Mr. Barrett replied that, while he could have no official influence regarding tle status of the matter, he was satisfed that a document which represented the sentiments of the Filipinos would receive at the hands of the Americans all the consideration it merited. Now, after months of campaigning, the Filipinos troops have been ordered beyond the suburbs, where they have no quarters, and where supplies are difficult to obtain. All our launches have been seized because of foolish rumors that we would attack the Americans, and when we asked explanations we were not even answered. The Spaniards, of late the enemies of the Americans, have been shown every consideration, while the Filipinos, their friends and allies,

After asserting that the Filipinos uniformly acted upon the advice of the Americans and were informally recognized by them until Manila was cap tured, the memorial goes on to say: "We can only attribute this sudden change to orders from Washington to American officials at Manila to avoid compromising the American government by a recognition of the Filipinos or their government. The Americans are carrying out these instructions literally, losing sight of the former friendly intercourse and assistance and of the assurance the American officials gave

After emphasizing the junta's "absolute confidence in President McKinley and the people of the great republic. stating that "our protests are not prompted by animosity, but are directed against conditions existing at Manila, and not against the American government and people," acknowledging "our gratiude to American arms for destroying the Spanish power in the Philippines," and expressing "a hope that the islands are not to be returned to Spain," the memorial conclude

"We await the arbitrament of the peace commission with even greater interest than the Americans, because it concerns our land, our happiness and our freedom. In the meantime we shall pray for peace and a perfect understanding with the Americans."

SEQUEL TO A SEA TRAGEDY. Andersen, the Olive Pecker Murderer,

Washington, Nov. 16 .- The United States supreme court has affirmed the judgment of the lower court and denied writ of habeas corpus to John Andersen, convicted and sentenced to be hanged after his trial in Norfolk, Va. for the murder of the mate of the Olive

The schooner Olive Pecker sailed from Boston, laden with lumber, for a point on the Platte river, Brazil. When 150 miles off the coast of Brazil, Andersen, a Swede, had an altercation with the captain. When the latter retired to the cabin, Andersen followed and shot the captain dead. He then armed himself heavily and went on deck, where, mounted on the forecastle, he terrorized all on board. The mate, who was aloft, was called down, and while pleading for his life, was shot four times. Then the crew were ordered to throw the dying mate overboard, and on protesting that he was not dead, were assured that he was "dead enough." This done, the crew were marched below at the point of a pistol and ordered to throw the captain overboard. Then Andersen directed that oil be thrown over the lumber. after which the oil-soaked ship was set afire and the murderous crew took to

He was tried and convicted in the United States court at Norfolk, Va., and a stubborn fight was made up to the supreme court, the conviction being confirmed. The last move was in the present application for a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that Andersen's constitutional rights were invaded when the lower court assigned him counsel instead of giving him his own choice. Chief Justice Fuller, in announcing the court's decision, said the records of the case showed that no fundamental right had been denied Andersen, but that he had been represented from first to last by able counsel. The time when counsel was not present was at a preliminary hearing of Andersen, but this was not used in the subsequent trial. The decision of the lower court was affirmed. The effect of this will be to have the execution, which had been stayed until December 9 next, carried futiny Among Spanish Soldiers in Puerto Principe. Washington, Nov. 15. - Adjutant-General Corbin received a dispatch today announcing that the Eighth cavalry sailed this morning from Savannah for Puerto Principe, Cuba. The regiment will be the American garrison at Puer-

Arrangements have been bishop Gross' death at St. Joseph's made by the Spanish authorities to hospital today was not wholly unexpected, but it was thought he might numbering 9,500 men, upon the arrival pected they wo Thursday, bu has arisen an They are on the very of mutiny, open ly declaring they will not return to pay, now far in arrears, for service in Cuba. The mutiny extends not only to the enlisted men but to their officers, and is directed against the executive officials of the government on the island. Some of the men have not been paid for nearly a year, and to all of them several months of pay is due. The situation has created no particular concern in the minds of the American authorities, as it is not likely seriously to affect the control of that portion of the island by the American forces; but it is realized that these 9,500 soldiers, if they should persist in their refusal to return to Spain, might become dependents whom it would be difficult to care for, and ultimately, perhaps, a menace to good government in the island. The Spanish authorities express no fear of their ability to solve the problem presented, but how they will solve it if the men, backed by their officers, absolutely refuse to return home without their pay is not clear. REDUCED TO ASHES.
