CITY AND COUNTY.

The Journal of last week republishes an item from the issue of this paper of July 1st, directing the attention of the grand jury to certain matters, and adds:

By request we republish the above item and give the questions asked by J. F. Yates, who made the application in person and by letter to the Guard, and was refused: "Who are the parties referred to, or, if that be unreasonable, who is the author of the above item; so that he may make known his reasons for so doing. If any such state of things exist, the people of Irving desire to know it, so that justice may be done, not intending to shield anyone. Justice will not be meted, if the author knows of any such cases and remains silent thereby throwing discredit upon the entire community for allowing such a thing in their midst."

The person above referred to, Mr. J. C. Yates, applied to the editor of the Guard and was given the names of the parties accused of adultery, rape, incest, or whatever it may be, but was refused the name of our informant. Mr. Yates intimated that he knew before his conversation with the editor who the parties were and knew of the existence of the facts as set forth, but seems to think the people generally in that neighborhood are slandered by the publication. The "author" of the item, whom he so much desires to know, commended the matter to the attention of the grand jury, and will, we doubt not, aid them as much as is in his power to bring the parties to justice. And we say freely that we had in the item no reference to Mr. Yates. This at least clears him of connection with the matter. We should never have thought it necessary to thus put in a disclaimer for him, but for his own solicitude in the premises.

TAKEN HOME.—The President's car was taken South on Monday and on Wednesday Conductor Stroud was taken to his home in Portland. Mr. R. Kohler, vice president of the road, who went to the scene of the accident in company with Dr. Sharples, gives the following details of the injured: "Mrs. Philbrook, one of the passengers, had her collar-bone broken, but no further injury of any kind could be discovered either by Dr. Sharples or by the attending physician, Dr. Cozard, of Oakland. She is gradually recovering, and it is confidently expected that she will be in a condition to be removed to her home at Oakland, Oregon, by the middle of next week. Mr. Mart Taylor's child did not receive any serious injury. The report that its jaw was broken is incorrect. Mrs. Taylor and her child left on yesterday for Wilbur, their place of destination. Mr. Stroud, our conductor, was not internally injured. He was, however, severely bruised, but has so far recovered from the effects of his injuries as to be able to return to Portland."

STANDING REWARD.—Sheriff Eakin has received from Mr. John J. Valentine, General Superintendent of Wells Fargo & Co. on this coast, notice that the Company offers a standing reward of $300 for the arrest and conviction of each person engaged in robbing the company's express and treasure boxes on any route in the States of Nevada and Oregon and the Territories of Montana, Idaho, Utah and Washington.

CIRCS COMING.—The Italian Circus, which is now in Eastern Oregon, will return to California overland, and will probably show in this place some time during the coming week. It is well spoken of by the papers below.

Brief Mention.

P. F. Castleman is giving the people of Benton county lessons in horse breaking and training.

The body of Mr. Waud's son, who was drowned near Portland during the high water, has not been recovered.

The Astorian wants Phil Wyman, late of Eugene, to remit $5, and make his whereabouts known. Phil has gone to Arizona.

All the old locomotives on the east side road are being repaired, and will ere long be pressed into the service to work in the harvest.

Dr. G. C. Harris was in town during the week. He says he has come to Oregon to remain, but has not yet decided at what point in the State he will locate.

Mr. Tibbets, station agent at this place, has been ordered by the Company not to receive silver in sums over five dollars in payment of freight bills, except at current rates of discount.

S. B. Gale, brother of the Jales well known in newspaper circles in Oregon, and who is in the same business himself in Pennsylvania, has spent several months in this State, and will return to his old home in a short time. Mr. Gale represents a large colony, and will probably return and settle permanently with us. He takes some specimens of hay and grain back with him to show to the people of the East.

The collegiate year for 1876-77 of the Willamette University will commence the first Monday in September next, with the following corps of teachers: T. M. Gatch, President and Professor of Mental and Moral Philosophy; L. J. Powell, Professor of Mathematics and Natural Science; Emily Shattuck, Preceptress and teacher of Modern Languages; Ellen J. Chamberlin, teacher in Academic Department; Blanche G. Patterson, teacher of Instrumental Music. The rates of tuition range from $8 to $13 per term.

