The man acted so strangely—was so nervous and easily excited, and Thoroughly remodeled, renovated and replenished went off so abruptly, that Mr. Riddle was suspicious, and finally came to the conclusion CINIDAL MIDPULATION. that the man was evidently no other than Lewis, the murderer This conclusion once arrived at, Mr. Riddle was not long in remembering that the description given of Lowis described his man exactly and he immediately wrote to the sheriff to announce the fact.

The Flood.

Dalles Mountaineer, June 24th : We are now having one of the most disastrous floods that has ever been known in this country, exceeding the great flood of the summer of 1862 by over two feet. The damage to our town cannot now be estimated, but we should not be surprised if it exceeded fifty thousand dollars. The water has reached the crosswalk at the corner of Sec and and Washington streets, and on Court street it has reached to the crosswalk of Pants Goods, Third street. The appearance of the inundated portion of our city beggars description, and can only be comprehended by being seen. The depth of water on Front CALL AND SEE MY STOCK street is sufficient to float the largest sized steamboats.

The following extract is from the Oregon Churchman : It is often said that the water of 62 was the highest ever known by any white inhabitant of the country. There are, however, several persons living on the north bank of the Columbia, near Vancouver, formerly connected with the Hudson Bay Company of that place, who affirm that nearly lorty years ago they witnessed the water some oight or ten feet higher than it was in '62.

2d It is Cheaper because of its simplicity and dreability, and will outlast several Wooden Mills 3d. It is Less Complicated, because there is only three pieces of operating machinery.

4th. It is more powerful than any other Mill, on account of the thin 'an, and consequent increased suction of air, and because it is operated by an eccentric, being far superior to the crank shaft or rest pin, as a lifting and falling power. 5th. It needs no care, no watching, havi g self-feeding oil caps and self-regulating vales. It regulates, protects and takes care of itself.

6th. It never warps, shrinks, or swells, hence it is not light to get out of order. Once up, it goes all right.
