CITY AND COUNTY.

CONGRATULATION.

The GUARD congratulates the people of Eugene City on the result of the election last Monday, and particularly on their choice for President of the council.

Arrest of W. C. Morand.

On the 3d of last month, between 12 and 1 o'clock at night, two men went to a cabin about four miles south of Portland, occupied by T. D. Davis and Mr. Thomas. The latter was secured and not injured, while his partner, Davis, was literally chopped to pieces with a hatchet. The murderers then took Thomas out and set fire to the cabin and destroyed the body. Thomas was soon after released and reported the affair to the police. Chief Lappeus, when notified of the murder, called at Morand's house, in the upper part of the city, while on the way out to the scene. Hearing that Morand was a great friend of Davis', Lappeus thought it would be a very proper thing to apprise him of the murder and have him accompany the officers. He also hoped that Morand might lend very material assistance in tracking up the guilty parties. On calling at the house Lappeus was told by a son of Morand's—a lad about thirteen years of age—that his father had started Friday morning for the mines in Wasco county, via The Dalles. Lappeus afterward learned that Morand had been seen by some parties late Friday afternoon with a black carpet sack in his hand traveling southward. Suspicious at once fell on him, and on inquiry it was found that he had been in Oregon City and passed Friday night there. Several weeks after Chief Lappeus found out that Morand had been at Corvallis, and that his wife was to direct a letter to him at Eugene. Mr. Lappeus came up and found that a few hours before his arrival Wm. Craig, a resident of this county, had received and opened a letter addressed to him, which was evidently intended for Morand. The letter was returned to the office and a watch kept for him for several days. Not calling for the letter Lappeus returned to Portland. Subsequently he learned that Morand had passed Drain's Station on his way to Gardiner. Officer McCoy was detailed to arrest the fugitive, which he did on Friday night of last week at Gardiner, and passed down on Saturday. Morand says he walked every step of the way between Portland and Gardiner. When arrested his clothes were in tatters and his boots almost worn out. He told Lappeus he left Portland because he was afraid that Mr. T. A. Wood would have him arrested on a charge of adultery.

SCHOOL ELECTION.

At the School meeting in this district last Monday there was a good turnout. The question arising on a tax to build a new school house, a motion to levy a tax sufficient to raise $4,000 was carried. There being two directors to elect, one for three years to take the place of F. B. Dunn, whose term had expired, and one to take the place of W. J. J. Scott, removed, Dr. Geary was elected for the long term and F. B. Dunn for the short term. E. P. Henderson was elected Clerk. The proposition on the subject of taxation was to construct a house costing $8,000, levying a tax to complete one story this year, and to levy a tax for the completion of the building next year.

LAND PATENTS.

The following land patents were received at the Roseburg land office last week for residents of this county: Cash patents: G. W. Hughson, G. Linderking, B. March, W. F. Potter and F. O. Emerson. Cash patents: G. H. Murch, E. Mulholland, Jesse Haskett, A. Zumwalt, J. Stewart, G. W. Evans, E. Smith, Geo. Miller, T. McCord, L. Morgan, W. Allen, J. Welch, J. P. Welch, A. Hills, A. W. Langhlin, G. Reason, A. Hembree, J. Kine, E. Davison and J. Alkire.

THE CITY ELECTION.

At the election held last Monday Geo. B. Dorris was elected President of the Council by a majority of three over his opponent, Mr. J. B. Underwood. For Councilmen, Messrs. Hendricks, Dunn and Cooper. For Recorder, Bobt. Fagan; for Marshal, P. H. Farrell, and for Treasurer B. H. James.

FIRE ELECTION.

At the election of Eugene Hook and Ladder Company last Monday evening, J. N. Poidexter was elected President, L. G. Jackson Vice President, J. R. Beam foreman, John O'Brien 1st Assistant, V. Behrens 2d Assistant, John R. Campbell Secretary.

FIRE.

Last Sunday evening between 8 and 9 o'clock an alarm of fire was sounded and the department and our citizens generally turned out to hunt a fire which seemed exceedingly difficult to find. Some great American humorist had set fire to an unoccupied cabin on the road running east of the Old Fellows cemetery.

MORE CLERGYMEN.

Three clergymen will soon be added to the Episcopal force in this State. One is on his way to Portland, the other will start directly after Easter, and William McEwad will be ordained ere long and start immediately thereafter from the Berkeley Divinity School.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Wm. Clark and W. D. Page started to Leon Lake, Douglas county, to look for land, on the 8th day of February. They have not been heard from since and their families and friends are anxious about them. Any one knowing their whereabouts will confer a favor by addressing Mrs. Nancy E. Page, Waterville, Or.

