

mainly rely on; a judicious system of public economies and of official retrenchments, and above all, on the promotion of prosperity in all the industries of the people. I do not understand the repeal of the resumption clause of the act of 1875 to be a backward step in our return to specie payments, but on the recovery of a false step, and although the repeal may for a time be prevented, yet the determination of the Democratic party on the subject has been declared, and there should be no hindrances put in the way of return to specie payments, as such hindrance. Says the platform of the St. Louis convention, we denounce the resumption clause of the act of 1875, and demand its repeal. I thoroughly believe by public economy, by official retrenchments and by wise finance enabling us to accumulate precious metals, resumption at an early day is possible without producing artificial scarcity of the currency or disturbing public or commercial credit, and that these reforms together with the restoration of pure government will restore general confidence, encourage useful investments of capital, furnish employment to labor, and relieve the country of the paralysis of hard times. With the industries of the people there have been frequent interferences, many industries have been impoverished to subsidize a few; our commerce has been degraded to an inferior position on the high seas; manufactures have been diminished; agriculture has been embarrassed, and the distress of the industrial classes demand that the laws shall be reformed. The burdens of the people must also be lightened by a great change in our system of public expenses. Profligate expenditures which increase taxation $5 per capita in 1860 to $18 in 1870 tells its own story of its pressing need of reform. Our treaties with foreign powers should also be revised and amended in so far as they leave citizens of foreign birth in any particular less secure in any country on earth than they would be if they had been born on our own soil; and the iniquitous coolie system, which through the agency of wealthy companies imports Chinese bondsmen and establishes a species of slavery and interferes with the just rewards of labor on our Pacific Coast, should be utterly abolished. In the reform of our civil service, I most heartily endorse that section in the platform which declares that the civil service ought not to be subject to change at every election and that it ought not to be made the brief reward of party zeal, but it ought to be the award for competency and held for fidelity in public employ. I hope never again to see civil and remorseless proscription for political opinion which has disgraced the administration for the last eight years. Bad as civil service now is, as we all know, it has some elements of integrity and proved ability. Such men only should be retained in office; but no man should be retained on any consideration who has prostituted his office to the purpose of partisan intimidation or compulsion, or who has furnished money to corrupt elections. This is done and has been done in almost every country. It is a blight upon the morals of the country and ought to be reformed. In respect to the common schools I have only this to say, that in my judgment the man or party that would involve our schools in political or sectarian controversy is an enemy to the schools—the man or party having charge of schools must be no sectarian nor partisan, and there must be neither division or misappropriations of the funds for their support. Likewise I regard the men who would advise or foster sectional animosities and antagonisms among his countrymen as a dangerous enemy to his country. All people must be made to feel and to know that once more the established purpose and policy under which all citizens, of every condition, race and color, will be secured in the enjoyment of whatever rights the constitution and the laws declare or recognize, and that in the controversies that may arise the government is not a partisan, but within its constitutional authority, the just and powerful guardian of all. Strife between races and sections will cease as soon as the power for evil is taken away from the party who make political gain of acts of violence and bloodshed and the constitutional authority is placed in the hands of those whose political welfare refuses that peace and good order shall be preserved. Everywhere, it will be seen, gentlemen, that I am in entire accord with the platform of the convention by which I have been nominated as candidate for office of Vice President of the United States. Permit me, in conclusion, to express my satisfaction at being associated with the candidate for Presidency, who is first among his equals as the representative of the spirit of achievements of reform. In his official career as executive of the great State of New York, he has in a comparatively short record reformed the public service and reduced the public burden so as to have earned at once the gratitude of his State and the admiration of the country. The people know him to be thoroughly in earnest. He has shown himself to be possessed of powers which fit him in an eminent degree for the great work of reform of which this country now needs, and it shall be chosen by the people to the high office of President, I believe that the day of his inauguration will be the beginning of a new era of peace, purity and prosperity in all departments of our government.

I am, gentlemen, your obedient servant,
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS.
To the Hon. J. A. McClelland, chairman, and others of committee.

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.
SATURDAY, AUG. 13, 1876.
EUGENE CITY, OREGON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.
For President,
SAMUEL J. TILDEN,
Of New York.
For Vice President,
THOS. A. HENDRICKS,
Of Indiana.
For Congress:
L. F. LANE,
Of Douglas County.
For Presidential Electors:
HENRY KLIPPEL, of Jackson.
E. A. CRONIN, of Multnomah.
W. B. LASWELL, of Grant.

