CITY AND COUNTY.

Local Notes.

Dr. Lon Cleaver has a noble new sign.
Geo. B. Dorris, Esq., has been treating his dwelling to a new coat of paint. It now looks as bright and fresh as a bride.
Judge J. J. Walton and B. F. Dorris are attending the meeting of the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F., at Portland, as delegates.
Way & Harley, the soap men are still here, and everybody yet has a chance to get their receipt. We hear their compound highly spoken of by those who have used it.
Mr. L. G. Jackson, formerly manager of the Journal, left for Salem on Wednesday, where he takes the business management of the Statesman. Success to you my boy.
Sawing—Abrams Brothers' steam saw mill is now running, and making a superior quality of lumber.
Road Work—The road doctors are again on their travels, and it is now in order for everybody to mend their ways.

Picnic—A number of our citizens went to Harrisburg last Wednesday, and had a jolly time. During the festivities some hoodlum set fire to an old shanty. No damage done.

Improvement—W. T. Osburn is fitting up the building on the southwest corner of Willamette and 9th streets. R. G. Callison will move his grocery store into it as soon as it is completed.

Personal—Ex-Gov. Gibbs, Hon. Ben. Simpson and Judge Burnett passed down on the train yesterday morning. Capt. J. O'Brien, a "regular" on the S. F. Call, gave us a call yesterday.

Fire—The residence of John Baily, on Spencer Creek, in this county, was burned with all its contents on last Monday. Loss from $500 to $800. The fire is supposed to have been accidental.

Dangerous—The Journal makes "Mohawk Gipsy" say, "War has killed its thousands, but temperance has killed its ten thousands." If this is true, the "Gipsy" had better qualify Mohawk water with a little something stronger before imbibing.

Gone—Yesterday Messrs. Killingsworth and Slocum, of this place, and several families from Douglas county started to the Palouse country. Mr. K. will return next fall. The others intend remaining there permanently.

Festival—The strawberry and ice cream festival, at Lane's Hall on Wednesday evening, was a very pleasant and enjoyable affair. It was held under the auspices of the M. E. Church, and realized $48, which is to be applied on a debt owing by the Church for an organ.

Runaway—A team belonging to Mr. Harris started to run away one day this week, and defied all attempts to check them until they came opposite the blacksmith shop of Poindexter & Rush, when Ben. Rush ed out, and when they saw the height of the obstruction in their way, they gave it up.

Temperance—The friends of temperance "ralliced" several evenings the last of last week and the first of this with, we fear, rather doubtful results. Indulging in exasperating personalities, or burlesquing the matter by referring to "Cronin's nose," are not arguments to convince anybody of error.

Blue Glass—Miss Etha Christian, who has been afflicted for several years with paralysis has been testing the virtues of the blue glass remedy for some two months without deriving any perceptible benefit. Mr. Christian informs us that he intends arranging the glass differently and giving it a further trial.

Dangerous—Somebody's boy won't come up one of these days. Every time the train comes in a crowd of small boys are on hand jumping on and off the cars while they are in motion, and it is impossible for train men to attend to their duties and watch boys at the same time. Parents should look to this matter.

Immigrants—A number of immigrant wagons from California passed through here during the week, bound for Puget Sound. Some of them came by the way of Goose Lake, and had a rough time crossing the mountains, on the summit the snow was six or eight feet deep. They give a very discouraging account of crop prospects in California on account of the drought.

Pig One—Yesterday morning W. W. Espey shipped three buggies of his own manufacture to Portland. This is one feather in Eugene's cap, and speaks well for the excellence of Mr. Espey's workmanship. Whenever the people of Oregon patronize their own manufacturers exclusively, they will get as good an article at a less price than they now get from abroad, and the permanent prosperity of the State will be assured.

Accident—An Indian was run over and killed by the cars about two miles north of town last Monday. Coroner Shelton summoned a jury of inquest, who, after investigating the matter, returned the following verdict:

We the undersigned summoned as a jury of inquest, by Coroner Shelton, find that deceased was an Indian named John Brown, about 22 years of age, belonged to the Siletz Reservation; was very deaf in both ears, and that he came to his death by being struck by locomotive No. 11, while walking on the track of the O. & C. R. R., and that no person was criminally responsible for the death of the deceased.

Jas. F. Brown, James Humphrey, O. A. Thierret, Sam Lindsey, Geo. Kibbey, J. R. Campbell

Council Proceedings.

COUNCIL ROOMS, EUGENE CITY, May 14, 1877.
Council met pursuant to ordinance.

