

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

EUGENE CITY, OREGON. SATURDAY, MAR. 17, 1877.

A National Address.

A caucus of the Democratic members of the House of Representatives was held on the 3d of March and an address to the American people unanimously adopted. It is lengthy, which is its chief merit—if it has any. It is generally expected that Democratic papers will publish such documents. We omit this, however, for the reason that we do not regard a body of men who allow themselves to be gulled as the late House of Representatives did, as competent to put forth an address that will impart chunks of wisdom to the "American people." They may acknowledge that they made asses of themselves but no outpouring of posthumous wisdom will shorten their ears or convert their voice into anything other than a bray.

An Educational Qualification.

The Connecticut Legislature has refused to propose a constitutional amendment requiring an educational qualification for voting. This the Sacramento Record regards as a step in the wrong direction. It considers the franchise as a "power to which no man can establish an equitable claim who is incapable of demonstrating his ability to use it intelligently. There is no such thing as an inalienable right to vote. Manhood suffrage, save where the whole community is educated, is detrimental to the best interests of the State. It is a concession of power to the incompetent and unqualified which involves a positive injury and wrong to the competent and qualified. An educational qualification, however, to be effective, should be more than a mere test of the ability to read and write. It should embrace an inquiry into the candidate's understanding of the form of government he lives under." The Record may be right, or it may be wrong. But right or wrong it would be a death blow to the Republican party to attempt to make and enforce such laws in all the States. The poor negro on whose ignorance the Republican party has existed and waxed fat would no longer be a factor in political things.

The Sacramento Record still barks at the heels of Gov. Grover.

If Mr. Grover belonged to the party of great moral ideas the Record would never condemn any crime in him—at least it does not have a word to say against Hipple-Mitchell, whose crimes are the one festering sore that makes Oregon a stench in the nostrils of honest men.

His Majority.

The Chicago Journal, a conspicuous Republican paper gives the following statement of the popular vote of the United States at the election of last November:

Table with 2 columns: Candidate and Votes. Includes Tilden, Democrat (4,296,187), Hayes, Republican (4,042,979), Cooper, Greenbacker (78,809), Smith, Liquor Prohibitionist (6,000). Total: 8,614,635.

According to these figures Mr. Tilden's majority over Mr. Hayes is 248,108, and his majority over all three of his competitors is 163,739.

Hung on to the last.

Hayes is one of those who never let go an office willingly. He only telegraphed his resignation as governor of Ohio after he was sworn in President.

Twelve Thousand U. S. Marshals.

In the Senate on the 13th inst. the President pro tem. presented a communication from the Attorney-General in reply to the resolution of the Senate of December 12, adopted on motion of Mr. Bayard, directing him to communicate the information in regard to the employment of deputy Marshals throughout the United States in connection with the election held on the 7th of November last. The Attorney-General says that the number of marshals appointed in Alabama was 120, with 125 voting precincts. In Arkansas, Eastern District 785, with 381 precincts; Western District 214, with 16 counties. In California 244, with 56 precincts. In Delaware 135, with 10 precincts. In Florida, northern district, 745, with 19 counties. In Georgia, northern district, 153, in one county; southern district, 52 in one county. In Illinois, northern district, 113 in 81 counties. In Louisiana, 540 in 120 precincts. In Maryland, 1,222 in 115 precincts. In Massachusetts, 177 in 25 counties. In Mississippi, northern district, 239 in 65 counties. In Missouri, southern district, 1,078 in 90 voting places. In New Jersey, 244 in 66 precincts. In New York, 3,565 in 895 precincts. In North Carolina, 176 in 176 precincts. In Pennsylvania, 347 in 327 precincts. In South Carolina, 338 in 17 precincts. In Texas, one to each precinct.

NEWS ITEMS.

The Cabinet members have all been sworn in.

Senator Edmunds is very ill and intends going to Florida.

Indiana will have a new State House worth $2,000,000.

Frederick W. Seward is the new Assistant Secretary of State.

An action on Kellogg's case this session is extremely doubtful.

Federal officers in California will probably retain their positions.

Hayes will change some of the Federal appointments in Louisiana.

Hayes is anxious to build up a Whig-Republican party in Louisiana.

It is reported that Grant will be offered the Ministership to England.

