as Curative Agents.

For the benefit of those who are not already acquainted with the doctor's mode of operating with electricity and who may be seeking aid, though distrustful, after many failures of everybody and everything, Dr. Darrin makes the most extraordinary and most generous offer to treat the first case of catarrh, deafness, dyspepsia, rheumatism and neuralgia free of charge on the day of his arrival in the city, and he also makes a liberal offer to treat the worthy poor free between the hours of 10 and 12 a. m. daily, to prove to the community at large his ability and skill.

Dr. Darrin makes a specialty of all diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat, catarrh, deafness, bronchitis, lagrippe, consumption, dyspepsia, constipation, heart, liver and kidney diseases; and permanently cures all diseases of the genito-urinary organs in either sex, such as syphilis, blood taint, scrofula, gleet, gonorrhoea, stricture, seminal weakness, spermatorrhoea, loss of manhood and loss of desire or sexual power, in man or woman.

All peculiar female troubles, irregular menstruation, leucorrhoea, displacement, etc., are confidently treated, as well as all acute, chronic, private and nervous diseases of whatever nature, if curable, in cases if not curable or improvable. Consultation free.

Office hours are 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Evening, 7 to 8, Sunday, 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Most cases can be treated at home after one visit to the doctor's office. All business relations with Dr. Darrin are strictly confidential.

Was at Manila. Prof. John Fulton, of the O. A. C., was at the Philippine Islands as a sailor boy in 1881, and has distinct and pleasant recollections of Manila, to capture which Dewey annihilated the Spanish Asiatic squadron.

Prof. Fulton was nine months on the Orient coast and his ship lay in Manila bay for some time. He says the islands have a warm, moist climate, quite pleasant but conducive to languor, and grow delicious tropical fruits in great abundance.

Manila seemed to be a healthy place, but Mr. Fulton thought that p-rhaps in the interior tropical fevers raged at times.

There is a probability that western volunteers will be sent by Uncle Sam to control the Philippines until their final disposition is agreed upon, and in that case the Corvallis and O. A. C. boys now enlisted will doubtless cross the Pacific. It is not likely that they will have any fighting to do, and they have the assurance of Prof. Fulton that if there have been no radical changes since his visit there, they will go to one of the fairest, most attractive lauds on earth.

More Athletic Glory. Athletic honors still are heaped upon the Oregon Agricultural college. The girls are not behind the sterner sex in keeping the old flag aloft.

The ladies basketball team met the young ladies from the Chenawa Indian training school last Friday at Salem, and won a victory, the score standing O. A. C. 13, Chenawa 11. Visitors from Corvallis state that the game was close and exciting throughout, but there was no ungentlemanly conduct on the part of any of the players. The "dairy maids" displayed better knowledge of the game, better training and better team work. The daughters of Pochahontas were more agile and more strong.

The line-up of the "dairy maids" was as follows: Bessie Smith, captain and guard; Lillie Rennie, center; Blanche Holden, goal thrower; Inez Fuller, 1st forward; Leona Smith, 1st back; Dora Hodgkin, 2nd forward; Fannie Getty, 2nd back.

Mrs. Lyford chaperoned the young ladies. Their coach is Mr. W. H. Beach, who is entitled to much credit for their splendid showing.

In From the Hills

The Old-Man-Hungry-For-New-Come down from his ranch and cheered for Dewey. He wanted to go right home and tell mam and the boys, but was persuaded to stay for the celebration.

"Drat them Spaniards!" he exclaimed energetically, "they ought to be licked with a thorny switch but they are such dogged idiots, I can't help feeling a little sorry. Tackle the United States! Why, they couldn't whip one side of Oregon. That Philippine scrap was just a little Dewey. Wait 'till rains. And our Sampson hasn't his hair cut."

"Politics! Yes, when we run out of war talk we discuss the election and cue the candidates on the other side. Don't hear much about the state ticket. Both sides have pretty good men, but Kincaid is a frost to his ticket. The pops know he is an internal fraud and they kick."

"Tom Tongue is solid out our way. We know which side our bread-is buttered on. You know I'm a republican and I can't help it, but I'm no old fish aristocracy republican. That's what I call the Simon olka. You've heard of Joe Simon. We're all gold standard, but they say that Joe is so gold standardly that at the legislature hold up the standard dropped off in chunks whenever he rubbed up against a stand-in member of the house."

"All the bimetalist are going to vote for Dick Nichols. Why? Well, well. Supposed you knew, Dick is sound money, and if nickel and gold isn't bimetalism, I don't know anything. Some of the offices may be going union-ward but the county judgeship is going Woodward. And Dodelle has a proposition before him that he will Knott untie. Then there is that sheriff question. You know Lilly was born and raised on a ranch out our way and it is natural that we should hustle for him pretty lively. Elect him? Sure. Why? Well, because we have a feeling that way and we know George will not disappoint us. He's no cheat hay. He's pure timothy with a little clover thrown in. And say, the boys are not fighting anybody. No underhand business you know, but they are going to boost George along and dont you forget it."

"Then the anvils commenced firing and the old man begun to hurrah for the flag. A Call for Warrants. Notice is hereby given that there is money on hand at the county treasurer's office to pay all orders endorsed and marked "Not paid for want of funds" up to and including those of October 9, 1895.
