Mrs. J. R. Hughes scolded one of her feet badly on Wednesday last, caused by accidentally upsetting five gallons of boiling water.

J. B. Irvine has for some time been shipping five crates a day of the Oregon Ever-bearing Strawberries to the Portland market. They command a fancy price.

On the college farm black oats yielded 68 bushels to the acre. No wheat, a new variety, introduced by Professor French, does well on low ground, yielding 30 bushels to the acre.

Mr. Arthur Hope and Miss Bertie Kiger, of Blodgett, were married August 21st by H. Underhill, J. P., at his residence at Summit. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Many vacant dwellings in Albany, could all be rented and occupied if they were in Corvallis. There has been a greater demand here for residents this summer than for several years.

Born—To the wife of Alfred Halderman, August 25, 1898, a daughter. All's clothes are too small for him. In his ecstasy of joy, it is reported he climbed upon the wooden roof and fired a national salute in honor of the event.

One Minute Cough Cure surprises people by its quick action, and children may take it in large quantities without the least danger. It has won for itself the best reputation of any preparation used today for colds, croup, tickling in the throat or obstinate cough. Graham & Wells.

J. H. Aldrich, while going to work on the college farm on his bicycle, in turning a corner the wheels slipped and threw him off and cut the veins in his left wrist on a tin bucket which he was carrying. Dr. Pernot sewed up the wound, but the patient will be compelled to rest for awhile.

The editor of the GAZETTE has had an opportunity of examining the stock offered for sale by Mr. Hale, whose ad appears elsewhere in this paper, and can unhesitatingly say that they are all excellent; in fact, the finest the writer has ever seen. Stockmen will miss a fine opportunity to purchase something in the line of pure-bred stock that does not often occur if they fail to attend this sale.

A. D. Hale, at Sunny View Stock Farm, in Kings Valley, will sell at public auction, September 3, his stock of horses, pure-bred and graded. Red Polled cattle, imported Berkshire hogs and pure-bred hogs (either registered or eligible to register), bronze turkeys, pure-bred Hampshire and Langshan fowls, pure-bred Shropshire lambs, and farming tools and vehicles. Terms of sale, 12 months' time on all sums over $10. This sale will afford a fine opportunity to get good stock at fair prices.

Rev. Isaac Peart and his wife were mistaken for tramps at Minor Swick's a short time ago. In the twilight they called at Mr. Swick's, going to the back door and asking for something to eat just as the family were eating supper. Minor told them to sit down on the porch and when they were through he would bring them something. On closer observation a few minutes later the mistake was discovered. Apologies were made, and a good laugh by all of the parties was enjoyed at Minor's expense.

J. Henry Brown, a widely known Oregon pioneer, died at Portland on Tuesday of last week, of asthma, culminating in consumption, aged 61 years and 12 days. He was born in Wilington, Ill., August 4, 1837, came across the plains in 1847, and settled in Salem, where he made his home until about 1880, when he removed to Portland. He was a printer by trade, and wrote much for the press. Four children and four sisters and half-sisters are the immediate relatives of the deceased now surviving. The children are Frances (Mrs. Frank Batchelor) of Butteville; Nannie (Mrs. Matthews) of Seattle; Eva (Mrs. Lewis) of Georgia, and Charles, a 3-year-old boy. His second wife survives him. His sisters and half-sisters are Mrs. Jane Anderson, of Talsey; Mrs. David Mathewy, of Salem; Mrs. J. Nunan, of Portland; Mrs. Nellie Woodard, of Corvallis; and Miss Nettie Spencer, a Chicago school teacher. Mr. Brown was a man among men, of a spot-

The editor of this paper acknowledges an invitation to the annual reunion of Madison Seminary students at North Madison, Lake county, Ohio, August 30, where in 1864-65 he was a pupil and assistant teacher. Gladly would we be present, but circumstances will not permit.

Miss Blanche Small came near setting her home on fire one evening recently while using a lamp to heat her curling tongs. Had it not been for the timely aid rendered by her mother, who carried the lamp to the door when it exploded, this might have caused a big blaze.