HAYES' administration has cost Ohio $5,000,000 more than that of Allen. Tilden's administration has cost New York $50,000,000 less than Dix. Hayes is a Radical profligate; Tilden is a Democratic reformer. Which does the taxpayer prefer?

A Skeleton.
Centennial Dix, who has either been in office or hunting an office ever since about the year 1812, has issued an address to the "soldiers and sailors who served in the Union army and navy during the late war," requiring them to form an army of "Boys in Blue," in regiments, brigades, divisions and corps, with uniform of caps, capes and torches. Garfield, of Credit Mobilier fame, is one of Dix's co-signers to this address, with about a dozen others of the same sort. This is one of the last dodges of the Republican party to try and arouse an enthusiasm, and is very similar to the one adopted by that party in 1860, when it was preparing to force a war on the country, and every hamlet in the North had its "Wide-Awake Club," the same which held meetings two or three times in each week and went through a regular military drill, which was wound up by a procession through the streets. It won then, but it will never win again; the people of to-day, especially the young men, are not to be caught as they were then by sounding brass and bombastic speeches, nor will it arouse the feeling of sectional strife of those days. The people of the North and South are better acquainted than they were then, and there is not even the ghost of a Southern institution that can be held up as an object to be put down "peaceably if we can, forcibly if we must." The only thing now in existence in the United States that even the most hidebound of all the Northern fanatics can seize on as an enemy of good government is the vast army of office-holders, and they will join the blue corps, and their faces will wear the color of their uniforms in November.

Telegraphic advices of the 8th show that in the election of last Monday in Kentucky the Democrats made decided gains all over the State. Henry Watterson was elected to Congress from the Louisville district by 14,000 to 500 for his opponent. Returns from Alabama show that State to have gone Democratic by 30,000 majority.

If Gov. Tilden's administration has lessened the expense of the New York State government $50,000,000, what would he reduce the expense of the National Government? If Gov. Hayes has increased the expense of the Ohio State government $5,000,000, how much would he increase the cost of the National Government? These are questions for the tax-payers to answer.

Our neighbor the Guard and the Portland Standard effect to believe that the telegraphic press dispatches are made up in the interest of the Republican party. For their benefit we take the following from the San Francisco Bulletin an independent journal:—Journal.

Mr. Simonton, one of the chief owners of the Bulletin, is the manager of the concern which furnishes the Associated Press telegrams. No further guarantee of the "independence" of that paper on this subject is needed.

From private letters we learn that some pre-historic relics have been exhumed in the vicinity of Colfax, W. T., being the bones and horn of some extinct animal of huge proportions, it we may judge the size by the horn, which is about ten feet in length, and in a good state of preservation. The bones fell to pieces on being exposed to the light. These remains with one horn indicate that the animal was a unicorn. Similar remains and a huge horn were found in Polk county some years ago; so report said.

The New York Herald says that while the friends of Hays are making a canvass upon the platform of civil service reform, the President shows his respect for that policy by removing from office every man who had any part in the punishment of the whiskey thieves, every friend of Bristow and Jewell. We have yet to hear the first protest from the republican Senators as to this course. The country may say that the party's real purpose is better seen in the acts of Grant than the promises of Hayes. It looks now as if the second Washington was bent upon having a democratic successor.

DAVE THOMPSON has run his career as Governor of Idaho, and now retires to the classic shades of the big Willamette. The Walla Walla Statesman thinks the idea of making a governor out of such material as Dave Thompson could only have originated with the present administration, and is another illustration of Grant's unfitness to conduct the affairs of the government.

Every laboring man, every thinking man and every taxpayer, Democrat or Republican, should read the letter of Mr. Tilden. Each and every one can learn something of the causes of the unfortunate financial condition of our country to-day. Read it carefully and then go back and read that of Rutherford Hayes Cameron, Mr. Tilden's will not suffer in the comparison.

CHANGE.—Mr. A. Noltner has bought the Evening Journal of Portland and changed the name to the Standard. He is making of the Standard a live, newswy paper.

The Chicago Courier says the New York Evening Post and the Cincinnati Volksblatt are supporting Hayes and Wheeler, but William Cullen Bryant and Park Godwin, who have supplied the brains and respectability of the Post, and Frederick Hassaurek, who has made the Volksblatt what it is, are all supporting Tilden and Hendricks.

