

How They Vote in Louisiana.

From the New Orleans Democrat. The Lafourche Union now claims about 250 majority for the Radical party in Lafourche parish.

Notwithstanding the names of these fugitives, convicts, and dead men had been given to A. M. Ledet, Supervisor, for the purpose of being erased, he, instead of erasing them, issued certificates of registration, bearing the numbers of the above certificates to some of the Radical voters for the purpose of repeating with them.

This was why the attempt to establish polls in the plantation quarters was made; this was why the location of the polls was kept hid from the public until twenty-four hours before the election; this was why the Supervisor refused to appoint one commissioner, recommended by the Central Democratic Committee, for each poll to which they were entitled; this was why the Supervisor refused to send stationery, tally sheets, &c., that the law required, to the polls expected to give Democratic majorities; this was why the Radicals bullies went about the country threatening to kill any colored man who would dare to vote the Democratic ticket; this was why the Supervisor refused to permit the United States Supervisor to examine the printed registration lists, which permission the law granted him; this was why the Supervisor refused to strike off the lists the names of about a dozen voters residing in the parish of Assumption whom he had falsely registered; this was why the Supervisor located commissioners of the Democratic party at the polls as far from their residences as they could be placed; and this was why the polls advertised to be placed at Allen's warehouse was located in his plantation quarters, three miles off from any public road.

Public Sentiment.

From the Mercury. The Radical managers and Federal office-holders of this State are busily engaged in the attempt to manufacture public sentiment against Governor Grover and Secretary Chadwick over their action in the Electoral matter. They are holding indignation meetings, hanging and burning in effigy, etc. This outcry against officials who have done no greater sin than to follow the law and the Constitution, will recoil upon the individual actors and the party they represent. Already we have received the assurance that the Governor and Secretary are sustained and endorsed by a large proportion of the people of this State. Our correspondent from Lane County writes us that the Democracy of that county express a hearty approval of their action. A gentleman from Clackamas County informs us that the sterling Democracy of that county are, on every hand, outspoken in their approval of the course pursued by the Executive and Secretary. The same cheering assurance comes from Polk County and other localities. In this city and Marion County generally, numbers of Democrats who have for a number of years been disaffected with the Governor, because of some of his political acts, now speak up in hearty approval of his action. Besides these, we hear of many Republicans who say that he has simply done his duty under the Constitution and the laws, that he could not have acted differently and received the commendation of his party and of the conservative and law-abiding masses of the people. The fact is apparent to all unprejudiced minds that Governor Grover and Secretary Chadwick have simply performed their sworn duty, and time will soon prove that public sentiment views it in that light and endorses their action.

PATRICK HENRY'S PROPHECY.

A Warning Uttered in the Virginia Convention on the Adoption of the Constitution.

From the Rochester Union and Advertiser. Do not the words of Patrick Henry in the Virginia Convention on the adoption of the Constitution of 1788 have especial significance at this time? "Your President may easily become King. Your Senate is so imperfectly constructed that your dearest rights may be sacrificed by what may be a small majority; and a very small minority may continue forever unchangedly this Government although horribly defective. Where are your checks in this Government? Your strong holds will be in the hands of your enemies. It is on the supposition that your American Governor shall be honest that all the good qualities of the Government are founded, but its perfect and imperfect construction puts it in their power to perpetrate the worst of mischiefs should they be bad men. And, sir, would not all the world blame our distracted folly in resting our rights upon the contingency of our rulers being good or bad? Show me that age and country, where the rights and liberties of the people were placed on the chance of their rulers being good men, without a consequent loss of liberty, I say that the loss of that dearest privilege has ever followed, with absolute certainty, every such mad attempt. If your American Chief be a man of ambition and abilities, how easy will it be for him to render himself absolute? The army is in his hands, and if he be a man of address it will be attached to him, and it will be the subject of long meditation with him to seize the first auspicious moment to accomplish his design. And, sir, will the American spirit solely relieve you when this happens? I would rather have a King, Lords and Commons, than a government so replete with such insupportable evils. If we make a King, we may prescribe the rules by which he shall rule his people; but the President in the field, at the head of his army, can prescribe the terms on which he shall reign master, so far that it will puzzle any American even to get his neck from under the galling yoke!"

Cowardly Assault.