Packard feels secure in his position and is determined not to surrender.

Senator Sherman's resignation has been accepted by Gov. Young, of Ohio.

The business men of Memphis appinad the course foreshadowed by Hayes.

Gov. Hendricks is on his way to California to look after his mining interests.

Republicans have probably carried New Hampshire, but by decreased majorities.

A boy was poisoned at Ware, Massachusetts, on the 11th, by eating wild turnips.

The Republicans at Raleigh, North Carolina, sustained Hayes in his Southern policy.

Ex-Postmaster-General Tyler will undoubtedly be made first assistant postmaster general.

Thurman and Eaton voted against Key and Everts, and Eaton and Chaffee against Schurz.

Alex. Sullivan, charged with the murder of Francis Hanford at Chicago, has been discharged.

Packard's dispatch that nearly all the parishes in Louisiana support him is pronounced untrue.

K-ly has announced that he has no intention of making any changes in the post office department.

It is more than probable that Hayes will appoint Bristow to fill the vacancy in the Supreme Court.

Matthews is almost certain of ousting Banning as Congressman from the Cincinnati district of Ohio.

Cornelius Vanderbilt objects to his father's will, because his brother W. H. Vanderbilt gets nearly all the estate.

Chamberlain will probably give up his claim to the Governorship of South Carolina and be provided for elsewhere.

Stanley Matthews and Wm. Everts, have written to Chamberlain insinuating that his resignation would be accepted.

Hayes' Southern policy is distasteful to Southern Republicans. They say they have been betrayed by the Administration.

Ex-Secretary of War Don Cameron received the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator from the Pennsylvania Legislature.

Blaine advocates new elections in Louisiana and South Carolina. Hayes is said to be favorable to the plan. The Sun denounces it.

It is now believed that no extra session will be called, because by law money may be expended for the army under certain circumstances.

Simon Cameron is reported to have resigned his seat in the Senate. J. D. Cameron will probably be the choice of the Pennsylvania Legislature for his successor.

Gordon, Lamar, and Gibson of Louisiana, called on the President on the 12th, and strongly urged the withdrawal of troops from the State House at New Orleans and Columbia.

In view of Hayes' Southern policy, the Nicholls Legislature has passed a resolution very complimentary in its tone to Hayes. They will probably not elect a Senator this session.

The World's Washington special says that Hayes will give an opportunity to Packard and Chamberlain to voluntarily retire from the positions they cannot possibly maintain.

The Sun's Washington special says that Grant, it is understood, has accepted the Presidency of the First National Bank in that city and will enter upon his duties immediately.

Garfield declines to be a candidate for the United States Senate from Ohio. He declines because Hayes wishes him to remain in the House. Tait is a prominent candidate for the Senatorship.

The Examiner says the publication of the names of prominent citizens in the list of fraudulent San Francisco voters, was an interpolation, the names being put there after the list was made out for the purpose of making it appear unreliable.

The Herald's Washington special says: Judge Mackey says this evening, concerning the Patterson plan for a new election, he is authorized to speak for Hampton and to say he would utterly refuse to agree to a new election, as not only was he elected, but his title has been affirmed by the courts.

The President nominates Jro. Jay Knox Comptroller of Currency; Reuben H. Stephenson, Surveyor of Customs, Cincinnati. Thomas A. Cummings, collector of customs for the district of Idaho and Montana, and Wm. D. Hare for the district of Oregon; J. C. Fullerton, receiver of public moneys at Roseburg, Oregon, and Hart Fellows at Sacramento.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—He only is wise who seeks safety in precaution. Life is uncertain; thousands in the vigor of health to day will never see to-morrow. The varying atmosphere, the raw, piercing winds warn us of winter's approach, with its icy blasts and ruthless scourges: Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Asthma, Bronchitis, Pleurisy, Consumption, Rheumatism, Chills, Frost Bites, &c. The wise and cautious will immediately have recourse to those powerful purgatives, Holloway's Pills, which cleanse the lungs to resist the deleterious effects of the weather, and fortify the constitution to withstand the rigor and inclemencies of winter. The Ointment is an infallible remedy for inflammation of the throat, and all disorders of the chest produced by violent colds; it also gives speedy relief to the organs of respiration.