We commend those who have occasion to visit Salem to take up their abode with Thos. Smith, at the Chocoma Hotel. You cannot possibly do better, and the chances are decidedly against finding a place in the city where you will be as well taken care of.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.—During the past two weeks strenuous efforts have been made to raise a sufficient sum of money to clear off the indebtedness of the State University building, so that it could be turned over to the State and a school commenced, the canvassers have met with good success, the amount yet to be raised being but about twelve hundred dollars. In this connection we may mention an item in the Journal of last week that was able to convey the impression that Messrs. Scott and Holt had paid of the Douglas and Van Alstain lien on the building. They simply became responsible as individuals for its payment, the amount being about $4,200, in order to release the building; the debt was only transferred from one party to another. Of the sum however, Mr. Holt gave one thousand dollars. It is confidently expected that the remaining sum will be raised during this coming week, the building turned over to the State authorities and school begun early in September.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.—Mr. Rowland, State School Superintendent, gives notice that the State Board of Examination will hold an adjourned session during the State Teachers' Institute, to be held in Salem, on the 23rd, 24th and 25th of next August, when applicants for Life Diplomas, State Diplomas and State Certificates may undergo the required examination.

1. Candidates for Life Diplomas and State Diplomas, must present to the Board satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and of marked success in teaching for a period of three years, of which at least one year must have been in Oregon, and must pass acceptable examinations in all the studies prescribed for a county certificate, and in the following in addition: General History, Algebra, Geometry, Composition, English Literature, Book-keeping, Physiology, Natural Philosophy, Theory and Practice of Teaching, Constitution of the United States and Constitution and School Law of the State of Oregon. To obtain a Life Diploma, a candidate must answer correctly at least 90 per cent. of all the questions; and to obtain a State Diploma, he must answer correctly at least 75 per cent. of the questions.

2. Candidates for State Certificates, of the first and second grades, must present to the Board satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and of success in teaching, for a period of six months, and must pass creditable examinations in the branches required for a County Certificate, and in the following in addition: Algebra, Book-keeping, Physiology, Theory and Practice of Teaching, and Constitution and School Law of the State of Oregon. To obtain a certificate of the first grade, good for two years, a candidate must answer correctly at least 90 per cent. of all the questions asked him; and, to obtain a certificate of the second grade, good for six months, he must answer correctly at least 75 per cent. of the questions.

CHANGED HANDS.—Mathew Wallis has bought the Whitney & Atterbury warehouse at the depot, and it is being repaired and improved.

The west pier of the bridge is completed and the erection of the false work was begun yesterday morning.

The proceedings of the Teachers' Institute, which has been in session at the Methodist church during the week, were received too late to be available for this issue.

ALF. BURNETT COMING.—Under date of San Francisco, July 20th, Mr. Alf. Burnett writes the Oregonian that he contemplates paying Oregon a professional visit soon. Mr. Burnett enjoys the reputation of being one of the greatest facial artists and character personators of the age, and is spoken of in complimentary terms by the press generally. He will be accompanied by Miss Helen Nash, a talented and versatile poetic reader, and Mr. Percy Williams, the musical joker. Dan C. Waldron, who visited this city last year with the Albanians, (bell ringers) is manager.

The beef crop this season is over average in quality, and Becker & Boyd seem to have had the choice of the lot if the roasts and steaks supplied by them are to be judged from.

Wheat is lower now in Liverpool than it has been for years.

The Portland celebration cost $14,692 69.

WOOD.—We will take forty cords, more or less, on subscription or accounts due this

SHERMAN & HYDE'S COLUMN

Never before in the history of piano forte manufacture has an instrument risen so rapidly in popular favor.

Its intrinsic merit and decided superiority over all others has caused every musician and artist of note to adopt and recommend it.

Nilson says: I shall take every opportunity to recommend and praise your instruments.

Miss Kellogg says: Your Pianos are my choice for the concert room and for my own house.

Lucca says: Your uprights are extraordinary instruments, and deserve their great popularity.

Patti says: I have used the pianos of every celebrated maker, but give yours the preference over all.

Strass says: Your Pianos astonish me. I have never seen any pianos which equal yours.

Wells says: Madame Parpa called your Pianos the finest in the United States. I fully endorse that opinion. They have no rival.
