Attest: VIRGIL E WATTERS,
By VICTOR P. MOSES, Clerk.
Deputy.

Married.

Mr. E. F. Craven, of Ballston, Polk county, was married Sunday, July 10, at high noon, to Miss Nora Burch. Rev. W. J. Fenton made them one by the beautiful ceremony of the M. E. Church, South. Mr. Craven is a prominent merchant at Ballston, Polk county, and a very promising young business man. The bride is a very estimable young lady, highly esteemed by all. She has many friends in this city, who wish the happy pair a bon voyage over the matrimonial sea.

Red Cross Donations.

The following donations have been received from the churches of Corvallis by the Red Cross Society, to aid in providing a hospital ship furnished by the Pacific Coast: Rev. I. Peart, Methodist church, $5. Rev. B. J. Kelly, United Evangelical church, $4. Rev. Mark Noble, Baptist church, $4. Rev. E. J. Thompson, Presbyterian church, $2.

The Oregon Chautauqua.

The GAZETTE hopes that many of our citizens will avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the Willamette Valley Chautauqua at Gladstone park which is now in session. The grounds are finely located near Oregon City and fitted up with modern improvements. No pains is spared to make this, the Fifth Annual session, the most successful one in its history.

Wanted, wood on GAZETTE subscription.

Mrs. Cator, of Oak Ridge, was shopping in town this week.

The new county court, Judge E. Woodward and Commissioners John Buchanan and Wm. Knotts, took their seats last week and took up the business and moved off like veterans. The taxpayers expect an economical administration and they will not be disappointed.

The mother of Miss Helen Crawford died in this city Wednesday night, of cancer of the stomach. Funeral services will be held in Albany today and the burial will take place on the old home place 12 miles from Albany in Linn county. Mrs. Crawford was a pioneer of Oregon. For several months she has been a great sufferer.

NEW ELECTRIC LINE.

Project for its Erection between Corvallis and Eugene.

Prospects for an electric motor line from Corvallis to Eugene are quite flattering.

Several weeks since a capitalist from Philadelphia, Pa., was in our city looking for a suitable place to make investments for himself and other moneyed men in the Quaker city. Incidentally the matter of a motor line from here to Eugene was mentioned. At once the gentleman caught the idea and made some investigations which evidently pleased him, for on his return to his home he began work on the project and has conferred with our townsman, Fred Blumhart, in regard to the matter, asking for data upon which to formulate his plans. Accordingly Mr. Blumhart, who is an acquaintance of the Philadelphian, and Attorney W. E. Yates made a trip to Monroe this week, and while there interviewed Mr. Wilhelm and others in reference to freights and prospects for the line, generally. Much enthusiasm was manifested and it was found there were large amounts of freights to be had. All the people south of here were enthusiastic and promised all aid possible in furtherance of the project.

Mr. Blumhart made an investigation of the water power near Monroe and found there was sufficient to generate the electricity necessary to operate the line. The design is to make it a standard gauge three rail track, the third rail being used to carry the electric current used in operating the motor.

Our people will take hold of this much-needed improvement with a determination to help make it a success. The building of this line will greatly reduce freight charges to all that splendid country between here and the thriving towns of Monroe, Junction and Eugene.

Fire Insurance.

The sixty millionaire fire insurance companies doing business in the United States during the last decade, have only made 2.51 per cent on their capital, and yet there are many who believe insurance can be obtained for nothing and have a chromo thrown in by the gentlemanly solicitor representing supposed fire insurance companies without capital or experience. Our friends will know more about it later on.

Almost a Serious Wreck.

While the Sunday excursion train on the Corvallis & Eastern railroad was on its return from Yaquina Sunday last, the engine and tender jumped the track one-half mile west of Blodgett, caused by a broken flange on the engine truck. Fortunately no one was hurt. Engineer Casteel promptly stopped the train. The passengers reached Corvallis 3 a. m. Monday morning.

Gone to War.