Elizabeth A. Beach left an estate in this and Linn counties valued at $600. Wm. Bogue was named in her will as executor, to serve without bond. The property is to be distributed among her children, Lee, Charles, John, Emma, Lizzie, Minnie Beach, Mary Smith and E. L. Bachman.

Col. Frank J. Parker, the veteran editor and proprietor of the Walla Walla Statesman, called and swapped yarns a few days since. He was in a great hurry to get back to his Elk River ranch in Lincoln county. The colonel has a fine sideboard in his home at the ranch, but did not ask the GAZETTE man to sample its old vintages.

The Christian Endeavorers of the First Christian Church of this place will give a public entertainment in the church edifice, southwest corner Sixth and Madison streets, Friday evening, August 26, beginning at 8 o'clock. Among the many attractions, Dennis Stovall will deliver an original oration on "Heroes of '98." No admission fee charged.

Prof. J. B. Horner and wife have got home after an extended visit in the Eastern states. Their itinerary took in Washington, Philadelphia, Boston, Cambridge, New York and Chicago. They are delighted to get back to the genial climate of Oregon. The professor attended the summer school at Harvard, and took in inspiration at the home of Lowell, Long fellow and Emerson.

Prof. Geo. Coote and wife, Mrs. T. Whitehorn and son, Mrs. Emily Pernot and Miss Gertie Mackay, having saturated the grey matter of their brains with large quantities of phosphorus, painted their complexions nut brown, and developed their muscles climbing the hills around Newport and Nye brook, have returned home, and with new energy will enter upon the duties of the coming year.

The Corvallis & Eastern Railroad will give another of its excursions to the seaside on Sunday, August 28. These excursions are deservedly popular with the business communities through which this line operates. They give those confined to business during the week an opportunity to go to the beach for a day in the heated term. A stroll along the pebbly shore, a cooling and invigorating bath in the surf, a full draught of the sea air, rejuvenates the weary limbs, lengthens life and energizes efforts. "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

In Wednesday's Times was going to the McKenzie on a hunt. It is currently reported that the Times man made a mistake in names, that it should have read, J. H. Roberts, train dispatcher of the C. & E. R. Mr. Roberts naturally feels that he has been slighted, as he had made great preparations for his intended trip, having supplied himself with all kinds of liquid ammunition, bear traps, magazine rapid-firing guns, smokeless powder, etc., besides engaging a six mule team and heavy freight wagon to haul out the trophies of his prowess, which were to establish beyond a question of Horace Scott, of the Second Oregon recruits, has been discharged for disability, and reached home Wednesday, badly dilapidated. Mother's cooking and home scenes will soon revive the young man, and make him as strong as ever, it is hoped.

Life's Work Ended.

All that was mortal of Lewis E. Cooper was consigned to earth in the Newton Cemetery on Tuesday last.

Lewis was the eldest son of Hon. Thomas Cooper, whose home is near this city. He graduated at the O. A. C. in 1896, where he was much esteemed for his sterling qualities.

He was a conscientious student, a gentlemanly Christian companion, possessing in a large degree the moral qualities which elevate and ennoble human character.

The immediate cause of his death was hemorrhage of the lungs, which were never considered strong. His death occurred in Alsea, at the home of Jasper Hayden, early last Monday morning. His grief-stricken family were prostrated over the sudden termination of his young and hopeful life, his father and mother especially so, as they had laid such large plans for their son's future and ambitions, all of which are so sudden a blight, that it is impossible at present for them to become reconciled to the inevitable decrees of Providence.

This young man was born and reared in our midst, where he was a universal favorite. His loss is deeply felt, and the heartfelt sympathy of all go out in loving kindness to his sorrowing parents and family. Who knows but that this life, so full of promise, cut off at 22, has not filled as large a place in the economy of the All-wise One as those who live to greater age?

Columbia Conference.