When a candidate for high office is so well liked and so popular with the masses as to make his defeat difficult in a fair and honorable fight, mean and cowardly men are not wanting who delight in manufacturing lies and slandering his good name. There are also those whose selfishness prompts them to prostitute their honor, pervert truth, and ignore right, for the sake of injuring a competitor in business, whose prosperity they envy, and with whose business sagacity they have not the talent to successfully compete in an honorable way. These thoughts are suggested by the mean, cowardly attacks made upon me and my medicines, by those who imagine their pecuniary prospects injured by the great popularity which my standard medicines have acquired, and the continual growth of my professional practice. Narrow-minded practitioners of medicine, and manufacturers of preparations which do not possess sufficient merit to successfully compete for popular favor, have resorted to such cowardly strategy as to publish all sorts of ridiculous reports about the composition of my medicines. Almanacs, "Receipt Books," and other pamphlets are issued and scattered broadcast over land, wherein these contemptible knaves publish pretended analysis of my medicines, and receipts for making them. Some of these publications are given high-sounding names, pretend to be issued by respectable men of education and position, for the good of the people—the more completely to blind the reader to the real object in their circulation, which is to injure the sale of my medicines. "The Popular Health Almanac" is the high-sounding name of one of these publications, which contains bogus receipts, without a grain of truth in them. Not less devoid of truth are those which have been published by one Dr. L., of Detroit, in the Michigan Farmer, and by other manufacturers of medicines, in several so-called journals of Pharmacy. They are all prompted by jealousy and utterly fail in accomplishing the object of their authors, for, notwithstanding their free circulation, my medicines continue to sell more largely than any others manufactured in this country, and are constantly increasing in sale despite the base lies concocted and circulated by such knaves. The people find that these medicines possess genuine merit, accomplish what their manufacturer claims for them, and are not the vile, poisonous nostrums which jealous, narrow-minded physicians and sneaking compounders of competing medicines represent them to be. Among the large number of pretended analysis published, it is a significant fact that no two have been at all conclusively proving the dishonesty of their authors. It is enough for the people to know that while thousands, yes, I may truthfully say millions, have taken my medicines and have been cured, no one has ever received injury from their use.

Troops and Money.

On the day after the election Zach Chandler sent the following telegram to Gov. Stearns of Florida: WASHINGTON, November 8, 1876. To Gov. M. L. Stearns—Florida to be made Republican. Troop and money will be furnished. Z. CHANDLER. The operator through whose hands this dispatch passed was inane to enough to reveal its contents, and was summarily dismissed; but the dispatch stands as the expression of the purpose of the Administration and the means by which it was intended to thwart the popular will as expressed through the ballot-box.

POLITICAL FIREWORKS.

Some Facts and Figures as to the Cost of Political Fire-Works and Processions. (Illustrated Weekly.) When it is remembered that both of the two great factions hold numerous meetings every week in the large cities during a political canvass, it will not seem strange that very extensive pyrotechnic attractions are noticed to attract the thousands of people required to make the gathering sufficiently large and imposing—imposing often in a double sense. With what Roman candles, sky-rockets, parachute rockets, revolving rockets, "illumination floral bomb shells," "campaign salute shells," "mines of stars and serpents," "denoting cannon salutes," "silver fountains," colored fires, and the hundred other designs which go to make up a first class display, the cost of a political meeting nowadays is considerable. These fire works vary in price from $3 to $18 a dozen, and twelve dozen do not go very far.

The largest outlays on fire works of course occur in years of Presidential elections. Of late years the expenditure, even at those important seasons, has decreased considerably. Very extravagant displays were made in New York under the Tweed regime. In 1868, for example, the Democrats spent $10,000 on fire works for one procession. The largest amount spent this year on a single occasion was $4,000, expended on the great Democratic torch-light procession in New York, last Thursday evening. The Democrats in this city have not devoted much more than $10,000 to all their parades during this campaign, and the Radicals have expended little more than $5,000.

But the cost of fire works only represents a portion of the net outlay for political processions. Every man in line with a cap, cape and torch represents an expenditure of $1.25, so that a parade of 30,000 men will cost about $37,500 for equipments alone. In the 40,000,000 of our population there are probably more than 10,000,000 boys and men capable of marching in these pageants. If, in the course of a Presidential campaign, one individual in every twenty of these 10,000,000—and this is a moderate estimate—takes part in a procession of this kind, the expenditure for torches and uniforms would reach $625,000. And if to this we add the cost of fire works, the total would probably reach $2,000,000. Competition has sensibly decreased the once large profit realized off the manufacture of fireworks. The goods are manufactured in the suburbs of New York and at Greenville N. J. Ordinary fire crackers, which are produced exclusively in China, are the only fireworks imported. The price of these is largely enhanced by the duty ($1 in gold) imposed by the Customhouse on every box brought into this country. There are six large dealers in fire works in New York, with an invested capital of $200,000, who ship goods to all parts of the country for political clubs and for 4th of July celebrations.

Great improvement has been made of late in the manufacture of fire works. Most of them are now made by machinery only recently introduced, and many new varieties have lately been put upon the market. America is considered to lead the world, excepting only China, in pyrotechnical science. Mrs. Partington was inspired to learn that the boys fit for college before they can enter. "Then they don't have to fight after they get there," replied the good dame. "They fight with their heads," said her informant. "Then they are butters," she reflectively remarked.
