

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1876. EUGENE CITY, OREGON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress: L. F. LANE, Of Douglas County. For Presidential Electors: HENRY KLIPPEL, of Jackson. E. A. CRONIN, of Multnomah. W. B. LASWELL, of Grant.

SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

For Judge: J. M. THOMPSON, Of Lane. For Prosecuting Attorney: S. H. HAZARD, Of Coos.

LANE COUNTY TICKET.

For State Senator: JOHN WHITEAKER. For Representatives: A. D. BURTON, A. J. CRUZAN, E. P. REDFORD, R. B. HAYES. For County Judge: J. J. WALTON, Jr. For County Commissioners: J. E. HOLT, C. T. HALE. For Clerk: J. P. CURRAN. For Sheriff: JOHN STEWART. For Treasurer: JOHN G. DAY. For Assessor: GEO. W. KINSEY. For School Superintendent: J. C. BOLAN. For Surveyor: G. R. HAMMERSLY. For Coroner: WM. OWSLEY.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

The candidates on the Democratic ticket for Lane county will meet their fellow-citizens to discuss the issues dividing the two parties at the following times and places, to-wit:

- Smithfield, Monday, May 29th. Junction, Tuesday, " 30th. Cottage Grove, Thursday, June 1st. Creswell, Friday, June 2d. Eugene, Saturday, June 3d. The opposing candidates are invited to be present and divide time.

On consultation of the candidates of both parties it was thought the above appointments would better subservise the interests of the people than to make appointments in each precinct, on account of the very busy time among farmers. If there is any place not named above where the people would like public speaking, the candidates would be pleased to meet the people by invitation.

THE JUDGESHIP.

There seems to be no doubt of the election of Hon. John M. Thompson as Judge of the Second Judicial District on the 5th day of June next notwithstanding the fact that a number of so-called Democrats in Douglas county have been laboring to get a third candidate in the field. The secret of this attempt is that the movers are interested in a wagon road in Douglas county which is in litigation, and it is feared that if Judge Thompson is elevated to the bench he will decide the case according to the law and evidence, and will mete out equal and exact justice to all. This they do not want, and they know from his record and standing that they would be unable to influence his decision by anything in their power to offer him. On the other hand, in Mr. Watson, the Republican candidate, they would find a willing tool, one who would not be at all squeamish about fixing things for his friends—if he could turn an honest (?) penny for himself at the same time. These men who are interested in this road have been very busy ever since the nomination circulating the report that the Democrats of Douglas county were going to run Hon. John Burnett anyway. They have sent messengers into the remote parts of Lane and Benton counties with this story, and the chief conspirator has himself gone to the coast counties to endeavor to divide the Democratic vote. Democrats in particular should be informed of this trick, and all good citizens who think that the people have rights which are bound to be respected even when they conflict with the claims of that synonym of fraud, the average Oregon "wagon road," should look at the matter in its true light. Judge Thompson is not pledged for or against any measure, while Mr. Watson is.

Gen. Joseph Lane delivered a Democratic speech at Roseburg on Saturday, the 14th inst. It is said that he has enlisted for the Centennial political campaign, and that he will speak in quite a number of places.

On the 18th of July M. M. Pomeroy, better known as "Brick," will commence at Chicago the publication of a campaign paper to be called The Great Campaign. He gives notice that unless the Democratic party nominates a greenback candidate on a greenback platform, he will oppose the nominee, and of course help the present horde of dishonest officials to retain their power four years longer, at the end of which time there will be nothing left to steal. There is, of course no doubt but when this threat shall reach the ears of the St. Louis Convention that body will make all haste to comply with the demands of Mr. Pomeroy. To make the whole thing more lovely that great financier and statesman should demand that he be made the nominee.

The Sunday Welcome says: Ben Holladay is expected by the last of this month or some time during the next. Whatever may be Mr. Holladay's faults no one can deny his having been of great service in aiding Oregon's prosperity. It is high time to stop printing such stuff about the mountebank who undertook to build a railroad through Oregon to connect with another road at the California line and squandered money to build the whole line while constructing 200 miles of it, in carrying Oregon for the political party with which he deemed it most to his interest to affiliate. Instead of having been of great service to the State he has retarded its growth and hindered its prosperity by making a most reprehensible failure of what responsible men for the same remuneration would have prosecuted to a successful end. Give us a rest on Holladay's 'service.'

It is said that theiggardly Diplomatic and Consular Appropriation bill passes the Senate as it left the House, the President will veto it, and will, if necessary, let the entire service go for years, recall all our Ministers and Consuls, and so disgust the people of the country with Democratic reform that a majority of that party would never again occupy seats in the House of Representatives.