Bishop E. R. Hixdrix opened the Columbia (M. E. Church South) Conference at 9 a. m. yesterday.

J. L. Jones was elected recording secretary; T. P. Haynes, statistical secretary.

The various committees were appointed for the next quadrennial. The bishop announced the transfer of several preachers to this conference. Several applicants were admitted into the conference. Quite a number of ministers made their reports, and passed the examination as to character. Several were elected to deacons and choir orders. The reports thus far showed that the church had made excellent progress in membership and financial standing.

Rev. Dr. Wilson, of San Francisco; Rev. Isaac Peart, of this city, and Rev. Kantner, of Salem, were introduced to the conference, and witnessed its deliberations.

The bishop preached last night.

Catarh Cured. A clear head and sweet breath secured by Shiloh's Catarh Remedy, sold on a guarantee. National Injector free. Sold by Graham & Wells.

Sunday Train.

Purdy Bros. have been successful in getting a large number of signers to the petition. Asking the S. P. to run a Sunday train to Corvallis. If numbers have any influence the train will certainly be put on. It would be a great convenience in many ways, but whether the advantage would be sufficient to overcome the disinclination of the company to provide this extra service, is a question.

Certain it is if it can be demonstrated to the officials of the company that such a train will be sufficiently patronized to make it pay, we shall get it.

For broken surfaces, sores, insect bites, burns, skin diseases, and especially piles, there is one reliable remedy, Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. When you call for Dr. Witt's don't accept counterfeits or frauds. You will not be disappointed with Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Graham & Wells.

Kickapoo.

The Kickapoo Medicine Company will close its engagement here on next Wednesday evening, August 31st. All those who wish to avail themselves of their liberal offers will have to do so before that date. Large crowds fill the opera house nightly. No one should fail to investigate the Kickapoo Indian remedies, the most wonderful remedies that the world has ever known.

Zierolf, the grocer, wants all his customers to call and examine his warranted pure American Food Products.

When you call for Dr. Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure, don't accept anything else. Don't be talked into accepting a substitute for piles, for sores, for burns. Graham & Wells.

Tired people are tired because they have exhausted their strength. The only way for them to get strong is to eat proper food.

But eating is not all. Strength comes from food, after digestion. Digestion is made easy with Shaker Digestive Cordial.

People who get too tired, die. Life is strength. Food is the maker of strength. Food is not food until it is digested.

Tired, pale, thin, exhausted, sick sufferers from indigestion, can be cured by the use of Shaker Digestive Cordial.

It will revive their spent energies, refresh and invigorate them, create new courage, endurance and strength, all by helping their stomachs to digest their food.

It aids nature, and this is the best of it. It gives immediate relief and, with perseverance, permanently cures.

Sold by druggists. Trial bottle 10 cents.

Excursion to Newport.

The Corvallis & Eastern Railroad Co. will give another one of their popular excursions on Sunday, August 28th, from Albany to Newport and return. Fare, Albany, Corvallis and Philomath, $1.50. Points west, usual rates. Train leaves Albany 7 a. m., Corvallis 7:30 a. m., Philomath 7:45; arrives at Yaquina 10:45 a. m. Returning, leaves Newport 10:30 p. m. E. W. STONE, Manager.

Your Face.

Shows the state of your feelings and the state of your health as well. Impure blood makes itself apparent in a pale and sallow complexion, Pimples and skin eruptions. If you are feeling weak and worn out and do not have a healthy appearance you should try Acker's Blood Purifier. It cures all blood diseases where cheap Sarsaparilla and so-called purifiers fail; knowing this we sell every bottle on a positive guarantee. Graham & Wells.

Gen. Greely's 278 Days of Death.

The true story of those 278 days of suffering by Greely's heroic little band of explorers in the Arctic region has been told by General Greely himself, for the first time, for the October Ladies' Home Journal. For years General Greely has kept an unbroken silence about his fearful experience and that of his companions, as they dropped dead one by one at his side, and it was only after the greatest persuasion that the famous explorer was induced to write the story.