CLOSED.

The public school in Eugene district closed last week. Mrs. J. A. Odell will open a private school in the district school house next Monday. She will be assisted by Miss Geary.

Virian, the character singer, will visit this State during the coming summer.

Teachers' Institute.

JUNCTION CITY, March 28, 1877.
Institute convened according to appointment at 8 o'clock A. M. T. O. Thompson was made Chairman, and A. Dunavan Secretary. Miss Ida Bushnell and H. O. Williams were appointed critics for the day.

Mr. Hahstaker addressed the Institute on the subject of Fundamental Rules of Arithmetic. Messrs. Williams and Porter, Mrs. Train and others contributed to the subject by giving their experience, with some well timed remarks.

Mr. Sweet introduced the subject of Penmanship with some able remarks upon it. He was followed by Messrs. Martin and Hahstaker and others.

Parts of Speech, by S. S. Train, the next subject on the programme, was immediately taken up and discussed by members of the Institute, after which an adjournment was had until 1.30 P. M.

Upon resuming, Analysis of Sentences was introduced and illustrated by J. M. Nevill. Oral Lessons, by Mrs. M. J. Train. After an illustration, by maps and charts, of her method of teaching, the subject was discussed by different teachers.

School Government. In the absence of Mr. Henderson this subject was introduced by Mr. Porter and discussed by Messrs. Houston, Martin and Bolon, who related their experience of school government.

The Institute then adjourned until 7.30 P. M. Upon resuming Mr. Williams introduced the subject of Common Fractions with some well timed remarks and with examples on the black board. Illustrations were also given on the board by Miss Stannus and others.

Multiplication of Fractions was introduced by Mr. Porter.
Mr. Rumsey delivered a short lecture on Physical Geography.
After an essay by Miss Stannus the Critics reported and the Institute adjourned till 9 A. M. of the day following.

MARCH 29, 1877.
Institute convened. Reading of minutes dispensed with. Miss Stannus and Mr. Porter appointed critics for the day.

Primary Reading was introduced by Mr. E. Judkins and illustrated by means of charts. The subject of Physical Geography was called up, and Prof. Condon delivered a short lecture, illustrating the use of the globe. Mrs. Train and others also contributed to the subject.

Orthography was introduced by Mr. Train and discussed by Messrs. Yeatch, Martin and Hahstaker.
Institute adjourned until 1.30 P. M.
Upon resuming Mr. Crow introduced the subject of Percentage.
How to Organize a District School was very ably presented by Prof. T. M. Martin.
Physiology in School was presented by Prof. Bolon and discussed by Messrs. Condon, Train and Hahstaker.

Mrs. Train delivered an essay on the subject of the Teacher in the school room.
Mr. O. T. Porter advanced some very good thoughts and suggestions on music in the school room.
Also to the Society for the use of the building during the session.
Resolved, That our thanks are tendered the ladies and gentlemen who have so kindly entertained us with music.
Resolved that our hearty thanks are tendered to Prof. Condon for his lecture.
Resolved, That our thanks are due and are hereby tendered Prof. Bolon for his unwearied efforts to render the exercises pleasant and profitable to all in attendance.
The resolutions were adopted and the Institute adjourned sine die.
Whole number of teachers present, 36.

STATE UNIVERSITY.

In "Once a Week" a new paper just started at Oakland, California, of which Mr. Calvin B. McDonald, formerly of the Salem Statesman, is editor, we find this notice of our State University:

This prosperous institution which went into operation last October, is situated on the California and Oregon Railroad, near Eugene City, at the head of the great Willamette Valley. The building is large, substantial and elegant in its architecture, standing on a high plateau and overlooking the richest and grandest expanse of territory west of the mountains. Eugene City is one of the prettiest little places in the whole country, and is inhabited by a people of exceptional high culture and refinement, who, in the very exuberance of agricultural wealth, have been schooling themselves and their children for more than thirty years. Here the great valley, one hundred and fifty miles long, from forty to seventy miles wide, and walled in by the Coast Range and Cascade mountains, comes to a head, the hills sweeping around to a point and forming a pass through the Calapoosia mountains. Here midway between the two lofty pyramidal hills and not far from the magnificent Willamette river, is Eugene City, a rudimentary Memphis, under the mysterious pyramids, and guarding the outlet to the Valley of the Nile; and here the locomotive, with its train of conquest and progress, leaves the great plain and plunges into the mountain gorge, on its way southward to California. Midway in this almost unbroken forest, separating the Willamette and Umpqua valleys, is an extensive lumbering establishment, where the traveler, during the brief stoppage of the train, hears an immense buzz-saw fairly howling in savage conflict with a tough old fir. Here, the exultant voice of civilization crying in the wilderness.

