

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

EUGENE CITY, OREGON. SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1877. HAYES' POLICY.

It is generally held by Democrats that Hayes, by withdrawing the troops from South Carolina and Louisiana, performed an act creditable to his head and heart.

What are the facts about the withdrawal of the troops from these States? Were they withdrawn because Hayes wished to see Hampton and Nicholls triumph over Chamberlain and Packard?

Hayes is a Republican, pure and simple, and he must not be judged by his acts with regard to South Carolina and Louisiana.

The last House of Representatives, which was Democratic, as the next one will be, refused to make an appropriation for the army without incorporating in the bill a clause forbidding the use of the army for political purposes in any of the States.

The next House, starting under the wrongs inflicted on the country by the villainies of Republican returning boards, and, with the example of the late House before them, would certainly have put such a provision in any bill they might pass.

Hayes is as radical as Blair or Morton, but not so aggressive. His bed is not one of roses; he justly dreads the assembling of Congress, but he serves no attacks from his own party.

Hayes adopted the Democratic policy after dawdling, evading and dodging for months, simply because he could not help himself, and this Association has proclaimed itself just what its abbreviated name indicates for beplastering him with fulsome praise for doing his duty under compulsion.

The New York Herald will at once proceed to establish a new party upon the ruins of the Radical party. It will be called the—the—but no matter. There will be time enough to think of a name.—E.T.

The New York Herald will never establish a party with any name. The brains and inlets of that journal lie buried in the grave of old James Gordon Bennett.

It is singular what a lively interest the average Radical takes in Agriculture, base-ball, the Turkish war and many other matters, since Returning Board Hayes has begun to administer the government—partly in accordance with the Constitution and the principles of Democratic platforms.

It was bad enough for rascals to cheat Tilden and the Democracy out of the Presidency, but they are not the only ones cheated; for, so far, Hayes seems to be defrauding the Radical party as much as his friends defrauded the Democratic party.

Hayes is a Republican, pure and simple, and he must not be judged by his acts with regard to South Carolina and Louisiana.

One A. C. Edmunds came here a few years ago, pretended to be a Universalist preacher, preached for that society a while, proved an unmitigated bilk, got kicked out, started a little blackguard sheet entitled "The Copperhead Killer," got no patronage, petered out in a few weeks, started East to raise a negro regiment and gobble up the Confederacy, didn't do either.

A curious reading of our Northern and Southern exchanges leads to the belief that the policy of President Hayes is really modifying, if not conquering, both parties. The Republicans believe in it because Hayes is their leader. The Democrats accept it because Hayes professes forgiveness and welcomes them back to the old hearthstone.—Philadelphia Press.

The Press is all wrong. The Republicans do not accept, but doggedly and with a very ill grace submit. The Democrats have nothing to ask forgiveness for, and are satisfied because they have compelled the de facto fraud to grant all they ever demanded, and either his "forgiveness" or "welcome" are matters of perfect indifference to them.

If Gen. Devens is not going out of the Cabinet at present, it is certain that he will not stay there long. He is a man of a nice sense of honor, and as soon as he clearly understands the frauds by which Mr. Hayes was declared elected President, he will turn his back upon the whole concern in disgust and shame.—N. Y. Sun.

Stuff. A man possessing the high sense of honor the Sun gives Mr. Devens credit for would not have been a partaker in the fraud in the first place. He'll not get out till he is kicked out.

If we may be permitted to say so, remarks the Philadelphia Telegraph, Radical, the Constitution has not had that respect paid to it during the last ten or twelve years which it should have had, and a full and hearty recognition of it at Washington is not a thing to be regretted.

The Telegraph might have gone back a few years further, inasmuch as one of the first acts of the first Radical President was an admitted violation of the Constitution.

True's gospel. But the Democratic party has just driven these forgetful souls back within the boundaries prescribed by the Constitution, over which they jumped sixteen years ago.

COAST NEWS.

There are 231 patients in the Insane Asylum at East Portland. A petition is in circulation for the pardon of young Briggs, of Josephine county, sent to the penitentiary for killing Dellamater.

George Patterson, living on Eight Mile Creek, near the Dalles, has a steer six and a half feet high, and weighing 4,600 pounds. The Mountaineer is responsible for this one.

In Josephine county, some days ago, Joseph Forrest was shot and killed by Jean Adyn. An examination before a justice elicited the fact that the latter acted in self defense.

The Lantern, published at Portland, has been purchased by J. B. Leahy & Co., and the name changed to the Oregon Mining and Immigration Journal, and will advocate the peculiar interests indicated by its title.

For the mines on Little Applegate creek, 1,500 feet of 15-inch pipe has been received. The nozzle weighs 400 pounds. There is 200 feet of pipe in the ground. The pipe cost $2,500.

Army contractors furnish beef on the block at Walla Walla for 25 cents a pound. They get $3 37 per hundred for flour. Welsh & Co., of that place, also have a contract to furnish flour at Portland and Vancouver at $3 95 per cwt.

Capt. Thomson, of upper Elk creek, Douglas county, recently killed a deer which had but one horn which projected from the centre of its head, having fourteen prongs, one of which extended in front in the shape of a crescent.

From the Douglas county Independent we learn that a man named Gabriel Friend committed suicide at Canas Valley, May 15th, by cutting his throat with a pair of scissors. Mental derangement is assigned as the cause of the rash act.

A man named Alford, who was mixed up in the Gordon murder, in Siskiyou county, California, last fall, and turned State's evidence, in company with another villain, last week, placed pistols at the heads of two Chinese miners, on Sardine creek, Jackson county, and made them pledge to the tune of $140. They are said to have a yellow pack horse and are armed with Henry rifles and pistols.