Herbert Pygall, Art Henkle, Hiram Scott, Adam Bumbarger, Julian McFadden, Matt Staley, Roy Avery and one or two others whose names could not be learned went to Albany yesterday to enlist in Second Oregon. The boys hope to get to Manila where the regiment is now stationed, before the war closes. The loyal citizens of Corvallis and Benton county wish the boys Godspeed.

Where to Leave Donations.

The ladies of the Red Cross Society are taking donations of fruit juices and jellies to send to the boys at Manila. All those who wish to remember the "dear ones so far away," will please send their donations to the residence of Mrs. Simon Kline, president of the society, or to the secretary, Miss Bertie Linville, where they will be boxed for skipment.

Taking a Vacation.

W. T. Wiles, the popular cashier of the First National bank, of this city, is spending a week out on the farm pitching hay, milking cows and branding stock, after which he will go to Newport and take a bath in the briny deep and imbibe a fresh supply of ozone for the coming months of labor. When Walter gets over where the fish reside we expect the markets will be overstocked as he is a disciple of Izaak Walton from wayback.

In Memoriam.

Mary Ann Skipton was born in Monroe county, Ohio, April 10, 1834, was married to James Ervin Sept. 14, 1857, died June 30, 1898, aged 64 years, 2 months and 20 days.

Her husband died October 10, 1898 since which time she has lived the lonely life of a widow. The children who survive her are Madison, Andrew Jackson and Rapey Mariah Link. One has preceded her to the other shore.

All was done for her that willing hands or loving hearts could do. Death had claimed her as its victim. Her funeral services were held at the house by Rev. T. P. Connor assisted by Rev. Joseph Taylor. The discourses were very impressive, bringing the thought to mind that in the midst of life there is death, and the only safe way is to always be ready for the summons will come. Although she had put off the preparation until a late date, we have no doubt of her now being at rest, as she gave this testimony to friends, that after she moved to herself in her new house she made her peace with God, and was living happy. Her daughter and family visited her on Sunday and she seemed unusually happy and cheerful, and on Monday morning she went about her household duties. She shortly complained of a fearful pain in her head. Her son Jack helped her into bed, where she lay in an unconscious state, breathing very hard and not moving a limb or muscle for four days, when she passed away.

She was followed to her last resting place by loving friends, and buried by the side of her husband in Pleasant Valley cemetery, July 1st. Peace be to her ashes.

In her graves robes calmly sleeping,
Lies our mother, still and cold;
But her spirit angels wafted
To the gentle Shepherd's fold.

Savior grant us each thy blessing,
That when life with us is o'er
We may meet our sainted mother,
On that bright and peaceful skore.

We return heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors who, in their kindness, did so much for us in our great trial of the sickness and death of our dear mother.

A. J. ERVIN.

Memorial Resolution.

A committee of the Benton County Veteran Association, of which Comrade Wyatt was an honored member, adopted the following resolution at a recent meeting:

Resolved, That in the death of Comrade Ezra Wyatt, we have lost a true friend and brother, one who was true to his country, to God, to his friends and family; one whose loss is severely felt by those who knew him best. But we realize that our loss is his eternal gain, and we, therefore, obediently submit to the will of our great Commander, who doeth all things well; and, while we heartily sympathize with his family and intimate friends, we would urge them not to weep as those without hope, but strive to live so that when the call comes to join our comrade on the shores of the bright eternal we will be ready to answer the roll call in heaven and enjoy the eternal presence of God and our comrades who have gone before.

NECESSITY KNOWS NO LAW

Our stock of Men's and Boys' Summer Clothing, Furnishings and Summer Hats must be closed out immediately. Prices is not the consideration, summer is flying and the time is short—we must have room for our new fall stock, which will arrive early. We have made price reductions for this sale that will eclipse all our former efforts.

Stacks of Men's and Summer Suits that sold early in the season at $7.50, $10 and $12.50, every suit a model of general excellence, will be sold at the small prices of $5, $7.50 and $10.