Altogether, a more beautiful and appropriate location for an institution of learning could not be found in all the wide expanse of that now progressive and inviting State, which, in the near future, is to become one of the proudest and richest commonwealths of the Northwest.

COSTLY EXPERIENCE.

The Jacksonville Times tells how a man out in that county got some valuable but costly experience, as follows:

Some time ago Isaac Ford, living near Uniontown, took up an stray horse, which, through ignorance of the law, he neglected to post or dispose of, but worked it instead. Complaint was made to the authorities and, as prescribed by the statute, the County Treasurer entered upon suit against him. Upon trial in Justice Kent's Court this week, Ford was required to pay the sum of $40 and costs, which will amount to about $65 in all. This is dear experience, and others may profit thereby. The stray law is not always observed and may sometimes cause trouble to its violators.

PATENT.

On the 13th of last month a patent was issued to Wm. Etris on his grain separator. This machine was noticed in the GUARD some time ago.

NEVER GIVES UP.

It is said that J. B. Underwood, following the lead of the great and good party of which he has been a shining light, does not propose to abide by that old fashioned and worn-out method of voting which in former days decided who should hold office, but will endeavor to fix a returning board which shall declare him President of the Common Council of Eugene City. We are not assured that he intends to do this, but the indications are that he does. Bull-dozing was a good thing in Louisiana, but we will—or would if we were not constitutional—opposed to betting—wager a horse against a hen that it won't work in Eugene City, Lane County, Oregon.

POWDER LOST.

Last week two men employed by Hawley, Dodd & Co. to remove a quantity of powder which has been on storage here several years, to Portland, started in a small flatboat they had constructed for the purpose, with seven tons of the powder. Before reaching Harrisburg the boat ran on a drift and filled with water so suddenly that the men had not time to save even their coats. A large number of kegs of powder were gathered up at Harrisburg in a more or less damaged condition.

BOOKS.

Mr. A. S. Patterson, at the Post-office Book Store, has just received a very complete invoice of the text books prescribed for use in the State University. Also a complete line of the books to be used in the public schools of this State. When you want books go and see him.

The attention of students is called to the blank books just received by Mr. Patterson, which are designed to take the place of the slate in schools. The cost is trifling and the advantage great.

WHIPS.

Mr. Preston has just received the best assortment of whips of all descriptions ever brought to Eugene, each one of which is warranted to be as represented. Also a lot of superior gloves. Call and see them.

The GUARD is not given to puffing saloons, but the establishment just opened by Mr. McClaren is worthy of mention. It will compare favorably with any in the State. We want to suggest to any one to visit the place against his conscientious scruples, but when you do want about nine drops for "the stomach's ache," it is well to know where to get it.

OPENED.

—Jas. McClaren open the new saloon in Ackerman's building on Thursday. Frank Coleman will continue the business at the old stand.

Brief Mention.

The Jubilee are at Seattle.
The Wilton troupe is playing at Seattle.
Goy. Chadwick went south on Wednesday.
The new Council will be organized next Monday evening.
Mrs. B. C. Van Houten arrived from California on Wednesday.
Jas. O'Meara is on the editorial staff of the San Francisco Examiner.
Mr. C. D. Thomas will leave for his home in New York State next week.

A. S. Miller & Co. will build the new bridge across the Mollala, Clackamas county, for $3,500.
If one asks for nice weather than the past week has been he should at once be provided with a ticket for the promised land.
Ackerman Bros., formerly in business in Eugene, are about to remove their stock of goods from Oregon City to Portland.

The directors of the Union University Association are making up a pony purse to buy the Recorder elect a little hatchet.
There are people in this world who would make just as much stir, and do just as much good, and benefit society just as much, if they were killed and stuffed.
And now the thrifty husbandman hitherto his garden spot spaded and planted at a cost of $7 75, to gather therefrom, after countless hours of labor in keeping it free from weeds, 37½ cents' worth of vegetables and four bits worth of "aters" in the fall.

Here's a personal item, and all who are interested may "put it in their pipes and smoke it," if they like. Were a man to kick at every snapping dog that snarls at his heels he would never want for exercise; and his only reward in the end would be the yelp of a miserable cur.
On the arrival of the Georgia Minstrels at San Francisco, they disagreed about some matters pertaining to finances and became obstreperous. Several of them were arrested and thrown into prison. We understand that they have disbanded the organization.
Frank S. Hovey, a brother of Hon. A. G. Hovey, of Springfield, died in Salem last Sunday. The deceased was born in the State of New Hampshire and went with his parents to Ohio when but five years old, where he resided until about five years ago, when he came to Oregon and engaged in business with his brother, but two years ago moving his business to Salem. He died in the forty-fifth year of his age.