This item is being industriously circulated by the Radical, late Grant, organs, and it furnishes a first-class illustration of the difficulties that beset the Democratic House of Representatives in its efforts for reform. Rather than consolidate certain missions, doing away with unnecessary ones, and thereby displacing some of Grant's relatives, that expounder of the Constitution will let the entire service go to destruction. It is a fair exhibit of the prevailing Radical policy.

That cantata of sixty lines written for the Centennial was such miserable stuff that when the New York Tribune published it, it occupied about one hundred and twenty lines in apologizing for its infliction on its readers.

The Topeka, Kansas, Commonwealth, an intensely "loyal" paper, is troubled because the Democracy will have no candidate at St. Louis. Perhaps it would be well for this Topeka man to go in with Brick Pomeroy. Between them they could probably run the convention to their complete satisfaction.

The late Republican Convention of this State was a facetious body. It resolved—

That the best interest of all citizens of every condition and pursuit imperatively demand the speediest return to a specie basis of values and currency, and we hail with gratification the act of a Republican Congress definitely providing for that end.

A Republican Congress tinkered for ten years to figure the way out of our financial difficulty, and at the end of its exercise the country was in no better condition than at the beginning. That "act" is really a cause for gratification.

The Logic of Figures.

The New York Bulletin gives the following mathematical expression of the villainies practiced in the country:

Table with 2 columns: Taxes in 1860, Federal, State and City; Taxes in 1875, partly estimated. Values: $164,200,000 and $485,800,000.

Increase in total of all taxes, 315 per cent. Increase in National population, 43 per cent. This tells the whole story. There is nothing so eloquent as these passionless statistics. The effect of this enormous increase of our burden is this logically set forth by the above journal:

- 1. It is driving capital out of the country. 2. It is shutting out foreign labor. 3. It is pauperizing our working population. 4. It is consolidating aristocratic tendencies.

The Ohio Democratic party has engaged itself as a wet-nurse for the rag baby.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

WASHINGTON, May 17, 1876.

The Republicans in the Senate refuse to agree to any of the retrenchments proposed by the Democrats in the House. Each one of the minor appropriation bills sent to them has been amended up to the estimates made by the Departments. The excuse is that "the House is crippling the public service." This is mere cant and intended for campaign purposes. The republican orators will say: "Look! The ex-Confederates controlled the House; they refused to appropriate sufficient money to run the government because they hate it." With these and the indiscreet utterances of a few men they will reconstruct the rebellion, and clothing it in Morton's bloody shirt, will endeavor to arouse sectional prejudices to such a heat that they, with all their proven thievery and corruption, will once more be put in power. This is their only hope. No party could withstand the disclosures made by the House committees, which show every department of the Government to be as corrupt as was that which finally resulted in the French revolution, which show that the departments only differ in the degree of corruption, as rotten carcasses differ in their smells according to the degree of their rottenness. The Republicans see this; and it appears to them as the hand writing on the wall did to the disolute king of Babylon, only no Daniel is required to interpret the "Mene, Mene, Tekel uphar-sin." Its meaning is plain—so plain that "he who runs may read, and even a fool may understand." And every effort will be made by these wily politicians to avert the portended fate. They will use every effort to change the issue from the frands and corruption, from the thievery and jobbery, which have marked their eight years of power by diatribes about disloyalty; by howling "the rebellion is not ended;" by frantic shrieks that "the rebels are seeking to gain power;" by pathetic appeals about their own loyalty and by their assertions as to how they saved the Union. In this way they hope to escape the well-merited doom which consigns them to privacy and restores the Government to the hands of men who believe in the doctrines and will follow the practices of the Democratic founders. But the American people are not fools. They will not allow themselves to be led astray by such shallow devices. They will do what the founders of the Government intended they should do, that is, hold their unfaithful servants to a strict account for their malversations; no one who reads the signs of the times with judgment can fail to see that the people demand, and will have, a radical reform. Common sense shows that this can only be obtained through Democratic success and a complete overhaling of the party which has been so long in power that it has become corrupt from center to circumference. As the people have common sense, the result will be that if the Democratic party is true to itself and to its principles, and does not wander off after strange gods, as in 1872, but selects from amongst the bright galaxy of leaders some man who is recognized as a Democrat from principle and by practice that man will be the next President of the United States. That is the only danger threatening the Democratic party today. Some of the same restless spirits who de-vised the folly which resulted in such an inglorious defeat in 1872 are still in the field, engaged in a similar work. They have called a meeting to be held in New York on the 10th of May, from which another Grecian horse may be introduced into the now impregnable Democratic Troy, with the same results as followed when the stratagem of Ulysses was adopted on the Asian coast. Democrats should remember that these men are all Republicans and are presumably laboring for the advancement of that party; and Democrats should let them severely alone.

