evening Hon. H. H. Gilfry of Salem delivered at the Baptist Church the fourth lecture of the Library course, baving for his subject, "The Tombs of Buried Cities." .The house was well filled with an attentive and appreciative audience. Mr. Gillry's lecture was decidedly the best of the course. and one of the most interesting we have ever listened to. The subject is a prolific one and the lecture showed an extensive research into its mysterious depths by a mind capable of comprehending its importance. 'He carried his hearers to the ruins of the once magnificient cities of the old world and exhumed from the buried heaps many inter- becomes a part of the hotel property, and esting facts, and showing that there are gives the hotel about fifty rooms, those in ruins even in America that may some day the brick being hard finished and finely offer up hidden treasures to throw light up- fornished. on its earliest history. This was, we believe, Mr. Gilfry's first attempt in the lecture field and he acquitted himself with credit.

ARRESTED .- On Tuesday evening Deputy Sheriff Hogan of Douglas county arrested at this place Geo. W. Ritter, who is charged with baving absconded from Wyoming with about eleven thousand dollars. The prisoper stated that he was county treasurer and also county judge, and that only the charge of detalcation could be sustained against him, as he had none of the money when he left there. His accounts showed that the amount mentioned was lacking, he did not explain how. He received the day after his arrest a telegraphic bill of exchange for $100 currency from his son at Laramie. He was taken south on Wednesday. One worth's Drug Store. thousand dollars was offered for his arrest.

Cartwright, Crow, Long Tom, Chesher and Franklin leave Eugene City on Monday and arrive on Wednesday. The mail matter on this route has about doubled within the past two years, and maliciously inclined persons pretend to say that the reason for this is that there are now two men on Long Tom that can read.

BOOKS WANTED .- The Eugene Library Association will make an inventory of property within two weeks, and all books and periodicals must be returned by the middle of March. Patrons will please notice and comply with necessary requirement.

THE NEXT .- The next lecture of the Library course will be delivered at the Court House on Friday evening next, 17th inst., by ex-Gov. Whiteaker on "Vagrant Thoughts on Unsettled Questions." We bespeak for him a full house.

SOLD OUT .- Mr. Issac Senders, of the firm of Sternbery & Senders, dealers in general merchandise, Junction, has sold out to Mr. Wachenheimer, and the firm will be Steroberg & Washenbeimer.