Trenor W. Park, the Emma Mine "gouger" who seduced Minister Schenck, is stamping for Hayes in Vermont. Reform on the inside.

OREGON.
Small pox has entirely disappeared from Oswego.
Salem mills pay 65 cents per bushel for old wheat.
A new foundry was started at Baker City last week.
The Astoria telegraph line is in perfect working order.
Machinery for a new fruit dryer has arrived in Roseburg.
The grain crop in the Rogue river valley will be light this year.
Drain has a new flouring mill, depot, two hotels and a post office.
Bullard's Creek will probably be the county seat of Lake county.
The proposed water ditch to Independence will be surveyed after harvest.
Threshing is nearly finished in Jackson county. The grain crop is light.
A Jones of Douglas county sheared 4,500 pounds of wool from 470 ewes.
The wool clip of J. Frazier, of Wasco county, amounted to 63,130 pounds.
James Welsh, of Gardiner, had his hand terribly cut by a buzz saw last week.
A Mrs. Wheeler and her two sons were drowned in the North Umpqua last week.
The steamship G. W. Elder is expected to arrive in Portland about September 1st.
A Miss Morris of North Yamhill broke her arm in two places by falling off a log recently.
Mike McCormick was killed at Astoria on Sunday last. His wife did the deed, it is supposed.
Dogs killed 14 sheep for Mr. Brooks near Hillsboro last week. The dogs were killed in turn.
Two Indians who are encamped near Scottsburg, last week killed five fine elk in one day.
A China house at Albany burned down last Sunday night and came near setting fire to Backinost's planing mills.
W. B. Osborne, who several weeks since had his leg amputated above the knee, on account of a white swelling, died near Shedd on the 6th.
Seven boys were fined $5 each in the Salem police court last Saturday, for a wanton assault on an offensive Chinaman. The Mercury thinks they were rightly awarded.
A little daughter of James Edwards, of Sodalville, while jumping over a smoldering pile of sawdust at Lebanon, on the 2d, fell into it, roasting her feet and legs so severely that her toe nails fell off.
Capt. Harry Wade, in digging a pit for a dry dock across the river from Gardiner, found an iron pot about eight feet from the surface. It was almost entirely eaten away by the rust, but it was a positive proof of an early civilization.
Thomas Baldry, formerly a stage driver between Corvallis and Junction City, died last week at Dallas, after a short illness. Some six weeks ago he was afflicted with a vicious boil on his upper lip, in which he took cold, superinducing erysipelas, from the effects of which he died, as stated above.
The Grange at Shedd station passed the following resolution at their last meeting: Resolved, That the Willamette river and locks at falls the rightful property of the State of Oregon, and that any attempt to monopolize or obstruct its navigation, should be resisted by law and legislation, and if necessary by physical force.
The Box of Wednesday says: "The small pox scare in East Portland, which created such intense excitement, turns out, after all the fuss, to be only a case of measles aggravated by excessive drink. The patient is nearly well and is able to sit up and eat. He is visited daily by friends who now laugh at their fears. So that we have had but one case of small-pox, or rather a mild form of varioloid, and he is now convalescent. Our country friends can rest assured that there is no danger to be apprehended in visiting the city."
In the remote possibility of Hayes' election might we not suggest the following as an appropriate cabinet?
Secretary of State—Hipple Mitchell, of Oregon.
Secretary of War—Oliver P. Morton, of Arkansas.
Secretary of the Navy—Boss Tweed, of the High Seas.
Secretary of the Treasury—Hon. Jacob Rehn, of Illinois.
Secretary of the Interior—Billy McKee, of Missouri.
Postmaster General—Boss Shepard, of District of Columbia.
Attorney General—A. Y. Moses, of South Carolina.
Wool.—We will take forty cords, more or less, on subscription or accounts due this office.