Judge Carter has decided affirmatively as to the relevancy of the habeas corpus to the case of Kibourn and he has been turned over to the criminal court for trial; what action the House will take, if any, I will not venture to predict; but if it should fail to act, and thus virtually consent that its authority should be set at naught by any one interested in secreting and abetting thieves, investigations may as well cease at once; for by such a course the House puts it out of its power to compel a witness to answer questions propounded by its committees.

Belknap appears one of the most unmoved spectators of his trial to be found among the crowds that every afternoon fill the galleries and corridors of the Senate chamber. In the fight over the appropriation bills between the House and Senate neither party shows a sign of yielding, and the prospects for an early adjournment are not flattering. Many predict that the first of August will still find Congress here.

It is said that since the Belknap and Babcock exposures the President has fallen into his old habits and lingers long at the wine-cap. Remove is a terrible avenger. If the President has not got beyond his reach through hardness of heart, he may yet be induced to give up for punishment the many official thieves still surrounding him.

DEM. EUROPEAN CROPS. Late mail advices from Europe show a generally satisfactory condition of the Continental crops. In France, with a few exceptions, which are not important, the wheat fields give excellent promise. In Hungary the crops make an excellent appearance, and vegetation is making vigorous progress, but some apprehension is felt about the possible ravages of certain bugs, this being the quadrennial insect year. In Holland, abundant crops are expected; the condition of Winter wheat is satisfactory, and Spring sowing, though late, has been completed under favorable circumstances. In Great Britain, in the Northern counties, the weather has been cold and wet. Spring sowing has been effected under unfavorable conditions.

DEM. The World's Washington special says the indications are the Senate will decide, by nearly a party vote, that it has no jurisdiction in Belknap's case. Conkling and Cameron are working hard for that decision, but Edmunds opposes it.

DEM. The committee of arrangements met in the Senate chamber at Salem, Saturday, May 13th, at 2 P. M. Mrs. J. F. Miller presiding, and the following members being present: Mrs. J. F. Miller, Mrs. John Minto, Mrs. S. A. Clark, Mrs. B. H. Bowman, Miss Clara Watt, Miss Marie E. Smith and John W. Minto. On motion, J. A. Baker was added to the committee.

Chas. E. Bray, of Portland, was authorized to furnish a band of music for the occasion, and on motion Pete Emerson and Martin & Co. were authorized to open restaurants on the ground, the charges per meal being limited to 50 cents each.

Misses Clara Watt, and Marie E. Smith, Hon. S. P. Chadwick and C. M. Cartwright were appointed the committee on finance.

The following committees were appointed on the annual ball: Honorary committee—Hons. M. P. Deady, of Portland; L. F. Grover, Salem; J. R. Bayley, Corvallis; Henry Conn, Sr., Roseburg; Col. John McCracken and Capt. A. P. Ankey, Portland; Capt. Medorum Crawford, Lafayette; also Hon. J. W. Nesmith, Dixie; Hon. J. C. Tolman, Hon. Henry Kippel and Col. C. C. Beckman, Jacksonville; John Hudson, Esq., Astoria, and Hon. O. S. Savage, of the Dalles.

Floor Managers—Dr. J. B. Lee, Corvallis; Gen. Mart V. Brown, Albany; D. H. Looney, Jefferson; Ben. Strang and John W. Minto, Salem; Walter S. Moss, Oakland; Ed. Taylor, Astoria. Hon. George L. Curry, Portland.

Reception committee—Eli Livingstone, Roseburg; E. F. Thompson, Freeport. W. T. Byron Grim, Aurora; W. S. Eakin, Eugene; J. R. Herren, Albany; T. C. Geer, Butteville; Dan. H. Murphy, Salem.

On motion the sale of all intoxicating drinks on the ground was prohibited. The committee then adjourned to meet at the same place Saturday, May 25th, at two o'clock P. M.

MRS. J. F. MILLER, President. J. HENRY BROWN, Secretary. The "Sun" on the Centennial. The Sun says: Grant read his speech, and his reading was in an artistic and captivating manner; and to cap all a man fell in a fit during the reading, and in the confusion nobody could hear. Out of doors much of the walking had to be done in the mud; many of the fences had not been removed and on every hand there was a lack of completeness; the restaurants were inadequate, and everything was eaten before a fourth of the demand had been supplied. There is a strong probability the exhibition will open on Sundays. The soldiers are a mere caricature and only fit to serve in a burlesque. Wagner's march was a dead failure.

OREGON.

A donation party for the Methodist minister at Forest Grove netted $84. There has been 23 buildings commenced so far this year in Albany, principally dwellings.

W. D. Hexter, of Forest Grove, has sold his fine span of horses to Mr. Hamilton for $600. This span of horses took the first premium at the State fair last year.

Taylor Reins' boy, on Gales' creek, Washington county, got a gravel in his ear last week. Every effort to extract the same was unavailing. It is feared that the boy will die on account of it.