Writes a Washington correspondent: He had on his cards, "Joe Miller." I have a friend, a woman of singular genius and great literary pretensions, on whom he called several weeks ago and to whom he sent up his card, when this conversation took place between James, her dining room servant, who has been in the family for, these many years, and herself: "James, I ordered that no cards were to be brought to me." "Yes, madam; but this man just came in the reception room, sat down, and said there he'd wait." Did you ever see him before? "No, madam, I don't think he's the sort of gentleman what we've been 'customed to receive." "Joe Miller! What does he look like, a gentleman?" "No, madam, I think, Mrs. —, he's a man selling them plates for marking clothes." And so Joe Miller, the poet, whom my friend had desired to meet, was turned away because Joe did not identify Joquin.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE State of Oregon for Lane County. Hannah Eubank, Plaintiff, vs. Ansel L. Chapman and W. K. Leveridge, defendants. Suit in equity to foreclose mortgage. To the above named defendants, Arthur L. Chapman and W. K. Leveridge: In the name of the State of Oregon, you and each of you are hereby required to appear in the above entitled suit brought against you by the above named plaintiff in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane County, and answer the complaint filed therein, by the first day of the next term of said court, to be begun and held on Monday the 16th day of April, 1877, at Eugene City, county and State aforesaid. The defendants will take notice that if they fail to appear and answer said complaint as above required, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded therein, to-wit: That the plaintiff have judgment against the said defendant, Arthur L. Chapman, for the sum of 4,000 dollars and for the costs and disbursements of suit; that the usual decree be made for the same and the mortgage premises described in the said complaint, to-wit: The undivided half of the south half of section 35 in township 17 south of range 4 west of the Willamette meridian, situated in Lane county, State of Oregon, by the sheriff of said Lane county, according to law and the practice of said court; that the proceeds and said sale be applied in payment of the aforesaid sum of four thousand dollars, the costs and disbursements of this suit and the expenses of such sale; that the defendants and all persons claiming under them, or either of them, subsequent to the execution of the mortgage on said premises, set forth in said complaint, to-wit: The 18th day of July, 1866, either as purchasers, incumbents or otherwise, may be barred and forever foreclosed of all right, claim or equity of redemption in the said premises and every part thereof; and that the plaintiff have such other and further relief in the premises to which they may appear equitable. Service of this summons is made by order of Hon. J. F. Watson, Judge of the 2d Judicial District, and of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Lane county, having date the 8th day of February, 1877.

THAYER & WILLIAMS & THOMPSON,
Attorneys for plaintiff.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE State of Oregon for the county of Lane. Mary A. Smith, plaintiff, vs. Michael Smith, defendant. Suit in equity for divorce and for the custody of minor children. To Michael Smith the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby summoned to appear in said court and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed therein, on or before the first day of the next term thereof, to be begun and held at Eugene City, Lane county, Oregon, on the 16th day of April, 1877. And it is ordered by the court, the Hon. J. F. Watson Judge thereof, dated February 26th, 1877, the service of summons in this case be made by publication in the Eugene City Guard, a newspaper published in said county, for six consecutive weeks, and if you fail to answer on or before the first day of the next term of said court following the expiration of the time prescribed in said order, namely, Monday, the 16th day of April, 1877, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, namely: That the marriage contract existing between you and the plaintiff be dissolved and held for naught, and that plaintiff have the care and custody of the minor children of said marriage, and have such further and other relief as to the court may seem equitable and just, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit.

G. B. DORRIS,
Plaintiff's Attorney.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE State of Oregon, for the county of Lane. Mary E. Tedrow, plaintiff, vs. Charles W. Tedrow, defendant. Suit in equity for divorce and custody of minor children. To Charles W. Tedrow, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby summoned to appear in said court and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed therein, on or before the first day of the next term thereof, to be begun and held in Eugene City, Lane county, Oregon, on the 16th day of April, 1877. And it is ordered by the court, the Hon. J. F. Watson Judge thereof, dated February 26th, 1877, that service of summons in this case be made by publication in the Eugene City Guard, a newspaper published said county, for six consecutive weeks, and if you fail to answer on or before the first day of the next term of said court following the expiration of the time prescribed in said order, namely, Monday, the 16th day of April, 1877, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, namely: That the marriage contract existing between you and the plaintiff be dissolved and held for naught, and that plaintiff have the care and custody of the minor children of said marriage, and have such further and other relief as to the court may seem equitable and just, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit.
