REPUBLICAN ORATORS declare, in their campaign speeches, that not one dollar of public money has ever been stolen by their public officers. Singular is it not? Just take up a file of any newspaper for the past ten years and look over it, and you can find almost weekly accounts of absconding officials; swindling con tractors and defaulting government agents. To hire a contractor to perform twenty five dollars worth of work and then draw three hundred dollars from the Treasury to pay him, is not considered stealing by Republican office-holders-who never account for the other two hundred and seventy five dollars. In this way government agents become wealthy and honest (?).

Stephen A. Hurlbut of Illinois-"Mississippi has been lost to freedom and bayonets and negro votes.

IF THE UNION has been restored for the past eleven years-it slavery was abolished by the war and if equal stitutional amendments years ago, why does Grant send the army into Union? Either the war did not save the Union or Republican officials are usurping power and acting under false pretenses.

How would the voters of Lane county like to see a few "colored troops" stationed among them on election day to prevent "intimidation." That is just what is now done in some of the Southern States-and just what may yet be done in Oregon, if the Republican party retains control of the general government.

There is no law requiring such action, and there is no power conferred on any one by the Constitution to interfere in the election in a State; each State has sole control of its elections and any interference by the General Government or other States is illegal and revolutionary.

WHEN MILITARY interference beprinciples it was pleaded by Radical very great blessing to the people. officials that such military interference was not strictly legal-but necvasion of a State or States is right.

THE CAMPAIGN DOCUMENTS Sent out by the Republican managers teem with expressions of honesty and reform. Now if Grant's administrasay it is, no reform is neccessary-and if reform is needed, then Grants' adthey can.

IF THE REPUBLICAN party has been honest and economical, as its leaders attempt to prove, then why does it pledge itself to reform-what has become of the money-and how does it happen that its officials all become wealthy on small (?) salaries.

IF A NEGRO desperado is lynched in the South all the powers of the Government are invoked to punish his murderers and all the eloquence of Radicalism is exerted to show how important the life and liberty of an American citizen is; yet most of us can remember when those same powers of Government and that same Radical eloquence were exercised to force unoffending citizens from their homes to fill the "Old Capital," Fort tions. Warren, Alcatraz and other forts with "prisoners of State." But those prisoners of State were white men and their crimes were-well they were never known.

IN THE CAMPAIGN speeches of Morton, Boutwell and other Radical lights, in Congress, reference is made to the "Democratic Rebellion" just as if it had been inaugurated by the According to the opinion of Hon. > IF ALL DEMOCRATS are traitors, as Morton, Boutwell and Garfield intimate they are, then let them unite on Tilden and Hendricks, just to show the Radicals that there is a majority of traitors taxed to support their probibit the further immigration of Chinese Government.

IF Gov. HAYES is as good a man as he is represented by the Republican managers-we cannot see why Kilpatrick should write to him about 'corruption funds" in Indiana, or why Hipple Mitchell, Landaulet Williams, O. P. Morton, Grant, Zach Chandler, Cameron and the New York Times should support him.