A case of assassination occurred at Walla Walla, Sunday last. It appears Mr. P. Hawley, a highly respectable citizen of that place, was sitting in his house reading, when a young man named Foster, son of J. H. Foster, a carpenter, entered the house, and without warning, shot Mr. Hawley, the ball striking him in the head, killing him instantly. Foster was arrested and lodged in jail. He is said to have been out of his head for some time.

The Grant's Pass correspondent of the Ashland Tidings under date of May 15th, says: A man by the name of Joe Forest, who resides ten miles below here on Rogue River was shot and instantly killed yesterday morning by one of his neighbors who is known by the name of Dutch John. Forest had the reputation of being very quarrelsome and abusive with those who came in contact with him.

During the absence of the family, the residence of Mr. A. S. Gross, says the Standard, corner of Tenth and Taylor streets, was entered by burglars last Thursday, and about $600 worth of jewelry and old coins stolen. Included were two gold chains of rare design that had been in the family about 300 years, and attached to one of them was a large gold piece, the intrinsic value of which was $30. It was coined during the wars of the Crusades nearly 800 years ago, and would have been invaluable in the eyes of an antiquarian.

Chamberlain says: "Incompetent and unworthy officers have not been marked by any color lines," (in South Carolina), and that he does not think that the record of his own race is better than that of the negroes. That is a more honest confession than we would have expected from that source.

Belinquent Tax-Payers Take Notice. THIS IS TO NOTIFY ALL DELINQUENT TAX-PAYERS that on Thursday, the 11th day of June, 1877, I will commence collecting for ALL delinquent taxes, and will collect the same with per cent, and costs added.

CRUELTY.—If there is a society for the prevention of cruelty to children and imbeciles at Seattle, we would respectfully suggest that they pay their respects to Tom Merry for his cruelty to poor, demented old Beriah Brown.

A NICE PAIR.—Packard and Beat Butler have gone into partnership in the bloody shirt business, and have commenced turning out "horrible outrages" in quantities sufficient to meet all demands.

The Oregon-City Enterprise says: "Northern Democrats are trying to convince each other that the Southern policy of the Administration will not cost them the loss of a vote." The Northern Democrats are already convinced of that fact, and it is now Northern Radicals who are trying to make each other believe that it will, but they don't believe "to speak of."

WAR NEWS.

London, May 23.—The following is from the Daily Telegraph: Batoum, Wednesday, P. M.—There was a tremendous cannonade to-day from the Russians. A battle has just commenced, and the firing is becoming general along the entire line. The Turkish batteries are replying vigorously. The utmost enthusiasm prevails among the Ottoman troops. The Bashi Bazouks are preparing for action. Everything indicates a desperate effort on the part of the enemy. It is stated that the Russian force assigned to the assault of Batoum has been strengthened by 20,000 men just from Ardahan. It is reported that the Grand Duke Michael commands the attack in person. The Turks are sanguine.

A Vienna dispatch reports that the Turkish troops which fled from Ardahan have been defeated in the mountain pass near Kars. The same correspondent states that notwithstanding the most complete preparations, the passage of the Danube is not expected before the 8th of June. The Czar will probably witness the operations at Ibrail or Tiuma.

Erzerum, May 23.—Tuesday night the Russians were moving rapidly forward in the direction of the Turkish left.

Erzerum, May 24.—The Russians are extending their left wing in a southerly direction. Detachments of Cossacks have been seen near Van Tacik. The Russians are reported to be within a few hours' march of it. Constant skirmishes occur. A Persian camp composed of 10,000 infantry and 2,000 cavalry is stated to have been formed at Celmas, near the Turco-Russian frontier with the object of defending Persian neutrality. A simultaneous attack upon the Russians is expected to be made to-morrow by Mukhtar Pasha and Sashin Pasha. The Grand Vizier and all ministers have brought their private horses to the Minister of War, in response to a requisition for the horses of all civil and military functionaries for the army.

The Coos Bay News compliments a high toned Radical paper thus: "A real nice 'Family Paper' is the Toledo Blade. It is graduated to suit all tastes. In each issue are two columns of Sunday School reading of the most edifying character while in another page lottery swindlers, quacks and impostures fairly luxuriate. Under the head of 'Medical' are certain advertisements, which ill-natured people might object to as being unfit for the eye of the young, and the fact that such notices would not be admitted to Harper's, the New York World or Times for any price, will, of course, have no weight with sensible people. Another pleasing feature of this paper is the long-editorials devoted to the puffing of insurance Companies, which is only equaled by that dazzling list of contributors who don't contribute."

"What Everybody Says Must Be True." The incontrovertible testimony offered by those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription induced the doctor to sell it under a positive guarantee. Many ladies have refrained from using it on account of a general feeling of prejudice against advertised medicines. Let me ask a question. Are you prejudiced against sewing machines because you have seen them advertised? Again, would you refuse to insure your house because the company advertised that it had paid millions in losses? Do such advertisements shake your confidence, and create prejudices? Then why refuse to credit the testimony of those who have found the Favorite Prescription to be all that is claimed for it in overcoming those ailments peculiar to your sex? Why submit to the use of harsh, and perhaps caustic treatment, thus aggravating your malady when relief is guaranteed, and a positive, perfect, and permanent cure has been effected in thousands of cases?

WARREN STATION, Ill., October 24, 1876. R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y. Dear Sir—Allow me to extend my most sincere thanks to you for the benefit my wife has received from the use of your Favorite Prescription. She suffered almost intolerably before using your medicine, and I had tried the skill of several physicians but to no purpose. Finally I thought I would give the Favorite Prescription a trial, and she is now sound and well. Very respectfully yours, D. A. HENY.