TERMS OF NEWS.
Ex-Governor Woods, of Oregon, has been invited to stump Ohio.
Harrison accepts the Republican nomination for Governor of Indiana.
McKee of crooked whiskey fame, is breaking down under confinement.
The New York banks are very anxious to secure silver for small change.
Horatio Seymour declines to run for Governor of the State of New York.
The fast mail trains between New York and Chicago will probably be re-established.
Hon. Benjamin Harrison has been nominated by the Republicans for Governor of Indiana.
The World praises the letter heartily for its vigor, straightforward, practicable and unaffected tones.
Ordway has accounted satisfactorily to the real estate pool committee for all expenditures made by him.
The economies of the House will necessitate the consolidation of the different Indian agents under one agent.
Two hundred barrels of "crooked" were seized in Kentucky last week, leading to the belief of the existence of a Ring.
Boutwell's Mississippi report comes to the conclusion that the present Legislature was elected by fraud and intimidation, and is not therefore a legal body.
Lane on the 5th, introduced a bill to reimburse A. P. Jones and others for money deposited in the Portland government depository for surveys in Oregon.
An official call has been issued for proposals of five per cent. bonds of 1881, amounting to 2,160,000 to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to pay the Alabama claims.
The New York Evening Post speaks of Governor Tilden's letter as very able, showing patient study and large experience, and of Governor Hendrick's views of civil service as just.
The World claims that the Tilden-Hendricks letters dissipate any fears as to the temper in which these leaders go into the contest; that though they differ in form, as their temperaments differ in substance and spirit, they are one.
The bill passed through the House by Representative Lane to reimburse Oregon and California for Modoc war expenditures, is pending in the Senate. It appropriates $70,000 for Oregon, and not the merely insignificant sum of $7,000, as transformed by telegraphic error.
The bill introduced by Boutwell on the 5th, provides for the creation of a commission, to consist of three Senators and three members of the House of Representatives, and three persons appointed by the President of the United States, to consider the expediency of issuing a silver dollar, and making the same a legal tender. Their conclusions are to be reported to Congress at the next session. The bill proposes to appropriate $10,000 to defray their personal expenses while engaged in the investigation.

POLITICAL NOTES.
The respectable Republicans will give $100,000 for a copy of one of the reform speeches made by Mr. Hayes while in Congress.—Courier-Journal.
Even Mr. Sherman was forced to acknowledge on the floor of the Senate that Samuel J. Tilden is a vigorous and efficient reformer. The people know this some time ago.
Schuyler Colfax is making speeches for Hayes, and just as soon as McDonald and Joyce get out of prison they'll commence organizing Hayes clubs.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
"If the Democrats nominate Tilden and the Republicans do not nominate Bristow, then we will support Mr. Tilden," was the pledge of the New York Conference. And don't you forget it.—Buffalo Courier.
Senator Morton characterizes the retrenchment policy of the House as "demagoguery of the first magnitude." It happens, however, to be a kind of "demagoguery" which meets with the warm approval of the people.—Courier-Journal.
The gentlemen who are so anxious to see in every Democratic nomination a "Rebel" victory were doubtless displeased because General Phelps, a Union soldier was nominated for Governor of Missouri. They would rather have had a "Rebel."—Burlington Gazette.
History repeats itself. In 1776 the people had to fight the taxation imposed by the British monarchy. In 1876 they have to fight the taxation imposed by Radical tyranny. The only difference is in the mode of fighting. It was ballots in 1776—ballots in 1876.—Portland Post.
A good many Republicans doubt the propriety of plunging into a national canvass with such a fragrant character as Zach Chandler at the head of the National committee. Chandler is good enough for Secretary of the Interior, but he is not moral enough to assess office-holders and bribe voters, we presume.

Another Opportunity for the Relief of the Afflicted.
The Surgeons of the National Surgical Institute, located in Indianapolis; Pacific Division, Alhambra Building, Bush Street, San Francisco, have yielded to the many urgent appeals from their patrons and friends in Oregon and Washington Territories and adjoining regions to visit Portland. The former visit was highly satisfactory and encouraging, many of the patients then accepted for treatment being now entirely cured, while nearly all are greatly benefited and in a fair way of recovery. Three or more of the Surgeons will be at the Cosmopolitan Hotel in Portland, Oregon, from Monday, the 28th day of August, until Saturday, the 2d September, 1876, six days inclusive. They will have with them a great amount of surgical apparatus, appliances, etc., and competent assistants and workmen to change, fit, and make such apparatus as may be required. They will come especially prepared to treat all surgical cases: Paralysis, all kinds of Deformities of the Face, Spine and Limbs, Dislocated Joints, Damaged Eyes, Cataract, Private Diseases, Piles, Fistula, etc. All who wish to avail themselves of the advantages of the Institute, without the long journey to San Francisco or Indianapolis, should do so at this time. No cases will be undertaken without a fair hope of relief. It is needless to say the Institute is entirely responsible, and the largest and most popular of the kind in America, curing thousands annually. Remember the time and place, and come early. Send to the Institute for circular.