Present, C. B. Dorris, President; F. B. Dunn, Geo. M. Cooper, J. F. Robinson, T. G. Hendricks, S. A. Ogden and James McClaren, Councilmen; Marshal Farrel and Recorder Fagan.

Minutes of preceding meeting were read, and with one or two slight corrections, were adopted.

The report of the Finance Committee was received and approved, and warrants were ordered for the payment of the following bills:

Robert Peterson, $107; J. R. Campbell, $4; Robt. Bean, $4; Abrams Bros., $33 79; Mark Stevens, $22 36; Geo. J. Buys, $11 55; Robt. Patterson, $13, and C. W. Fitch, $25.

The Finance Committee also reported favorably on the statements of the ex-Treasurer and ex-Recorder, and explained the apparent discrepancy between their respective statements by the fact that the Treasurer accounted for all moneys received by him since his preceding report, and the Recorder for all moneys received during the year. The committee also reported that the indebtedness of the city amounts to about $350, and including orders and unpaid bills presented, to a total of probably $1,100.

The Committee on Streets was allowed until next meeting to report on the probable cost of obtaining the right of way for a street in the eastern part of town, and for constructing a bridge on its line.

On motion, a lamp-post and lamp were authorized to be placed at each of the following corners, and the city engaged to supply oil and provide for lighting the lamp: One lamp post at Friendly's corner, one at Hendricks', one at Peters', and one at Rankin's.

The petition of Ellworth and McClung in regard to grading the crossing of High and Tenth streets, and the alley crossing half way between Ninth and Tenth streets, was accepted, and the necessary grading was ordered.

The City Assessor reported that the total assessable property of the city amounted to about $484,000. The report was received, and after computing the existing indebtedness of the city, and the probable expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year, the Council, on motion, levied a tax of six mills on the dollar.

All bills presented, with the exception of C. W. Fitch for services as attorney for the city in the case of the city against Wm. Osburn, was referred to the Committee on Finance. On motion, Mr. Fitch was allowed $25 for his services, and the Recorder was instructed to issue a warrant for its payment.

The Marshal reported the tax on the property of W. T. Bloomfield, and the bill for constructing sidewalk in front of said property, as unpaid, and he was again instructed to collect both by action or otherwise, as might be most effectual.

The business of the evening having been completed, the Council adjourned.

NELLIE.

[PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.]

SPENCER CREEK, May 12, 1877.

Sweet Nellie sleeps on your hill side,
Where friends oft gather round,
To lay their loved ones, who have died,
Beneath the silent ground.

Alas, did little Nellie die!
How sad it is that we
Must bid our lovely ones good-bye,
No more on earth to see.

But why should we weep, why should we mourn
The loss of that love one,
She'll awake in the resurrection morn,
When Gabriel's trumpet sounds.

The grave that holds her lovely form
Will hold it no more when
Jesus, our Lord and Savior, comes
And bids her arise—ascend.

On wings of love she'll soar away,
Away beyond the sky,
Where sorrow's tears are wiped away
From every weeping eye.

There in that blissful home on high
With angels 'round the throne,
Where tears no more can dim the eye
And death can no more come.

We may all meet sweet Nellie there,
If we'll but faithful be,
With Jesus and our friends so dear
Live in eternity.

Then why should we weep, why should we mourn
The loss of that dear one?
She is not dead, she only sleeps;
She'll awake when Jesus comes.

MARK.

[PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.]

SPENCER CREEK, May 12, 1877.

"Blessed are the meek," exclaims the voice of inspiration, but can a man be meek with a consciousness that a dried monster is consuming his vitals. We are not a race of Titans. A Prometheus might stand chained to the torturing rock with a vulture perpetually gnawing his liver, and his face ever wear an expression of heroic and even meek endurance, but Prometheus has left no descendants. With vultures (diseases) consuming his liver, the modern man makes himself off every one around him miserable. Frigid, gloomy, hypochondriacal, he sees the world and life all on the wrong side—the dark side—and whoever dares to assert that there is a sunny side, he regards as an enemy, or at best a mocker of his imaginary woes. Unlike the mythical Titan, the victims of disease are not successful. There is an arm to rescue—a hand to cleanse and heal. As remedies for this most depressing of all diseases—"Liver Complaint"—none are more efficient or popular than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets. The Pellets effectually remove the clogs and poisonous matter, while the Medical Discovery imparts strength and health to the entire system. They are sold by druggists.

LUCKY IS THE BABY whose Mama uses GLEN'S SUIPER SOAP, with which to wash the little innocent. No prickly heat, or other rash, can annoy the infant with which this cooling and purifying antiseptic comes in daily contact.

GRAY HEADS daily grow black or brown. Cause—HILL'S HAIR DYE.
