hands of one of her playmates. During the night the jaw swelled and the next morning and for several days she was unable to open her mouth. The swelling extended to both hides, the throat became sore, and an abscess formed which broke on the inside. On Tues-Hay morning she was talking to her mother, when her head fell over and she passed dway without a struggle. She bore her sufferings like a martyr, making no complaint. While no one feels that any blame attaches to the innocent cause of this sad affair, it should be a warning to children to exercise caution in their sports.

Robago .- The Standard is our authority for saying that the Wilton troupe met with a heavy loss in Linn county on Tuesday evening. While the treasurer was star gazing some one with an eye to the main chance stole the cash box containing between $$00 and $1,000.

POSTAL CHANGE .- Dispatches of last Monday announce that Geo. A. Steel, Chairman of the State Central Republican Committee, has been appointed Postal Agent to succeed J. B. Underwood. It is surmised that Ben has not paid his assessments promptly. The Standard says of the change:

Mitchell had Geo. A: Steele, Chairman of the Republican Committee of this State, summoned before the Senate Committee to tell what he knew about the electoral vote. If he said anything of importance, the tele If he said anything of importance, the subject. But graph failed to inform us on the subject. But the result of his mission to Washington was crowned with success. He got an office, which we presume was really the reason Mitchell sent for him. He has received his reward for his services in the shape of being appointed Special Postal Agent. This will cause another scramble for the post office among the faithful in this place, as it was generally supposed that he was to get that position, and it will soothe the fluttering bo-som for awhile of the excupants of the Marshal's office, as a compromise was reported by which Postmaster Cole was to retain his by which Postmaster Cole was to retain an position. Waters go out in the cold and Steele take his place. The family affairs of the Radical party are being peacefully settled, and Mitchell's faithful will all be provided for in case Hayes gets counted in. After the 4th of March, George A. will have a chance to take a walk. It is glory, though it be short, and Ben. will have the consolution that the career of his Radical successor is to be of limited duration.

WEATHER. - The weather during the past week has been such that even the most inveterate grumbler could not complain. The days have been bright and pleasant, with the mercury ranging at from 26" to 40" above zero.

1877. NEW YORK. 1877. The different editions of the Sun during the mext year will be the same as during the year that has just passed. The daily edition will on weak days be a sheet of four parses, and on Sundays a sheet of eight parses, or 56 broad columns; while the weakly edition will be a sheet of the same dimensions and character that are already familiar to our friends. The Sun will continue to be this stremmons advocate of reform and retrenchment, and in-term will continue to be this stremmons advocate of reform and retrenchment, and in-regity for hollow pretence, imbedilty, and fraud in the administration of public affairs. It will contend for the government of the people by the people and for the people; as opposed to government by frauds in the built box and in the counting of votes, enforced by military vio-lence. It will endeavor to supply its readers— a body now not far from a milion of souls— with the most careful, complete, and trust-worthy accounts of current events, and will will be full, accurate, and fearies; and it will outsities continue to deserve and enjoy the harded these who thrive by plandering the Treasury or by usurping what the law does not give them, whill it will endeavor formerit the autive of those who thrive by plandering the Treasury or by usurping what the law does not give them, whill it will endeavor formerit the autive of the public by defending the rights I the people against the encreachments of un-entine of the faily Sunt will be 55 cents as sundary edition $0.70, a year.

The price of the daily Sun will be 50 cents a month or 86.50 a year, post paid, or with the Sunday edition 87.70, a year. The Sunday edition alone, eight pages, $1.20 a year, post paid. The Weekly Sun, eight pages of 56 broad columns, will be furfished during 1877 at the sub of 2 a year tout raid

The Weekly cut, sight bage to be headed columns, will be furthshed during 1877 at the rate of $1 a year, post paid. This benefit of this large feduction from the previous rate for The Weekly can be enjoyed by individual subserbers without the necessity of making up clubs. At the same time, if any, of our friends choose to aid in extending our circulation, we shall be grateful to them, and every such person who sends us ten or more, subacribers from one place will be entitled to one copy of the paper for himself without charge. At one dollar a year, post paid, the expenses of paper and printing are barely repaid; and, considering the size of the sheet and the quality of its contents, we are confident the peo-ple will consider The Weekly Sun the cheapest newspaper published in the world, and we trust also one of the very best.
