Mr. Frank I. Duxbar, of Astoria, republican candidate for secretary of state, was in Corvallis last Friday and met many of our citizens. Mr. Duxbar is a pleasant appearing gentleman and is quiet, but "capable" bearing created a decidedly favorable impression. The people of Benton county, populists, republicans and democrats, know that Kincaid is an expensive fraud, and those who met Mr. Duxbar are confident that the next secretary of state will be a vast improvement over the present one.

A splendid entertainment was the patriotic contest at the opera house last Friday night, held under the auspices of the W. R. C. There were four contesting reciters, Lennie Williams winning the medal. Capt. Crawford, Supt. Denman and Prof. Holm were the judges. Mrs. G. W. "The republican campaign," says the Times, "is the queerest ever conducted in the country." It is not only curious, it is funny, and every republican is tickled. Hereafter the campaign suited the democrats and so did the election. This year there is a change in business all around.

Sagrel surface ditches in Corvallis have a horrible smell and will breed disease. They are used as sewers and the refuse from households goes into them. They form stagnant pools wherein disease germs multiply by the millions. However, when people get sick they can usually be cured, if they don't die.

Farmer Joe Ripley came up from Wells Wednesday, but did not enjoy his visit. Mr. Stuart is a competent and reliable printer. The GAZETTE's new form will take charge Monday, if he is not detained in Portland by business. He is a good business man and a practical printer, coming direct from one of the best establishments in Portland.

A man giving his name as Sil Moore, and claiming to be from Corvallis, was placed in the city jail Saturday evening. He is a cocaine and morphine fiend of the worst type, and his arms and legs are in a frightful condition from the effects of injections of the drugs. He was having yesterday morning, and had to be given an injection to pacify him, and was then ordered out of town. He begged for more before leaving, but it was refused and he started off crying like a baby. Death would be a relief to such a man, and every day of his life he is suffering the worst tortures imaginable.—Eugene Register.

POLITICS.

Movements in the Game of Office Hunting—A Dull Campaign.

The Republican county candidates are in the field and on the mountain. They are looking into every nook and corner of the county and showing themselves. Every prospect pleases.

Neither side seems to have polled the county, and estimates are but estimates. The unionists practically concede the election of Supt. Denman and Recorder Gellatly by large majorities. As the candidates for clerk come down the home stretch it is seen that the republican nominee has the inside track.

The union politicians have retreated until their last stand is now in front of their nominees for sheriff and county judge. It is for these offices that they will sweat drops of blood. As the time draws near everything else is left to its own devices. But Woodward and Lilly, nevertheless, seem to have things their own way and are masters of the situation.

Elvin Newton has the satisfaction that while the odds in the beginning were against them they are now in his favor. Fred Clark is enjoying his friendly tilt with his old time opponent, and it is felt that the chances of politics will be in his favor this year. Wm. Knotts has an easy race.

The outcome on the legislative ticket is problematical. There is little doubt, however, but that Mr. Nichols will have a substantial majority. Mr. Elmo Davis, republican nominee for joint representative, will get his entire party vote and some from the opposition in Benton.

The case of Daly is an interesting one. It is difficult to estimate the extent of the republican opposition to him, nor is it known what attitude the opposing republicans will take. They do not seem to be parading their strength nor their disposition. Some think Mr. Daly will be able to secure enough fusion votes to carry the county. The situation in Lincoln is about as in Benton. Mr. Daly believes he will be elected while Judge Blue, his opponent, is convinced that the name of Carter's successor will be D. P. B'ue.

The fact that Corvallis has two candidates for constable is being overlooked. Henry Carver is the republican and Taylor Porter the union nominee.

The union people have arranged a canvass, selected the route and fixed the dates to suit themselves and now a k the republican candidates to join in. As the latter had their plans agreed upon before, and as they would prefer having a voice in arranging matters if a joint canvass be had, they will probably not respond to the unionist's invitation.

Corvallis at Manila.

Fifty or more Corvallis people drove or rode over to Albany Monday evening to see the sold-boys, on their way to Manila via San Francisco.

Corvallis has a special interest in a number of the volunteers and among them: Lieutenant Ralph Terrill, Sergeant J. J. Thurston, Corporals, Noel Abrams, Keady and McAllister, Bagler Cronkite, and privates, John Armstrong, Elwood Clark, Ed. Carter, the two DeLashmunt boys, Harry Kelly, W. G. Kennedy, George Reed, Herman Breyer, Arthur Stimpson, W. B. Scott, Silas Thornton, Walter White, Sam Pool, William Abernathy and W. M. Cook. The majority of these are in Company K.

Herman Breyer ("Bismark") did not get into the company until just before the train left Portland. He had been rejected on account of defective eyesight, but had proved so valuable as cook, and pleaded so successfully that the officers finally overlooked his physical drawbacks.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philomath, was the subject, is a narrative by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and side, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at Graham & Wells' drug store.

Thousands of sufferers from grippe have been restored to health by One Minute Cough Cure. It quickly cures, coughs, colds, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe, asthma, and all throat and lung diseases. Graham & Wells.

A Nineteen-Dollar Councilman.

The Corvallis city election passed off very quietly only 197 citizens taking the trouble to vote. Five councilmen were chosen: Punderson Avery and Logan Hays in the 1st ward, J. C. Taylor and J. R. Smith in the second and A. R. Pygall in the third.

