CITY AND COUNTY.

Local Notes.

Finally.
Durant sells meat in chunk from 3 to 5 cents per pound. This is no pretention but a reality.

Mr. Antrim gave a public lecture last Saturday on the horse. He also gave a lecture to a private class upon the horse, his diseases, how to detect and distinguish them, what remedies and how to administer them, by what marks to accurately tell his age, right and wrong manner of shoeing, etc. He talked good, practical "horse sense" throughout, and we presume that there is not one of his class that would take ten times the amount that it cost for the knowledge gained.

The Portland Standard says: "Our valley papers all speak in the highest terms of the excellent buggies manufactured at Eugene City. This is what Oregon wants. Give us home manufactures and we shall hear no more of 'hard times.' That notice is worth more to the reputation of a town abroad towards attracting immigration and capital, than all the blowing of tamper agents that could be crowded into a decade. The compliment is well deserved, and the buggies built in Eugene by Mr. Espey are far superior in workmanship and finish to any eastern built buggies we have seen."

WILL START.—The sawmill of Abrams Bros. will commence sawing again next Monday.

DAMAGED.—We learn that the rains this week have caused considerable damage by causing fall wheat to lodge.

FOUND.—A fir cape. The owner can obtain the same by calling at this office, describing property and paying for this notice.

SERVICES CHANGED.—The services at the M. E. Church on next Sabbath will be at 8 o'clock P. M. and not at 11 A. M. as usual.

PERSONAL.—E. E. Wheeler, formerly traveling for Remington's paper warehouse in San Francisco, but now for Dooley, the yeast powder man, gave us a call on Wednesday.

LOOKS WELL.—during the past week the firemen had the seats removed from the Court House, and the floor scrubbed, and when decorated will present a magnificent appearance.

ALLEGHIANS.—This unrivaled troupe gave an entertainment at Lane's Hall on Monday evening, and we are not guilty of flattery when we say that their performance has never been excelled in this city.

SWEETNESS.—On the Fourth, Billy Moore and Frank Neff will dish up hot candy in ropes, strings, sticks, rolls, balls, wads or gobs, just to suit the fancy of their customers. Old vinegar-faces, come up and get sweetened.

DAIRY.—John Lenger moved his dairy to town to-day, corner of Eleventh and High streets, and, as heretofore, will furnish customers with fresh dairy products at their homes. No water in John's milk nor land in his butter, you bet.

NEW ENTERPRISE.—Rosenblatt & Co. shipped, this week, a large lot of eggs direct to San Francisco. Mr. Bettman informs us that he is paying as much, or more, in cash, for eggs, than others are paying in trade. That's the place to sell.

ON THE RAIL.—"Rev." W. H. Watkins, ex-Superintendent of the Penitentiary, passed down on the train yesterday. He has been on a mission to San Francisco and is on his return. Geo. A. Steele, Postal Agent, also passed down yesterday.

ACCIDENT.—Last Friday two men living on Camp Creek, named Clark and Johnson, were examining a pistol, the pistol which was in the hands of Johnson, was accidentally discharged, the ball striking Clark in the breast. The wound, we learn, was severe but not necessarily fatal.

LOOK HERE!—S. Steinheiser is receiving every day fresh vegetables of every variety brought to this market. Also all kinds of fruits in season, including apples, peaches, pears, apricots, plums, nectarines, bananas, etc., also a full and complete stock of groceries and provisions, warranted pure, fresh and of the best quality, and sold at prices that defy competition. Go and see him, and you'll say so, too.

MARKET.—Wool has been coming in freely until the rains commenced this week. Prices range from 25 to 27 cents per pound. We note the following shipments since the season commenced: S. H. Friendly, 25,000 lbs.; T. G. Hendricks, 8,000 lbs.; A. Goldsmith, 8,000 lbs.; Peters & Co., 6,000 lbs.; Lane County Mercantile Association, 22,300. There is a considerable quantity yet remaining in hands of merchants, ready for shipment, with large lots yet to come in. In consequence of the drought in California farmers are pushing all their stock fit for butcher's use into market, and the consequent depression in prices of butcher's meats has materially affected the demand for, and prices of cured meats. No. 1 sugar cured hams are thrown on the market in San Francisco at 12 1/2 cents per lb., and there is no demand for bacon here for shipment. Prices here are, hams 12c, sides 10c, shoulders 8c. Butter 20 and eggs 15 cents in trade. We learn that some farmers who shipped their wool, realized less for it than those did who sold to merchants here.

Robinson & Church at the Hardware Store keep the largest and best selected stock of wall paper and border in Eugene City, comprising in part, Brown, Blanks, Satin, Gilt and Embossed paper, which they purchase direct from the Eastern factories and will sell as cheap as the cheapest. All paper trimmed off of charge.

No News.—We have no news from the Indian war of any importance since our last issue. The Indians have retreated across Salmon river and are entrenched in a strong position in the mountains. The Lewiston Teller says that in the fight with Capt. Perry's force the Indians had only 70 men. They took 25 guns from dead soldiers and those who had thrown them away. Only four Indians were wounded, one of them mortally. In the fight much of the stock they had stolen from the settlers on the prairie scattered and ran back. This information comes from Indians who were held as prisoners in Joseph's camp, but made their escape.

WE'VE FOUND HIM.—His name is Frank Noel. He's the most robust, able-bodied, unscrupulous liar in the State. He wrote a letter back home from Salem, from which we think our readers will coincide in our charitable estimate of the fellow's veracity. He says, "The only thing the farmers raise to get money out of is wheat, and some little wool, but of a very poor quality—10 and 20 cents per pound, 2 and 3 pounds to the sheep." Again, "Can buy brush land for 7 to 10 dollars per acre, and cost $30 to $40 to get it ready for cultivation. Again, "They raise no corn at all, and only what oats they need for their own use." But the fellow told one truth. He says, "Some people here are the blindest liars you ever saw. We got acquainted with one." No doubt but he has just got acquainted with himself since he came to Oregon, and we coincide in his opinion of that gentleman's character for truthfulness. He winds up thus: "Address Daniel Newsome, Salem, Oregon. Don't mention our names, but say you see his name in some Oregon paper sent you." True to his instincts to the last, he puts a lie into the mouth of the friend to whom he sent his correspondence. It is not surprising that he should wish to conceal his identity.

Remainder uncollected in the Post Office at Eugene City, Or., June 30, 1877.