A committee was appointed by the McMinnville Grange, on the 6th, to make preliminary arrangements for a grand county celebration, on the Fourth of July, 1876, in some part of Yamhill county.

A boat was launched at Corvallis a few days ago, which will be taken down through the locks at Oregon City, on down the Willamette and Columbia, across the bar, and around to Yaquina bay.

The Washington county Independent says: "The State Republican ticket gives general satisfaction to Republicans, while the Democratic nominees are praised by all of that faith. Indications point to a strict party vote for State officers."

An Cantrell, of Benton county, last week sold the fleece from his flock of Angora goats, aggregating near 1,600 pounds of very fine mohair, which will bring the owner a nice little sum. The yield of wool is equal in weight to that from sheep, and more valuable.

The petitions circulated in Coos and Douglas counties for increase of mail service from Empire City to Roseburg, six times per week, have been forwarded by J. B. Underwood, special postal agent, to the second assistant Postmaster General, with a strong recommendation that said increased mail service be ordered.

Mr. J. Henry Brown, of Salem, secretary of the Pioneer Association, is having the badges, to be worn by the members at their next reunion, printed. The material is white silk ribbon, and the badge will be a very neat affair. These badges will serve as return tickets for all members of the Association, while visitors will probably be furnished with a certificate entitling them to a free passage home.

The East Oregonian quotes prices for stock in Umatilla county as follows: Brood mares, full American, $125; geldings, 16 hands high, broke, $100; geldings, 15 hands high, broke, $75; geldings 15 hands high, unbroke, $65; geldings, 14 hands high, unbroke, $50; stock cows, with calves, $11; without calves, $10; dairy cows, without calves, $15; dairy cows, with calves, $18. Steers—yearling, $6; two years old, $8; three years old, $12; four years old, $18. Sheep, mutton, $1.75.

River and Harbor Appropriation Bill.

From the River and Harbor Appropriation Bill as it passed the U. S. House of Representatives, April 10th 1876, we take the following:

For the improvement of the Lower Willamette and Columbia rivers from Portland to the sea, $15,000.

For the improvement of the Upper Willamette river, Oregon, $15,000.

For the improvement of the Upper Columbia including Snake river $15,000.

For the construction of a canal around the Cascades of the Columbia river in the State of Oregon, $50,000.

Surveys are ordered in the bill to be made of Coos Bay and Coquille river, Oregon.

On April 10th this bill was read twice in the U. S. Senate and referred to the Committee on Commerce.

A Times special dated Summit, Miss., says information was received here last night of a row between the negroes and whites at Laural Hill, West Feliciana parish, near the Mississippi line. On Friday night about thirty negroes went to the store of a white man in the vicinity and called him to the door and riddled him with bullets. A posse from Bayou Sara went out Saturday for the body. The negroes would not give it up and a fight ensued and three negroes were killed. Two white men are missing. The negroes are gathered together and 1,100 are said to be in arms. The whites are going down from the neighboring counties into Mississippi. A serious fight is expected.

Dr. Sage's Casarrh Remedy is NO PATENT MEDICINE HUMBLED, got up to dupe the ignorant and credulous, nor is it represented as being "composed of rare and precious substances brought from the four corners of the earth, carried seven times across the Great Desert of Sahara on the backs of fourteen camels, and brought across the Atlantic Ocean on two ships." It is a simple, mild, soothing remedy, a perfect Specific for Catarrh and "Cold in the Head," also for Offensive Breath, Loss or Impairment of the Sense of Smell, Taste, or Hearing, Watery or Wk Eyes, Pain or Pressure in the Head, when caused, as they all not unfrequently are, by the violence of the Catarrh.

AN AGENT is wanted in every county for Frank Leslie's Newspapers and Magazines, the oldest established Illustrated Periodicals in America. They are now first offered to canvassers, who will, if they secure an agency and exclusive territory, be enabled to introduce Seventeen First-class Illustrated Periodicals, suited to as many distinct tastes or wants, and, with the choice from Eight new and beautiful chromos, given free of cost to each annual subscriber, be enabled to secure one or more subscriptions in every family in their district. To skillful canvassers this will secure permanent employment, and the renewals each year will be a source of steady and assured revenue. Specimen papers and liberal terms sent to all applicants who name the territory they desire to canvass. Address, Agency Department, Frank Leslie's Publishing House, 537 Pearl Street, New York.

TO HOUSEKEEPERS.—Among those who have used the household remedy, FOND'S EXTRACT, scarcely a family can be found in which it is not the rule to keep it constantly on hand. The one difficulty is that it is so valuable in relieving and curing in almost every accident a family is subjected to that the medicine is often exhausted when an urgent and sudden use for it arises. It is economical as to price, and important for the greater security of having it when suddenly needed to buy the largest size at $1.75. This bottle contains five and one-half times as much as the 50c. size.
