CITY AND COUNTY.

Council Proceedings.

COUNCIL ROOMS. EUGENE CITY, April 9, 1877. Council met pursuant to ordinance, and was called to order by President Dennis. Present, Underwood, Ogdan, Cooper, Robinson, Underwood and McClaren. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

Finance committee reported favorably on the following bills, and on motion warrants were ordered drawn for their payment: Geo. J. Buys, $2 00; S. A. Ogdan, $12 50; S. M. Titus, $3; Miller & McCormack, $4 75; costs $2.

Report of canvassing board was read, showing the following persons entitled to seats as members of the council: G. B. Dennis, President; Rob't. Egan, Recorder; P. H. Farrell, Marshal; B. H. James, Treasurer; G. M. Cooper, T. G. Hendricks and F. B. Dunn, Trustees.

Swamp Lands.

In the Oregonian of a recent date we find this. In conversation with Mr. H. C. Owens today, I learn very much concerning the late decision of Judge Boise concerning the right of the State to the lands known as swamp and overflowed lands granted by Congress first to Arkansas in 1850, the provisions of which, by act of Congress of 1850, were extended over Oregon and Minnesota.

Brief Mention.

Circuit Court next week. The City Assessor is on the war path. H. C. Owen will return from San Francisco on the next steamer. A gentleman writing to this office asks if Geo. Barth resides in this county. We don't know. Do you?

Articles of incorporation of the Standard Publishing Company have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State. Capital stock $8,000. Incorporators, C. A. Petrain, C. B. Bellinger and H. H. Gilroy. The Oregonian of Tuesday has this: Miss Rosa Steinheiser, formerly a pupil at St. Helen's Hall, after having passed the winter season among her numerous friends in this city, returned to her home, Eugene City, yesterday.

"UNAVOIDABLE NOTORIETY."—The Eugene correspondent of the Oregonian threatens the person or persons who set fire to the cabin near town on the night of the 31st ult., with unavoidable notoriety if they do it again. The notoriety they deserve is that caused by a trial in court.

Demorest's Monthly is responsible for following: "Word comes to us from Paris of recent contrivance of the modistes, by which the long trains and collared dresses are to be retained in position. A strong elastic is attached to one garter, just above the knee, carried over, and fastened to the other; thus the length of the steps taken by the wearer is regulated, and the classic folds of the costume remain undisturbed."

The Daily Oregonian is delivered by Master Isaac Steinheiser individually on the arrival of the afternoon train. If you want it give him your name.

RENOVATED.—Frank Coleman has had his saloon building papered, painted and otherwise renovated.

S. ROSENBLATT & CO. SUNDAYS. IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE State of Oregon, for the county of Lane, Mary E. Tedlow, plaintiff, vs Charles W. Tedlow, defendant. Suit in equity for divorce and custody of minor children. To Charles W. Tedlow, the above named defendant, in the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby summoned to appear in said court and answer the complaint of the plaintiff filed therein, on or before the first day of the next term thereof, to be begun and held in Eugene City, Lane County, Oregon, on the 16th day of April, 1877. And it is ordered by the court, the Hon. J. F. Watson Judge thereof, dated February 28th, 1877, that service of summons in this case be made by publication in the Eugene City Guard, a newspaper published said county, for six consecutive weeks, and if you fail to answer on or before the first day of the next term of said Court following the expiration of the time prescribed in said order, namely, Monday, the 16th day of April, 1877, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in the complaint, namely: That the marriage contract existing between you and the plaintiff be dissolved, and held for naught, and that plaintiff have the care and custody of the minor children of said marriage, and have such further and other relief as to the court may seem equitable and just, and for the costs and disbursements of this action. G. B. DORRIS, Plaintiff's Attorney.

REFEREES' SALE.