Police Judge Grefroz has figured that each vote cast cost the city 28 cents and that it cost $19 to elect Al. Pygall who had no opposition. But then there is only one Al. Pygall and the city secured a bargain even at that figure.

The present voting arrangement seems to be unnecessarily expensive. It is due to the town's former ambition to ape cities and put on metropolitan airs. There is no possible necessity for three polling places or three sets of judges and clerk. At no time is the city vote too large to be cast at one place or to be counted by one set of officers. Fine feathers cost cash.

The councilmen elect are representative citizens and taxpayers.

Rev. G. H. Whiteman, of Independence will preach at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning and evening.

Lieut. Geary, military instructor of the O. A. C. has received orders to join his regiment which is now at Mobile. His family will remain at Corvallis.

Mr. Tongue has secured an order establishing a pension board at Corvallis. The commissioner on pensions has appointed as the board Drs. Altman and Ferra of Corvallis and Dr. Logan of Philomath.

Death of John Foster.

A pioneer of the '40s died at his home in this city Monday night. One of the substantial citizens of the county passed away at the ripe old age of 77 years. John Foster obeyed the universal summons.

He was a native of Ohio, having been born in that state March 3, 1821. When a boy, he moved with his parents to Missouri and at the age of 24 joined a caravan bound for Oregon. He engaged in the business of stock raising most of his life, and was very successful, accumulating a comfortable fortune.

Mr. Foster was a kindly and just man, honorable and upright in his dealings. He has been a good citizen and a useful one.

Funeral services were held at the residence, Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. Isaac Peart, pastor of the Methodist church. Interment was made in the Bellfountain cemetery.

Cameo.

Our county recorder is not effusive. He pursues the even tenor of his way and that way commends itself to all men.

Mr. Gellatly has made an ideal recorder. Everything is kept up in the very best shape and that without any fuss or claims to special credit.

He considered it his duty to do his best for the people who entrusted him with the office. Such are the kind of men the county needs in office and Mr. Gellatly will be re-elected by a handsome majority.

ONLY $5 PER WEEK.

Dr. Darrin has Again Reduced His Fee to $5 per Week

Owing to the dull times Dr. Darrin generously offers to treat the worthy poor free of charge between the hours of 10 and 11 a. m. daily, and those able and willing to pay will receive treatment at the low rate of $5 per week, or in that proportion as the case may require for each and every disease except surgical and special complicated cases. The afflicted will do well to make a note of this generous offer and apply at once, as these rates will last for a limited time only. The doctor's fall in price is not only a boon to the poor, but will be appreciated by thousands unable to pay large fees. There is no reason why the rich or the poor should suffer for the want of professional physician. His testimonials speak volumes of his wonderful ability in curing diseases.

Office at Occidental Hotel to June 1.

The Judge.

Corvallis, Or., May 18, 1898.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—The county judge question is of more importance to the taxpayers of Benton county than all the other offices put together. The judge is to a great extent the county's legislature and governor. There can be appeals from the county judge in his judicial capacity, but the general conduct of the business of the county, the management that makes or lowers the debt, that increases or diminishes the tax burdens is final.

Hence it is that the attempt on the part of the lawyer candidate's friends to have the judicial side of the county judgship considered the most important, and all important, will fail.

Mr. Woodward is not an admitted attorney nor has he perhaps read law to any great extent, but his chief duty as a trial judge is to interpret the law, and those who know him have every confidence in his ability to interpret law intelligently and honestly. As the GAZETTE remarks "the chief requisite in a good judge is good judgment." And then there are the higher courts.

But there are no higher courts to correct errors of loose management in general of the county's business affairs. And it is a matter of dollars and cents to us to elect a capable business man.

ANOTHER TAXPAYER.

NOT EVERLASTING.

It is true that Mr. Elmo Davis, republican candidate for joint representative, is, as the Times charges, only a temporary resident of Lincoln county. Mr. Davis is not immortal. When he is visited by that old gentleman of the scythe, hour glass and populist whisks, Mr. Davis expects to enjoy himself in some land fairer even than Lincoln county, much as he loves that ocean bound shire.

But Mr. Davis has been a citizen of Toledo for five years and his interests are all in Lincoln county. His company has a fifty years lease of the stone quarry and for that time, at least, Mr. Davis expects, should he live, to be a resident of Lincoln.

Mr. Davis is an intelligent young man and alive to the needs of the two counties.

T. T. GEER.

M. T. Geer is sound on the money question, sound on the tariff question and sound on matters of state interest.

T. T. Geer is a reasoner, a student, a keen observer of public events, and an exponent of practical statesmanship.

T. T. Geer will be Oregon's next governor and will serve the state wisely and faithfully.

Royalty at Corvallis.

Will R. King and J. R. Sovereign spoke at Corvallis Saturday afternoon and evening. Many from the country were in town, but the attendance at the meeting was a disappointment to the local union managers.

Mr. King was well received by his supporters but he was not a success as a stump speaker, and his speeches fell flat. He discussed the money question and state issues, introducing his discourse with a reference to his experience at a student at the O. A. C.

Mr. Sovereign is an entertaining talker and was more amusing than convincing.

Mr. King, the union candidate for the governorship, is a well built, aggressive looking man, who makes a better appearance off the rostrum than on it. Any talk of King as a worthy foe of Geer on the stump, is folly.
